

Index

A

- acronyms, motivational, 69–71
- Allen, Steve, 24, 182–183
- anxiety. See speaking anxiety
- apologies, avoiding, 34–35
- appearance, importance of, 104–105, 126, 158
- ASCAP, 98
- attentiveness, audience, 84–85, 136, 155
- Audience
 - calls to action for, 71–72, 183, 184–185
 - facing when speaking to, 105, 127
 - knowing and researching, 9–16, 30–31, 61, 175
 - lack of concern for, 76
 - monitoring reactions of, 13, 18–20
 - preparing presentation setting for, 118–121
 - as presentation aspect, 3, 4, 9–16
 - size of, 16, 152
 - surveying, 12–16
- audio visual requirements, 49–50
- auditory (aural) communication channels, 17
- auditory (aural) learning, 109, 111–113

B

- body, of presentations, 67, 69–70
- body language. See nonverbal communication
- body movement
 - benefits of using, 147–148

INDEX

- body movement (continued)
 effective body speak, 148–149
 mirroring feelings with, 153
 recording, 149–152
 as transition, 180
bridge words, 180
Briggs, Katherine Cooks, 121
- C
- calls to action, 71–72, 183, 184–185
Carson, Johnny, 26
catalogs, 54–55
chair arrangements, 38, 44–45, 120–121
chalkboards, 93–94
Channel, as presentation aspect,
 3, 4, 16–18
charts, pictorial, 17 classroom style layouts, 39, 40
closings. See conclusions comfort zones and levels, 129–130, 139–140, 152
communication channels, 3, 4, 16–18
complete texts, reading from, 176, 177–178
compound question tactic, 168 computer LCD projectors, 97, 99–102
conclusions, presentation,
 67, 71–72, 77–78,
 183–184
- confidence
 appearance and, 104–105, 126, 158
 building by being yourself, 152–153
 gaining experience and, 35
 mental techniques to help, 36–37
conversational mode, 131–136, 177 credibility
 importance of, 4–5 lack of in poor presentations, 77 sincerity and, 105, 125, 127–128, 153, 155, 158
customized program surveys, 13–16
- D
- Dale, Edgar (Dale's Cone of Experience), 85–86
delayed personal rewards, 4 delay tactic, 167
Deliver, delivery, 3–5, 9, 11, 77, 84, 131–132, 175–181
descriptive gestures, 136–137 diagrams, 17
diffusion tactic, 168–170 dinner style room layouts, 40, 43 direct appeal closings, 183 direct personal rewards, 4
distractions. See Noise
door locations, 38, 45
Dozen Deadly Dangers, 75–78

INDEX

E

- Eckman, Paul, 155
- effective speech, tips for, 175–176
- emphatic gestures, 137
- encyclopedias, 56
- experienced speakers, 25–26
- eye contact
 - answering questions and, 164–165
 - importance of, 155–156
 - lack of, 178
 - recording, 149–152
 - visual aids and, 179

F

- Facial Action Coding System (FACS), 155
- facial expressions, 16, 81–83, 149–152, 154–155
- fear. See speaking anxiety
- Feedback
 - audience reactions to, 13, 18–20
 - defined, 18
 - as presentation aspect, 3, 4, 18–20
 - self-review and, 184–185
 - visual feedback, monitoring, 157
- fidgeting, avoiding, 105, 126, 148, 157–158
- fig leaf hand position, 145
- Flip cameras, 5, 97
- flip charts, 87–90

- follow-up, importance of, 78, 176
- food and refreshments, 49
- foreign languages, 22–23
- formal vs. informal settings, 118–119
- frowning, 148, 154

G

- gestures
 - benefits of using, 16, 125–130, 136
 - defined, 135–136
 - hand gestures, 105, 135–147
 - locations of, 138–147
 - mirroring feelings with, 153
 - recording, 149–152
 - types of, 136–137
 - using effectively, 143–147
- grabbers, closing, 71–73
- grabbers, opening, 61, 67–68, 175
- graphs, 17

