

Contents

Foreword xiii

Preface xv

Acknowledgments xvii

PART 1: AUDIENCE-FOCUSED PREPARATION

1 Knowing Your Audience and Purpose 3

How To Care About the Audience from the Start 5

Playing “Twenty Questions” with Your Audience 6

 The Importance of Being Specific in Your Questions 8

 Asking the Tough Questions — If Necessary, with Help 9

 Example 1-1: Audience and Purpose Analysis 10

 Example 1-2: Audience and Purpose Analysis 13

Exercises 16

2 A Universal Presentation Structure 23

The Basis for the Universal Presentation Structure 23

 The Need for Simple, Linear Order 23

 The Need for Well-Spaced Repetition 24

 The Need to Adapt to the Audience's Natural Attention Curve 24

Discussion 25

3 The RAMP Formula for Effective Introductions 27

The Four Functions of the Introduction 27

The Rapport Builder 28

 Title Slides vs. Rapport Builders 29

 Some Turn-Offs 29

Effective Attention Getters 30

 Four Important Reasons for an Attention Getter 31

 Delaying the Attention Getter 32

 Example of Problem or Benefit 32

 Anecdote 33

 Quote 34

 Question 35

 Visual 35

 Statistics 37

 Analogy 37

 Demo Object 38

 Demonstration Event 38

 How About Jokes as Ice-Breakers? 39

The Main Message 39

The Plan 40

Overcoming Common Obstacles to a Strong Start 42

 Obstacle #1: Fear of Being Different 42

 Obstacle #2: Fear of Commitment 43

 Obstacle #3: Fear of Appearing Biased or Unscientific 43

 Obstacle #4: Fear of Losing Suspense 44

 Obstacle #5: The “I Have No Message, Only Information” Fallacy 45

Exercises and Discussion 48

- 4 The Body 51
Making It Easy To Follow 51
 A Simple, Linear Structure 51
 Helpful Repetition 52
 No Unnecessary or Overly Complex Details 52
Keeping It Varied 53
Using the Power of Examples 55
 Why Do People Avoid Using Examples? 57
Example 4-3: Poorly Structured Presentation 57
Example 4-4: More Effective Presentation Approach and Structure 59
Exercises and Discussion 63
- 5 The Summary 65
How To Summarize 65
A Cardinal Error: Outstaying Your Welcome 67
Exercises and Discussion 68
- 6 Preparing Effective Visuals 69
Being Selective: Know Your Purpose 69
Choosing the Right Chart Type 70
Making Text and Images Big and Bold (The 18-Point Rule) 72
Keeping It Simple and Easy To Process (The Three-Second Rule) 73
 Some Simple Ways To Make Visuals Easier To Process 74
 The Limits of Direct Labeling 78
 Word Charts and the Three-Second Rule 79
Making Key Ideas Memorable Through Graphics 81
 Why Create Memorable Visuals? 81
 Using Symbolic Images As a Layout Element 82
 Using Graphics for (Tasteful and Gentle) Humorous Effect 84
 How To Produce Memorable Visuals 84
 A Caveat 87
Using Color to Advantage 87
 A Balanced Palette: How Your Software Can Help 88
 The Color Wheel 88
 Common Color Schemes Based on the Color Wheel 89
 Psychology of Colors 91
Exercises 92
- 7 Notes, Rehearsing, and Handouts 97
Preparing Notes and Rehearsing 97
 Right and Wrong Notes 97
 Practicing From Your Notes 98
 Weaning Yourself From Your Notes 99
 Answers to Some Common Questions About Notes 99
Being Prepared for Trouble 101
 Problems with Equipment or Facilities 101
 Problems with Time or Audience Resistance 103
Preparing Handouts 103
Exercise and Discussion 104

PART 2: PERSUASIVE DELIVERY

- 8 The Magic of Connection 109*
The Triangle of Power: Real You, Real Audience, Real Purpose 109
Four Aspects of Audience Connection 110
- 9 The Winning Attitude 113*
The Starting Point: A Caring Attitude 113
 Check Your Preparation 113
 Check the Setup 114
 Learn To Love Any Audience 115
The Power of a Smile
Beating Stage Fright 115
Exercises 118
- 10 Connecting Through Body Talk 121*
Getting Past the "Terror Line" Into Comfortable Contact Zone 121
Keeping in Touch Through Motivated Movement 123
Energy—The Language of Success 123
 Finding Your Base: The Athletic Stance 123
 Focusing Energy in Your Upper Body 126
Developing Natural, Useful Gestures 128
 1. Common Action Verbs 131
 2. Other Common Words and Phrases 132
 3. Abstract Ideas Made Concrete 133
Understanding and Controlling Body Language 135

Exercises 135
- 11 Connecting Through Voice and Language 139*
The Basics: Be Heard and Understood 139
Improving Your Articulation 139
The Right Speed 143
Emotions and Voice 142
 A Simple Exercise To Improve Your Expressiveness 143
 The Heavy Price of Shunning Emotions 144
 Controlling Your Pitch 145
Using Language That Reaches People 145
 Word Choice and Your Listeners' Learning Styles 147
Overcoming Distracting Verbal Habits 147
 Getting Rid of "Uhm," "You Know," and Other Verbal Crutches 147
Exercises 149
- 12 Staying in Touch Through Eye Contact 151*
The Art of Conversing with Your Eyes 151
Eye Contact and Fear 152
How To Achieve Strong Eye Contact 153
Exercise and Discussion 155

