

Index

The Enron Cases

- Arthur Andersen (AA) Investigation of Enron Oil Trading (EOT), 26
- Market-to-Market accounting (MtM), 35–36, 39–40
- Professional Standards Group (PSG) discussion of MtM, 42–45
- Banks' Enron Class-Action Litigation Assessments, 66
- Borget, Louis
 - President of EOT, 3, 5–6, 9
 - Discussion of EOT financial irregularities, 9–10
 - Details of alleged irregularities, 11–12
 - Investigation of EOT- Valhalla by Internal Audit, 24–26
 - Trading Controls Breach, 33
 - Defining the Ethical Issue, 17–19
 - Personal Consideration, 23–24
 - Tactical Planning and Alternate Business Plans, 19–25
 - Why Case Studies? 16–17
- Causey, Rick
 - Assurances to Enron Board when Jeff Skilling resigned, 69
 - Assurances to Skilling prior to resignation, 181–182
 - Transition from Arthur Andersen to Enron, 80
- California Power Market
 - Attorney-Client privilege, DOJ attack on, 116, 124–125
 - De-regulation of, 116–119
 - Enron manipulation of:
 - Enron's liability, 121–122
 - Political fallout, 120–121
 - Trading strategies, 119–121
 - Silverpeak incident, 119
 - Stoel-Rives Legal Opinion, 122–123, 126–127
- Ceconi, Margaret
 - Enron Electricity Services financial losses, and decision to contact SEC, 167
 - CHEWCO Investments, 102–104
 - Chewco transaction diagram, 111
 - Controls breach—remedial actions, 7–8
 - Enron California Business disruption, 65–67
 - Candidates to become President/COO following Jeff Skilling's resignation, 209
 - Clean Fuels business strategy, 82–83
 - Diagrams of SPEs
 - Cactus, 106
 - Chewco, 111
 - JEDI, 107
 - Pre-Pays, 108
 - RADRs, 110

- Raptor I, 206
 - Total Return Swap, 175
 - Whitewing, 109
 - Ethics Policy, 74–75
 - Financial Statements
 - 1985–1986, 13
 - 1999–2000, 169–171
 - Excerpts from Notes to 2000, 172–173
 - 1H 2001, 187
 - Formative years, 4–6
 - Gas Bank, technical explanation and diagram, 41
 - Internal Audit, 24–30
 - Oil Trading losses, 33–34, 64
 - Performance Assessment System, 88
 - Safety record, 70
 - Skilling Resignation
 - Announcement, 191
 - Stock Price during Jeff Skilling's tenure as CEO, 186
 - Troubled Business Lines mid-2001, 207–208
 - Use of Special Purpose Entities (SPEs), 96–97
 - Accounting treatment of SPE transactions, 101, 107–111
 - Exxon and ExxonMobil Corporation Cazzaniga Incident, 58–59
 - Ethics Policy, 58, 74
 - Financial Control, 56–62
 - Safety, 56–57, 61
 - Valdez Litigation, 69
- Fastow, Andy
- Attitude toward SPE
 - accounting, 97
 - Background at Enron, 97–98
 - Conflict of Interest justification, 148, 152–154
 - Conflict issues with LJM, 139–142
 - Early Enron career, 135
 - Formation of LJM and LJM2, 139–141
 - LJM compensation, 64–65
 - Role in CHEWCO Investments, 102–104
 - Role in SPEs, 97–101
 - Financial Control
 - Contribution to Business Success, Personal Experience at Exxon, 56–62
 - Definition of Financial Control
 - Economic Rationale for, 48–55
 - Theft Prevention, 48–50
 - Judicial and Administrative judgments, 63–64
 - Business Disruption, 66–67
 - Accurate Information, 68–69
 - Culture of Accountability, 69–70
- Glisan, Ben
- Career background, 102–103
 - Dilemma on CHEWCO transaction, 96, 102–105
 - Meeting with Kaminski on Companywide
 - Risk Assessment, 169–170
 - How to do an Ethics
 - Case Study: Tactical Planning
 - Defining the Ethical Issue, 17–19
 - Tactical Planning
 - Alternative Business Plan, 19–20
 - Early Stages of Ethical
 - Decomposition, 19–22
 - Advanced Stages of Ethical
 - Decomposition, 21–23
 - Integrated Commodity Forward
 - Buy/
 - Sell with Integrated Interest
 - Rate Hedge Application of MtM to, 86–87
 - Summary of transaction structure and accounting, 93–94
 - Irregularities at Enron Oil Trading, 11–12

