

Index

- absence management 41
 ACAS 9
 code of practice 3, 62 account, peace interviews 141–43 active listening 134 administration of an appeal 171 administration, disciplinary hearings 163–64
 admissibility 104–05
 admissions 148–50
 age discrimination 90 aggressive, disparaging or stress question 136 agreed facts or admissions 157 alcohol and drugs 92–94 ambiguities 155
 anonymous witnesses 132–33
 apologies 55 appeal decisions 171–72 behaviour, meaning of 25 best evidence rule 106
 blogs and social network sites 100 body language 120
 breach of contract 69
 bullying 86–87, 180–82
 Burchell test 108 burden of proof 106–08, 128 discrimination cases 88–89, 107–08
 Buzan, Tony, mind-mapping 123 capability 72–83 and disability 83
 checklist 76–79
 dismissal letter 205 procedure notification letter 202 review meeting letter 203 written or final warning letter 204 borderline cases 75

- initial action 74–75
- case studies 174–89
 - bullying 180–82
 - false expenses claim 183–84
 - sex discrimination 184–86
 - sexual harassment 178–80
 - simple discipline 175–77
 - theft 187
- change and change management 6
- changes in work techniques 79–80
- checklist, capability 76–79
 - capability dismissal 82
 - disciplinary hearing 164–66
 - formal discipline 44
 - interview 147
 - investigator's competencies 119
 - problem solving 122–23
 - report format 156
 - statements and interview notes 147–48
 - suspension 63
- chronology 110–13, 124–25
- circumstantial evidence 104
- closed questions 136
- closure 143
- cognitive interviewing 142
- collective grievances 47
- Commission for Equality and Human Rights 84
- communication 121–22, 134–35
- competencies of the investigator 119
- complaints v grievances 47
- compromise agreement 68–69
- concepts of report writing 154–55
- conduct outside work 44–46
- confessions 148–50
- constructive dismissal 68, 181
- contract of employment 26
 - data protection 97
- contrast effect 138
- conversation management 142
- Corporate Homicide Act 2007 4
- corporate manslaughter 4
- corroboration 103–04
- criminal offences – organizational options 90–92
- custodial sentence 46
- custom and practice 127–28
- CV fraud 129
- Data Protection Act 1998 95
 - principles 95–96
 - employers duties 96
 - right of employees 97–98
- data subject access request 97
- deciding to involve the police 90–91
- decision-making 168
- detriment 60, 86
- difficult conversations 33–35, 74
- direct discrimination 86
- direct evidence 102–03
- disability and capability 83
 - discrimination 88
- disciplinary hearing 21, 162–70
 - appeals 170–72
 - hearing notice, example 196
 - interview 20, 145–47
 - officer 21, 162–63
 - panel 163
 - reports 153
- disclosure, qualifying and protected 58
- discrimination
 - direct 86
 - indirect 86
- dismissal 72–73
- dismissal in capability cases, checklist 81–83

- dismissal letter, example 197
- documentary evidence 106
- documents and exhibits 160
- drafting a chronology 110–13
- driving licence, loss of 94
- early complaint in sexual cases 105–06
- effective listening 134–35
- e-mail misuse 99
- employee, meaning of 5
- employment protection rights 29, 43
- Employment Rights Act 1996 72
- engage and explain 141
- Equal Pay Act 1970 52
- evaluation 143–44
- evidence and evidence gathering 101–13
- evidence gathering 87, 110
- admissibility 104–05
- circumstantial 104
- definition 101
- direct 102
- documentary 106
- hearsay 105
- indirect 104
- IT 109
- opinion 105
- weight 104–05
- external investigators 117
- extraneous issues 161
- failure to comply with instructions/orders 92
- fair dismissal 72–73
- final warning letter, example 199
- first impression effect 138
- fixed term contract 11
- follow-up to discipline 172
- formal discipline, checklist 44
- format of a report 156
- forward planning 121
- fraud investigations 128–29
- fraud preventative measures 128
- fundamental attribution error 138
- general fitness for work 93
- Gibbons review 16
- grapevine, managing the 69–70
- grievance procedure, drafting 49
- appeals 56
- during discipline investigation 53
- informal resolution 50
- investigations 51–52
- meeting 53
- record keeping 57
- written response 54
- gross misconduct 15
- reacting to 43–44
- grounds for an appeal 170
- harassment 85–86
- health and safety 4
- hearsay evidence 105
- HIV and AIDS 89
- Human Rights Act 1998 84, 95, 99
- independent witnesses 144
- indirect discrimination 86
- indirect evidence 104
- induction 26, 74
- Information Commissioner 97
- internal managers as investigators 116–17
- internet misuse 99
- interview checklist 147
- interviewing 130–51
- investigator 21, 116
- investigators' skill set 117–23
- investigator's tools 124
- IT evidence 109