- 13 Handling Notes 157
Park or Carry? 157
Recovering From an Omission 158
Exercise 159
- 14 Handling Visuals 161
Reviewing Your Preparation and Setup 161
Keeping in Touch with Your Audience 167
Avoiding Distractions 170
 Pointer Fiddling 170
 Moving Shadows 170
 Demo Objects or Samples 170
Special Issues with Overhead Projectors 171
 The Keystone Effect 171
 Transparencies Sliding Around or Falling Off 173
 Transparencies Curling and Floating Off the Projector 173
Exercises and Discussion 174
- 15 Handling Questions 175
Reducing Surprises Through Preparation 175
Deciding When To Take Questions 176
Setting and Using Q&A Rules 176
Basic Question-Handling Skills 177
 Controlling Your Body Language While Dealing with Questions 178
 Your Key Skill: "Simple Answer First" 179
 What To Do When You Don't Know the Answer 181
 Handling Multiple Questions 182
 Handling Complex Questions 183
 Postponing Questions 183
 Diverting Off-Track Questions 184
 Stopping People From Monopolizing the Discussion 184
 Closing the Session with Style and Focus 185
Handling Hostile Questions 185
 Problem #1: The Unsettling Effect of a Surprise Attack 186
 Problem #2: The Lingering Effect of the Caustic Question or Remark 186
 Problem #3: The Tendency for the Attack To Continue 187
Exercises 188
- 16 Dealing with Unpleasant Surprises 195
Equipment Troubles 195
The "Shrinking Time" Problem 196
Bored or Turned-Off Audience 196
Sleepers 198
Side Shows 198
Impromptu Presentations 199
 Prepared "Impromptu" Speeches 199
 Dealing with True Surprises 199
Exercises 201

- 17 Moderating a Conference Session 203
 Common Complaints About Conference Sessions 203
 Learning Your ABC — or PQR 204
 The Power of Early Preparation 204
 Motivating Speakers To Prepare Well and Early 205
 Getting a Head Start on Your Own Contributions 205
 Laying the Groundwork for Interesting Questions 206
 On the Scene: Making Your Contract with the Speakers 207
 Getting Off to a Strong Start 207
 Keeping the Session Lively But Under Control 208
 Closing the Session in Style 209
 The Art of Stimulating Discussion Through Good Questions 210
 Using Focused Questions 210
 Specific Use of Focused Questions in Panel Discussions 211
 Controlling Uncivilized or Otherwise Out-of-Line Questions 211
 Exercises 212

PART 3: MAKING THE MOST OF PRESENTATION TECHNOLOGY

- 18 Making the Transition to Electronic Slide Shows 219
 Scenario 1: Gone with the Wind II 219
 Scenario 2: Hot Under the Collar 220
 Is It Worth Getting Involved? 222
 A Painless Migration Path via Color Transparencies 222
 Incorporating Color Photographs 223
 Moving to Electronic Slide Shows 224
 Typical Equipment 225
 Audio and Video Integration 225
- 19 Using Presentation Software Intelligently 227
 Making Visuals Easy To See and Understand 227
 Achieving Consistency and Balance Through Slide Masters 233
 Using Content Templates 234
 Using and Customizing Electronic Clip Art 236
 Preparing Slide Shows 239
 The Triple Challenge 239
 Transitions 240
 Text Animation, or Build-Up Slides 241
 Animating Graphics 242
 Hidden Slides 243
 Optional Branches to Embedded Presentations 244
 Black Slides 245
 Embedding Video, Sound, and Other Applications in Your Show 245
- Exercises 246

20	Practicing and Delivering Slide Shows	255
	The Radical Approach to Practicing	255
	A Sample Practice Session Without Projector	257
	Practicing Setup	257
	Practicing Troubleshooting Image and Sound Problems	259
	Practicing Slide Show Control	262
	Practicing with a Projector	267
	Delivering Your Electronic Presentation	267
	Basic Setup	267
	Projector Setup	269
	Troubleshooting	269
	Issues with Remote Controls	271
	Show Time!	272
	Exercise and Discussion	273
21	Web Presentations and Web Meetings	275
	What Is an E-Meeting?	275
	Why Meet This Way?	276
	Getting Started	276
	Presentations, the Web, and Multimedia	276
	Visiting the Web During a Presentation	277
	Saving a Presentation for Web Delivery	277
	Adding Animation, Transitions, and Video or Audio Clips	277
	Narrated Presentations	279
	Exercises	280
	Appendix A	Sample Annotated Presentation Structure	285
	Appendix B	Procedure and Worksheet for Analyzing Audience and Purpose	287
	Appendix C	General Presentation Outline Form	291
	Appendix D	Specific Outlines for Common Presentation Types	293
	Appendix E	Checklist for Presentations	305
	Solutions to Exercises	307
	Index	333	