Kaminski, Vince

- Companywide Risk Assessment, 160–164
- Meeting with Ben Glisan, 165–167
- Problems with LJM1 and Jeff Skilling, 163–165
- Total Return Swap, 161–162
- Trigger Events, 162–163

Lay, Ken

- Assessment of Enron's business problems 2001, 181–182
- Background, becomes CEO of Enron, 4–5
- Involvement in Enron's California issues, 67
- Jeff Skilling's resignation, 177, 179–183
- Major Enron involvements 1999–2001, 188–190
- Meeting with Internal Audit on EOT, 9–10
- Public disclosure legal liability, 178–179
- Personal financial issues, 179
- Valhalla EOT financial irregularities, 3, 6–8
- Legal Guidelines for Comments by Senior Executives, 184–185
- Legal Status of Whistleblowers in Texas circa 2001, 210
- Mark-to-Market Accounting (MtM) Arthur Anderson meeting with Skilling, 48–50
- At Enron Finance, 35–38, 39–40
- Justification for, 49
- Skilling presentation materials, 52–53
- Technical explanation, 42–45
- Use at Enron Clean Fuels, 79–81
- Use for forward sale/purchases of commodities, 87–89, 93–94

McMahon, Jeffery

- Career at Enron, 144
- Formation of LJM & LJM2, 135–139
- Meeting with Skilling on LJM, 134–135
- Problems with Andy Fastow over LJM2, 143–145
- Mintz, Jordan: history with Andy, Fastow and LJM, 147–149
- Move to Global Finance, 147
- Natural Gas Pipelines in Crisis, 4–6
- Powers Committee Report CHEWCO accounting charges, 69
- Fastow's LJM compensation, 65
- Raptor Transactions Background to Raptor, 197–198
- Diagram of Raptor, 206
- Sherron Watkins' assessment of Raptor I accounting, 198–199
- Transaction Summary, 205

Rice, Ken

- Business problems and ethical decision at Enron Clean Fuels (ECF), 83–85
- ECF Business Plan, 79–80
- Sabine Pilot Claim, 210
- Sarbanes Oxley Act, 210, 213

Skilling, Jeff

- Assurances to Enron Board when resigning, 69, 177, 180–181
- Creation of Enron Gas Bank, 37–38
- Decision to join Enron, 37
- Decision to resign, 177–178, 180–181
- Enron (Draft) Official Resignation Announcement, 191
- Enron Stock price performance during tenure as CEO, 186
- Fastow Conflict of Interest Waiver, 137–140
- Justification of Mark-to-Market Accounting, 49
- SEC MtM presentation, 52–53

Watkins, Sherron

- Approach to Ken Lay, 199–201
- Career prior to and at Enron, 197
- Decision to write anonymously to Ken Lay, 195–196
- Raptors Analysis, 198–199
- Text of draft anonymous letter to Ken Lay, 199–204
- View of Whistleblowers, 200–201
- Whistleblowers, Legal position of, 210

Woytek, David

- Comment on MtM, 47
- Comment to Ken Lay on EOT irregularities, 10

- Decision whether to remain in Enron Internal Audit, 24, 27–29
- Enron Oil Trading financial irregularities, 24
- Investigation of EOT at Valhalla, N. Y., 24–25
- Memo on EOT financial irregularities, 11–12

