

INDEX

Page references followed by fig indicate an illustrated figure; followed by t indicate a table.

A

Abu Ghraib prison, 235
Accenture/UN Global Compact report (2010), 132
Accountability. See Corporate accountability
“Acme Corporation” employee engagement, 322–327
AD hoc organizational change, 286–288
Adaptability capacity: description of, 240; sustainability relationship to, 240–241
Advanced leadership Fellowship (Harvard University), 156
Age discrimination laws (U.S.), 157
Air pollution GHG emissions, 34, 35, 36, 138, 285
AkzoNobel: connecting sustainability and compensation at, 141*t*; DJSI used to measure sustainability at, 135, 182
American Electric Power (AEP): before/after changing employees’ underlying beliefs on safety, 264*fig*–265*fig*; collaborative sustainability efforts at, 214; comparing PP safety leadership with that of, 268, 272; flexible postretirement work opportunities by, 167–168; Innovators Hall of Fame at, 210; lessons learned on culture change from, 271–273; making the emotional case for change, 302–303; My Brother’s Keeper program in Texas plant of, 265; operations of, 263; Path to Excellence five-year injury rate of, 269–270; standardizing safety rules for all facilities, 268–269; strong safety culture of, 124–125, 246–247; workers’ compensation costs as percentage of payroll (1997–2011) at, 270*fig*–271; Zero Harm program of, 247, 262–271, 302–303
Anderson, Ray, 298
Anglo-Persian Oil Company, 254
Annan, Kofi, 183
Anti-corruption: Siemens’ employee incentive system for, 137–138; UN global Compact principles on, 185
Apple, 56, 57
Artifacts: description of, 209; innovation through use of, 209–210; as level of organizational culture, 244–246*fig*
Ashridge (UK), 152

Aspen Aerogels, 144
Aspen Institute’s Center for Business Education, 152
Award programs, 123

B

B Corp legislation, 54
B corporations, 54
B&Q: hiring elders practice of, 157; “respect for people” program of, 157
Baby boomers, 40
Badgley, Rick, 331
Bainbridge Graduate Institute, 155
Baker, James A., III, 259
Ball Corporation, collaborative sustainability efforts at, 214
Barber, Mike, 26
Bartlett, Dean, 228–229
Barrick, 145
Bear Stearns scandal, 262
BerylHealth: building employee engagement through volunteerism at, 346; building values alignment at, 100–103; “caring for others” culture of, 103, 118; employee assistance provided by, 118–119; HR’s approach to hiring at, 101–103
Beyond Grey Pinstripes (BGP) survey, 152
Bhopal chemical disaster (1982), 235, 280
Blake, Janet, 159–160, 230–231, 278, 346
“Bleed blue,” 252
Bolze, Stephen R., 216
Boston College Center for Corporate Citizenship and Reputation Institute, 150, 311
Bottom-down sustainability change: description of, 62; how HR can facilitate sustainability during the, 300–301; World of Good example of, 299–300
BP: before and after safety incidents, 260*fig*–261*fig*; comparing AEP safety leadership with that of, 268, 272; Deepwater Horizon disaster (2010) of, 122, 254, 256–262, 282, 283; financial and reputational damage of Deepwater Horizon to, 282, 283; lessons learned on culture change from, 271–273; origins and early history of, 254; public embrace of sustainability principles by, 255–256; Texas City oil refinery

