

Index

Page references followed by fig indicate an illustrated figure; followed by t indicate a table.

A

Accelerating Your Development as a Leader (Barner), 105

Accountability: building commitment barrier of vague, 134; clarify cross-cultural team members' roles and, 230; effective boundary management as promoting, 157; establish ground rules for virtual team members, 189–191; Real-Time Implementation Planning tool to build, 35, 366–368; team action plan clarifying areas of, 35; Team Alignment Pyramid tool to build, 55

Action planning: Action Planning Chart tool for, 35; description of, 13, 32; five steps for process of, 33, 35–36; follow-up meeting questions regarding process of, 37; how to facilitate, 32–33; matching team-building tool for, 42*t*; Preventive and

Corrective Action Plans tool for, 122, 361; tools available for, 35; understanding differences between intention and action, 34*t*. See also Team action plans

Action Planning Chart tool: description of, 244; instructions and example of, 244–245; used with Real-Time Implementation Planning, 367; suggestions for when to use, 35

Actions: regaining momentum, 212–216; supporting building commitment, 139–149; supporting cross-cultural teaming, 234–238; supporting future vision, 57–61; supporting mutual trust and collaboration, 91–105; supporting team innovation, 72–77; supporting working virtually, 181–198; supportive of overcoming setbacks, 207–216

- Afghan National Army Leadership Development case study, 445–446 fig
- After Action Reviews (AAR)* tool: additional reading on, 249; advantages of completing, 246–247; description of, 246; how to conduct an, 248; suggestions for when to use, 118, 149, 207, 210
- Alban, B. T., 89
- Alignment: clarifying future direction for stakeholder, 54; of goals and expectations, 91–93; Goals-Values Matrix tool for, 299; mutual trust and collaboration derailed by lack of, 84–85; pursued on an incremental basis, 102; Team Alignment Pyramid tool for, 55, 93, 181, 184, 229
- Alternative Communication Options* tool: instructions for using, 251; options for using, 250; suggestions for when to use, 186
- American Management Association (AMA), 104
- “Analysis paralysis,” 31
- Antagonistic communication, 154–155
- Anxiety: definition of, 109; differentiating between fear and, 109–110
- Apple, 61
- Appreciative inquiry: International Organizational Collaboration course on, 235; team-building concepts taken from, 6
- Assessing team-building needs: After Action Reviews tool for, 118, 149, 207, 210, 246–248; assessing the damage, 207–209; comparative advantages of three approaches to, 19 fig; framing the team’s needs, 18–20; as key to successful team building, 8; looking beneath the surface for, 20–24; matching team-building tool for, 42 t; Opportunities Assessment tool for, 71, 122, 123, 352–353; selecting assessment approach, 18, 19 fig; soliciting outside input on, 24; Team Building Assessment Questionnaire tool for, 8, 43, 55, 56, 229, 370, 398–400; Threats Analysis tool for, 97, 122, 123, 145, 427–428
- Asynchronous Work Spaces* tool: general advantages of using, 254; intercultural advantages of using, 254–255; overview of, 252–254; suggestions for when to use, 93, 192; tools and resources for, 255–256
- B
- Baby & Bathwater Technique* tool: description and instructions for using, 257–258; suggestions for when to use, 103
- The Back of the Napkin: Solving Problems and Selling Ideas with Pictures* (Roam), 234
- Balanced participation, 25–28
- Barner, R. W., 3, 60, 99, 110, 123, 168, 233, 237, 259
- Behavior: Block Team Behaviors instrument to measure, 440; conflict-prone, 104–105; “entrenched bunkers,” 110; separating intention from, 164; stress due to communication style, 214; Supporting Team Behaviors instrument to measure, 439. See also Conflicts
- Belfast/Good Friday Agreement, 364–365
- Best practice reviews, 75–77
- Blaming, 201–202
- “Blended” organizations, 152–153
- Blocker stakeholders, 168–169
- Blocking Team Behaviors* instrument, 440
- Blurred boundaries, 156–157
- Bonding experiences, 197–198
- Booyesen, L., 225
- Boundary management: changes that can impact, 151–153; of customer- and stakeholder-related boundaries, 153–154; how to initiate team-building session on topic of, 158–162; how to tell when it is a challenge, 154–157; opportunities embedded in challenge of, 157–158; supportive actions for, 162–169. See also Organizations
- Boundary management actions: conduct diplomatic exchange, 168; construct service-level agreements, 166–167; educate others about your team’s organization, 162; focus on superordinate goals, 163–164;

- identify your key stakeholders, 168–169;
- improve underlying work processes, 163;
- separate behavior from intentions, 164;
- stay out of line of fire, 165; tear down the walls, 165–166; use your best negotiators, 167–168
- Boundary management challenges: blurred boundaries as, 156–157; conflicting goals as, 155–156; ineffective work processes as, 156; interteam conflict escalation as, 155; restricted or antagonistic forms of communication as, 154–155
- Brainstorming session, 72–73
- Building commitment: challenge of, 42, 131–132; how to tell when this is a challenge, 132–135; initiating a team-building session on topic of, 137–138; opportunities embedded in challenge of, 135–137; supportive actions for, 139–149. See also Commitment
- Building commitment actions: clearly communicate team commitments, 142–143; create a team scorecard, 139–141; draw out others' concerns and reservations, 141–142; follow up to ensure success, 145–149; help team visualize their desired future, 139; identify commitment challenges in advance, 145; identifying commitment gaps, 143–144
- Building commitment challenges: dissatisfied customers as, 133–134; focus on activities instead of results as, 132–133; moving targets and slipped commitments as, 133; nasty surprises as, 135; safe bets as, 135; vague accountabilities as, 134
- Bunker, B. B., 89
- C
- Cady, S., 89
- Cain, M., 196
- Carlson, R., 215
- Carsten, M. K., 204
- Cartoons in Conflict Exhibition and Dialogue Series, 317
- Censorship, 65
- Center for Creative Leadership (CCL), 104–105
- Central Desktop, 255
- Change: direct application is required for true, 8–9; failing to understand the ripple effects of, 113–114; identifying industry-wide trends and, 58–59; ignorance of the mechanics of, 112–113; learn to identify signs of organizational, 124–125; potential long-term effects of, 125; slow or poorly coordinated responses to, 111. See also Resistance to change
- Change Analysis Chart* tool: description of, 259; example and instructions for using, 259–260; suggestions for when to use, 125
- Change Events Technique* tool: description of, 261; instructions and example of, 261–262; suggestions for when to use, 71, 117, 123
- The Change Handbook: The Definitive Resource on Today's Best Methods for Engaging Whole Systems* (2nd Edition) [Holman, Devane, and Cady], 89, 236
- Change management: different approaches to, 108–109; how to tell when this is a challenge, 109–115; initiating a team-building session on topic of, 117–119; opportunities embedded in challenge of, 115–117; supportive actions for, 119–129; team-building challenge of managing, 40
- Change management actions: avoid creating unnecessary stress, 122–123; consider potential long-term effects of change, 125; create an early warning system, 119–120; expose your team to other points of view, 121; implement a thorough troubleshooting process, 121–122; learn from others who have been there, 123–124; learn to identify signs of organizational change, 124–125; lower resistance to change, 125–129; making the unknown manageable, 123
- Change management challenges: anxiety about the unknown future as, 109–110; defensive attachment to the past as,