- job description 26
- knowledge, meaning of 24
- Kolb's learning cycle 118
- leading questions 135
- Linford guidelines for anonymous witnesses 132–33
- loss of driving licence 94
- managing relationships 121–22
- managing the grapevine 69–70
- mind-mapping 123, 153
- mirroring 137
- misconduct 14–15
 - reacting to 41–43
- misuse of telephone, e-mail or internet 99
- mitigating factors or circumstances 158, 159–61
- modified procedure 12, 57
- monitoring and surveillance 97–98
- multiple questions 136
- negative information bias 138
- negative statements 132
- negotiation 150–51
- no comment replies 142, 145
- nonverbal techniques 134
- not proven letter, example 198
- note-taking v statement writing 147
- notice of appeal letter, example 200
- open question 136
- opinion evidence 105
- organizational review 61
- peace process of interviewing 139–44
- personal data 6
- personal mitigation 160
- persuading an employee to resign 68
- plain English 154
- plan and prepare 139–141
- plea-bargaining 161
- points to prove 109 125–26, 177, 184, 188
- Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 (PACE) 91
- police involvement 90–91
- policies and procedures 23
- pornography 99, 109
- potentially fair dismissal 72–73, 94
- presenting the discipline case 166–67
- presumptions 109
- priority setting 121
- proactive discipline 7, 22–36
- probation 28, 28–30
- probing sequence 136
- problem solving cycle 122–23
- problems in disciplinary hearings 169–70
- promotion and inadequate performance 80–81
- protecting evidence 126
- Protection of Harassment Act 1977 87
- psychometric testing 25
- Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 58
- qualifications 25
- question, aggressive, disparaging or stress 136
 - closed 136
 - leading 136
 - multiple 136
 - open 136

- questioning techniques 135–37
- race discrimination 88
- reactive discipline 7
- reasonable adjustments 88
- reasonable belief 109, 126, 168
- recommendations 159
- recording interviews 150
- recruitment and selection 24
- redundancy 11, 72
- references 25
- reflective practice 116, 118–20, 131, 135, 144, 170, 173
- reintroduction, after suspension 70–71
- relevant disciplinary action 10
- religious belief, discrimination 89
- report writing 152–61
- resignation during suspension or investigation 67
- responsibilities during suspension 66
- result of appeal letter, example 201
- retirement 11, 72
- retracting a statement 131–32
- return to work interviews 41
- right to be accompanied 17–19, 53
- role of the representative 167–68
- secret investigations 115
- self-organization 121
- sex discrimination 87
- sign-posting 166
- silence 134–35, 145
- similar-to-me 137
- situational mitigation 160
- skills, meaning of 25
- small employer 19–20
- some other substantial reason (SOSR) 46, 72
- standard of proof 90, 94, 108–09
- starting the report 157
- statement or notes checklist 147–48
- statement writing v note-taking 147
- stereotypes 138
- substantiated, meaning of 159
- summarizing and rephrasing 134
- suspects 145–47
- suspension 62–71
- suspension letter, examples 193–94
- suspension procedures 65
- checklist 63
- techniques of report writing 155
- telephone misuse 99
- terms of reference 123–24, 157, 191–92
- third-party harassment 87, 179–80
- time management 120–22
- tools of the investigator 124
- trade union representatives 95
- traditional interviewing 137–38
- training, management 32
- tricks and devices 126–27
- unfounded, meaning of 158
- unstructured interview 137
- unsubstantiated, meaning of 158
- using your chronology 124–25
- vicarious liability 4
- victimization 86, 179
- vulnerable witness 145

- WASP interviewing technique
 - 138–39
- whistleblowing 58–61
 - investigations 60
- witness statement, form 195
- witnesses 144–45
 - independent 144
 - vulnerable 145
- worker, meaning of 5

<http://www.pbookshop.com>