

Index

A

Ackers, John, 14
Action. See committing to action
Adams, John, 131–132, 203
Adams, Scott, 32
Agilent, 124–127, 130
Alduino, Peter, 108
Amelio, Gil, 14, 51, 56
AmerisourceBergen Corporation, 39–40
Amini, Fari, 25, 191
Analogies, 51–53
Apple, 14, 51
Arab Spring, 2
Association of Space Explorers, 54
Authentic Leadership (Terry), 158
Authenticity: building trust with, 94–97; communicating with, 64–66, 173–174; expressing gratitude with, 97, 98–100, 111; learning how to stay real, 96–97; notes expressing real appreciation, 97; personalizing e-mail messages, 191–195; responding to unstated questions with, 177–179; self-expression creating, 76–77; using imagery with, 49–50; using resonance to develop, 67

B

Baseball, 119–121
Ben-Gurion, David, 167
Bennis, Warren, 12–13
Bhutan, 133–134
Blake, William, 49
Brain: effect of empathetic responses on limbic, 26–27; impact of language on limbic system, 47–48; limbic resonance's effect on connections, 46–48; mirroring tasks of others, 28–29, 48; neuroplasticity of, 25; receiving information via stories, 59–60; tapping emotional energy in decision making, 67
Brief History of Time, A (Hawking), 122
Bunch, John, 92

Bush, George, Sr., 14
 Butler, Rebekah Saul, 20, 87, 136–137, 149–150

C

Campbell, Joseph, 3, 57
 Canada, Geoffrey, 164
 Caperton, Gaston, 88–89
 Carter, Jimmy, 96
 Chang, Karen, 52, 56, 99–100
 Change: ability to see future with, 144; clarity of purpose underlying need for, 85–87;
 communications helping others understand, 125– 127; creating through descriptions of future, 152–153; encountering resistance to, 100–101;
 inability to, 35;
 introducing in shared context, 121–123; making declarations about, 142– 143; meanings of, 4, organizational and personal steps toward,
 155–158; progress vs., 4–5,
 6; proposing specific, 85, 166–169; providing broader perspective to, 129–133; showing how future includes, 146–150;
 stories illustrating, 59–61;
 supported or challenged
 by personal values, 123– 124; taking action
 committed to, 158–165;
 understanding core values represented in, 107. See also Committing to action; Declaring and describing future

Character, 33, 34–35, 36–37
 Charles Schwab Corporation,
 52, 163

Christie-Bierschenk, Sherryl,
 75

Citizen Leader, The (Alduino), 108

Clarity of purpose:
 commitment creating, 208;
 as factor in establishing competence, 85–89, 111;
 questions to ask in establishing, 112

Clausi, Al, 204–205

Clocks and Mortar (Pearce), 35–36

Clinton, Bill, 14

Collins, Jim, 37

Commanday, Robert, 76–77

Commitment: compliance vs., 5, 6; creating clarity of purpose with, 208;
 decisions reflecting,
 159–161; spiritual nature of, 4. See also Committing to action

Committing to action: about, 155; asking others for commitment, 165–169;
 defining change by taking action, 161; focused on goals of change, 158–165;
 framework for, 212;
 questions to ask in, 170;
 taking inspirational action,

- 163–164; weighing risks of action, 161–162
- Commonality, 106–107
- Communication:
- acknowledging resistance to, 102–103; adopting effective practices for, 171–172; asking for commitment in, 165–169; avoiding conventional acknowledgments in, 96; building emotional intelligence into, 43; countering resistance based on less knowledge, 103–104; creating reality with declarations in, 141–144; defining context for, 124–127; developing credentials in, 92–93; developing with professionals, 80–81; effect of values on, 18; entertaining questions after, 174–175; exhibiting leadership in, 197–198; founding on ideas in personal Guide, 187–188; helping others understand change with, 125–127; how to project, 173–177; human factor in leadership, 198–200; improving performance evaluations, 188–191; including personal motivation in, 107–109; offering evidence in, 133–134, 204–209; personalizing e-mail messages, 191–195; providing inspiration with, 3; quotations as supportive evidence, 206–207; referring to Guide when writing, 74–76; validating systems with myth, 57–58. See also Personal Leadership
- Communication Guide
- Competence: acknowledging resistance, 100–106; clarity of purpose in establishing, 85–89, 111; credentials and vulnerability supporting, 89–91, 93–94, 111; displaying connection and, 57; establishing your credentials, 89–91; framework for, 211; incorporating in writing, 74–77; measuring leadership, 13; questions to ask in establishing, 112–113; ways of reinforcing personal, 132–133
- Compliance, 5, 6
- Connecting with others:
- authenticity when, 64–66; choosing metaphors carefully, 51–53; compelling metaphors for, 54–56; dynamics of, 45–46; effect of limbic resonance on, 46–47; as essence of leadership, 67; myth for, 56–58; personal stories for,

