

INDEX

Page references followed by fig indicates an illustrated figure; followed by t indicates a table.

A

Acceptable personal use policies, 131–134
Acquisition 2.0 (GSA), 104, 107*fig*
Administration workgroup, 141–142
Alpha geeks, 20
Amber Alert on Facebook (2010), 3
Amtrak power outage (2010), 8
Apps for Democracy, 25, 26*fig*
Apps for the Environment, 25
Arab Spring (2011), 5, 29, 63
Arizona's iMesa program, 152
Asymmetric follower model, 63
@mention tweets, 64
@reply tweets, 64
@TheirAccountName Twitter service, 64
Audiences: respecting your, 125; social media strategy to build your, 100–101; social media to identify and build your, 98–101

B

Barcamps (unconferences), 20
BART (San Francisco's Bay Area Rapid Transit) foursquare badges, 160, 161*fig*

BetterBuy project wiki, 79, 81*fig*, 104, 107*fig*
Bit.ly, 67
Blogger, 56
Blogs: Bill Schrier on disclaimer for personal use of, 136*fig*; commenting and threaded discussion features of, 51–52; crowdsourcing on, 104, 106, 149–155*t*; description and functions of, 49; government website integrated with, 9, 11*fig*, 49, 51; Greenversations blog (EPA), 56, 57*fig*; NARA's Records Express, 160; Portland Water Bureau's Water Blog, 49, 50*fig*; posting policies and rules for your, 52–53; Preparedness 101: Zombie Apocalypse (CDC), 49, 51*fig*; Quick Start Guide on, 56–57; tips for drawing in participation on, 53; The Ventura City Manager Blog, 52–53, 54*fig*–55*fig*. See also Microblogging
Boehner, John, 147
Boynton Beach (FL) Police Department case study: background of the, 88–89; BBPD live web chat, 91; building trust via, 84, 88–92; cross-promotion with

- COPS (TV show), 91–92; Facebook page of BBPD, 91; outcomes of social media use by, 90
- Branding: FCC Connect’s social media, 115*fig*; Nebraska’s Social Media Guidelines for, 113, 114*fig*; social media policy for, 112–113
- Broviak, Pam, 137–139
- C
- Case studies: Boynton Beach (FL) Police Department, 84, 88–92; City of Edmonton (Canada), 28–29; Dustin Haisler on the City of Manor’s social media use, 162–163; GovLoop.com, 17, 39*t*, 43, 44*fig*–46; Pam Broviak’s personal social media use, 137–139
- CDC_eHealth tweet, 66*fig*
- Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC): CDC_eHealth tweet from, 66*fig*; Preparedness 101: Zombie Apocalypse blog by, 49, 51*fig*
- Challenge.gov, 150, 151*fig*, 152*fig*
- Charlotte (NC) Fire Department website, 43*fig*
- Cisco, 31
- Citizen scientists, 9
- Citizens: blogging to, 9, 11*fig*, 49–57; City of San Jose’s WikiPlanning with, 76, 90*fig*; direct citizen service business units workgroup for working with, 143–144; microblogging to, 59–69; USGS tracking of tweets during earthquakes by, 9; wikis for sharing and collaboration with, 76, 79. See also Democratizing democracy
- City of Edmonton (Alberta, Canada) case study, 28–29
- City of Hampton (Virginia), 99
- City of Manor (Texas), 162–163
- City of Mesa (Arizona), iMesa program, 152
- City of Reno (Nevada): Kristy Fifelski’s Twitter personal account, 135*fig*; personal use disclaimer policy of the, 134
- Claggett, Janet, 135*fig*
- Collaboration: democratizing democracy through social media, 24–25; as Government 2.0 foundation, 24–25; on joint creation of content, 9, 11
- Commenting: blog feature of, 51–52; e-mail comments left on government websites, 7–8; ensuring online netiquette by setting policies on, 121–126
- Commenting policies: Nebraska Information Technology Commission best practices for, 125–126; posted on blogs, 51–52; suggested rules for, 122–125; The Ventura City Manager Blog, 52–53, 54*fig*
- Commenting policy rules: 1: shared commenting policy defining expectations of online discussion, 122, 123*fig*; 2: online communication should adhere to face-to-face etiquette, 122–124; 3: accept and respond positively to different points of view, 124–125; 4: respect your audience, 125
- Communication: comparing traditional and social media, 7–12; connectiveness as facilitating, 31–32; democratizing democracy through social media, 25–26; as Government 2.0 foundation, 24, 25–26; social media policy for Facebook two-way, 116
- Community: democratizing democracy through social media, 27; as Government 2.0 foundation, 24, 27

