

Index

- Abercrombie & Fitch, 18–21
Academia, 78–80, 127, 200
Accountability, 161, 162, 169–181
Accountants, 88, 135
Accounting firms, 85–86
Accounting profession, 141
Accounting standards, 47, 50–55, 57, 135
Adolescents: behavior of, 19
 marketing to, 17–21
Agency, 29–30
AIG, 73
Alarmist populism, 2, 63
Altruism, 16
Amendment, 37–40
American culture, 6–9, 12, 14–15, 22–23, 41, 187, 189
Anti-Semitism, 200
Arab Spring, 202
Aristotle, 3–4, 8, 17, 28–29, 33–38, 40, 42–44
Art, 9
Arthur Andersen, 141–142, 144
Asset capitalization, 50–51, 54–55
Asymmetric risk, 102, 112
Audit framework, 130–134
Auditors, 85–86, 131, 140–142, 144–145
Avarice, 7, 9–11, 13–15, 21, 25

Bank failures, xiv
Bear Stearns, xiii, 56, 73, 76, 126, 138–139
Bernardone, Francis, 16
Best practices, 36–37
Board of directors:
 as control mechanism, 139–140, 144–145 independence of, 84, 139–140 role of, xiv
Brodbeck, Karl-Heinz, 41–42
Business ethics, 3–5, 9–12, 15–21, 41, 42

Capital asset pricing model (CAPM), 99–100, 102–103, 119, 123

Capitalism, 7, 23
Catholic Church, 13–14, 168
Censorship, 79–80
Centralization, 84, 87, 88
CEO perception, 81–96
CEOs. See Corporate executives
Character development, 22
Chicago school of economics, 190
Child sexual abuse, 13–14, 20
Citigroup, 73
Clinton, Bill, 49
Club of Rome, 62
Committee of Sponsoring Organizations (COSO), 72
Common good, 21, 23
Communitarianism, 11
Compliance costs, 72, 77, 164, 185
Conservatism, 84, 85, 87
Control mechanisms, 140–144
Corporate accounting, 47, 50–55, 57, 135
Corporate ethics, 3–5, 9–12, 15–21, 41, 42
Corporate executives:
 accountability of, 161
 character development of, 22 criminal liability of, 85, 131, 142, 161, 169–170 decision making by, 42, 44, 84–87 monitoring of, xiv–xv nonvirtuous, 30, 31–32
 perception of Sarbanes-Oxley of, 81–96
 vs. policy makers, 173–174 public attitudes toward, 65 punishment of, 142–143
 role of, 34
 virtuous, 12, 16, 17, 29
Corporate fraud, 28, 31, 63–64, 71, 72, 81, 142
Corporate governance, 3, 156, 160
Corporate governance regulation. See also Regulatory policy failure of, 4
 telos, 26–27

