

Contents

Preface		xiii
Acknowledgments		xix
CHAPTER 1	Conflicts: Causes, Prevention, and Controlling Counterfeiting	1
	In-House Enforcement Strategies on the Internet	2
	Partnering with Outside Legal Counsel	6
	Conclusion	11
	Notes	12
CHAPTER 2	Electronic Discovery in Intellectual Property Cases	15
	Electronic Discovery Process	16
	Conclusion	31
	Notes	31
CHAPTER 3	Controlling Patenting Costs	37
	Defining the Objective	37
	Deciding Where to File	39
	Delaying Costs	42
	Alternative Means of Protection	42
	Proper Preparation	45
	Logistics of Filing	47
	PCT Formality Advantages	49
	Avoiding Duplication of Effort	50
	Prosecution Issues	51
	Particular Issues in the United States	52
	Particular Issues in the EPO	53
	Particular Issues in Japan	54
	Pruning the Portfolio	54
	Licenses of Right	54
	Conclusion	56
	Notes	56

CHAPTER 4	Trademark Costs: Trimming the Sails in Rough Economic Waters	61
	Evaluating and Organizing a Trademark Portfolio	63
	Selecting and Clearing a New Trademark	66
	Filing and Pursuing Trademark Registrations	71
	Using and Enforcing Trademark Rights	79
	Conclusion	80
	Notes	80
CHAPTER 5	Domain Names	85
	An Overview of the Internet	85
	Domain Names	86
	Conclusion	98
	Notes	99
CHAPTER 6	Creating, Perfecting, and Enforcing Security Interests in Intellectual Property	103
	U.S. Securitization of Intellectual Property	104
	Perfection of Security Interests in Trademarks in the United States	107
	Perfection of Security Interests in Patents in the United States	109
	Perfection of Security Interests in U.S. Copyrights	110
	Perfection of Security Interests in Domain Names	112
	Attempts to Harmonize Perfection Laws in the United States as It Relates to Intellectual Property	112
	Default	113
	International Creation and Perfection of Security Interests	114
	Conclusion	116
	Notes	117
CHAPTER 7	Strategic and Legal View of Licensing Patents	121
	Nomenclature	122
	State of the Law	124
	Basic Principles for Licensing	125
	How Does One Go About Licensing Out Patents, and What Are Some Strategic Considerations?	127
	Some Legal Considerations for a Patent Licensor	132
	Strategic and Legal Considerations for a Patent Licensee	133
	Royalty Audits	133
	Conclusion	134
	Notes	136
CHAPTER 8	Monetizing IP Rights: Licensing In and Out	139
	Grant of Rights	140
	Key Defined Terms	141

	Quality Control	143
	Term and Termination	144
	Confidentiality	146
	Managing Costs: Insurance, Indemnifications, Reps, and Warranties	147
	Conclusion	148
	Notes	148
CHAPTER 9	Working with Government	151
	The Big Picture	152
	Commercial or Noncommercial	154
	Commercial Item	154
	Changes to COTS Using Government Funding	154
	Noncommercial Item	155
	Noncommercial Item Development	156
	Noncommercial Item Development Funding	157
	Noncommercial Item License Rights to the Government	157
	Noncommercial Item Doctrine of Segregability	158
	Noncommercial Item Assertions Table	159
	Marking	160
	Deferred Ordering	160
	Beware the Prototype	161
	Inventions and Patents in Noncommercial Contract Effort	161
	Noncommercial Item Effort Impact	162
	Private Funding and Government Funding	163
	Reuse Prohibitions	163
	Treatment of Subcontractors	164
	Outsourcing of Government Work	164
	IP Owner's Rights Relative to Government Activity	165
	Conclusion	165
	Notes	165
CHAPTER 10	Valuation, Monetization, and Disposition in Bankruptcy	169
	IP and the Bankruptcy Context	169
	Quality, Hierarchy, and Value	171
	The Valuation Process	172
	Value Extraction: Monetization and Disposition	176
	Lessons: Due Diligence and Marketing	178
	IP Monetization in the 21st Century	179
	Conclusion	180
	Notes	180
CHAPTER 11	Outsourcing of Branding and Marketing	183
	Brand Naming Project Dynamics	184
	Brand Naming Compared to Reference Naming	185

The Descriptive Brand Name Problem	186
The Unique Brand Name Value	187
A Memorable Brand Name?	187
Common Misguided Brand Name Criteria	188
Six Criteria for Effective Brand Names	189
The Supporting Role of a Descriptive Phrase	191
The Graphic Realization of a Brand Name	192
The Value of Graphic Realizations	193
Comparing “Logotypes” and “Mark Plus Logotypes” for Brand Development Powers	194
The Criteria for Graphic Signature Effectiveness	196
Evolving Influence of the Internet on Brand Naming and Graphics	198
Digital Facilitation of Content	199
Conclusion	199
Notes	200
CHAPTER 12 Trademark Searches	203
The Trademark Search Process	204
Trademark Search and Risk	206
Use of a Professional Search Firm	207
Working with the Search Firm In-House or through Outside Counsel	208
Questions to Ask Before a Search Is Conducted	211
Information to Keep in Mind	215
Strength of Mark and Its Effect on the Search	216
What a Clearance Search Can Provide	219
Importance of Online Platform and Tools in Clearance	221
Online Screening Uses and Options	222
Comprehensive Search (United States and Canada)	224
Specialized Search Services	224
Global Search Options (non–United States and Canada)	225
Conclusion	228
Notes	229
CHAPTER 13 Investigations: Considerations for Selecting and Directing Outside Investigators	231
Why Hire Outside Investigators	232
What to Expect from Your Investigators	237
Special Considerations for Attorneys	240
How to Find IP Investigators	243
Other Services that Investigators Can and Should Be Able to Provide	244
International Investigations	246

	Conclusion—The Future	248
	Notes	248
CHAPTER 14	Model Intellectual Property Internship Programs: Internship Programs within the Scope of Employment Law	251
	Benefits and Drawbacks of Using Legal IP Interns	251
	Employment Law Issues	252
	Sources and Screening of Potential Interns	254
	Structure of the Internship Program	255
	Retaining and Maximizing the Benefits of Postinternship Relationships	257
	A Model IP Law Internship Program	258
	The Current Trend in Internship Programs	259
	Conclusion	259
	Notes	259
CHAPTER 15	Maximizing “Green” Brand Exposure and Minimizing Perceptions of Greenwashing	263
	Green Branding	264
	Conclusion	278
	Notes	279
CHAPTER 16	The Financial Reporting Impact of Intellectual Property Activity	291
	IP Activity	291
	Relevant IP Accounting Guidance	292
	Accounting for IP Business Activities	296
	Future Transition to International Financial Reporting Standards	303
	Conclusion	304
	Notes	304
	About the Editors	307
	About the Contributors	309
	Index	313

<http://www.pbookshop.com>