- Community building tactic: description of the pull, 103–104; town hall meetings as, 40, 41*fig*; 104, 105*fig*
- Community Internet Intensity Map “Did you feel it?” (USGS), 156, 157*fig*
- Connectiveness: facilitating communication through, 32; social media increasing, 32–33; 24/7 access through, 33
- Content: developing of first-generation government websites, 8, 9*fig*; social media policy ensuring accessibility of, 117–118; social media policy on keeping records and collecting public information, 119–121; social media policy on setting, 116–117; social media tool capability for joint creation of, 9, 11; using plain language for online, 118; Wikipedia’s “democratic,” 73. See also Social media
- Controlled experiments workgroup, 145–146
- CrimeReports.com, 20, 22*fig*
- CrisisCommons wiki, 76, 77*fig*
- CrisisCommons.org, 20
- Crowdsourcing: local, state, and federal examples of, 155*t*; location-based services channel for, 155–160*fig*; open innovation platforms for idea, 149–155*t*; RFPs (requests for proposals), 104, 106
- D
- Davie, Mary, 79, 104, 107*fig*
- Democratizing democracy: Chris Moore on the power of social media for, 28–29; collaboration function of social media for, 24–25; communication function of social media for, 25–27; community function of social media for, 27; how social media in government facilitates, 23; mingling function of social media for, 24; town hall meetings, 40, 41*fig*, 104, 105*fig*. See also Citizens
- Digital natives, 32–33
- Direct citizen service business units workgroup, 143–144
- Disclaimers: Bill Schrier on blog account, 136*fig*; Janet Claggett on using, 135*fig*; Kristy Fifelski on using, 134–135*fig*; social media policies on personal use of, 134
- E
- E-discovery rules, 112
- E-government services (early 2000s), 106
- Earthquake tweets (USGS tracking), 9
- Economic development and tourism workgroup, 143
- Edmonton (Alberta, Canada), 28–29
- Encyclopaedia Britannica*, 73
- EPA. See U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)
- ExpertNet Wiki, 76, 78*fig*
- F
- Facebook: Amber Alerts as opt-in newsfeed by, 3; communication functions of, 37; crowdsourcing on, 104, 106, 149–155*t*; global growth of users on, 31, 38; government agencies’ presence on, 19, 33; government website integrated with, 9, 11*fig*; live town hall meeting held on, 40, 41*fig*; location-based service of, 155–156; National Association of State Chief Information Officers (NASCIO) policy on use of, 113; originally devised for college students, 4; overview of