- 112; failure to understand the ripple effects of change, 113–114; ignorance of the mechanics of change as, 112–113; information vacuums as, 110–111; lack of foresight and denial as, 110; no external sensing array as, 114; resistance to new information as, 115; slow or poorly coordinated responses to change as, 111; static planning as, 115; victim mentality as, 114–115
- Change Management Grid* tool: overview and example of the, 263–264; suggestions for when to use, 117, 123
- Change managers: different approaches to teams by, 108–109; how to take supportive actions, 119–129; importance of becoming a competent, 107; initiating a team-building session on managing change, 117–119
- Chatter, 358
- Chekhov, A., 434
- Clarifying future direction: how to identify this as a challenge, 50–52; importance of, 40, 49–50; initiating a team-building session on topic of, 55–57; opportunities embedded in challenge as, 52–54; supportive actions to establish, 57–61
- Clarifying future direction actions: help your team construct a vision summary, 59–60; identify industry-wide trends and changes, 58–59; scan the horizon, 57–58; set clear priorities for action, 60–61
- Clarifying future direction issues: change resistance, 51; diffused efforts, 51–52; failure to see the big picture, 50; organizational uncertainty, 50–51; passivity, 52
- Clarifying future direction opportunities: developing “next-level thinking,” 53–54; increased resilience, 53; stakeholder alignment, 54; stronger engagement, 52–53; timely midcourse corrections, 54
- Cliques, 83–84
- Clorox Connects* (Clorox), 195
- Closing the Gap Chart* tool: instructions for using, 265; suggestions for when to use, 209, 211
- Coaching: to conflict-prone individuals, 104–105; using team-building meetings as opportunity for, 158–159
- Collaboration: applying cross-cultural methods for, 234–236; facilitating, 302–304; Goals-Values Matrix tool for, 61, 93, 299–304; how conflict impacts, 79–81; initiating a team-building session on, 89–91; shifting from conflict management to, 5–6; supportive actions for, 91–105; team-building challenge of establishing, 40; team leader’s role in supporting, 81–82
- Collaboration actions: act immediately to control conflict, 101–102; ask participants to reflect on each others’ strengths, 94; build trust by increasing transparency, 95–96; create opportunities for sharing feedback, 97–98; discuss need for support and assistance, 93–94; encourage members to understand each other’s perspectives, 97; establish ground rules for managing conflicts, 99–101; gain alignment on goals and expectations, 91–93; identify communication hot spots, 96–97; provide coaching for conflict-prone individuals, 104–105; recall collaborative successes, 95; take steps to manage and contain conflicts, 102–104; use maps and metaphors, 98–99
- Collaboration challenges: ambiguous roles and responsibilities as, 85; different communication styles as, 86–87; formation of cliques as, 83–84; use of intimidation and manipulation as, 87; lack of alignment on goals and priorities as, 84–85; lack of collaboration and conflict management skills as, 85–86; limited accessibility as, 84; missed opportunities as, 82–83; self-imposed isolation and communication breakdowns as, 83
- Commitment: capturing team member, 16–17; clearly communicating team, 142–143; difference between vague versus

- clear statements on, 144*t*; identifying gaps in, 143–144; One-to-Ten Technique tool to gauge levels of, 32, 43, 103, 142, 351; to stay through entire session, 16; Team Commitment Audit tool on, 32, 103, 137, 143. See also Building commitment
- Communication cues: the degree to which we attend to context of, 219; examining cultural differences in interpretation of, 218–219; “extended silence,” 218; how we make decisions based on, 221–222; how we view power differences related to, 220; how we view time related to, 220–221
- Communication issues: communicating team commitments, 142–143, 144*t*; establishing ground rules for cross-cultural teams, 231; graphic representations to communicate, 74; “hit-and-runs” e-mail messages, 190; identifying hot spots, 96–97; Kill the Critic Exercise tool for, 73, 329–330; language accommodations, 227, 234; using maps and metaphors, 98–99; Mix and Max tool to encourage conversation, 44, 97, 99, 206, 338–345; restricted or antagonistic communication, 154–155; “share the pain” communication, 185; virtual team, 174–176, 185–189. See also Dialogue; Feedback
- Communication styles: conflict due to differences in, 86–87; stress due to specific types of, 214
- Community Dialogue: case studies of, 316–318; The Consultative Group on the Past document by, 365; description of, 313; From Past to Future: The Saville Inquiry and Beyond document by, 365; ground rules and guidelines for dialogue, 314–315; “One Small Step” (song) on, 319; questions used during dialogues by, 313–314; Summary of the Belfast/Good Friday Agreement leaflet by, 364–365; website of, 318. See also Dialogue
- Community Dialogue case studies: among different groups, 317–318; attitudinal and cultural change, 317; cross-border, 316–317; cross-community, 316; outreach cases, 318
- Competencies: change manager, 107; developing cross-cultural, 236–237; required for Traffic Light Technique tool, 430; Scenario Forecast and Executive Competencies tool, 381–382
- Conflict escalation, 155
- Conflict management: act immediately for, 101–102; breaking down issues into parts for, 103; collaboration derailed by lack of skills for, 85–86; conducting diplomatic exchange, 168; establish ground rules for, 99–101; Relationship Map tool to help with, 159, 230, 374–376; shifting to collaboration from, 5–6; staying out of the line of fire, 165; take steps to contain conflict and for, 102–104; team goal for effective, 80
- Conflict-prone individuals, 104–105
- Conflicts: act immediately to control, 101–102; Cartoons in Conflict Exhibition and Dialogue Series, 317; how mutual trust and collaboration are impacted by, 79–81, 85–86; putting disagreements in context, 102–103; take steps to manage and contain, 102–104; verbal and nonverbal clues of imminent, 86. See also Behavior
- Consequences for mistakes, 65
- The Consultative Group on the Past* document, 365
- Cooperrider, D., 6
- Creative thinking, setting the stage for, 72
- Creative Whack Pack* tool: description and instructions for using, 266; different ways to apply, 266–267; suggestions for when to use, 74, 211
- Cross-cultural team-building actions: apply cross-cultural collaboration methods, 234–236; decide on how to decide, 237–238; develop cross-cultural competencies, 236–237; language accommodations, 227, 234; make language accommodations, 234