The Financial Crisis Cases

ABX Index, 389

AIG

- Accounting Scandal, 407–408
- Cassano, Joseph, 406–414
- Controls, 405–407
- Collateral Disputes, 409–411
- Credit Default Swap exposure, 407–408
- Financial Products (FP), 405–414
- Firm History, 405–408
- Greenberg, Hank, 405–408
- “Material Controls Weakness”, 400, 411–413
- Price Waterhouse Coopers (PWC) audits and findings, 408, 411–412
- Ryan, Tim, 400–414, 419–420
- Sullivan, Martin, 400, 408–409, 411

Ameriquest

- Arnall, Roland, 253
- Business Model, 253–254
- Loan criteria, products and standards, 253–254

Bear Stearns

- Asset Management, 303
- Financial Control issues with Hedge Funds, 307–308
- Firm History and Financial Performance, 303, 316
- High Grade Fund, 304–305
- Organization, 307, 317
- Subprime Mortgage business and strategy, 303, 305

Bennett, Jack F., 229–233

Blogs, Watchdog

- re: The Auditors, 451–452

Bowen, Richard

- Conflict with CitiMortgage, 425–445
- Internal resistance options, 432–433
- Underwriting responsibilities, 430–432
- Warning to Robert Rubin, 434–436

Ciofi, Ralph

- at BSAM, managing Hedge funds, 300–322
- Hedge funds strategy, 304–305, 308–309
- Client and Lender disclosure, 307

Citigroup

- CitiMortgage, 425, 430–431, 478–482
- Legal guidelines, Executive Communications, 381–382
- Controls, 430–431, 443
- Crittenden, Gary, 364–384
- Firm History, 426–429
- Glass Steagall, role in repeal, 426–428
- Mortgage fraud, 425–426, 430–432, 479–482

Organizational structure and

- challenges, 428–432, 437–438

Prince III, Charles, 364, 371, 425, 432

Quarterly subprime disclosure, 371–375, 432

Rubin, Robert, 434

Scandals and Settlements, 429, 440–442, 483–484

SIV usage, 365–370

Weill, Sandy, 427–428

Collateralize Mortgage Obligation (CMO)

Construction of, 387, 394

Collateralized Debt Obligation (CDO), 387–388, 395

Synthetic CDO, construction of, 398, 396

Controls on Wall Street

Value at Risk (VAR) and other controls, 389, 402–405

Countrywide Mortgage

Business Model, 251–253

Competition with Ameriquest, 254–255, 257–259

Controls, 252–253, 257–259

Mozilo, Anthony, 245–262

Countrywide Mortgage (cont.)

- Subprime Mortgage business
 - Evolution, 248, 250, 254–255
 - “Subprime I”, 250–251

Credit Default Swap (CDS)

- construction of, 387–388, 396

Dodd-Frank Law

- Bounty provisions, 482, 489–490
- Whistleblower protections, 489

False Claims Act, 482, 490–491

Fannie Mae

- Accounting Scandal, 290, 296–297, 347–348, 355–356
- Advice from Citibank, 346, 358–361
- Affordable Housing requirements, 285, 346, 351–352
- Capital requirements, 285, 348
- Conforming mortgage requirements, 282–283
- Financial performance, 286, 290, 293–295, 354
- Firm History, 281–284
- Incentive Compensation, 286
- Maxwell David, 283–284
- Mudd, Daniel, 345, 351–353
- OFHEO, 285–286
- Political pressures on, 280–281, 284–288
- Project Phineas, 346, 352–353, 358–361
- Raines, Franklin, 281, 345–348
- Role in mortgage market, 281–284
- Safety and Soundness Act, 284–286, 289
- SEC accounting finding, 348
- Subprime mortgage lending, 352–363

Glass-Steagall Act

- Description of, 427–428
- Repeal of, 427–438

Goldman Sachs

- Abacus 2007-AC1, 337, 385–399
- ACA portfolio selection agent, 391
- Arrowwood Conference, 263
- Conflicts with Clients, 264–265, 270–273, 276–277
- Core Principles, 264, 274–275
- Corzine, Jon, 263–265, 270–273
- Firm History, 265–270
- Mortgage Credit Committee (MCC), 385–386, 392–393, 397
- Paulson, John, 385–386, 390–393
- Reputational Risk, 385–393
- Subprime “Big Short”, 389–391
- Tourre, Fabrice, 385–399