- government use of, 39*t*; Questions function of, 40; San Francisco's Service Request System on, 106, 108*fig*; social media policy for two-way communications on, 116; social search engine function of, 38, 67; sophisticated networking tools of, 33; Virginia State Police (VSP) Amber Alert [2010] on, 3
- FCC Connect's social media branding, 115*fig*
- Federal Plain Language Guidelines*, 118
- Federal Web Managers Council (GSA), 84
- #FF (#Follow Friday) tweets, 65, 67*fig*
- Fifelski, Kristy, 134–135*fig*
- Financial costs workgroup, 144–145
- Fletcher, Dave, 35
- Foursquare: NARA's landing page on, 159*fig*; NARA's "Walk with the Presidents on Foursquare," 156, 158, 160*fig*; NASA Explorer Badge and "I Voted 2010" Badge, 158*fig*; San Francisco's Bay Area Rapid Transit (BART) badges, 160, 161*fig*
- Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 119
- Fugate, Craig, 1
- Future of social media: Dustin Haisler on the City of Manor, Texas, and the, 162–163; location-based services, 155–160*fig*; open innovation platforms for idea crowdsourcing, 149–155*t*; virtual worlds, 160–162
- G
- Google: daily searches enabled by, 32; more Facebook searches (2011) than on, 38; overview of government use of, 39*t*
- Go.USA.gov, 67
- Government: historic authority of, 13; how technology has improved communication with, 13–15; traditional one-way communication with, 13. See also White House
- Government 2.0: barcamps (unconferences) by, 20; collaboration, communication, and community foundation of, 24–27; description of, 5, 34; drivers of social media adoption by, 31–34; future social media use by, 149–163; matrix for matching social media tools to the needs of, 84, 85*fig*, 166; Open Government memo (2009) mandate for, 17–18, 34, 76; origins of, 17; social media for democratizing democracy, 23–29; summary of social networking services used by, 38, 39*t*; terms of service agreements (TOS) used by, 18; two-way collaborative communication developed by, 20–22*fig*. See also Social media
- Government agencies: branding your, 112–113, 114*fig*–115*fig*; Facebook pages set up by, 19, 33; future social media use by, 149–163; matrix for matching social media tools to the needs of, 84, 85*fig*, 166; microblogging to distribute mission-relevant information by, 59; personal versus professional social media use by employees of, 129–139; recommendations for getting the most out of social media for your, 165–168; rolling documents on social media strategy by, 95; social media policy for "branding" your, 112–113, 114*fig*; social media tactics for, 103–108*fig*; social media that support the mission of, 96–98; social media used to identify and build audiences of, 98–101; social

- networking presence by, 19; step-by-step guide for Twitter administration by, 63–69; tweets sent by, 59; two-way collaborative communication developed by, 20–22*fig*
- Government & Social Media Wiki, 84, 87*fig*
- Government websites: blogs integrated with, 9, 11*t*, 49, 51; content development of first generation of, 8, 9*fig*; e-mail comments left on, 7–8; future social media applications to, 149–163; HowTo.gov, 84, 86*fig*; social media sites integrated into, 9, 11*t*
- GovLoop.com: creation of, 17; description and functions of, 43, 44*fig*; as networking tactic, 104; overview of government use of, 39*t*; Steve Ressler on the story of, 43, 45–46
- Greenversations blog (EPA), 56
- Greeves, Bill, 9
- ## H
- Haisler, Dustin, 162–163
- Hampton (Virginia), 99
- Harford County’s innovation portal, 152, 154*fig*
- #hashtags. See Twitter #hashtags
- Health Data Palooza, 25
- HowTo.gov website, 84, 86*fig*
- H/T or HT (head tip or heard through) tweets, 63
- Human resources and workforce development, 143
- Hyperlinks, 71
- ## I
- Information: Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) governing, 119; how social media has changed communication of, 8–9; microblogging to distribute mission-relevant, 59–69; RT (retweeting) of, 63; social media channels as adding new outlets for, 9, 10, 11*fig*; social media policies on keeping records and collecting, 119–121; social media tactic for education and sharing, 103, 104*fig*; wikis used to share, 74–81*fig*
- Information technology workgroup, 142
- Internet: Google search engine for the, 32, 38, 39*t*; as primary daily news resource, 4; social search engines for the, 38, 67–68
- Internet & American Life Project (Pew Research Center), 60
- ## J
- Japanese earthquake (2011), 4
- ## K
- Kundra, Vivek, 17
- ## L
- Law enforcement: Amber Alert Facebook page, 3; Boynton Beach (FL) Police Department case study on, 84, 88–92
- Lee, Ed, 106
- Legal counsel workgroup, 142
- Library of Congress Twitter Archive, 18, 19
- Limited public forums, 124
- LinkedIn: communication functions of, 37; communities of, 4; description and functions of, 43; government website integrated with, 9, 11*fig*; overview of government use of, 39*t*; U.S. Navy policy on personal use of, 131
- Live town hall meetings: community building through, 104, 105*fig*;