- Cross-cultural team-building session: conduct a pre-meeting social event, 228; exploring team's task issues, 229–230; exploring the team's process issues, 230–234; planning for the, 226–228
- Cross-cultural team process issues: establish ground rules supporting communications, 231; explore process support issues, 233–234; map cultural values, 231–232; work through mock scenarios, 232–233
- Cross-cultural team task issues: clarify team members' roles and accountabilities, 230; clarify team's mission and charter, 229–230; identify critical stakeholder issues, 230; review organizational factors that spurred team creation, 229
- Cross-cultural teaming: how to initiate team-building session on topic of, 226–228; how to tell when this is a challenge, 222–225; how we interpret communication cues during, 218–222; importance of dealing with, 43, 217–218; opportunities embedded in challenge of, 225–226; organizational fault lines in, 225, 238; supportive actions for, 234–238. See also Diversity; Virtual teams
- Cross-cultural teaming actions: apply cross-cultural collaboration methods, 234–236; decide on how to decide, 237–238; develop cross-cultural competencies, 236–237; make language accommodations, 234; manage organizational fault lines, 238
- Cross-cultural teaming challenges: global team structures as, 222–223; lack of cross-cultural experience as, 223–224; opportunities embedded in, 225–226; organizational fault lines as, 225; us versus them talk as, 224–225
- Crossing the Minefield* (Barner), 110
- CSC India, 196
- Cultural differences: being sensitive to diversity of, 44–45; high-power versus low-power distance, 220; in how decisions are made, 221–222, 237–238; interpretation of communication cues and, 218–222; low-context versus high-context cultures, 219; managing team members, 43; map cultural values to examine, 231–232; time orientation and attitudes, 220–221. See also Diversity
- CultureGPS Lite, 237
- CultureGPS Professional, 237
- Culture's Consequences: Comparing Values, Behaviors, Institutions, and Organizations Across Nations* (Hofstede), 220
- Customer Assessment Matrix* tool: description and instructions for using, 268–270; suggestions for when to use, 117, 160
- Customer Relationship Audit* tool: description and instructions for using, 271–272; example of the, 272–273
- Customer Requirement: Rating Table* tool: description of the, 274; instructions and examples of, 274–277; suggestions for when to use, 160
- Customer Satisfaction/Importance Matrix* tool: description and example of, 278–279; how to interpret results of the, 279–280; suggestions for when to use, 61, 160, 185, 230
- Customers: building commitment barrier of dissatisfied, 133–134; leading discussion on meeting expectations of, 160–161; Listening Post Chart tool to address needs of, 120, 162, 331–332; managing boundary issues with, 153–154; service-level agreements with internal, 166–167; team scorecard input by, 140–141; vague accountability made to, 134
- D
- The Dark Tower* case study, 99
- Decision making: cultural differences in process of, 221–222, 237–238; decide how to decide to accommodate cross-cultural, 237–238; Decision Matrix tool for, 31, 43, 44, 206, 238; saving key decisions for low-stress periods, 215–216; Team Decision Matrix tool for, 61; Team Decision Style Chart tool for, 404–405; Traffic Light

- Technique* tool for, 23, 32, 163, 227, 429–433; transparency during, 95–96. See also Problem solving
- Decision Matrix* tool: description, instructions, and example of, 281–282; used with Real-Time Implementation Planning, 367; suggestions for when to use, 31, 43, 44, 206, 238
- Devane, T., 89
- Dialogue: definition of, 313; guidelines and questions for engaging, 313–319. See also Communication issues; Community Dialogue
- Dilbert cartoons, 59
- Diplomatic exchange, 168
- Diversity: being sensitive to cultural differences and, 43, 44–45; of virtual team members, 177–178. See also Cross-cultural teaming; Cultural differences
- Don't Sweat the Small Stuff—and It's All Small Stuff* (Carlson), 215
- E
- Early Warning Chart* tool: example of, 285; instructions for using, 283–284; suggestions for when to use, 120, 125
- Early warning systems: change management by creating, 119–120; for identifying signs of organizational change, 124–125; tools available for creating, 120, 125
- Economic Times*, 195
- Effective Virtual New Product Development Teams: An Integrated Framework*, 178
- Empathy, 97
- Entrenched bunkers, 110
- Entrenched teams, 108
- “Extended silence,” 218
- F
- Facebook, 68, 77
- FaceTime, 358
- Facilitating Cultural Teams: A Practical Guide* (Hogan), 231, 234
- Facilitation process: action planning and follow-up, 26*fig.* 32–38; assessing team-building needs, 18–24; for building commitment, 42, 131–149; clarifying future direction, 40, 49–61; for collaboration session, 302–304; establishing mutual trust and collaboration, 40, 79–105; fostering team innovation, 63–77; implementing the team-building session, 25–32; managing change, 40, 107–129; managing cross-cultural teaming, 43–45, 217–238; managing organizational boundaries, 42, 151–169; Mix and Max tool, 339–344; New Team Assimilation (or “Getting Naked”) session, 297; overcoming setbacks, 43, 199–216; planning the, 17–18; selecting team-building tools by stages in the, 40; selecting team-building tools by team-building needs, 40, 42–43; for working virtually, 43, 171–198. See also The Tool Kit
- Facilitators: capturing commitment from team members, 16–17; posing questions to overcome “analysis paralysis,” 31; team building role of, 15–16; “team facilitator as hero” belief by, 26
- Fear: definition of, 109; differentiating between anxiety and, 109–110
- Feedback: Follow-Up Team Building Questionnaire tool for, 286–287; how to give team, 438–441; opportunities for sharing, 97–98, 105; risks of, 437–438; ten reasons for communicating honestly for, 436–437; 360-degree surveys, 105; Turnaround Feedback tool for, 45, 98, 434–441. See also Communication issues
- Follow-up sessions: asking questions on team dynamics, 37; asking questions related to action planning process, 37; description of, 36–37; to ensure commitment success, 145–149; facilitating the, 36–38; Follow-Up Team Building Questionnaire tool for, 286–288; general guidelines for conducting, 38; matching team-building tool for, 42*t*
- Follow-Up Team Building Questionnaire* tool: description and open-ended questions of,