- explosion (2007) of, 258–259, 260;
Transocean's safety bonuses, 122
- Brazil, 34–35
- Brent Spar oil rig dispute (mid-1990s), 279–280
- Brigham Young University flextime study, 196
- British Telecom (BT): BT Troubleshooting
Program's outward focus at, 230–231; corporate responsibility engagement programs of, 159, 278; On the Bench program of, 159–160; Pension Scheme of, 166; Sustainability Matters online training tool of, 108–109; volunteerism program at, 346–347
- Browne, Sir John, 255
- Brundtland Commission, 30–31, 41
- Brundtland, Gro Harlem, 30
- BT Pension Scheme, 166
- Bureau of Labor Statistics, 267
- Burger King, 104
- Burke, James, 83
- Business for Social Responsibility, 192
- Business partners, 56–57
- Business results: Golden Triangle for seeing case for sustainability and, 327–334; Lowe's experience with employee engagement and,
319; research linking employee engagement to, 319–320; Starbucks' sustainability, employee engagement, and, 331–334; sustainability-engagement programs to improve, 337, 339–349. See also Corporations
- Bystander employees: description of, 327;
Ingersoll Rand (IR) survey on, 330–331;
Marks & Spencer's success with participation by, 342–344; Starbucks', 333; sustainability-engagement program role of,
340*fig.* See also Employees
- ### C
- C-level executives: ad hoc change triggered by,
287; awareness of need for change by, 251;
CEO leadership for top-down change,
297–299; comparing BP and AEP safety leadership by the, 268, 272; public embrace of sustainability by BP's, 255–256
- Cadbury Schweppes, 158–159
- California Public Employees Retirement System (CalPERS), 166
- Campbell's Soup: connecting sustainability and compensation at, 139*f*; corporate recognition program of, 124; corporate social responsibility (CRS) of, 108; innovation strategies used at, 211;
Pepperidge Farm operation of, 108;
sustainability metrics and goals used at, 134–135
- Campus recruiters, 92–94
- Car safety advocacy movement, 280
- Carbon dioxide levels, 35
- Career development: developing tomorrow's leaders through, 111–117; HR traditional vs.
sustainability process of, 75*t*–76*t*; IBM's Corporate Service Corps program for,
115–116; Unilever's innovative, 114–115. See also Onboarding; Training
- Cascade Engineering, 54, 104–105
- Center for Effective Organizations, 278
- Center for Human Resources and Labor Studies, 152
- CERES (coalition for Environmentally Responsible Economies), 51, 180
- “Champion of Change,” 144
- Change agents: comparing BP and AEP
C-level executives as, 268, 272; HR leaders as, 204, 277–279. See also Culture change;
Organizational change
- Chatwani, Robert, 299
- Chernobyl accident, 235
- Chesloff, J. D., 149–150
- Chevron, 262
- Chevy volts, 11, 12
- Chief sustainability officers (CSOs), 147
- Child labor: Gap focus on eliminating, 286;
Nike scandal over, 109, 235, 241
- China: globalization driving emerging economy of, 89; Google's defiance of censorship pressures by, 38; megacities of, 33; new affluence of, 34–35; western diet influencing population of, 34
- CIPD, 62
- Citigroup, 182, 311
- Cleaver, Liam, 309–310, 342
- COBRA (Corporate Brand Recognition and Awareness), 310
- Coca-Cola, 232
- Codes of conduct, 127
- Collaboration capacity: description of, 212;
HR leadership role in enabling, 213–218; matrix management method for developing, 215; P&G's Tide Coldwater example of, 212
- Collapse: How Societies Chose to Fail or Succeed* (Diamond), 35
- College of the Environment (Wesleyan University), 143
- Columbia University, 155
- Communicating change, 303–305
- Community interest companies, 54

- Compensation: AkzoNobel's linking sustainability performance to executive, 135; encouraging sustainability performance through, 120–122; HR role in designing, 121; HR traditional vs. sustainability process of, 77*t*; wages and benefits policies, 185–190. See also Rewards
- Compliance and discipline: globalization as complicating, 128; how sustainability relates to, 127–129; HR traditional vs. sustainability process of, 77*t*; Siemens' employee incentive system to encourage, 137–138; transparency importance to, 127
- Comstock, Beth, 22, 23, 25, 88, 207
- ConocoPhillips, 262
- Corcoran, Bob, 5
- Cornell University, 152
- Corporate accountability: Apple's customer, 56, 57; debate over sustainability and, 39; Google's defiance of Chinese censorship pressures as, 38; Hurricane Katrina relief efforts and, 37; People, Planet and Profits report to bring about, 280; the rise of, 37*fig*; youngest generation of employees supporting, 39–40
- Corporate citizenship, 41
- Corporate social responsibility (CSR): building a reputation for, 175; introduced as part of onboarding process, 108; J&J's Credo as pioneering statement of, 83; sustainability described as, 41
- Corporations: codes of conduct by, 137; embedding sustainability in the workforce life cycle of, 69–80; social media fishbowl effect on, 58–59; socially responsible investing (SRI) by, 165–167; sustainability and culture change in, 243–274; sustainability business benefits to, 55–61; sustainability for strengthening “change muscle” of, 61; systematic organization change by integrating HR and business strategy of, 288–292; that encourage strategic role by HR, 131. See also Business results; Organizational capabilities; Organizational culture; Profitability
- Creating shared value, 50
- Credit Suisse, 145–146
- Culture change: “governing by shared beliefs” promotion of, 247; how AEP created a zero-harm culture through, 262–271; how BP's organizational culture resists sustainability and sabotages, 254–262; HR leadership role in, 243–244; lessons learned from BP and AEP on, 271–273; resistance to sustainability, 248–254. See also Change agents; Organizational change; Organizational culture
- “Current Technology” employee survey, 334–337
- Customer service: BerylHealth's “caring for others” approach to, 103; Starbucks's one-day national retraining program (2008) to improve, 307–309
- Customers: “Acme's” employee engagement driving satisfaction of, 324*fig*; employee Facebook postings about, 128; Facebook, Twitter, and YouTube for connecting to, 217–218; sustainability benefit of attracting new, 56–57