H

- hand gestures
 - answering questions and, 172
 - fig leaf position, 145
 - nondescript or open resting position, 141
 - opera singer position, 144
 - prayer position, 142
 - reversed fig leaf position, 146
 - spider or steeple position, 143
 - using effectively, 105, 127, 135–147

INDEX

handouts, 94–95
heart rates, anxiety and, 26–28
high-anxiety speakers, 25–26, 131–132, 135
hostility, diffusing, 166–172 humor, using, 67–68, 182–183

I

immediate personal rewards, 4 indirect personal rewards, 4 informal vs. formal settings, 118–119
information gathering on audience, 9–10
importance of, 77
Internet as tool for, 56–58 library resources for, 53–56 for message content, 6–7 presentation time limits and, 57–58
on standing and positions, 59–60, 105, 126
surveys for, 12–16
on visual aids, 59
information overload, 61–63 insensitive speakers, 25–27
I.N.S.P.I.R.E. acronym,
70–71
Internet, as research tool, 56–58
interpersonal learning, 110, 116–117
intrapersonal learning, 110, 117–118

introductions
agenda in, 67, 68–69
importance of, 53,
67–69, 76
nonverbal communication
and, 128
opening grabbers, 61, 67–68, 175
purpose in, 67, 68

J

jokes and humor, 67–68,
182–183

K

kinesthetic learning, 86, 109, 114–115

L

lateral movement, 148
LCD projectors, 97, 99–102
learning styles
auditory or aural, 109, 111–113
importance of, 109
logical or mathematical, 109, 115–116
mixed styles, 118
Myers-Briggs Type Indicator
and, 121–122
physical or kinesthetic, 86, 109, 114–115
social or interpersonal, 110, 116–117

INDEX

- solitary or intrapersonal
 - learning, 110, 117–118
 - verbal or linguistic, 109, 113–114
 - visual or spacial, 109–111
- lecterns, hiding behind, 105, 126
- lecture style room layouts, 40, 42
- librarians, 54
- library and Internet tools, 53–58
- lighting, 38, 46, 120, 125
- linguistic learning, 109, 113–114
- listening skills, 163–164
- logical learning, 109, 115–116
- look ahead closings, 183

- M
- mathematical learning, 109, 115–116
- Mehrabian, Albert, 81–83
- memorization, 85–86, 176–177
- Message
 - content of, 6–7
 - effective physical actions and, 128–130
 - objectives in, 75, 175
 - passion and enthusiasm for, 27–29, 35, 71, 121
 - as presentation aspect, 3, 4, 5–9
 - presentation structure and, 8–9
 - purpose of, knowing, 60–61, 67, 68
 - speaking style and, 7–8
 - topic selection and, 53–58
 - visual aids and
 - communicating, 83–84
- mistakes, avoiding, 75–78
- Monroe, Alan H. (Monroe's motivated sequence), 72–73, 75
- motivation, 4, 69–71
- movies. See videos and movies
- music
 - in hotel background settings, 38, 46–47
 - using during presentation, 63–64
 - visual aids and, 63–64, 96–99
- Myers, Isabel Briggs, 121
- Myers-Briggs Type Indicator, 121–122

- N
- names, remembering, 15, 19, 30–31, 110, 112
- natural comfort zones, 139
- negative attitudes, avoiding, 77
- nervous speakers. See speaking anxiety
- newspapers, 54, 55–56
- nine Ps, 10, 75–76
- Noise
 - distracting mannerisms, avoiding, 148–149
 - external noise and distractions, 20–23