democratizing democracy through using Facebook for, 40, 41*fig*
LiveJournal, 49
Location-based services: BART (San Francisco's Bay Area Rapid Transit)
foursquare, 160, 161*fig*; crowdsourcing using, 155–160*fig*; NARA (U.S.
National Archives and Records Administration), 156, 158*fig*–160*fig*
Los Angeles Fire Department (LAFD)
Twitter Updates and Alerts, 60, 61*fig*

M

The Machine Is Us/ing Us (YouTube video), 8
MediaWiki, 73
@mention tweets, 64
Mergel, Ines, 9
Microblogging: description of, 59; Los Angeles Fire Department (LAFD)
Twitter Updates and Alerts, 60, 61*fig*;
Quick Start Guide for, 69; Roanoke
County Public Library Twitter Updates
60, 62*fig*; snowballing exchanges of Twitter, 59–60; step-by-step guide for Twitter administration of, 63–69;
used to distribute mission-relevant information, 59. See also Blogs; Twitter
Middle East Arab Spring (2011), 5, 29, 63
Millennials: description of, 32; as digital natives, 32–33
Mission statements: EPA example of,
96–97*fig*, 98; matrix for matching social media tools to, 84, 85*t*, 166; social media strategy that supports your,
96–98
Moore, Chris, 28–29
MuniGov 2.0, 17, 161
MySpace: communication functions of, 37;
originally devised for teens, 4; overview of government use of, 39*t*

N

NARA. See U.S. National Archives and Records Administration (NARA)
National Association of State Chief
Information Officers (NASCIO), 18,
113
National Center for Missing & Exploited
Children, 3
National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), 20
Nature study (2005), 73
Navy Command Social Media Handbook,
110, 111*fig*
Nebraska's Social Media Guidelines, 113,
114*fig*
Netiquette: Nebraska Information Technology Commission's best practices for, 125–126; social media commenting policy for,
121–125; State of Utah's guidelines on, 122
Networking tactic: description of, 104;
GovLoop.com used as, 17, 39*t*, 43,
44*fig*–46
New York City's chief digital officer, 33
NOAA-Weather Channel
“collaboration,” 20
NYC Simplicity, 152, 153*fig*

O

Obama, Barack: live town hall meetings held by, 40, 41*fig*, 104, 105*fig*; Open Government memo (2009) by, 17–18,
34, 76
Office of Citizen Services and Innovative Technologies (GSA), 84
Office of Science and Technology
Policy, 76
OH (OverHeard) tweets, 64
Open Diary, 49