286; three implementation options for using, 286–288
Forecast Grid tool: description, instructions, and example of, 289–290; suggestions for when to use, 125
Forecast Guide tool: description of, 291; example and instructions for using, 291–292
 FreeMind, 255
From Past to Future: The Saville Inquiry and Beyond (Community Dialogue), 365
Full Catastrophe Living (Kabat-Zinn), 215
 Future direction. See Clarifying future direction
 Future Search, 235

G

Gallery Technique tool: description and instructions for using, 293–294; engaging team members by using, 311; Follow-Up Team Building Questionnaire using modified version of, 287–288; suggestions for when to use, 30, 44, 73, 97, 142, 227
 Gartner, Inc., 196
 “Getting Naked” (or New Team Assimilation) session: agenda for, 296–298; overview of the, 295–296; related to Needs Checklists, 347
 Global team structures, 222–223
Global Virtual Teams for Value Creation and Project Success: A Case Study, 178
 Goals: boundary management by focusing on superordinate, 163–164; boundary management challenge of conflicting, 155–156; clarify virtual team, 184–185; effective conflict management, 80; gaining alignment of expectations and, 91–93; Goals-Values Matrix tool to identify, 61, 93, 299–304; mutual trust and collaboration derailed by misaligned, 84–85. See also Priorities
Goals-Values Matrix tool: collaboration using framework of, 299–304; illustration of the, 301 fig.; suggestions for when to use, 61, 93
 Google, 68

Graphic representations, 74
Group Brainwriting and Electronic Brainstorming tool: additional reading on using, 307; description and instructions for using, 305–306; engaging team members by using, 311; suggestions for when to use, 44, 73, 227
Group Interaction Matrix tool: description and instructions on using, 308–310; example of, 310; suggestions for when to use, 160, 230
 Group participation, 25–28
 Group Work Spaces, 255
Guide for Balancing Participation tool: for drawing out team members, 311–312; to rein in team members, 312; suggestions for when to use, 27
Guidelines and Questions for Engaging Dialogue tool: Community Dialogue case studies, 316–318, 364; importance of ground rules and guidelines, 314–315; “One Small Step” (song), 319; questions used during dialogues by, 313–314; suggestions for when to use, 91, 117
 Gupte, S., 295

H

Hall, E., 219
 Hall, M., 219
The Handbook of Large Group Methods: Creating Systemic Change in Organizations and Communities (Bunker and Alban), 89, 236
 Hannum, K., 225
Harvard Business Review, 195
 Heliotropic principal, 6
 High-context cultures, 219
 High-power cultures, 220
 High-UA (uncertainty avoidance) cultures, 221
 “Hit-and-runs,” 190
 Hofstede, G., 220, 221
 Holman, P., 89
 “How India Inc Uses Social Networking for Business” (Economic Times), 196

How to Accelerate Your Development as a Leader (Barner), 237

Human Due Diligence Audit tool: advantages of conducting, 320–321; instructions on how to complete, 322–324; questions addressed during, 321–322; suggestions for when to use, 185

I

IBM Connections, 358

Idea Rotation tool: description of hypothetical case of using, 325–328; purpose, intended aims, and outcomes of, 325; suggestions for when to use, 73, 97

Ideas: categories for placing session discussion, 31–32; ThoughtOffice tool for organizing, 74, 426; Tool Kit techniques used to evaluate, 32. See also Information

Ideus, K., 299

iMindmap5, 337

Industry-wide trends, 58–59

Ineffective work processes, 156

Information: isolation causing information vacuum, 110–111; resistance to new, 115. See also Ideas

Information technology (IT): electronic tools to maximize virtual team efficiency, 191–192; internal social networking operating within firewall of, 195; providing support to cross-cultural virtual teams, 233–234; virtual team accountability and role of, 191

Innovative thinking: facilitation of, 26*fig.*, 28–30; team-building challenge of fostering, 40. See also Team innovation

Intentions: separating behavior from, 164; understanding differences between action and, 34*t*

International Organizational Collaboration (SMU course), 89, 235

Interteam conflict escalation, 155

Intimidation, 87

Isolation: as barrier to team innovation, 66; collaboration derailed by self-imposed, 83; information vacuums due to, 110–111

ITIM International, 237

J

Janebrant, J., 325

Jobs, S., 61

K

Kabat-Zinn, J., 215

Kayes, D. C., 236

Kill the Critic Exercise tool: changing team communication habits using, 329; instructions for conducting, 329–330; suggestions for when to use, 73

“Kitchen sink” syndrome, 102

Knowledge capture systems, 196

L

Language accommodations, 227, 234

Leading Across Cultures (Hannum, McFeeters, and Booyesen), 225

Learned Helplessness: A Theory for the Age of Personal Control (Peterson, Maier, and Seligman), 204

Learned Optimism (Seligman), 204

Lifeboat Strategies: How to Keep Your Career Above Water During Tough Times...or Any Time (Barner), 123

LinkedIn, 68, 77, 194

Listening Post Chart tool: addressing customers’ changing needs using, 331; instructions and example of, 331–332; suggestions for when to use, 120, 162

Low-context cultures, 219

Low-power cultures, 220

Low-UA (uncertainty avoidance) cultures, 222

M

Majchrzak, A., 184

Malhotra, A., 184

Managing Product/Process Knowledge in the Concurrent/Simultaneous Enterprise Environment, 178

Manipulation, 87

Maps, 98–99

Massoud, A. S., 445

McFeeters, B., 225

“Meeting in a box” format, 96

Metaphors, 98–99

Microanalysis Technique tool: creativity facilitated by, 333; instructions and example of, 333–334; suggestions for when to use, 74, 103

Microsoft Project, 192

Midcourse corrections, 54

MiL Institute, 389

Mind maps: FreeMind, 255; MindMeister, 255

Mind Maps tool: description of, 335; software packages that can be used for, 337; suggestions for when to use, 74, 117, 206, 207, 229; variations in creating mind maps using, 335–337

Mindfulness for Beginners (Kabat-Zinn), 215

MindManager, 337

MindMeister, 255

Mix and Max tool: additional reading for, 344–345; case study on using, 344; description of, 338; instructions for using, 339–344; suggestions for when to use, 44, 97, 99, 206

Monochromic time orientation, 221

Multivoting Technique tool: creating mind maps using version of, 335–336; description and instructions for using, 346; suggestions for when to use, 30, 56, 118, 162, 227, 238