D

- Dach, Leslie A., 100
- Deep Water: The Gulf Oil Disaster and the Future of Offshore Drilling* report, 257
- Deepwater Horizon disaster (2010): BP before and after safety incidents, 260*fig*–261*fig*; examining the events and causes of the, 254, 255–262; financial and reputational damage to BP from, 282, 283; organizational culture contributing to, 259–262; safety bonuses failing to prevent, 122
- Deforestation, 33–34
- Dei Vecchio, Gina, 154
- Deloitte's 2011 Millennial Survey, 252
- Denniston, Brackett, III, 13
- Desertification, 34
- Deutsche Bank, 145–146
- Diamond, Jared, 35
- Dineen, John, 297
- Diversey, 88, 284–285
- DJSI World, 182–183
- Do Well Do Good Public Opinion Survey on Sustainability, 174
- Domino's Pizza, 175
- Doughty Centre for Corporate Responsibility, 328
- Dow Chemical Company: commitment to sustainability performance at, 133–134; connecting sustainability and compensation at, 139*t*; Corporate Environmental Advisory Council at, 133; partnership with Nature Conservatory, 222
- Dow Jones Company, 31
- Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI): AkzoNobel's use of benchmarks in the, 135, 182; origins and description of, 31; PepsiCo's top position on the, 52; sustainability as defined by, 31–33, 40–41; sustainability metrics of the, 135, 176; Triple Bottom Line criteria links to stock performance by, 135
- Dubey, Rajeev, 113