- Open Government memo (2009), 17–18, 34, 76
- Open innovation platforms: Challenge.gov, 150, 151*fig*, 152*fig*; description and function of, 150; examples of government use of, 152–155*t*; Harford County’s innovation portal, 152, 154*fig*; for idea crowdsourcing, 149–150; NYC Simplicity, 152, 153*fig*
- OpenStreetMap, 74
- Open311 movement, 20, 21*fig*
- P
- PageFreezer, 119
- PBworks, 73
- Personal social media use: the blurring of lines between professional and, 130–131; examining professional vs., 129–130; Pam Broviak’s case study on, 137–139; setting acceptable use policies for, 131–134; State of Michigan’s personal use policy, 132–133; summary review of recommendations for, 139; using disclaimers and IDs on personal accounts, 134–136
- Pew Research Center’s Internet & American Life Project, 60
- Phillips, Macon, 120, 121*fig*
- Plain Language Action and Information Network (PLAIN), 118
- Portland Water Bureau’s Water Blog, 49, 50*fig*
- Preparedness 101: Zombie Apocalypse* blog (CDC), 49, 51*fig*
- Public information and marketing workgroup, 142–143
- Pull tactic, 103–104
- Q
- QR-code program (City of Manor, Texas), 162
- Quick Start Guide: for blogs, 56–57; for microblogging, 69; for using social networking services (SNS), 46–47; for wikis, 82
- R
- Rainie, Lee, 60
- Reaction Grid, 160
- Really Simple Syndication (RSS) feeds, 56, 144
- Record keeping: City of Reno (Nevada) policy on, 120–121; social media policies for, 119–120
- Records Express* blog (NARA), 160
- @reply tweets, 64
- Respecting your audience, 125
- Ressler, Steve, 43, 45–46
- Retweeting (RT), 63
- Roanoke County (VA) Public Library Twitter Updates, 60, 62*fig*
- Robach, Joseph, 124
- RT (retweeting), 63
- Ruller, Dave, 53, 55*fig*
- S
- San Francisco’s Service Request System (Facebook), 106, 108*fig*
- Schrier, Bill, 136*fig*
- Science Wednesday post (Greenversations blog), 56, 57*fig*
- Second Life, 160, 161
- SeeClickFix, 20
- Slater, Stephanie H., 88–92
- SlideShare, 9, 11
- Social media: Amtrak power outage (2010) responses through, 8; Boynton Beach (FL) Police Department building trust via, 84, 88–92; comparing traditional media and, 7–12*t*; democratizing democracy through, 23–29; description

- of, 4; developing strategies for using, 95–101; expansion into everyday life, 4–5; implementation of strategy and tactics for using, 141–146; integration into government websites, 9, 11*t*; personal versus professional use of, 129–139; public sector future of, 149–163; recognizing (and minimizing) costs of using, 144–145; recommendations for getting the most out of, 165–168; role of in Arab Spring (2011), 5; tactics for using, 103–108*fig*. See also Content; Government 2.0; Technology
- Social media ambassadors, 144
- Social media drivers: connectedness as, 31–32; cost reductions through social media tools as, 33; expectations of digital natives as, 32–33; summary of, 34
- Social Media Guidelines* (Nebraska), 113, 114*fig*
- Social media policies: for branding to establish “corporate” identity, 112–113, 114*fig*; defining organizational responsibility through, 110, 112; ensuring accessibility of social media content, 117–118; focusing on providing clear guidance, 109–110; for legitimate business purposes only, 109; growing need for social media strategy and, 95–96; on keeping records and collecting public information, 119–121*fig*; listing of all acceptable platforms as part of, 113; Navy Command Social Media Handbook, 110, 111*fig*; Nebraska’s Social Media Guidelines example of, 113, 114*fig*; on posting a blog, 52–53; on setting a content and information approval process, 116–117; on setting acceptable personal use, 131–134; on setting commenting policy and ensuring online netiquette, 121–126; on using plain language online, 118; on using social media for two-way communications, 116; summary review on recommendations for, 126–127; The Ventura City Manager Blog comment policy, 52–53, 54*fig*
- Social media strategy: building your organization’s audiences with, 100–101; focusing on mission support, 96–98; growing need for policies and, 95–96; identifying your organization’s audiences using, 98–100; implementation of, 141–146; rolling documents on, 95; summary review of recommendations for, 101
- Social media tactics: citizen participation and engagement through community building, 103–104, 105*fig*; implementation of, 141–146; information and education, 103, 104*fig*; networking, 104, 106, 107*fig*; transactional, 106, 108*fig*
- Social media tools: approaching with cautious optimism, 165–166; begin with controlled experiments on using, 167; and being willing to lose control of content, 166; Boynton Beach (FL) Police Department use of, 88–92; choosing the right, 83–92; cost reductions through sophisticated, 33; creating a team approach to using, 166–167; do your homework on, 166; guiding your people in the use of, 167; keeping the conversation going on using, 168; matrix for matching government needs to, 84, 85*t*, 166;