Mutual trust: how conflict impacts, 79–81; importance of building, 79–82; initiating a team-building session on, 89–91; as key to team success, 295; opportunities embedded in challenge of, 87–89; supportive actions for, 91–105; team-building challenge of establishing, 40

Mutual trust actions: act immediately to control conflict, 101–102; ask participants to reflect on each others’ strengths, 94; build trust by increasing transparency, 95–96; create opportunities for sharing feedback, 97–98; discuss need for support and assistance, 93–94; encourage members to understand each other’s perspectives, 97; establish ground rules for managing conflicts, 99–101; gain alignment on goals and expectations, 91–93; identify communication hot spots, 96–97; provide coaching for conflict-prone individuals, 104–105; recall collaborative successes, 95; take steps to manage and contain conflicts, 102–104; use maps and metaphors, 98–99

Mutual trust challenges: ambiguous roles and responsibilities as, 85; different communication styles as, 86–87; formation of cliques as, 83–84; use of intimidation and manipulation as, 87; lack of alignment of goals and priorities as, 84–85; lack of collaboration/conflict management skills as, 85–86; limited accessibility as, 84; missed opportunities as, 82–83; self-imposed isolation and communication breakdowns as, 83

N

Needs Checklists for Team Members and Team Leaders tool: description and function of, 347; example of, 348–349; guidelines for using, 347–348; suggestions for when to use, 94

Negotiators: building negotiation base with review of issues, 128; managing boundaries by using your best, 167–168

New Team Assimilation (or “Getting Naked”) session: agenda of, 296–298; overview of the, 295–296; related to Needs Checklists, 347

“Next-level thinking,” 53–54

Nominal Group Technique tool: description and instructions for using, 350; engaging team members by using, 311; suggestions for when to use, 44, 142, 227

Northern Ireland Community of Refugees and Asylum Seekers (NICRAS), 318

“Not invented here” syndrome, 64–65

O

“One Small Step” (song), 319

One-to-Ten Technique tool: description and instructions for using, 351; suggestions for when to use, 32, 43, 103, 142

- O'Neil, J., 313, 364
- Online Facilitator's Guide, Team Building Assessment Questionnaire* download from, 370
- Open Space Technology, 88, 235
- Opportunities Assessment* tool: description, instructions, and example of, 352–353; suggestions for when to use, 71, 122, 123
- Opportunities/Threats Matrix* tool: example of, 355; instructions for using, 354, 356; potential threats and opportunities identified in, 354; suggestions for when to use, 206
- Organizational fault lines, 225, 238
- Organizational Social Networking* tool: common applications of, 357–358; description of, 357; suggestions for when to use, 77, 182, 197
- Organizational uncertainty, 50–51
- Organizations: boundary tensions of “blended,” 152–153; early warning systems for, 119–120, 124–125; education others about your team's, 162; internal social networks of, 194–197; learn to identify signs of change in, 124–125. See also Boundary management
- Overcoming Barriers to Knowledge Sharing in Virtual Teams*, 178
- Overcoming setbacks: challenge of, 43, 199–200; how to tell when this is a challenge, 200–203; initiating team-building session on topic of, 204–207; opportunities embedded in challenge of, 203–204; plan to anticipate and meet future setbacks, 207; supportive actions for, 207–216. See also Problem solving
- Overcoming setbacks actions: act to regain momentum, 211–216; agree on how to discuss setback outside the team, 210; assess the damage, 207–209; place the setback in context of success, 209; position setback as learning experience, 210–211; temporarily suspend limitations, 211
- Overcoming setbacks challenges: focusing on blame instead of solutions as, 201–202; preoccupation on the past as, 202–203; risk avoidance as, 200–201; short-term perspective as, 203
- ## P
- The Parents' Circle, Families Forum, 317
- Passive stakeholders, 168–169
- Passivity (team members), 52
- Patera, J. L., 204
- PersonalBrain, 337
- Planning. See Action planning; Team-building planning
- Plus/Delta Technique* tool: description of, 359; instructions for using, 359–360; suggestions for when to use, 31, 103, 238
- Polychronic time orientation, 221
- Power distance, 220
- Preemptive teams, 108–109
- Preventive and Corrective Action Plans* tool: description and examples of, 361; suggestions for when to use, 122
- Priorities: clarifying future direction by setting clear, 60–61; mutual trust and collaboration derailed by misaligned, 84–85. See also Goals
- Proactive teams, 108
- Problem solving: creative software used for, 74; focusing on blame instead of, 201–202; graphic solutions developed for, 74; structured brainstorming session for, 72–73; suspending limitations for possible, 73; transparency during, 95–96. See also Decision making; Overcoming setbacks
- Problems: focusing on blame instead of solutions to, 201–202; graphic representation of, 74; Reframing Technique tool for reframing, 20, 91, 159, 212; regain momentum to reframe the, 212; suspending limitations for possible solutions to, 73
- Process Check Sheet* tool: description and example of, 362–363; suggestions for when to use, 149
- Provocative Questions for Encouraging Dialogue* tool: applications for, 364–365; description of, 364; suggestions for when to use, 91

R

Rainey, D., 252

Reactive teams, 108

Real-Time Implementation Planning tool:
benefits of using this, 368; instructions for using, 366–368; used to strengthen working relationships, 366; suggestions for when to use, 35

Reframing Technique tool: description and instructions for using, 369–370;
suggestions for when to use, 20, 91, 159,
212

Regaining momentum actions: deploy additional resources, 211–212; manage your stress level, 213–216; redesign your implementation strategy, 212; reframe the problem, 212; renegotiate project parameters, 213

Relationship Audit tool: description of, 371; example of, 373; instructions for using the, 371–372; suggestions for when to use, 159

Relationship Map tool: description of, 374;
illustration of hypothetical, 374fig–375;
instructions for using, 375–376;
suggestions for when to use, 159, 230

Renegotiating project parameters, 213

Resilient teams, 53, 116

Resistance to change: clarifying future direction and issue of, 51; managing change by lowering, 125–129. See also Change

Resistance to change strategies: begin change discussion on positive note, 127; build negotiation base with progressive review of issues, 128; build ownership and support, 125–126; choose the time and place for your battles, 127; do your homework, 126–127; identify a surrogate, 126; identify concerns behind the objective, 128; lower the risk level for change, 126; trade minor concessions for support, 128–129

Restricted communication, 154–155

Risk avoidance, 200–201

Risk taking consequences, 65

Running the Gauntlet Technique tool:

description and example of, 377–378; as next step from Scenario Forecast tool, 377;
suggestions for when to use, 59

