

Contents

Foreword by Theo Paphitis	ix
Introduction: Been there, done that, DOING IT NOW	xi
1. The smartest businesses will start this decade	1
1.1 New world order: All the rules have changed	2
1.2 It's never been easier to get ahead	7
1.3 Age of the individual	11
1.4 Social media = business	15
1.5 Why big really isn't always better	19
2. What smart businesses do	23
2.1 Become the exception by being exceptional	24
2.2 Stay ultra-lightweight and flexible	29
2.3 Put social media at the heart of everything	34
2.4 Tell stories people want to hear	40
2.5 Collaborate with other smart companies	46
2.6 Worship the ground customers walk on	51
2.7 Keep bottom-line a top priority	56
2.8 Open in the right place, at the right time	61
2.9 Make a big deal of the small things	66
2.10 Keep it real and honest	71
3. What smart people do	77
3.1 Realise there's only one Theo Paphitis	78
3.2 Temper optimism with realism	83
3.3 Stop making excuses and DO IT!	87
3.4 Build meaningful relationships	93
3.5 Work hard, be nice	97
3.6 Take calculated risks	102
3.7 Kill negativity, nurture creativity	106
3.8 Ditch the TV	111
3.9 Make success personal	115
3.10 Ask for help	119

3.11	Work on the business, not in it	123
3.12	Understand what people want	128
4.	How to build a smart business	135
4.1	Know what you're doing and why you're doing it	136
4.2	Remember ideas are cheap	141
4.3	ID your business – make people care	147
4.4	Know your customer inside-out	152
4.5	Test, develop, test, develop, test ...	158
4.6	Make sure the numbers add up	163
4.7	Don't assume it, prove it	170
4.8	Write a business plan	175
4.9	Realise you need cash – but you don't need to roll in it	181
4.10	Keep your friends and family	186
4.11	Let the bank say 'yes' (they want to)	191
4.12	Look for a guardian angel (if you're sure that you need one)	197
5.	Work smart	203
5.1	Focus on scary but attainable goals	204
5.2	Don't let cashflow kill you	209
5.3	Drive profitability and productivity	216
5.4	Relish the quick win	221
5.5	Negotiate on a paperclip	226
5.6	Embrace weaknesses	231
5.7	Partner up to power on	236
5.8	Deliver knock-out sales pitches	240
5.9	Tweet your way to the big-time	246
5.10	Don't buy advertising	254
5.11	Work your website harder	260
6.	Be smart	267
6.1	Only do what you do best	268
6.2	Don't be a rock	274
6.3	Build an A-team	279
6.4	Share the vision, share the wealth	285
6.5	Lead from the front	289
6.6	DO sweat the small stuff	294
6.7	Network your ass off	298
6.8	Brand yourself	303
6.9	Trust your instinct	308
	About Smarta.com	312
	Smarta Sponsors	315
	Acknowledgements	317
	Index	319