- never become complacent in using, 167–168; Really Simple Syndication (RSS) feeds, 56, 144; resources on using, 84, 86*fig*, 87*fig*; URL shorteners, 67
- Social networking services (SNS): description and functions of, 37–38; the downside of, 40, 42; government use of the best-known, 38, 39*t*, 41*fig*; keeping the conversation going function of, 42–44*fig*; Quick Start Guide to using, 46–47
- Social search engine: Facebook function as a, 38, 67; Twitter function as a, 67–68
- Socialtext, 73
- State of Michigan's personal use policy, 132–133
- State of Utah's netiquette guidelines, 122
Strategic Master Plan for Information Technology 2011–2013 (Mississippi Department of Information Technology Services), 113
- Sunshine laws, 119
- T
- Technology: expansion and use of, 31; how government communication has improved with, 13–15. See also Social media
- Terms of service agreements (TOS), 18, 113
- Text messages, 31
- @TheirAccountName Twitter service, 64
- TinyURL.com, 67
- Tourism and economic development workgroup, 143
- Town hall meetings: community building through, 104, 105*fig*; democratizing democracy through Facebook, 40, 41*fig*
- Traditional media: comparing social media and, 7–12*t*; description of, 7
- Transactional social media tactic: description of, 106; San Francisco's Service Request System on Facebook as, 106, 108*fig*
- “Transparency and Open Government” memo (2009), 17–18, 34, 76
- TweetDeck, 63
- Tweets: Arab Spring (2011) and role of, 5, 29, 63; average number sent daily, 31; CDC_eHealth, 66*fig*; EPA informational update, 103, 104*fig*; EPA tweet including @mentions and #hashtag, 66*fig*; #FF (#Follow Friday), 65, 67*fig*; I/T or HT (head tip or heard through), 63; Library of Congress Twitter Archive, 18, 19*fig*; Los Angeles Fire Department (LAFD) Twitter Updates and Alerts, 60, 61*fig*; @mentions, 64; OH (OverHeard), 64; @replies, 64; Roanoke County Public Library Twitter updates, 60, 62*fig*; RT (retweeting), 63; sent by government agencies, 59; snowballing exchanges of, 59–60; USGS tracking citizen tweets during earthquakes, 9
- Tweettake, 119
- 24/7 access attitudes, 33
- Twitter: Amtrak power outage (2010) communication through, 8; Anthony Wiener's inappropriate pictures on, 95; Arab Spring (2011) and role of, 5, 29, 63; asymmetric follower model employed by, 63; Chris Moore on City of Edmonton (Alberta, Canada) use of, 28–29; crowdsourcing on, 104, 106, 149–155*t*; government website integrated with, 9, 11*fig*; Janet Claggett personal account disclaimer on, 135*fig*;