INDEX

- Noise (continued)
foreign languages and,
22–23
internal noise, 23–37
as presentation aspect, 4, 20–37
quiet vs. noisy settings, 119 temperature and concentration, 20–21
visual distractions, 150
See also speaking anxiety
- nondescript hand position, 141
- nonverbal communication
appearance and, 104–105, 126, 158
body language experiments
and, 81–83
body movement, 16, 17–18
defined, 16–18
effective physical actions, 128–130
eye contact, 149–152, 155–156, 173–179
facial expressions, 16, 149–152, 154–155
gestures, 16, 105, 125–130, 135–147
mirroring feelings with, 153
performance vs. conversational mode, 130–136
posture, 16, 135–135, 149
recording, 149–152
speaking anxiety and,
127–136
walking patterns and, 158–159
you as visual aid and,
103–105, 126–128
- Nonverbal Communication*
(Mehrabian), 82
- notes, referring to, 176,
178–179
- O
- objectives, message, 75, 175 objects, pictorial, 17 openings. See introductions opera singer hand position, 144
- Organize, organized, 8–9, 67–72, 84
- overhead transparencies, 90–93
- P
- passion, speaking with, 27–29, 35, 71, 121
- pauses
eye contact and natural pauses, 156
in question-and-answer periods, 164, 166, 171
reading from text and,
177–178
as transitions, 180
walking patterns and, 159
- PEP formula (point, example, point), 181
- performance anxiety.
See speaking anxiety

INDEX

- performance mode, 7, 28, 130–136, 135
- periodicals, 54, 55
- personal experiences, 53, 175
- personal rewards, 4
- persuasive presentation, 73, 175
- photographs, 95–96
- physical behaviors. See body movement; gestures;
nonverbal communication
- physical learning, 86, 109, 114–115
- pictorial communication channels, 17
- point-by-point transitions, 180
- poor presentations, reasons for, 75–78
- positive attitudes
 - effective physical actions encouraging, 128–130
 - friendliness, communicating,
158, 172
 - importance of, 175
 - negative attitudes,
avoiding, 77
 - passion and enthusiasm,
27–29, 35, 71, 121
- posters, 95–96
- posture, 16, 135–136, 149
- PowerPoint, 88, 98, 99, 102
- practice and improvement
 - by gaining experience, 135
 - importance of, 60
 - for positive attitudes,
128–130, 158, 172, 175
 - by recording presentations,
149–152
- prayer hand position, 141
- preparation
 - arriving early and, 15, 30, 47–48, 50, 176
 - for audience preferences, 9–16
 - building confidence and, 153
 - importance of, 175, 176–184
 - information gathering and,
53–60
 - information overload and,
61–63
 - nine Ps, 10, 75–76
 - poor presentations and lack of, 75–76
 - as a process, 60–61
 - for setting locations, 37–39
- pre-program surveys, 12–13
- presentation delivery, 5, 77
 - See also* nonverbal communication
- presentation environment.
See settings
- presentation material and content. See Message
- presentations, aspects of
 - 1—Speaker, 3, 4–5
 - 2—Message, 3, 4, 5–9
 - 3—Audience, 3, 9–16
 - 4—Channel, 3, 16–18

INDEX

- presentations, aspects of
(continued)
5—Feedback, 3, 18–20
6—Noise, 4, 20–37
7—Setting, 4, 37–50
overview, 3, 4, 50
- presentation structure body, 67, 69–71
calls to action, 71–72, 183, 184–185
conclusions, 67, 71–72, 77–78
introductions, 53, 61, 67–69, 76, 128, 175
message and, 8–9
Monroe’s motivated sequence, 72–75
time limits and, 8–9, 57–58, 67–69
“professional speakers” type,
25–27
prompting gestures, 137
punctuality, 15, 30, 47–48, 50, 176
purpose, presentation, 60–61, 67, 68
- Q
- question-and-answer periods
hostile or difficult questions, 166–172
lack of questions during,
165–166
preparing for, 163
- regular (nondifficult)
questions, 163–165
rephrasing questions, 169–170 questions, as transitions, 180 quotations, using, 56, 68, 182
- R
- reference works, for research, 54, 56
refreshments and food, 49
relaxation techniques, 32–33, 136–137
research. See information gathering resting hand position, 141 retention, of presentation material memorization and, 176–177
reading from complete text, 176, 177–178
referring to notes, 176, 178–179
visual aids and, 85–86, 176–180
reversed fig leaf hand position, 146 rhetorical questions, 68, 183
room location and size layouts, 39–43
room temperature, 20–21, 39, 47, 119–120
- S
- scripts, 76, 84, 178
seating arrangements, 38, 44–45, 120–121

