

Contents

Preface	ix
About the Authors	xiii
Acknowledgements	xv
1 The Public and Private Sectors	1
The nature of partnership	1
The public sector	2
The state and private sector power	5
Centralisation of power by government	14
Power relationships with central area redevelopment	15
The state and the private sector – the ‘hollowed out’ state	18
The state, globalisation and the corporations	19
Government policy	22
Development of government policy	24
Exercise of state power	28
Government and private companies	31
References	32
2 The Property Development Process	35
Introduction	35
The property market	36
The supply of urban built space	42
Finance and the development process	44
Life cycles in buildings and their property development implications	46
Public policy choices in the property market	49
References	52
3 Partnership Negotiations Using Property Development Appraisal Techniques	53
The development decision	53
Partnerships between public and private interests	54

	Assessing options	58
	Sensitivity analysis	59
	Key inputs in negotiations	62
	References	64
4	The Private Finance Initiative	66
	History of the private finance initiative	66
	The PFI process	68
	Justification for PFI	69
	Financing of PFI projects	72
	Value for money and procurement in PFI projects	74
	Risk and value for money	75
	Policy responses	77
	Design of PFI facilities	83
	Project changes	86
	Public sector ethos	87
	Comparative case study	88
	The PFI project	88
	Progress with PFI project	88
	The case study project	91
	Comparison with PFI procedures	92
	Cost time and performance	93
	Comparison with PFI project	95
	Conclusion	98
	CAPRICODE summary	99
	References	101
5	Public–Private Partnerships in the Urban Development
	Experience of Dublin	104
	Background	104
	Engaging in public–private partnerships: from urban regeneration to PPP	107
	Evolving public–private inputs in urban renewal in Dublin	109
	The emerging role of public–private partnerships in 2008/2009	129
	References	141
	Website sources accessed 2007/2008	142
	DOE Urban renewal Legislation	142
6	Property Funding Partnerships	143
	Introduction	143
	Debt or equity?	144
	Lender’s risk avoidance ratios	145
	Corporate finance	148
	Rights issues	148
	Categories of project finance	149
	Sale and leaseback	150
	Rent-sharing leases	151

Side-by-side leaseback	153
Reverse sale and leaseback	154
Documentation for profit sharing leases	155
Rent-sharing leases—terms, risks and responsibilities	155
Letting policy	156
Capitalised sale and leasebacks	158
Profit erosion with priority yield	159
Timing	164
Funding structure	164
Return and yield	165
Mortgages and debentures	166
Profit sharing mortgages	168
Default by mortgagor	169
Forward sale or forward commitment	171
Debt structure	172
Interest rate hedging techniques	173
Other corporate lending	174
Other investment vehicles	174
The charge to interest	175
Profit erosion with priority yield documentation	176
Management reality and conflict of objectives	180
References	180
7 Development Partnerships and Landowners	182
Methods of site purchase	182
Options	183
Conditional contracts	183
Overage and clawback	184
Partnerships with local authorities	184
Process	185
The development brief	187
Content	188
The disposal documents	189
Refurbishment	203
Project A	208
Contracts and documents	209
Overage/lease and leaseback	212
Equalisation agreements	214
Types of agreement	215
Deals with landowners	216
Crystallising Section 106 costs	218
Joint ventures	219
Structures	220
Management of the joint venture company	220
Step in rights and joint venture termination	221
Example of joint venture with syndicated funding package	222
References	224

8	International Trends in Public–Private Partnerships	225
	Evolving PPP programmes internationally	225
	Use of PPP internationally	228
	Accountability issues	232
	Political accountability	233
	National and international accountability	235
	Guidance on setting up institutionalised public–private partnerships	236
	Risk transfer	236
	References	238
	Websites accessed 2007/2008	239
9	Economic Background and Future Trends	240
	References	246
	Index	247

<http://www.pbookshop.com>