- Corporate greed, 63, 65
 Corporate irresponsibility, xiii–xiv
 Corporate malfeasance, 1, 21, 31, 42, 50, 65, 137, 174 effect of Sarbanes-Oxley on, 138–146
 punishment of, 28
 Corporate monitors, 144–145. See also
 Board of directors; External auditors
 Corporate risk-taking, 83, 98
 Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR), 15
 Corporate structure, 3, 4, 21–23, 26, 27, 29–30, 34, 163
 Corporate transparency, xiii–xv, 71–74, 86, 87, 162
 Corporate virtue, 16, 34. See also Virtue Corporations:
 antipathy toward, 199–202
 as attack target, 21, 23–24, 63 characteristics of, 24
 as disordered, 21–26
 manipulative marketing by, 17–21 responsibilities of, 16–17 society and, 6, 9, 21–23 virtue and, 5–26
 Corruption, 63
 Costs:
 compliance, 72, 77, 164, 185
 nonpecuniary, 89
 Countercultural values, 14
 Criminal liability, 85, 131, 142, 151, 169–170
 Culpability, 174–177
 Culture, 6–9, 12, 14–15, 22–23, 29–30, 41, 187–189
 Culture wars, 9
 Cynicism, 14
 Defensive management, 85
 DeLay, Tom, 65
 Deregistrations, 71
 Deregulation, 77–78
 Derivatives, xiv, 74
 Difference-in-differences analysis, 108–109, 114, 120–121
 Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, xvi–xviii, 2, 31
 enactment of, 152
 flaws in, xi, 61–62, 149, 156
 ineffectiveness of, ix similarities between Sarbanes-Oxley and, 61–62
 Don Quixote effect, 24, 27
 Downside risk, 97–99, 101–103, 108, 110, 113, 118
 Ebbers, Bernard, 49, 56, 142, 178
 Econometrics, x, 4–5, 45, 48, 126, 127, 149–151, 155
 Egalitarianism, 194–199
 Einstein, Albert, xvi, xvii
 Elites, 161–165, 167, 174, 187, 192, 204
 Enactment process, for Sarbanes-Oxley, 59–69, 175–176, 185
 Enlightenment, 10, 189
 Enron, 14, 15, 35, 57, 81, 28, 126, 140, 141, 184
 Equity capital, 70–71, 135
 Equity risk, 99–100
 Ethical dilemmas, 24–25
 Ethics, 3–7, 40, 41
 avarice and, 9–11, 15, 25
 business/corporate, 3–5, 9–12, 15–21, 41, 42
 European Union (EU), 115
 Executive compensation, 82–83
 Executives. See Corporate executives
 External auditors, 85–86, 131, 140–142, 144–145
 Fama-MacBeth regressions, 97, 112–114, 122, 123
 Federal Reserve, xiii, xiv
 Fideism, 2, 3, 45, 80
 Financial markets, deregulation of, 77–78
 Financial responsibility, xiii–xiv
 Financial statements, 72, 73, 86, 135
 Firm management. See also Corporate executives monitoring of, xiv
 Foreign exchanges, 70–71
 Fraud, 28, 31, 63–64, 71, 72, 81, 142
 Freedom, 12
 Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP), 34, 47, 51, 52, 54, 55, 57, 135
 Global economic crisis, ix, xvi–xviii
 Global economy, ix, 97–98
 Global firms, 70–71

- Global regulations, 115–118
 Going-private transactions, 71
 Goodwill, 37
 Group think, 175, 176
- HealthSouth, 81, 98
 Heroin chic, 18–19
 Hitler, Adolf, 16
 Housing market, xiv
 Human behavior, 4, 28–29, 43, 44, 203
- Income equality, 197–198
 Individualism, 8, 11, 29–30, 192–194
 IndyMac, xiv
 Inequality, 196–198
 Information costs, 127
 Information uncertainty, 167
 Initial public offerings (IPOs), 70–71
 Innovation, 35, 63, 85, 87
 Institutional precedent, 78–80
 Intentionality, 53–55
 Intentions, vs. outcomes, 164–165
 Internal controls, 128–131
 International Accounting Standards Board (IASB), 54
 International competitiveness, 70–71
 International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), 54
 Intimacy, 8–9
 Investor risk, 97–123
 Investors, impact on, 73–74
 IPOs. See Initial public offerings (IPOs)
- Job exports, 201
 JPMorgan Chase, xiii, 138
 Justice, 199
- Kissinger, Henry, 155
 Klitgaard, Bob, 155
 Knowledge limits, 153–157
- Las Vegas, 12
 Laws, 8, 17, 21, 37
 rules vs., 51–53
 Legal liability, 170–172, 174–178
 Lehman Brothers, 73, 76
 Leverage, xiv
 Levitt, Arthur, xvii, 2, 63, 64, 68, 165, 175, 177, 179
- Liability:
 criminal, 85, 131, 142, 161, 169–170
 legal, 170–172, 174–178
 Logic, 126
- Madoff, Bernie, 77
 Managerial compensation, 82–83
 Managerial decision-making, 42, 44, 84–87
 Managerial fraud, 28. See also Corporate fraud
 Managerial risk taking, 74, 83, 98
 Manipulative marketing, 17–21
 Market capitalization, xiii, 104, 111
 Marketing techniques, 17–21
 Market risk, 63
 Markowitz, Harry, 150
 Matching principle, 51
 Materiality, 35
 Mean variance analyses, 98
 Mens rea standard, 43, 130, 131, 161, 179
 Milken Foundation, xv–xvi
 Mill, John Stuart, 79, 159, 161, 179, 180
 Miramonte Elementary School, 12–13
 Modern culture, 6–9, 12, 14–15, 22–23, 29–30, 41, 189
 Moral hazard, xiv, 73
 Morality, 8–13. See also Ethics
 Moral principles, 17, 30
 Moral surrogacy, 180
 Murray, Conrad, 172, 175, 178
- Negative externalities, 19
 News media, 64–65, 175, 177
 Nonpecuniary costs, 89
 Normalcy, 8
 Norms, 19, 35, 41, 141, 152–153, 173
 Notre Dame, University of, 25–26
- Occupy Movement, 199–202
 Off-balance sheet (OBS) accounting, 74
 107th Congress, 37–39, 55–57, 59, 69, 74–76, 78, 80, 136, 138, 143, 146–147, 163, 164, 171–172, 188–189, 204
 Overseas production, 201
- Paulson, Henry, 68
 Pelosi, Nancy, 77–78
 Policy analysis, 149–153
 Policy dialogue, lack of effective, 1