- 59–61; relating experience of empowering others, 62–64; story telling, 58–59; telling one's personal experience, 59–64; using image and feelings when, 48–50
- Corporations: considering steps to change, 156; losing trust with customers, 32–33; significance of context in cultural rules of, 119–121; using imagery authentically, 49–50
- Council on Foreign Relations, 54
- Creating shared context: adding context to information, 115–116; building common understanding, 116–117; developing historical context, 124–127; example of, 131–133; framework for, 211; importance of, 115–116; offering evidence in communications, 133–134, 204–209; personal meaning of context, 121–123; providing broader perspective to issues, 129–133; putting data for in context for audience, 206; questions to ask in, 139; showing your passion, 134–136; significance of context in cultural rules, 119–121; understanding cultural and generational influences in, 117–119; when presenting opportunity for change, 121–123; when replying to questions, 183
- Credentials: cultural differences in, 91–93; establishing your, 89–91, 111; including in personal Guide, 93–94
- Cuomo, Mario, 14, 15, 80–81, 90–91
- Cynicism, 103–104
- D
- Daimons, 16
- Dali, Salvadore, 135
- Dalia Lama, 1–2
- Data. See evidence
- Davidson, Richard, 29, 34
- De Saint-Exupéry, Antoine, 144
- Dead Poets Society*, 72
- Dean, Ned, 98–99
- Declaring and describing future: about, 141; creating new world through, 152–153; describing future, 146–150; envisioning alternative futures, 150–152; framework for, 212; making declarations, 141–144; questions to ask about, 153; sharing visions of future, 144–146; stages of truth, 115, 143
- DeCola, Joe, 40–41

DeCola, Rebecca, 40–43, 165 Defining moments for leaders, 15–18
 Delegation, 62–64
 Deresiewicz, William, 5–6
 Descartes, René, 135–136
 Disney, Roy, 144
 Disney, Walt, 144, 145
 Doubts, 165–166
 Dove, Ross, 192–194

E

E-mail communications,
 191–195
Écouter/entendre, 107
 Editing organizational stories,
 58–59
 Eisenhower, Dwight, 158
 Ekman, Paul, 24–25
 Emery, Vince, 32
 Emotional intelligence (E.I.): building into
 communications, 43;
 example of, 41–42;
 importance in leadership, 24; managing emotional responses, 25, 35–37;
 regulation, 25, 28, 30–31;
 resonance in personal relationships, 29–30;
 responding to questions
 with, 174–175, 177–187;
 “showing the math”, 31, 33
 Emotions: anxiety and loss experienced with empowering others, 62–64;
 dealing with irrational resistance, 104–106; effects of image and feelings on,

48–50; recognizing from facial cues, 24–25; showing your passion, 134–136;
 uncovering passion with writing, 68–71; using and engaging positive, 67. See also Emotional intelligence; Feelings Empathy: defined, 29;
 developing trust with,
 32–33; displaying, 97;
 effect of empathetic
 responses on limbic brain, 26–27; learning to feel, 24,
 25–26; missing in Enron testimony, 37; necessary for leaders, 34–35;
 neurobiology of, 28–31;
 shown in Twelve Angry Men, 30–31
 Enron, 37
 Ethics, 36–37
 Evidence: contextualizing data for audience, 206;
 giving specific data, 204– 205; making relevant to others, 205; quotations as supportive, 206–207; relying on people with experience for, 207–209; sharing in
 communications, 133–134,
 204–209

F

Farber, Steve, 97
 Feelings: acknowledging when replying to questions, 183;

anticipating, 179–180;
 dealing with irrational
 resistance, 104–106; effect of image and symbol on, 48–50; expressing gratitude with, 98–100; including human factor in leadership communication, 198–200; showing your passion, 134–136; using when connecting with others, 48–50