“Runoff effect,” 66

S

Safety/safe environment, 45

Salesforce.com, 358

Scenario Forecast and Executive Competencies tool, 381–382

Scenario Forecast tool: description of, 379;
illustration application of, 381–382;
instructions for conducting a, 379–381;
matrix for hypothetical company, 381;
Running the Gauntlet Technique tool as next step from, 377; suggestions for when to
use, 59, 71

Selection Matrix for Virtual Team Members tool:
description, instructions, and example of,
383–384; suggestions for when to use, 183

Seligman, M.E.P., 6, 204

Sensing array capability, 114, 116

Service-level agreements, 166–167

Share Point, 255

“Share the pain,” 185

Short-term perspective, 203

Showcase projects, 76–77

Skype, 233–234, 256, 358

Skype Out, 256

Social networking: Clorox Connects, 195; extend your reach through, 194–197;
improving performance by leveraging, 77;
Organizational Social Networking tool for,
77, 182, 197; recruiting system through, 68
“Social Networks, Learning and Flexibility:
Sourcing Scientific Knowledge in New Biotechnology Firms” (Organization Science), 195

Socialcast, 358

Southern Methodist University (SMU), 89

Sponsors: running interference for teams,
157–158; Team Sponsor Evaluation Form
tool for, 120, 169, 413; *Team Sponsor
Identification Form* tool, 169, 414–415

- Stakeholder Analysis Chart* tool: background to the model, 385–386; example of, 387–388; instructions for using, 386–387; used with Real-Time Implementation Planning, 367; suggestions for when to use, 120, 169, 206, 230
- Stakeholder Hats* tool: description of hypothetical case, 389–391; purpose, intended aims and outcomes of, 389; suggestions for when to use, 120, 169
- Stakeholders: anticipating concerns and expectations of your, 120; boundary management by identifying your key, 168–169; clarifying future direction for alignment with, 54; critical issues for cross-cultural teams, 230; leading discussion on securing support of, 161–162; managing boundary issues with, 153–154; Stakeholder Analysis Chart tool used for, 120, 169, 206, 230; Stakeholder Hats tool used for, 120–169; supporters, passives, and blockers categories of, 168–169
- Star Trek* (TV series), 207–208
- Steen, J., 325
- Stress: change management that avoids creating unnecessary, 122–123; due to communication style, 214; resources for managing work-related, 123
- Stress management: keep things in perspective for, 215; make key decisions during low-stress periods, 215–216; monitoring your stress level for, 214–215; regaining momentum through, 213–216
- Structured brainstorming session, 72–73
- Sturrock, J., 320
- Summary of the Belfast/Good Friday Agreement* leaflet (Community Dialogue), 364–365
- Supporter stakeholders, 168–169
- Supporting Team Behaviors* instrument, 439
- Survey Monkey, 256
- T
- Team action plans: agree on desired outcomes, 33, 35; clarify accountability for specific areas, 35; construct and action-planning chart, 35; identify required actions for, 33; troubleshooting the, 35–36. See also Action planning
- Team Adaptation Diagram* tool: description, instructions, and example of, 392–393; suggestions for when to use, 125
- Team Alignment Pyramid* tool: description and instructions for using, 394fig–397; suggestions for when to use, 55, 93, 181, 184, 229
- Team assumptions: individuals can affect team performance, 7; team members require an active voice in the process, 7–8; true change comes through direct application, 8–9; up-front assessment is key to success in team building, 8
- Team building: assessing needs of, 18–20; challenges of, 40, 42–43; characteristics of effective, 26fig, 28–38; clarify the purpose of, 14; an evolutionary approach to thinking about, 3–6; up-front assessment as key to successful, 8
- Team Building Assessment Questionnaire* tool: description and instructions for using, 398–400; Online Facilitator's Guide's downloadable version of, 370; suggestions for when to use, 8, 43, 55, 56, 229
- Team-building introduction: capture commitment, 16–17; clarify respective roles, 15–16; clarify the purpose of team building, 14; confirm the overall intent of the session, 13–14; introduce the guiding principles of team building, 15
- Team-building planning: for cross-cultural session, 226–228; diffused efforts related to, 51–52; organizational uncertainty impacting, 50–51; resistance to change during, 51; reviewing five steps of team-building process, 12–24
- Team building principles: safety is important to success, 15, 45; search for common ground, 15; team building is a process, 15; team members are equal partners, 15
- Team-building process: commitment to be fully engaged in, 17; five steps of the, 13fig;

- matching tools to steps in the, 42*t*; step 1: introduce the team-building concept, 13–17; step 2: plan the facilitation process, 13, 17–18; step 3: assess team-building needs, 13, 18–24, 42*t*; step 4: implementing the team-building session, 13, 25–32, 42*t*; step 5: action planning and follow-up, 13, 32–38, 42*t*
- Team-building session demands: addressing power inequities, 43–44; being sensitive to cultural diversity, 44–45; planning around time constraints, 43; preparing for virtual participation, 44
- Team-building session implementation: careful evaluation component of, 30–32; description of, 13; matching team-building tool for, 42*t*; promoting balanced participation, 25–28; promoting innovative thinking, 28–30
- Team-building sessions: categories of ideas brought up during, 31–32; commitment to stay through the entire, 16; confirm overall intent of the, 13–14; implementing the, 25–32; initiating change management topic in, 117–119; initiating for virtual teams, 179–181; initiating the building commitment topic in, 137–138; initiating the clarifying future direction topic in, 55–57; initiating the cross-cultural teaming topic in, 226–228; initiating the managing boundaries topic in, 158–162; initiating the overcoming setbacks topic in, 204–207; initiating the team innovation topic in, 70–71; matching team-building tools to the demands of, 43–45; New Team Assimilation (or “Getting Naked”), 295–298
- Team-building thinking: changing from conflict management to collaboration, 5–6; changing from fixing to building, 4–5; developing “next-level thinking,” 53–54; innovative thinking by participants, 26*fig*, 28–30, 40; rethinking the idea of “teams,” 4; setting stage for creative, 72; “think outside the box,” 28
- Team-building tool guidelines: matching team characteristics to facilitation and tools, 41*t*; matching tools to team-building requirements, 40, 42–43; matching tools to team-building scenarios, 39–40; matching tools to the demands of session, 43–45; select tools by stages in facilitation process, 40. See also The Tool Kit
- Team Commitment Audit* tool: description and instructions for using, 401–402; example of, 402–403; suggestions for when to use, 32, 103, 137, 143
- Team Decision Matrix* tool, 61
- Team Decision Style Chart* tool: description of, 404; example of, 405; instructions for using, 404–405
- Team dynamics: asking follow-up questions on, 37; interrelationship of structure, performance, process, and, 21–22*fig*; tasks related to, 22*fig*
- “Team facilitator as hero” belief, 26
- Team innovation: how to take actions supportive of, 72–77; how to tell when this is a challenge, 67–69; importance of sustaining, 63–66; initiating a team-building session on topic of, 70–71; opportunities for, 69–70. See also Innovative thinking
- Team innovation actions: conduct best practice reviews, 75–77; conduct structured brainstorming session, 72–73; develop graphic solutions, 74; extend your reach through social networking, 77; import a fresh pair of eyes, 74–75; make use of creative software, 74; set the stage for creative thinking, 72; suspend limitations, 73
- Team innovation challenges: case in point: the marketing team, 69; censorship as, 65; consequences that discourage risk taking as, 65; defections in the ranks, 68–69; of fostering innovation, 40; ignorance of cutting-edge technology and work methods, 67–68; insular views as, 64–65; isolation as, 66; lack of challenge as, 66;