- Policy elites, 161–165, 167, 174, 192
- Policy framework, 26–42, 44–45
- Policy makers:
- accountability of, 169–172, 174–181
 - vs.* corporate executives, 173–174
 - corruption of, 173
 - role of, 173
- Policymaking process, 2, 139
- Policy misuse, 172–174, 184
- Politics, 62, 188, 189
- Popular culture, 6–9, 12, 14–15, 22–23
- Populism, 2, 63
- Portfolio diversification, 159, 170
- Port Huron Statement, 190–192, 203
- Poverty, 198
- Priest-abuse scandal, 13–14
- Principles-based policy, 32–37, 42, 43
- Professional liability, 170–172, 174–177
- Profit motive, 9–10, 15, 28
- Prohibition, 70
- Public opinion, of CEOs, 65
- Punishment, 37–40, 42–44, 142–143
- Quantitative analysis, 2–5, 127, 150, 152
- RAND Corporation, 150
- Rap music, 18
- Rationality, 125, 203
- Rawls, John, 198–199
- Reagan, Ronald, 194
- Reciprocity, 3, 27, 29–30
- Redistributive effect, 195
- Regulators, 76, 86, 138–139
- Regulatory policy, xiv. See also Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act; Sarbanes-Oxley Act
- analysis of, ix–xi, 4–5
 - complexity of, 1–2
 - conceptual foundation for, 126–128
 - corporate ethics and, 5
 - debates over, 2, 4, 45, 48, 155, 166–168, 184
 - downside, 110
 - efficacy of, 29, 31
 - failure of, ix, xvii–xviii, 3, 30–33, 44, 47–48, 55–56, 183–184, 186
 - framework for, 26–42, 44–45
 - global impact of, 97–98, 115–118
 - impact on global financial markets, xv
 - misuse of, 172–174, 184
 - need for improved, 1, 2
 - objective of, xiv–xv, 3
 - principles-based, 32–37, 42, 43
 - punitive, 37–40, 42–44
 - rational basis of, 125–127, 176, 188
 - rule-based, 32–37, 42, 43, 83, 86, 88
 - telos, 26–27
 - top-down, 75, 161
 - underlying vision of, 149–168
 - unintended effects of, xvii
 - upside, 112
- Relativism, 10–11, 30
- Research and development (R&D), 85
- Resource scarcity, 167
- Ripple effects, 97, 99, 115–118
- Risk:
- asymmetric, 102, 112
 - corporate risk-taking, 83, 98
 - downside, 97–99, 101–103, 108, 113, 118
 - equity, 99–100
 - evaluation of, 102–105
 - investor, 97–123
 - measures, 102–103
 - upside, 97–99, 101, 103, 108, 110, 111, 113, 116–119, 123
- Risk-adjusted returns, 97, 99–102, 110–112, 116–117, 123
- Risk aversion, 83, 98
- Risk management, xvi, 74, 136
- Romantic love, 8–9
- Rule-based policy, 32–37, 42, 43, 83, 86, 88
- Rules, vs. laws, 51–53
- Sarbanes-Oxley Act, xiii–xvi
- accountability for, 169–181
 - arguments in favor of, 75–78
 - audit of, 125–147
 - CEO perception of, 81–96
 - corporate malfeasance and, 138–146
 - costs of compliance with, 72, 77, 164, 185
 - critics of, 67–69, 154–155, 163–164, 175–176
 - effects of, 69–75, 83, 134–146
 - efficacy of, 48–49, 131–133
 - enactment of, 59–69, 81, 98, 175–176, 185
 - failure of, ix, xi, 2, 31, 32, 39–40, 42, 44, 47–48, 66–67, 70–72, 74–75, 138
 - global impact of, 115–118
 - implementation of, 164