Fehrstrom, Eric, 53

Fiedel, Gary, 9–10

Fifth Discipline, The (Senge),
 121–122

Flamingo's Smile, The (Gould), 120

Ford, Henry, 145

Ford Motor Company, 145

Framework for Personal
 Leadership
 Communication Guide, 82,
 83, 211–212

Future. See declaring and describing future

G

Gaillard, Josie, 20, 152–153, 156–157, 167

Gaisford, David, 10

Gandhi, Mahatma, 115

Gardner, John, 198

Gates, Bill, 92, 146

General Theory of Love, A (Lewis, Amini, and Lannon), 25, 191

Generational differences, 118–119

Genesee Diary, The (Nouwen),
 116–117

Gerstner, Lou, 14

Ghandhi, 162

Ghonim, Wael, 2

Goldin, Daniel, 54–55

Goleman, Daniel, 24, 25, 29, 36

Gorbachev, Mikhail,
 142–143

Gore, Al, 65–66

Gould, Stephen, 120

Gratitude: acknowledging in
 communications, 97;
 making statements of,
 98–100, 111

Greater than Yourself (Farber), 97

Grove, Andy, 32–33

Guide. See Personal
 Leadership
 Communication Guide

H

Hallowell, Edward, 191

Haverty, Tom, 104–105

Hawking, Stephen, 122

Hillman, James, 16, 58

Hoffer, Eric, 12

“Homage to Newton” (Dali),
 135

Homer-Dixon, Tad, 206–207

Honesty, Judith, 31

How (Seidman), 123

How We Decide (Lehrer),
 67

Hubbard, Mark, 99

Hurd, Mark, 95

Hyde, Matt, 75–76, 80

I

- Iacaboni, Marco, 29
- IBM, 14, 73, 74
- Image and symbol, 48–50
- Inspiration: action providing
 - others with, 163–164;
 - developing among staff, 40; improving
 - performance evaluations, 188–191; providing, 3;
 - providing vision for, 144–146
- Intel, 32–33
- Intermediate Range Missile Agreement, 143
- Invested listening model, 181–182

J

- Jefferson, Thomas, 23
- Jensen, Ed, 68–71
- Jobs, Steve, 14, 16, 145–146
- Jordan, Barbara, 108, 109
- Joyce, James, 49
- Jung, Carl, 16, 48–49, 58

K

- Kaplan, Robert, 207
- Kennedy, Edward, 88
- Kennedy, John, 80, 106
- King, Martin Luther, 107, 162
- Kunitz, Stanley, 71

L

- Lakoff, George, 116
- Lannon, Richard, 25, 29, 191
- Lasseur, Dominique, 165
- “Layers, The” (Kunitz), 71

- Leaders: ability to see change
 - in future, 144; adding
 - personal meaning to
 - shared context, 121–123;
 - adopting communication practices, 171–172;
 - advocating change based on values, 123–124;
 - anticipating questions and feelings, 179–180;
 - authenticity in
 - communications, 64–66;
 - building common understanding with others, 116–117; common values of inspirational, 18;
 - considering how to project message, 173–177; dealing with doubts, 165–166;
 - defining change by taking action, 161; describing future, 146–150;
 - developing empathetic responsiveness, 26–28;
 - distilling values into conviction, 18–21; editing organizational stories, 58–59; envisioning alternative futures, 150–152; experience of empowering others, 62–64;
 - failing to connect with teams, 35; finding personal values, 13–15; finding stated and unstated questions, 177–179;
 - founding communications on ideas in personal Guide, 187–188; gaining trustworthiness, 95–97;

 hearing person, not just questions, 181; importance of values to, 11; improving performance evaluations, 188–191; including human factor in leadership
 communication, 198–200;
 inspiration needed by, 23;
 inspiring others, 40, 68–69; learning to work with team, 37–40; link between empathy and personal character, 33, 34–35,
 36–37; making data
 relevant to others, 205; making declarations of truth, 142–144; making visions come to life, 152– 153; measuring interest in values, 12; preparing communications with authenticity, 173–174;
 providing inspiration, 3;
 reading emotions from facial cues, 24–25;
 recognizing defining moments, 15–18;
 responding to unstated
 questions, 183–187;
 sharing evidence in
 communications, 133–134, 204–209; sharing visions of future, 144–146; showing leadership in
 communications, 197–198;
 soliciting questions
 authentically, 175–177;
 taking initiative, 1–2;

taking inspirational action, 163–164; taking steps toward change, 155–158;
 uncovering values of,
 10–12, 15; using model for invested listening, 181– 182; vulnerability in relationship, 31, 33. See also Connecting with others

Leadership: courage and discipline required in, 6; creating culture fostering truth, 37; defining, 5–6; measuring competent, 13;
 taking action committed to
 goals of change, 158–165;
 ways of reinforcing role of,
 132–133. See also Leaders
 Leadership communication.