- lack of confidence in abilities, 67; mundane solutions and missed opportunities, 68; opportunities embedded in, 69–70
- Team Leader Feedback Questionnaire* tool: description and instructions for using, 406–408; example of, 408–409; suggestions for when to use, 45
- Team leaders: clarifying role of, 16; collaboration role by, 81–82; Needs Checklists for Team Members and Team Leaders tool for, 94, 347–349; New Team Assimilation (or “Getting Naked”) discussion led by, 298
- Team Level Positivity* (West, Patera, and Carsten), 204
- Team member roles: clarifying cross-cultural team accountabilities and, 230; clarifying respective, 15–16; mutual trust and collaboration derailed by ambiguous, 85
- Team members: addressing power inequities among, 43–44; assumption that they should have active voice, 7–8; capturing team building commitment from, 16–17; cultural differences and diversity of, 43, 44–45, 217–238; “entrenched bunkers,” 110; exposing them to other points of view, 121; facilitating stronger engagement by, 52–53; formation of cliques among, 83–84; Guide for Balancing Participation tool to engage, 27, 311–312; managing cultural differences of, 43; Needs Checklists for Team Members and Team Leaders tool for, 94, 347–349; passivity of, 52; preparing for virtual participation by, 44; promoting balanced participation by, 25–28; promoting innovative thinking by, 28–30; provide coaching for conflict-prone, 104–105; resistance to change by, 51, 125–129; Team Alignment Pyramid tool on roles and accountability of, 55; victim mentality of, 114–115; virtual team, 43, 171–198
- Team performance: assumption that individuals can affect, 7; diffused efforts related to, 51–52; interrelationship among team structure, dynamics, process, and, 21–22 fig; overcoming setbacks in, 43, 199–216; scorecard on, 139–141; social networking used to leverage, 77; tasks related to, 22 fig
- Team Scoping Document* tool: description and benefits of, 410–411; instructions for using, 411–412; suggestions for when to use, 43, 60, 185, 230
- Team scorecard: building commitment through, 139–141; implementation of, 141; performance measures and customer input on, 140
- Team setbacks: challenge of, 43, 199–200; how to tell when this is a challenge, 200–203; initiating team-building session on topic of, 204–207; opportunities embedded in challenge of, 203–204; plan to anticipate and meet future, 207; supportive actions for overcoming, 207–216
- Team Sponsor Evaluation Form* tool: description and example of, 413; suggestions for when to use, 120, 169
- Team Sponsor Identification Form* tool: description, instructions, and example of, 414–415; suggestions for when to use, 169
- Team structure/process: interrelationship of structure, dynamics, process, and, 21–22 fig; tasks related to, 22 fig; Traffic Light Technique used to identify processes, 23
- Team Support Chart* tool: description, instructions, and example of, 416; suggestions for when to use, 94, 143
- The Team Troubleshooter: How to Find and Fix Team Problems* (Barner), 3
- Team Vision Summary* tool: constructing a team vision summary, 417–423; description of, 417; suggestions for when to use, 60, 71, 230
- Teams: clarifying future direction of, 40, 49–61; an evolutionary approach to building better, 3–6; global team structures of, 222–223; increasing resilience of, 53;

- managing change approach dependent on type of, 108–109; managing cross-cultural, 43, 44–45, 217–238; managing organizational boundaries of, 42, 151–169; matching team-building tools to characteristics of, 41*t*; midcourse corrections by, 54; overcoming setbacks, 43, 199–216; promoting social activities between different, 165–166; rethinking the idea of, 4; underlying assumptions regarding, 6–9. See also Virtual teams
- Telecommuting Check Sheet* tool: description and instructions for using, 424–425; suggestions for when to use, 186
- “Think outside the box,” 28
- Thinking. See Team-building thinking
- ThoughtOffice* tool: description and applications of, 426; suggestions for when to use, 74
- Threats Analysis* tool: description and application of, 427; example of, 428; suggestions for when to use, 97, 122, 123, 145
- 360-degree surveys, 105
- Time: cultural differences in attitudes toward, 220–221; orientation of, 221
- The Tool Kit: Action Planning Chart, 33, 244–245, 367; After Action Review, 118, 149, 207, 210, 246–249; Alternative Communication Options, 126, 250–251; Asynchronous Work Spaces, 93, 192, 252–256; Baby & Bathwater Technique, 103, 257–258; Change Analysis Chart, 125, 259–260; Change Events Technique, 71, 117, 123, 261–262; Change Management Grid, 117, 123, 263–264; Closing the Gap Chart, 209, 211, 265; Creative Whack Pack, 74, 211, 266–267; Customer Assessment Matrix, 117, 160, 268–270; Customer Relationship Audit, 271–273; Customer Requirements Rating Table, 160, 274–277; Customer Satisfaction/Importance Matrix, 61, 160, 185, 230, 278–280; Decision Matrix, 31, 43, 44, 206, 238, 281–282, 367; description and function of, 7; Early Warning Chart, 120, 125, 283–285; Follow-Up Team Building Questionnaire, 286–288; Forecast Grid, 125, 289–290; Forecast Guide, 291–292; Gallery Technique, 30, 44, 73, 97, 142, 227, 287–288, 293–294, 311; Goals-Values Matrix, 61, 93, 299–304; Group Brainwriting and Electronic Brainstorming, 44, 73, 227, 305–307, 311; Group Interaction Matrix, 160, 230, 308–310; Guide for Balancing Participation, 27, 311–312; Guidelines and Questions for Engaging Dialogue, 91, 117, 313–319; Human Due Diligence Audit, 185, 320–324; Idea Rotation, 73, 97, 325–328; Kill the Critic Exercise, 73, 329–330; Listening Post Chart, 120, 162, 331–332; Microanalysis Technique, 74, 103, 333–334; Mind Maps, 74, 117, 206, 207, 229, 335–337; Mix and Max, 44, 97, 99, 206, 338–345; Multivoting Technique, 30, 56, 118, 162, 227, 238, 335–336, 346; Needs Checklists for Team Members and Team Leaders, 94, 347–349; New Team Assimilation (or “Getting Naked”), 295–298; Nominal Group Technique, 44, 142, 227, 311, 350; One-to-Ten Technique, 32, 43, 103, 142, 351; Opportunities Assessment, 71, 122, 123, 352–353; Opportunities/Threats Matrix, 206, 354–356; Organizational Social Networking, 77, 182, 197, 357–358; Plus/Delta Technique, 31, 103, 238, 359–360; Preventive and Corrective Action Plans, 122, 361; Process Check Sheet, 149, 362–363; Provocative Questions for Encouraging Dialogue, 91, 364–365; Real-Time Implementation Planning, 35, 366–368; Reframing Technique, 20, 91, 159, 212, 369–370; Relationship Audit, 159, 371–373; Relationship Map, 159, 230, 374–376; Running the Gauntlet Technique, 59, 377–378; Scenario Forecast, 59, 71, 377, 379–382; Scenario Forecast and Executive Competencies, 381–382; Selection Matrix for Virtual Team Members, 183,