E

- eBay, 299, 300
- The Ecology of Commerce* (Hawken), 298
- Ecomagination initiative (GE): “discovery sessions” leading to specific projects, 10; four basic elements of, 8–9; origins and launching (2005) of, 8, 14–15; outcomes of, 10–12; Sweet Spot of, 47*fig*
- Economic slowdown (2008–2009), 35, 40
- Economic sustainability, 43–44, 46*t*
- Economist* magazine, 5
- Edelman Trust Barometer (2009), 174
- Edison Electric Industry, 267
- Edison, Thomas, 3
- Eli Lilly and Company, 311
- Employee assistance programs: BerylHealth’s approach to, 118–119; description of, 117; incorporating sustainability as part of, 117–120; Wegman’s extraordinary, 119
- Employee-centric sustainability, 62
- Employee engagement: bystander employees and, 327, 330–331, 333, 340*fig*; connection between organizational success and, 318–319; “Current Technology” annual employee survey on, 334–337; description of, 317; Gallup Workplace Audit (GWA) to measure, 318; getting started with programs for sustainability and, 337, 339–344; Golden Triangle for seeing case for sustainability and, 327–334; Google’s support of human rights and increased, 331; how “Acme Corporation” leveraged sustainability for profitability and, 322–327; how sustainability can drive factors that drive, 338*t*; HR leveraging sustainability for, 24–25; HR working with sustainability professionals toward, 337; Ingersoll Rank (IR) survey on, 330–331; link between sustainability, profit, and, 320–322; measuring impact of sustainability on, 334–337; research linking business results to, 319–320; Starbucks’ value alignment and, 331–334; sustainability, transformation, and, 349–350; various definitions of, 317–318. See also Sustainability-engagement programs; Values alignment
- Employee wellness programs, 190–193
- Employees: bottom-up or employee-centric sustainability of, 62; causes of bad relationship between HR and, 173; codes of conduct communicated to, 127; HR role in linking company strategy and behavior of, 70–71, 111; HR role in shaping better working conditions for, 193–199; HR role in the care of, 173–175; labor pool analysis of today’s, 78*t*, 149–158; onboarding new, 74*t*, 107–111; performance appraisals of, 78*t*, 132–142; promoting, 76*t*; recruitment of, 73*t*, 92–94, 97–100, 289–290; retention of, 77*t*, 125–126; retirement and postretirement of, 79*t*, 161–168; Starbucks Gossip blog comments on retraining day by, 309; sustainability outcome of higher-quality, 59–60; termination of, 79*t*, 158–161; tools for hiring workforce of tomorrow, 92–94; values alignment of corporate values and, 59, 94–103, 126, 331–334; why sustainability requires diverse, 99–100, 310. See also Bystander employees; Talent; Workforce
- Employer branding: global war for talent and role of, 90–92; HR traditional vs. sustainability process of, 73*t*; impact of sustainability on GE, 88; Starbucks’ value alignment and reinforcement of, 331–334; sustainability as crucial element in, 87–88
- Enron scandal, 262
- Environmental Defense Fund, 100
- Environmental health and safety (EHS) professionals, 217
- Environmental problems: deforestation, soil erosion, habitat and species loss, 33–34; greenhouse gas emissions, 34, 35, 36, 138, 285; world consumption rates, 35; world population growth, 34, 35
- Environmental Protection Agency Superfund law, 5
- Environmental sustainability: focus of, 41–42, 46*t*; Immelt’s leadership of GE and commitment to the, 5–7; millennials (Generation Y) consciousness of the, 252; “sustainability jujitsu” driven by concerns over, 282; UN global Compact principles on, 184; Welch’s leadership of GE ignoring the, 3–5
- Ernst & Young, 150
- Essex River Ventures, 153
- Exxon, 262
- Exxon Valdez* spill (1989), 256

F

- Facebook: connecting with customers through, 217–218; employee compliance issues related to, 128; examining job candidate’s postings on, 97
- Fair trade movement, 300
- Family Mutual Health and Life Insurance (FMI), 195–196
- Fast Food Nation* (Schlosser), 235
- Flex-time workers, 196
- Flexible work styles, 194–196
- Food and Drug Administration, 84
- Food pyramid, 304