See communication

Leading, 23

Lehrer, Jonah, 67

Leon, Richard, 50

Lewis, Thomas, 25, 47, 191

Lieberman, Matthew, 29

Listening: giving full attention when, 105;

 hearing person, not just questions, 181; model for invested, 181–182; nuances in écouter/entendre, 107; to others, 101–102; for stated and unstated questions, 177–179

Living Ethos, 20

Louv, Richard, 75

“Love After Love” (Walcott), 69–70

M

Maglie, Sal, 120
 Maglite, 51, 56
 Magner, Harry, 60–61
 Mahoney, Richard, 54
 Mandela, Nelson, 162
 Martin, Joanne, 59
 McDannell, Ed, 11
 McMullen, Mike, 124–127,
 129–130, 146–148, 157–158
 McNeely, Scott, 5
 Mead, Margaret, 24
 Mecca, Andy, 159, 165
 Meir, Golda, 167–168
 Metaphor: analogy vs., 51; choosing carefully for organization, 51–53;
 describing future using,
 54–56, 145; personal experience vs., 61; use in leadership
 communications, 51–52
 Miller, William, 11–12, 181
 Mirroring, 28–29, 48
 Mitchell, Dale, 120, 121
 Mitutoyo, 118–119
 Monkey myth, 155
 Monks, 28
 Monsanto, 54
More Than Words (Cuomo),
 14
 Mosner, Ed, 72, 73
 Motivation. See personal motivation
 Murphy, Tom, 37–40
 Myth: functions of, 56–58; life force guided by daimons, 16; Monkey, 155;
 stories vs., 58

N

Nahum, Michael, 118–119
 Nelson, Jerry, 70
 Neurobiology of empathy,
 28–31
 Neuroplasticity, 25
 Nicholson, Rob, 19–20, 92–93
 Nouwen, Henri, 116–117
 Nunan, Jim, 101–102

O

Oatley, Keith, 48
 Obama, Barack, 143
 “Occupy” movement, 2–3
 Onishi, Taeko, 43
 “Organizational Identification” leadership style, 38–39

P

Pascal, Blaine, 135–136
 Passion: finding what you love, 14; spiritual nature of, 4
 Patton, George, 158–159
 Paul, Annie Murphy, 47–48
 Pearce,, 35–36
 Performance evaluations,
 188–191
 Personal experience: citing people with, 207–209;
 connecting with others
 using, 59–61; describing future using, 145; effectiveness in
 communications, 61;
 establishing trustworthiness with stories of, 134–136;
 including authenticity in,

- 64–66; including in expression of gratitude, 98–100; story of empowering others, 62–64
- Personal Leadership
- Communication Guide: acknowledging resistance, 105–106; author's writing, 73–74; committing to action, 169–170; communications appealing to limbic brain, 48; composing your own, 80; converting personal commitment into action, 161; conviction required to prepare, 19; creating shared context, 127–129, 139; defined, xx; developing statement of credentials, 92–93; discipline required in writing, 74–75, 76, 77; documenting emotional awareness for, 23–24, 31; envisioning alternative futures, 150–152; expressing gratitude, 100, 111; focusing on commonality, 106–107; framework for, 82, 83, 211–212; knowledge of myth in preparing, 58; materials to include in, 68; personal motivation example in, 109–110; proposal for change in, 88–89; providing broader perspective to change, 130–131; sections of, 81; taking inspirational action, 164–165; website on, 82.
See also Writing
- Personal motivation: expressing, 107–109; including in personal Guide, 109–110; inspiration vs., 6; questions to ask in establishing, 113
- Personal reflection time, 13
- Pinelli, Babe, 120–121
- Poetry, 69–70
- Point of view, 115–116
- Pottruck, David, 35–36
- Powers, Melanie, 59
- Progress, change vs., 4–5, 6
- Psychological function of myth, 58
- Q
- Questions: after
- communications, 174–175; anticipating, 179–180; hearing person, not just, 181; responding with emotional intelligence to, 174–175, 177–187; soliciting authentically, 175–177; unstated, 177–179, 183–187
- Quotations as supportive evidence, 206–207
- R
- Raines, Franklin, 86–87
- Reagan, Ronald, 14, 142–143
- Regulation: of internal process, 25; in personal