INDEX

- self-confidence. See confidence
- Setting
- audio visual requirements, 49–50
 - comfort of, 120–121
 - door locations, 38, 45
 - food and refreshments, 49
 - formal vs. informal settings, 118–119
 - hotel background music, 38, 46–47
 - importance of, 37–39
 - learning styles and, 118–124
 - lighting, 38, 46, 120, 125
 - on-site presentations, 48
 - other functions at same location, 48
 - as presentation aspect, 4, 37–50
 - room location and size layouts, 39–43
 - table and chair arrangements, 38, 44–45
 - window locations, 38, 45–46
- Silent Messages* (Mehrabian), 82
- sincerity, 105, 125, 127–128, 153, 155, 158
- Smedly, Ralph C., 148
- social learning, 110, 116–117
- solitary learning, 110, 117–118
- spacial learning, 109–111
- Speaker
- common faults of, 75–78, 148
 - credibility of speakers, 4–5, 105, 125, 127–128, 153, 155, 158
 - motivation of, 4
 - as presentation aspect, 3, 4–5
 - types of, 25–29
 - as visual aid, 103–105
- speaking anxiety
- comfort levels in speech and, 129–130
 - conversational mode and, 131–136
 - defined, 3
 - gestures and, 127–128, 130
 - heart rates and, 26–28
 - improving with experience, 135
 - knowing content to reduce, 31–32
 - mental techniques to reduce, 37
 - nervous speakers, 87, 127–128, 130
 - performance mode and, 7, 28, 131–136, 135
 - physical techniques to reduce, 36–37
 - preparation techniques to reduce, 29–35
 - stage fright, 24, 182–183
 - symptoms of, 26–28
 - three levels of, 129
 - types of speakers with, 25–29
- speaking styles, 7–8

INDEX

- spider hand position, 143
stage fright. See speaking anxiety standing and position, 59–60, 105, 126
steep hand position, 143
Steve Allen Show, 24, 182–183
stories, as transitions, 180 structure and format. See
presentation structure
suggestive gestures, 137
summary closings, 183
SurveyMonkey, 12
surveys, 12–16
- T
table arrangements, 38, 44–45 team presentations, 181–182 temperature, room, 20–21, 39, 47, 119–120
theater style room layouts, 40, 42
time limits, presentation, 8–9, 57–58, 67–69
Toastmasters International, 148
topic selection, 53–58
transitions mistakes made using, 181
in question-and-answer
periods, 165
team presentations and,
181–182
types of, 180–181
transparencies, 90–93
trigger transitions, 180
trust. See credibility
Twain, Mark, 68, 182
- U
u-shaped room layouts, 39, 41
- V
verbal learning, 109, 113–114 videos and movies permissions for use, 64, 98
using, 63–64
visual aids and, 96–99
visual aids
benefits of using, 83–87, 132–103, 179–180
body language experiments
and, 81–83
conversational language for, 133–134
font sizes in, 92
mistakes and poor aids, 76–77
as notes, 176, 179–180
selecting, 59
as transitions, 180
types of, 87–102
you as visual aid, 103–105, 126–128
visual distractions, 150
visual feedback, monitoring, 157
visualization techniques, 33, 37, 73, 74

INDEX

visual learning, 109–111

voice and tone, 17, 149–152

W

walking patterns, 158–159

warm-up routines, 36–37

whiteboards, 93–94

window locations, 38,
45–46

Z

Ziglar, Zig, 131

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>