

Contents

Foreword	xxi
Introduction	xxv
Chapter 1
Prospecting for Major Gifts Pamela Gignac and Ken Wyman	1
Introduction	1
Prospect Research: Background and Key Elements	2
History of Prospect Research	2
Definitions	2
The Role of Prospect Research	3
Case Study: The Campaign for the University of Toronto	4
Small Shop or Large Campaign: Anyone Can Do Research	5
Prospect Researchers and Fundraisers Together	6
What Makes a Good Researcher?	6
Fundraisers Are Researchers and Researchers Are Fundraisers	6
Researchers and Fundraisers Together Creating
Strategic Partnerships	6
Big Gifts and Major Gifts	8
How Big Is a “Big” Gift?	8
Annual versus Major Donor	8
Integrating Major Gifts Fundraising	8
Prospecting	10
What Is a Prospect?	10
10 Steps that Lead to Prospecting Success	10
Research Techniques and Information Sources	11
Key Words Can Help You Focus	11
Seeking Answers to Questions	12
Information Sources	13
Six Degrees of Donor Development (Relationship
Management and Spheres of Influence)	14
Calling to Find Out More	15
Prospecting Lists	17
Prospect Qualification	17
Where Do We Go from Here?	18
Conclusion	18

Chapter 2
Knowledge Management, Data Mining, and Prospect Screening
Jeff Gignac and Chris Carnie		20
Introduction		20
Definitions		21
Knowledge Management		21
The Holistic Approach		21
The Model		22
Building a Prospect Pipeline		26
Becoming a Knowledge Manager		27
Introduction to Data Mining and Prospect Screening		28
What Is Data Mining?		28
Data Mining Results		28
Data Mining or Prospect Screening?		29
Tracking Prospects		30
Really Simple Syndication		30
What Is XML?		30
How to Get Started with RSS		31
How Can Nonprofits Benefit from This?		32
Conclusion		34
Chapter 3
Why Bill Gates May Not Be Your Best Prospect
Peter B. Wylie and David M. Lawson		37
Three Important Concepts: Ability, Attachment, and Affinity		38
Ability		38
Volatility: The When of Asking		38
The Prospect's Sense of Wealth		39
Type of Wealth		39
Attachment		40
Affinity		41
How to Generate a List of High-Quality Prospects for Your Campaign		46
Isolating High-Ability Prospects		47
Isolating Prospects with High Attachment		47
Isolating Prospects with High Affinity		47
Isolating a Group of Prospects Who Belong to All Three Groups		47
Chapter 4
Prospect Research Policy, Privacy, and Ethics	Stephen Lee and
Susan Mullin		51
Policy, Ethics, and Prospect Research		51
The Role of Prospect Research		51
The Standing of Prospect Research in the Contemporary Context		52

Ethical and Professional Practice Considerations	52
An Imbalance of Power	52
Key Components of a Prospect Research Code of Practice	53
Major Donor Fundraising Code of Practice Including
Prospect Research	54
Poor Compliance Equals Lost Donors	56
The Challenge of Data Protection Legislation	56
Data Protection Regulation: The European Approach	57
Implementation of the EC Data Protection Directive	57
European Data Protection Legislation: Key Requirements
Impacting upon Prospect Research	57
Notification and Registration	58
Conformity with Data Protection Principles	58
Consent	60
The Practical Achievement of Consent	61
Personal Information Acquired from Third Parties	62
Retaining Personal Data and Archiving Personal Information	63
Personal Information Acquired via the Internet	63
Publishing (Posting) Major Donor Personal Information
on the Internet	64
Personal Data Capture Undertaken within the EC
by Organizations Located Outside the EC	64
Data Protection Regulation: The North American Approach	65
The View in the United States	65
The View in Canada	66
The CSA Model Code: Privacy Principles	67
Applying Privacy Principles to Prospect Research	67
Information in the Public Domain	68
Assuring Compliance with Regulation and Best Practice	69
The Role of Professional Associations and Intermediary Bodies	69

Chapter 5

U.S. and Canadian Strategies Pamela Gignac and Kristina Carlson 71

A Tale of Perspectives	71
It's a Small World	71
Strategies for Research and Approach	72
Prospect Research Strategies	72
Using Research to Develop Approach Strategies	73
The Approach Strategy	74
Sources	77
When to Use International Sources	77
Case Study: Researching a Major Donor	80
From Florida	80
From Canada	81
The British Angle	83
Privacy	84
Trends	84