- Japanese earthquake and tsunami (2011) responses on, 4; Kristy Fifelski's personal account disclaimer on, 135*fig*; Library of Congress Twitter Archive, 18, 19*fig*; location-based service of, 156; Los Angeles Fire Department (LAFD) updates and alerts on, 60, 61*fig*; Macon Phillips's account on, 120, 121*fig*; used as parallel publishing stream, 59; social media policy for two-way communications on, 116; social search engine function of, 67–68; step-by-step guide for administration of, 63–69; @TheirAccountName, 64; USGS tracking of citizen tweets during earthquakes, 9; White House Twitter account, 69. See also Microblogging
- Twitter #hashtags: description of Twitter, 64–65; EPA tweet including @mentions and, 66*fig*; #FF (#Follow Friday) update, 65, 67*fig*; #gov20 and #opengov, 64; trending topics created from popular, 65
- Twitter love, 65
- U
- URL shorteners, 67
- U.S. Army's Tactics, Techniques, and Procedures (TTP) wiki, 76
- U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), 25
- U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA): Apps for the Environment, 25; Greenversations blog of the, 56, 57*fig*; mission statement of the, 96–97*fig*, 98; social media tactics for sharing information and education, 103, 104*fig*; social media used to identify audiences of the, 98–100; strategic communication and interaction objectives of the, 99*t*; tweet including @mentions and #hashtag, 66*fig*; Twitter accounts hosted by, 67; Twitter list for EPA region 9, 68*fig*; Twitter update by, 104*fig*
- U.S. Federal Communications Commission (FCC Connect's social media branding), 115*fig*
- U.S. General Services Administration (GSA): BetterBuy project wiki of the, 79, 81*fig*, 104, 107*fig*; Challenge.gov created by, 150, 151*fig*, 152*fig*; Federal Web Managers Council of, 84; GovLoop.com used to discuss Acquisition 2.0 effort by, 104, 107*fig*; HowTo.gov website by, 84, 86*fig*; Office of Citizen Services and Innovative Technologies of, 84; RFPs (requests for proposals) crowdsourced by, 104, 106; terms of service agreements (TOS) negotiated by, 18, 113
- U.S. Geological Survey (USGS): comment policy of the, 122, 123*fig*; Community Internet Intensity Map "Did You Feel It?," 156, 157*fig*; location-based service by, 156; tracking citizen tweets during earthquakes, 9
- U.S. Justice Department, 3
- U.S. National Archives and Records Administration (NARA): core values for social media of, 158; foursquare badges, 158*fig*; landing page on foursquare, 158*fig*; location-based service of, 158*fig*–160*fig*; NARA Bulletin 2011-02 (published October 20, 2010) of the, 119; record keeping policy of, 18; Records Express blog of, 160; "Walk with the Presidents on Foursquare," 156, 158, 160*fig*
- U.S. Navy LinkedIn policy, 131

USAJOBS website, 46
USGS citizen scientists, 9

V

The Ventura City Manager Blog:
commenting policy of the, 52–53, 54*fig*;
Dave Ruller as author of, 53, 55*fig*
Virginia State Police (VSP) Amber Alert
[2010], 3
Virtual worlds, 160–162

W

Wales, Jimmy, 71
Weather Channel, 20
Web 2.0: description of, 4; joint content creation capability of, 9, 11
Wesch, Michael, 8
Wetpaint, 73
White House: ExpertNet wiki of, 76,
78*fig*; official Twitter account of, 69;
tweet with #FF (#Follow Friday) from the, 67*fig*; Twitter account of Macon Phillips, Director of New Media for the, 120, 121*fig*. See also
Government
Wiener, Anthony, 95
Wiki information sharing: across organizational units, 76; sharing and collaboration with citizens, 76, 79
Wikia, 73
WikiCrimes, 74, 75*fig*
Wikipedia: “democratic” content of, 73;
discussion page for disputes between authors of, 71, 73; edit mode in,
72*fig*; hyperlinks used to connect keywords on, 71; Nature study on accuracy of, 73; origins and description of, 71

Wikipanning (City of San Jose), 76, 90*fig*
Wikispaces, 73
Wikis: BetterBuy project, 79, 81*fig*,
104, 107*fig*; City of San Jose’s use of Wikipanning, 76, 90*fig*;
CrisisCommons, 76, 77*fig*; description and functions of, 71; Government
& Social Media Wiki, 84, 87*fig*; OpenStreetMap, 74; used in the public sector, 74; Quick Start Guide for using, 82; sharing information using, 74–81*fig*; U.S. Army’s Tactics,
Techniques, and Procedures (TTP), 76;
White House ExpertNet, 76, 78*fig*

WordPress, 56

Workgroups: administration, 141–142;
using controlled experiments, 145–146;
direct citizen service business units, 143–144; economic development and tourism, 143; examining process of developing, 141; human resources and workforce development, 143; information technology, 142; legal counsel, 142; public information and marketing, 142–143; recognizing (and minimizing) costs, 144–145

Y

YouTube: government agencies presence on, 19; government website integrated with, 9, 11*fig*; joint content creation capability of, 9, 11; The Machine Is Us/ing Us, 8; social media policy for two-way communications on, 116

<http://www.pbookshop.com>