

Table of Contents

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	xi
PREFACE	xv
A Description of the Book Innovative Intelligence	xvii
Who Should Read This Book	xx
How to Read This Book	xxi
PART ONE: CLOSING THE INNOVATION GAP	I
CHAPTER ONE: THE INNOVATION GAP	3
The Innovation Challenge	4
What Is Innovation?	5
Innovative Thinking Makes Innovation Happen	7
The Evidence Is in—We Are Underachieving	9
Try It Another Way	14
Conclusion	16
CHAPTER TWO: LEADING THROUGH COMPLEXITY	17
Why Complex Issues Are So Challenging	18
Complicated vs. Complex Issues	20
Common Mistakes	25
Conclusion	29

CHAPTER THREE: ACCESSING INNOVATIVE INTELLIGENCE	31
Intelligence: Who Knows?	32
Leaders Require Three Intelligences	35
Leaders Need to Think About Thinking	41
Conclusion	44
CHAPTER FOUR: ECLIPSE OF INNOVATIVE INTELLIGENCE	47
Eclipse #1: The School System Made Me Do It	47
Eclipse #2: The Analytical Intelligence Paradox	51
Eclipse #3: Impact of High Negative Stress	54
Conclusion	60
PART TWO: INNOVATIVE THINKING	61
CHAPTER FIVE: INNOVATIVE THINKING: AN OVERVIEW	63
Characteristics of an Effective Innovative Thinking Model	64
Key Success Factors for Innovative Thinking	67
Conclusion	77
CHAPTER SIX: STEP 1: FRAMEWORK	79
Understanding Framework	81
The Context	82
The “How To . . .?” Question	83
The Boundaries	88
The Type of Solution	92
The Owner or Decision Maker	96
The Project Charter	97
Leveraging the Three Intelligences in the Framework Step	99
The Leader’s Roles in Step I: Framework	102
Conclusion	105
CHAPTER SEVEN: STEP 2: ISSUE REDEFINITION	107
The Five Areas of Focus in Issue Redefinition	108
Leveraging the Three Intelligences in the Issue Redefinition Step	119

The Leader's Roles in Step 2: Issue Redefinition	120
Conclusion	121
CHAPTER EIGHT: STEP 3: IDEA GENERATION	123
Idea Generation Is a Rigorous Process	125
Stage 1: Prepare Thoroughly	126
Stage 2: Introduce the Process	132
Stage 3: Generate Many Ideas through Divergence	134
Stage 4: Discover Meaningful Solutions through Convergence	141
Working Alone on Idea Generation	143
Leveraging the Three Intelligences in the Idea Generation Step	144
The Leader's Role in Step 3: Idea Generation	145
Conclusion	146
CHAPTER NINE: STEP 4: IMPLEMENTATION PLANNING	147
Stage 1: Confirm the Preferred Idea	148
Stage 2: Engage in Risk Analysis and Develop Mitigating Strategies	151
Stage 3: Present the Innovative Solution for Approval	157
Stage 4: Ensure an Effective Handoff to the Team that Focuses on Change Implementation	159
Leveraging the Three Intelligences in the Implementation Planning Step	160
The Leader's Role in Step 4: Implementation Planning	161
Conclusion	162
PART THREE: MAKING INNOVATION HAPPEN	165
CHAPTER TEN: MAKING INNOVATION HAPPEN: AN OVERVIEW	167
Four Essential Organizational Enablers to Make Innovation Happen	169
Sustaining Innovation	173
Conclusion	175

CHAPTER ELEVEN: LEADING INNOVATION	177
Leading Self	179
Leading Innovation Teams	184
Leading Intact Work Units	187
Leading Enterprises for Innovation	193
Conclusion	199
CHAPTER TWELVE: CULTURE OF INNOVATION	201
What Is Culture?	203
How a Culture Can Suppress Innovation	205
What Is a Culture of Innovation?	206
How an Existing Culture Can Be Transformed to a Culture of Innovation	211
How to Develop a Leadership Culture of Innovation	222
Conclusion	224
CHAPTER THIRTEEN: ORGANIZATIONAL PRACTICES FOR INNOVATION	225
Executive-Level Organizational Practices	226
Organizational Practices in Core Functional Areas	231
Organizational Practices in Support Functional Areas	237
Innovation-Specific Organizational Practices	242
Conclusion	251
CHAPTER FOURTEEN: THE INNOVATION PLAN	253
Guiding Principles for an Innovation Plan	254
Key Elements of an Effective Innovation Plan	255
How to Develop the Innovation Plan and Who Should Lead It	264
When Should an Innovation Plan Be Developed?	265
Pulling It All Together	266
INDEX	269
ABOUT THE AUTHORS	281