- institutional precedents for, 78–80
- internal controls and, 128–130, 131
- investor risk and, 97–123
- objectives of, 67, 131–133, 164–165
- origins of, 130
- problems arising since, 1
- provisions of, 130–131
- punitive nature of, 43–44
- rational basis of, 125–126, 137–139, 146
- reasons for, 183–204
- rigidity of, 35, 37, 38, 86
- similarities between Dodd-Frank and, 61–62
- supporters of, 63–64, 68, 165, 167, 179–180
- underlying vision of, 149–168
- unintended effects of, xvii, xviii, 66, 70, 81, 98, 203–204
- unintentional sources of error and, 134–138
 - WorldCom as basis for, 56–57
- Schettino, Francesco, 178
- Schumpeter, Joseph, 60
- Section 302, 131
- Section 404, 72, 131
- Section 906, 131
- Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), 51, 64
- Self-gratification, 12
- Self-interest, 2, 22, 42
- Shareholders, xiv
- Sharpe ratio, 102, 110, 112, 113, 117, 123
- Shirking behaviors, 38–39, 173–174
- Social causation, 157–164
- Societal mores, 6, 8, 9
- Society:
 - corporations as reflection of, 6, 9, 21–23
 - interests of, 21
- Soros, George, 197
- Stalin, Joseph, 164–165, 179
- Stapel, Diederik, 80
- Stigler, George J., 59
- Sunk-cost fallacy, 77
- Systemic risk, 74
- Taxpayers, xiv
- Tocqueville, Alexis de, 194, 195
- Top-down regulation, 75, 161
- Transparency, xiii–xv, 71–74, 86, 87, 162
- Tyco, 140, 145
- Unintentional sources of error, 134–138
- Universities, 24–26, 78–80
- Unobservables, 151–157
- Upside risk, 97–99, 101, 103, 108, 110–113, 116–119, 123
- U.S. equity markets, 70–71, 114–116
- U.S. financial markets, xiii, xvii, 135–136
- U.S. regulatory policy. See Regulatory policy
- Values:
 - countercultural, 14
 - moral, 17, 30
 - societal, 6, 8–9
- Virtue, 4–26, 28–34, 40–42
- Virtue theory, 3–4
- Vonnegut, Kurt, 194
- WorldCom, 47–57, 81, 98, 140, 141–142, 144, 145, 184
- World War II, 16
- Xerox, 140
- Youth behavior, 19

<http://www.pbookshop.com>