

CONTENTS

CD-ROM Contents	ix
Foreword to the Second Edition: The Power of Doing Good
Giving to a Worthy Cause Is Worth More Than You Know	xiii
Preface	xv
Acknowledgments	xxiii
The Authors	xxv
Introduction	1
QuickStart Guide: Ten Steps to More Inspired Philanthropy	13
PART ONE Creating Your Giving Plan
1 Giving and the Nonprofit World	19
Nonprofits Are an Essential Link	21
That's a Lot of Money	22
The Role of Private Philanthropy	24
The Power of Philanthropy	25
Some Givers' Stories	27
2 You, the Philanthropist	31
Gratitude	32
What Do You Care About?	36
Values Drive Decisions	39
Making Choices	39
What Do You Bring with You?	39

3	Developing Your System of Giving	45
	Imagining a Better World	51
	Creating Your Vision and a Theory of Change	52
	The Wheel of Integrated Change Making	58
	Building a Comprehensive Giving Strategy	58
	Evaluating Your Impact	60
	Learning More About Social Change	61
	Your Giving Portfolio	62
4	Creating a Mission Statement	63
	Writing Your Mission Statement	64
	Inspired Mission Statements from Individuals and Family Foundations	66
	Mission Matching	68
	How to Find Possible Mission Matches	71
5	Deciding How Much to Give	73
	How Much Money Do You Think You Have?	74
	Major Giving Practices	76
	How Much Should You Give?	78
	Giving Principal	82
	Thinking a Little Bigger	84
6	Where to Give	87
	Choosing Where to Give	87
	Sources of Information	88
	Gathering information	92
	Levels of Philanthropic Intervention	96
	Philanthropic Investing	97
	Giving Internationally	100
	Alternative Holiday Giving	101
	Making Decisions	102
7	Creating a Personal Giving Plan	105
	Getting Organized	107
	Sample Giving Plans	114

Multiyear Giving	121
Clarifying Your Intention	122
Reviewing Your Giftmaking for Yearly Results and Impact	124
Expanding Your Giving Horizon	124
The Philanthropic Learning Curve	131
8 The Many Ways to Give	137
Definitions of Common Vehicles for Giving	138
Considering How to Give	141
Frequently Used Ways to Give	141
Community-Based Philanthropy	160
9 Organizational Giving: Family Foundations and Corporate Giving	163
Sharing Values and Goals	166
Sharing Decision Making	167
Other Considerations	171
Developing a “Statement of Donor Legacy”	172
Corporate Giving and Corporate Foundations	176
PART TWO Strategic and Creative Ways to Leverage Your Giving
10 Engagement with Groups You Support	185
Effective Donor Communication	188
Communicating Your Support for an Organization	191
Communicating Donor Intent	192
Donor Engagement	194
Working Closely with Organizations	200
Setting Your Giving Boundaries	204
11 Creating Greater Plans for Your Family, Heirs, and Humanity	211
Begin with the End in Sight	213
Prudent Planning	215
Shaping an Inspired Legacy Plan	216
Charitable Estate Planning	217

Working with Advisors for Inspired Outcomes	220
Becoming a Legacy Mentor	225
Planning for Your Heirs	229
Review	229
Leaving Bequests or Trusts to the Next Generation	229
Next Steps	234
12 Growing and Partnering with the Next Generation of Givers	237
Learning Early About Giving	239
Teenagers and Giving	242
Youth as Grantmakers	244
Young Inheritors Giving and Living	248
13 For Donors Who Have Much More to Give	253
Facing and Sharing Our Good Fortune	254
Giving from Net Worth	255
Experiments in Giving	259
Networking with Other Major Donors	261
Keeping Track and Being Responsive	265
14 The Power of Partnership: Transformative Philanthropy	267
Moving from Charity to Change	270
New Forms of Collaboration	278
Properties of Transformational Philanthropy	279
Moving Giving and Leadership to the Next Generation	281
Reasons for Hope	282
A Model of Transformative Collaboration	283
Notes	289
Index	295
How to Use the CD-ROM	307

CD-ROM CONTENTS

EXERCISES

- 2.1 Stereotypes
- 2.2 Gratitude
- 2.3 Vision and Values
- 2.4 Indicators of Your Values
- 2.5 Making Choices
- 2.6 Time, Talents, and Treasures
- 3.1 Review of Your Recent Giving
- 3.2 Characteristics of the Groups You Support
- 3.3 Reflections
- 3.4 Thinking About Change
- 3.5 Imagining a Better World
- 3.6 Million-Dollar Visioning
- 3.7 Steps for Building a Comprehensive Giving Strategy
- 4.1 Writing Your Mission Statement
- 4.2 Mission Matching
- 5.1 How Much Money Do You Really Have?
- 5.2 How Much Should You Give?
- 5.3 How Much Will You Give During Your Lifetime?

- 6.1 Your Funding Areas
- 7.1 Your Giving Plan
- 8.1. Giving Methods
- 10.1 Level of Engagement
- 11.1 Checklist for Assessing an Advisor
- 11.2 Becoming a Legacy Partner
- 11.3 Who Are You Planning For?
- 11.4 Current Wills, Legal Documents, and Titling of Assets
- 11.5 How Advisors Can Help
- 12.1 Mentoring
- 13.1 Giving from Assets

WORKSHEETS

- 6.1 Evaluating a Group for Possible Funding
- 7.1 Your Giving Plan
- 7.2 Multiyear Giving Record
- 7.3 Giving Intention
- 7.4 Results and Impact
- 7.5 How You Did as a Donor
- 10.1 Inspired Philanthropist's Checklist
- 10.2 Preparing for Site Visits

APPENDICES

- Appendix A: Tools for Partnering Effectively with Advisors for Your Inspired Legacy
- Appendix B: Partnering with Clients for Inspired Outcomes: Notes to Advisors and Nonprofits, by Phil Cubeta
- Appendix C: Creative Ideas for Giving

- Appendix D: Celebrity Philanthropy
- Appendix E: Sample Letters
- Appendix F: Breaking Barriers to Effective Giving
- Appendix G: Loans to Friends
- Appendix H: Comparison of Giving Options
- Appendix I: Resources

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

To donors and people worldwide eager to make a world that works and survives for everyone. May the extraordinary inspiration of Rita Thapa and the transformative community of the women, men, and children of TEWA, Nepal, give peace and hope to the survivors of New Orleans, the Gulf Coast, and all displaced people who have lost their familiar community. May giving and love and others' generosity of spirit support you to find your way again.

<http://www.pbookshop.com>