Chapter 6
International Strategies—Europe and Asia
Chris Carnie and Sarah Boodleman Tenney		85
Introduction		85
Europe		85
History		85
Getting the Basics Right		87
Companies: Types		89
Foundations: Types		90
Finding European Prospects		91
Foundations		91
People		92
Corporate Information		92
Getting Over the Barriers		93
Europe: A Valued Friend		94
As For Asia		94
Defining Asia		94
Global Trends Impact Major Donor Prospecting		95
Getting the Basics Right		96
Philanthropic Culture		97
Getting into Depth with Prospects		99
Specific Things to Know		99
Know a Method to Initiate		99
Know the Traditional Industries		100
Know the Families: It's Business		100
Know the Women		100
Getting Over Barriers		101
Other Places to Look for Information		101
Conclusion		102
Chapter 7
Your Web Site—What Does It Say to Major Donors?	Howard Lake	103
Introduction		103
The Trend Continues		103
The Personal Approach		104
Giving in the United Kingdom		105
Few Major Gifts Made Online		106
Needs and Concerns of Major Donors		107
Attracting Donors		107
Key Elements of Major Gift Fundraising Online		109
Chapter 8
An Internet Strategy for Major Donor Fundraising	Anthony Powell	111
Introduction		111
The Rise of ePhilanthropy		111
Understanding the Fundamentals of Major Giving		113
What Is a Major Gift?		114

Collecting Information and Learning More about Prospects	114
Overflow of Information	115
Three Major Gift Indicators	116
Following the Footprints in the Sand	118
Sharing Information and Building Relationships	120
How to Leverage Information to Drive Fundraising Results	121
An Integrated Strategy	122
Interactions and Web Activities	122
Reports and Analysis	123
Strategic Business Decisions	123
Coordinated Constituent-Centric Communication™	124
Automating Manual Processes	124
Conclusion	126

Chapter 9

Using Gathered Information Effectively within Your Staff and Volunteer Teams Nancy Johnson and Pamela Gignac 128

Introduction	128
Fundraising and Prospect Research Cycle	128
Personal Intelligence Gathering (PIG)	130
Prospect Screening and Review	131
Prospect Session Agenda	132
Prospect Lists	133
Contact Reports	134
The Importance of Information Relevant to Campaign Goals	135
Overall Benefits of Research	136
Tools That Can Do the Trick	136
A Word about the Internet	137
Can Using an Intranet Be an Effective and Efficient Tool?	137
Capturing Information	138
Other Ways to Keep Team Members Updated	138
Lessons Learned Using Screening Companies in the United States	139
Geographic Matches	140
What's in a Name?	140
Share Your Findings with Others	140
What to Watch Out For	141
Overall Pitfalls of Research	141
Conclusion	142

Chapter 10

Moving from Prospect Identification to Making Friends for Life Andrew Thomas and Ken Burnett 143

Panning for Gold	143
Moving from Desk Research to Solicitation	146
Prospecting	147
Enlistment	150
Making New Friends	152

Cultivation	154
Are You Ready to Ask?	156
Stewardship: Turning Donors into Friends for Life	157
Chapter 11
Results Analysis and Performance Measurements James M. Greenfield	159
Fundraising Is an Investment Strategy	159
Setting Objectives and Goals	160
Evaluating Prospect Research	161
Criteria for Results	162
Research Staff Qualifications and Skills Set	163
Areas of Responsibility in Data Management	165
Creating and Utilizing Research Data	166
Research Management	167
Evaluating Research Used in Major Gifts and Campaigns	169
Prospect Review Meetings	169
Rating and Evaluation Sessions	170
Tracking	172
Evaluating Donor Stewardship and Recognition	173
Stewardship of Donor Funds	174
Conclusion	175
Additional Resources	175
Chapter 12
Challenges for Tomorrow Chris Carnie	177
Introduction	177
Major Donors: Major Change	177
Money, and More of It	177
New Causes	179
New Donor Concerns	181
New Donor Societies	181
New Techniques	182
Prospect Research: The Next Revolution	183
The Old Days	183
Profiling, Fast	184
Profiling, Outsourced	184
Modeling	184
Knowledge	185
Prospect Luddites?	186
APPENDIX A The CSA Model Code for the Protection of Personal Information	187
APPENDIX B Data Mining and Prospect Screening Checklist	189
APPENDIX C Checklist for a Development Strategy	191

APPENDIX D Sample Contact Forms	193
APPENDIX E ePhilanthropy Code of Ethical Online Philanthropic Practices	197
APPENDIX F Potential Planning Measurements for Results	200
APPENDIX G Sample Job Description Text	203
APPENDIX H Data Grid for Estimating Giving Capacity	205
APPENDIX I Activity Reports	206
APPENDIX J Sample Contact Report	207
APPENDIX K Performance Criteria for Major Gift Staff	208
APPENDIX L Nine-Point Performance Index Analysis of Major Gift Solicitation	209
APPENDIX M Checklist for Major Gift Acknowledgment	210
APPENDIX N Prospect Research Online	211
APPENDIX O Donor Development and Prospect Research Recommended Additional Readings	221
Index	225

<http://www.pbookshop.com>