Hedge Funds

- Accounting, Mark to Market, 318
- As Resistance option, 459–461
- Description of, 301–304, 312–315
- Disclosure requirements, 319–320
- LTCM collapse, 302–303, 405

Hunt, Sherry

- Conflict with CitiMortgage, 478–493
- Legal advice and options, 481–482, 485–491
- Whistleblower risks, 481–482, 485–487

Johnston, Jim

- Accounting concerns, 290, 292
- Affordable Housing strategy, 287, 289
- At Fannie Mae, 280–299
- Business Strategy, 286–287, 291–292
- Compensation, 280, 287
- Lobbying strategy, 285–289

Kolchinsky, Eric

- At Moody’s, 323–342, 461–477
- Conflict over CDO ratings, 323–335, 461–467
- Grievance claim, 335, 462–463

- Internal resistance options, 334–338, 465–467
 - Nine Grade II funding conflict, 461–468
 - Rating Abacus 2007-AC1, 332–333
 - Ratings Methodology for CDOs, 334, 339, 462–463, 465
 - Whistleblower risks, 466, 473–475
- Lee, Matthew
- At Lehman Brothers, 446–460
 - Conflict over Repo 105, 446, 450–452
 - Letter to top financial management, 453–456
 - Resistance options, 451–452
- Lehman Brothers
- Causes of financial distress, 448–449
 - Financial performance, 457
 - Firm history, 447–450
 - Einhorn, David: criticism of Lehman, 450
 - Fuld, Richard, 447–448
 - Repo 105
 - Description, 448–450, 458
 - Usage, 449–450
- Moody's Investors Service
- as Public Company, 329–330
 - Business Model: evolution, 326–330
 - Firm history, 326–330, 464
 - Clarkson, Bruce, 326, 329–330, 464
 - McDaniel, Raymond, 329–330, 464
- Ratings
- Integrity of, 328–330
 - NRSRO, 326–327
 - “no friends” statement, 329
 - role in capital markets, 326–328
 - subprime securities downgrade, 336–337
 - subprime securities
 - methodology, 330–332, 462–463, 474–475
- Structured Finance, impact of, 328, 462, 469
- Mortgage market
- Affordability Products, 253–254
 - Corruption of, 253–254, 349–350
 - Development and evolution, 246–248
 - Impact of securitization, 249–250, 349–350
 - Residential Mortgage-backed Security (RMBS), 249–250
 - Role of Fannie Mae, 281–284
 - Role of Wall Street, 249–250, 293–294, 349–350
- Subprime
- “Hard Money” lending, 248
 - “Subprime I”, 250–251
 - Coming collapse foreseen, 306–307
- Paulson, Hank
- Arrowwood conference remarks, 270–271
 - at Goldman Sachs, 263–279
 - Attitudes on Client Conflicts, 264–265, 270–271
- Sarbanes-Oxley Law
- Auditor Independence, 415–416
 - Liability for CEO, CFO, 376
 - Material controls weakness, 401
 - Restrictions on CPA conflicts of interest, 401, 415–416
 - Whistleblower protections, 472, 480, 488–489
- Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC)
- Hedge fund reporting requirements, 323–324
 - Rule 10b-5 applied to rating agencies, 471

Tannin, Matthew

- at BSAM managing Hedge funds,
300–322
- Client and Lender disclosure, 307, 311
- Options to save hedge funds,
310–311

Variable Interest Entity (VIE) Rules,
368–370, 378–379Wall Street

- Competitive evolution, 229–237,
265–268
- Consolidation, 229–233, 267

Controls, 389, 402–405

- Innovations, 234–236, 267–268
- Private label mortgage products,
289–290
- Proprietary trading, 236–239,
267–268
- Serial scandals, 494–496