- Forbes* list of 100 Best Places to Work, 237
Forbes list of 100 Most Admired Companies, 237
 Ford Motor Company, 144
 former Soviet bloc nations, 89
Fortune Best Companies to Work For list, 188
Fortune Global 500, 176
Fortune magazine's 2011 list of fifteen emerging business hubs, 89
 Forum for the Future, 221
 Four Seasons, 227
 401(k) plans, 162, 163
 Frazier, Ken, 125, 264, 266, 267
- G
- Gallup Workplace Audit (GWA), 318
 Gap, Inc.: collaborating in order to solve labor problems, 109–110; collaborative sustainability efforts at, 215–216; labor activists' criticism of, 109; outward focus of, 229–230; Retail Academy curriculum of, 110–111; social footprint focus of change within, 285–286; stakeholder engagement program of, 145; Sustainability Center of Excellence of, 216
 GE Fleet Services, 11
 GE Foundation, 5
 GE Health Care, 297
 GE Power Generation team, 307
 General Electric (GE): ad hoc change experienced at, 287; blended sustainability Sweet Spot of, 49*fig*; Crontonville's educational center for company leaders of, 14; DJSI membership of, 182; early opposition to proposed Hudson River PCB cleanup by, 4–5; ecomagination initiative of, 8–12, 14–15, 47*fig*; economic outcomes under sustainability initiatives of, 20; efforts to reduce their greenhouse gas emissions, 285; HealthAhead benefits program of, 16–19, 178, 190; healthymagination initiative of, 15–16, 19, 48*fig*, 341; HR role in supporting sustainability action by, 6–8; Imagination Breakthrough pipeline program of, 208; impact of sustainability on employer brand of, 88; incremental approach to changing “what they do,” 284; innovative strategies taken by, 207–208; internal change management started under Welch at, 13; Jack Welch's leadership of, 3–5, 13, 27; Jeff Immelt's succession as CEO of, 3–4, 5–7, 13, 20; Leadership, Innovation, and Growth (LIG) training program of, 216–217, 306–307; mobile apps for health awareness program at, 340–341; new willingness to partner with environmental groups, 60–61; policy statement of, 16; redefining its identity, 283; sustainability business benefits to, 57–58; sustainability lessons learned from experience of, 20–26; “The Sweet Spot” of, 9–10, 16, 19; treasure hunts programs for brainstorming used at, 311–313
 General Electric HR (human resources): lessons learned from sustainability efforts of, 21–26; role in continuing to advance sustainability, 12–14; sustainability action facilitated by, 6–8
 General Electric sustainability lessons: HR can advance sustainability using workforce life cycle, 21; HR can lead change efforts around sustainability, 24; HR can leverage sustainability for employee engagement, 24–25; sustainability can enable necessary culture change, 23–24; sustainability can enhance employer brand and attract talent, 22; sustainability can help HR improve employee work life, 21–22; sustainability can help strengthen crucial capabilities, 23; sustainability can strengthen HR's company role, 25–26
 General Motors (GM), 165
 Generation Y (or the millennials), 40, 150, 252
 Glassdoor.com, 175
 Global Fortune 500, 282
 Global Human Sustainability Task Force (PepsiCo), 148
 Global Monitoring Division (U.S. National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration), 35
 Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), 176–181
 Globalization: emergence of global war for talent, 89–92; factors driving, 88–89; how compliance is complicated by, 128; megatrend of, 88; trend toward sustainability, 282–283
 GlobeScan Radar study (2010), 174
 Golden Triangle: description and illustration of, 328, 329*fig*; seeing the business case for sustainability and employee engagement, 327–331; Starbucks' successful approach to the, 331–334
 Google: artifacts approach to innovation taken by, 209–210; corporate information accessed through search engine of, 58; defiance of Chinese censorship pressures by, 38, 179; employee engagement through human rights support by, 331
 Gorsky, Alex, 87
 Great Recession (2008–2009), 35, 40
 Green, Linda, 195
 Greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions, 34, 35, 36, 138, 285

Greening work space, 198–199
 Greenpeace, 279–280
 Grey New York, 211
 Gymboree, 154