- 383–384; Stakeholder Analysis Chart, 120, 169, 206, 367, 385–388; Stakeholder Hats, 120, 169, 389–391; Team Adaptation Diagram, 125, 392–393; Team Alignment Pyramid, 55, 93, 181, 184, 229, 394–397; Team Building Assessment Questionnaire, 8, 43, 55, 56, 229, 370, 398–400; Team Commitment Audit, 32, 103, 137, 143, 401–403; Team Decision Matrix, 61; Team Decision Style Chart, 404–405; Team Leader Feedback Questionnaire, 45, 406–409; Team Scoping Document, 43, 60, 185, 230, 410–412; Team Sponsor Evaluation Form, 120, 169, 413; Team Sponsor Identification Form, 169, 414; Team Support Chart, 94, 143, 416; Team Vision Summary, 60, 71, 230, 417–423; Telecommuting Check Sheet, 186, 424–425; ThoughtOffice, 74, 426; Threats Analysis, 97, 122, 123, 145, 427–428; Traffic Light Technique, 23, 32, 163, 227, 429–433; Turnaround Feedback, 45, 98, 434–441; Visual Explorer (VE), 45, 74, 99, 179–180, 442fig–447. See also Facilitation process; Team-building tool guidelines
- Traffic Light Technique* tool: applying the technique, 429–432; benefits of using, 433; description of, 429; suggestions for when to use, 23, 32, 163, 227
- Transparency: building trust by increasing, 95–96; of virtual team activities, 177
- Troubleshooting: managing change through, 121–122; tools that may be used for, 122
- Trust. See Mutual trust
- Turf battles, 155–156
- Turf wars, 83
- Turnaround Feedback* tool: appreciating the risks of feedback when using, 437–438; Blocking Team Behaviors instrument used with, 440; communicating honestly when using, 436–437; description of, 434–435; how to give team feedback, 438–441; instructions for using, 435; suggestions for when to use, 45, 98; Supporting Team Behaviors instrument used with, 439
- U
- Uncertainty: organizational avoidance of, 221–222; problem of organizational, 50–51
- Uncertainty avoidance, 221–222
- Understanding Cultural Differences* (Hall and Hall), 219
- “Unraveling the Jargon” document type, 365
- Up-front assessment. See Assessing team-building needs
- U.S. Air Force officers exchange, 168
- “Us versus them,” 224–225
- V
- Values: Goals-Values Matrix tool identification of, 61, 93, 299–304; mapping cultural, 231–232
- Victim mentality, 114–115
- Virtual team meetings: innovative collaboration techniques used for, 38–89; preparing for participation in, 44; suggestions for conducting face-to-face, 194. See also Working virtually
- Virtual teams: core and supplemental memberships of, 184; diverse makeup of, 177–178; establish criteria for membership in, 183–184; initiating team building for an established, 180–181; initiating team building for newly formed, 179–180; second class citizenship of, 176–177; Selection Matrix for Virtual Team Members tool for, 183, 383–384; special challenges of newly formed, 173. See also Cross-cultural teaming; Teams
- Vision statement, 59, 60
- Vision summary, 59–60
- Visual Explorer (VE)* tool: additional reading on, 447; Afghan National Army Leadership Development case study on, 445–446fig; conducting a VE session, 445; description of, 442–443; Dialogue with Visual Explorer cartoon, 442fig; examples of applications, 443–444; sample of, 444fig; suggestions for when to use, 45, 74, 99, 179–180
- von Oech, R., 266, 267

W

WebEx, 256

West, B. J., 204

“What’s Your Social Network Strategy?”

(Harvard Business Review), 195

“White space” management, 152

Women in Search of Peace, 317

Work processes: boundary management by improving underlying, 163; boundary tension due to ineffective, 156; of cross-cultural teams, 230–234

Working virtually: challenges to facilitate, 43, 171–172; how to tell when this is a challenge, 172–178; initiating team-building session on topic of, 179–181; opportunities embedded in challenge of, 178–179; supportive actions for, 181–198. See also Virtual team meetings

Working virtually actions: address potential communication issues, 186; build a team identity, 181–183; clarify expectations with members’ managers, 185–186; clarify team goals, outcomes, and success measures, 184–185; develop electronic facilitations skills, 193–194; electronic tools to maximize team efficiency, 191–192;

establish criteria for team membership, 183–184; establish ground rules on member accountability, 189–191; establish guidelines for managing communication, 186–188; extend your reach through social networking, 194–197; make optimal use of communication avenues, 188–189; make use of bonding experiences, 197–198; “share the pain,” 185

Working virtually challenges: diverse makeup of teams as, 177–178; lack of core identity as, 174; newly formed virtual teams as, 173; second class citizenship as, 176–177; transparency of team activities as, 177; unique communication challenges as, 174–176

Working with the room, commitment to, 17

World Cafe, 88, 89, 235, 345

Y

Yamazaki Yoshitaka, 236

Yammer, 358

Z

Zoomerang, 256