CHAPTER 5
How to Get People to Raise Their Hands 141

Myth Number One: "It's All about Traffic" 141

Myth Number Two: "It's All about Targeted Traffic" 143

Myth Number Three: "I'm Waiting for the Game Changer" 144

Myth Number Four: "It's All about Cost Per Lead" 147

- Principle One: The True Measure of a Lead-Generation Technique Is Not Cost per Lead but Instead Return on Investment 147
- Principle Two: Lead Sources Have a Half-Life Just Like Uranium 148
- Principle Three: There Is No One Single "Best" Lead Source for Everyone 148
- Principle Four: Don't Pursue Prospects—Attract Them 149
- Principle Five: Give Before You Get 150

The Moving Parts of a Lead-Generation Effort 151

Step One: Deliver Valuable Information to a Highly Targeted Audience 151

Step Two: Direct Them to a Specific Page 151

Step Three: Reinforce that They're in the Right Place 153

Step Four: Reinforce Their Decision to Visit Your Site by Giving Them Even More Information 154

Step Five: Explain There's Even More Where that Came From 154

Step Six: When They Submit Their Contact Information, Instantly Have It Go into Your Database and Redirect Them to a Welcome Page 156

CHAPTER 6

How to Turn Prospects into Buyers 185

Mistake Number One: Ineffective Marketers Confuse Attention with Shouting 185

Mistake Number Two: Ineffective Marketers Boost Their Claims out of All Proportion 187

Mistake Number Three: With Ineffective Marketers, It's All about Them and Not about the Customer 189

Mistake Number Four: Ineffective Marketers Ask You to Buy Too Soon 191

Mistake Number Five: Ineffective Marketers Do Not Include a Call to Action and a Deadline 192

Mistake Number Six: Ineffective Marketers Further Erode Trust by Creating Fake Deadlines 192

Mistake Number Seven: Ineffective Marketers Speak to Audiences, Not to Individuals 193

The Eight Money Questions: Answer These and Your Product Will Sell 195

Money Question One: "Why Should I Stop and Listen to You?" 195

Money Question Two: "Why Should I Read the Whole Thing?" 197

Money Question Three: "What Else Do You Have and How Will It Help Me?" 199

Money Question Four: "Why Is Your Solution Better than Any Other?" 201

Money Question Five: "Why Should I Believe Your Claims?" 201

Money Question Six: "What's It Going to Cost Me?" 205

Money Question Seven: "What's My Risk?" 209

Money Question Eight: "What Happens After You Have My Money?" 212