- relationships, 30–31; used by monks, 28
- REI, 75
- Repin, Vadin, 76, 77
- Resistance: acknowledging others', 102–103; anticipating, 179–180; based on different or less knowledge, 103–104; dealing with irrational, 104–106; encouraging in problem-solving, 101; writing in personal Guide about, 105–106
- Resonance: about, 25–26; connections and limbic, 46–48; developing authenticity with, 67; displaying connection and competence with, 67; importance in personal relationships, 29–30; used by monks, 28
- Response: effect of on limbic brain, 26–27; in emotional intelligence, 25; managing emotional, 35–37
- Rhee, Michelle, 164
- Risks of action, 161–162
- Rizzolatti, Giacomo, 28
- Roelofs, Nick, 108–109
- Romney, Mitt, 53
- Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd., 37–39
- S
- Sadat, Anwar, 2, 162
- Safeway, 95
- Schaar, John, 141
- Schopenhauer, Arthur, 115
- Schultz, Howard, 17–18, 109
- Schwab, Chuck, 143
- Sculley, John, 14
- Seidman, Dov, 123
- Seigel, Dan, 29
- Self-discovery questions, 10–11
- Self-expression: expressing gratitude, 97, 98–100, 111; including in communications, 76–77; writing to reveal, 68
- Self-Renewal* (Gardner), 198
- Senge, Peter, 121–122
- Shaw, George Bernard, 115
- Showing the math, 31, 33
- Sloan, Alfred, 101
- "Solitude and Leadership" (Deresiewicz), 5–6
- Sorenson, Ted, 80
- Spindler, Michael, 14
- Starbucks, 17–18
- Steindl-Rast, David, 98, 100
- Steuerle, Eugene, 137
- Stone, Harvey, 65, 102
- Stories: describing future using, 145; editing organizational, 58–59; eliciting change with, 59–61; personal experience vs., 61
- Sun Microsystems, 52
- Symbols, 48–49
- T
- Tatge, Catherine, 165
- Taylor, Barry, 20–21

Taylor-Made Office Systems, 20–21

Teams: developing leadership of, 37–40; failing to connect with, 35

Terry, Robert, 158

Thank-you notes, 97–98

Thompson, Scott, 95

Tonge, Barry, 162, 164

Tonge, Christy, 162, 164

Trust: developing with empathy, 32–33, 35; eroded with defensiveness, 182; vulnerability in relationship and, 31, 33

Trustworthiness: acknowledging resistance, 100–106; building with authenticity, 94–97; focusing on commonality, 106–107; framework for, 211; personal experiences establishing, 134–136; questions to ask in establishing, 112–113; ways of reinforcing personal, 132–133

Truth: declarations about, 143–144; making declarations of, 142–144; stages of, 115, 143

Twelve Angry Men, 30

U

Unstated questions, 177–179, 183–187

Ure, John, 103, 163–164, 166–167

V

Values: distilling into conviction, 18–21; finding personal, 13–15; importance of, 11, 198; moments defining, 15–18; testing leaders' interest in, 12

Vision: bringing to life, 152–153; describing future goals, 146–150; envisioning alternative futures, 150–152; sharing views of future, 144–146, using examples of personal, 149–150

Volunteers, 68–69

Vulnerability: considering other's doubts of your creditability, 90; including in personal Guide, 93–94; questions to ask in establishing, 112; trust and, 31, 33

W

Walcott, Derek, 69–70

Website for Personal Leadership Communication Guide, 82

"What Do You Want?", 10, 11–12

"Who Are You?", 10–11, 15

Wilde, Oscar, 144

Wirth, Timothy, 206–207

Writing: combining competence and connection in, 74–77;

developing your personal Guide, 74–75, 76, 77;
discovering personal passion with, 68–71;
finding your voice, 70, 71–74; including self-expression in, 76–77

Y

Young, Jonathan, 58–59
“Your Brain on Fiction”
(Paul), 47–48

Z

Zaleznik, Abraham, 38
Zuckerberg, Mark, 92