H

- Haji, Priya, 300
 Halo effect, 175
 Hancock, Gretchen, 311–312
Harvard Business Review, 307
 Harvard Business School, 155
 Harvard School of Public Health, 191
 Hawken, Paul, 298
 Hawkins, Neil C., 133–134
 Hayward, Tony, 255
 HealthAhead program (GE), 16–19, 178, 190
 Healthymagination (GE), 15–16, 19, 48*fig.*, 341
 Heath, Chip, 303–305
 Heath, Dan, 303–305
 Henkle, Dan, 215–216, 229–230
 HERproject, 192
 Hershey company, 158, 159
 Hewlett-Packard, 182
 Hill, e. Jeffrey, 196
 Hiring: BerylHealth's values alignment through their practices of, 100–103; as heart of your sustainability strategy, 104–105; HR traditional vs. sustainability process of, 74*t*; organizational change by HR focus on talent, 289–290; supporting sustainability by attracting diverse workforce when, 99–100. See also Job candidates
 Hitachi, 111
 HIV/AIDS epidemic, 178, 192
 Hofmeister, John, 261, 262
 HR leaders: as change agents, 204, 277–279; fostering interdependent thinking capacity, 234; impact on culture change by, 243–244; role in designing compensation and incentives, 121; role in driving sustainability by, 61–64, 111; role in enabling collaboration capacity, 213–218; strategic volunteerism by, 348–349; systematic organization change and role of, 288–292. See also Human resources (HR)
 HR processes: career development, 75*t*–76*t*, 111–117; compliance and discipline, 77*t*, 127–129, 137–138; early termination, 79*t*, 158–161; employer branding, 73*t*, 87–88, 90–92; hiring, 74*t*, 99–105; labor pool analysis, 78*t*, 149–158; onboarding, 74*t*, 107–111; performance appraisal, 78*t*, 132–142; promotion and redeployment, 76*t*; retention, 77*t*, 125–126; retirement and postretirement, 79*t*, 161–168; rewards, retention, compensation, and incentives, 77*t*, 120–125, 132–142; targeting and recruitment, 73*t*, 92–94, 97–100; training, 75*t*, 108–111; workforce planning, 78*t*, 142–148. See also specific process
 HR products (or deliverables): caring for employees role of, 173–175; description of, 172; sustainability umbrella covering specific, 172
 Hudson River PCB cleanup, 4–5
 Human resources (HR): bottom-down change role of, 300–301; building sustainability into core processes of, 72–80; causes of bad relationship between employees and, 173; companies that encourage a strategic role by, 131; creating shared vocabulary around sustainability, 236–237; GE's sustainability action facilitated by GE, 6–8, integrating sustainability, business strategy, and, 291*fig.*; lessons learned from General Electric's sustainability experience, 20–26; leveraging for sustainability growth, 26–27; policies supporting trend of work-life blurring, 95–96; retention rates improved through sustainable practices of, 126; role in linking company strategy and employee behavior, 70–71, 111; role in shaping better working conditions for employees, 193–199; sustainability issues as offering unique business partner opportunities to, 131–132; systematic organization change by integrating business strategy and, 288–292; tools for hiring the workforce of tomorrow, 92–94; top-down change and role of, 299; working with sustainability professionals toward employee engagement, 337. See also HR leaders
 Human rights: child labor violation of, 109, 235, 241, 286; employee engagement through Google's support of, 331; Google's defiance of censorship pressures by China, 38; P&G concerns with, 179; UN global Compact principles on, 184
 Hurricane Katrina: Timberland relief efforts after, 237–239; Walmart relief efforts after, 37, 122, 235
 Hybrid organizations, 53–54

I

IBM: COBRA (Corporate Brand Recognition and Awareness) developed at, 310; Corporate Service Corps program at, 115–116, 117; Executive Service Corps program at, 116; flextime and

- telecommuting study on employees of, 196;
 Jam process used for change at, 309–311;
 Jam Program Office of, 311; On Demand
 Community Program of, 168; Smarter
 Cities Challenges program at, 116–117;
 Values Jam (2003), 310, 311, 342; Values
 Manifesto of, 211
- Imagination Breakthrough pipeline (GE), 208
- Immelt, Jeff, 3–4, 5–7, 13, 20, 88, 307
- Incentives: award programs used as, 123; HR role in designing, 121; HR traditional vs.
 sustainability process of, 77; Siemen's employee incentive system to control corruption, 137–138; for sustainability performance, 120–122; sustainability performance and nonfinancial, 122–125
- India: globalization driving emerging economy of, 89; Hindustan Lever's two-cent soaps/shampoos marketed in, 38–39;
 megacities of, 33; new affluence of, 34–35
- Industrial Workers of the World (IWW), 187
- Ingersoll Rank (IR) employee engagement survey, 330–331
- Innovation capability: artifacts used to build, 209–210; how HR can facilitate, 209; importance to organizations, 206; strategies for bottom-up, 207–209, 211; sustainability related to, 206–211
- INSEAD (France), 152
- Interdependent thinking capacity: description of, 231–232; how HR can foster, 234;
 sustainability through the, 231–234
- Interface, Inc., 297–298
- Ipsos MORI poll, 151
- Jam process (IBM), 309–311
- Jam Program Office (IBM), 311
- Jay, Jason, 153
- Job candidates: determining degree of value alignment of company and, 96–97;
 examining Facebook, LinkedIn, and Twitter postings, 97; sustainable job descriptions given to, 97–99. See also Hiring; Recruitment
- Job descriptions: including sustainability as part of, 97–99; Triple Bottom Line written into, 98
- “Jobless recovery,” 35–36
- Johnson & Johnson (J&J): famous Credo of, 83, 84, 85; how problems could have been averted at, 100; how recalls have tarnished the image of, 282; people-centered corporate value statement of, 52; phantom recall of Motrin packages by, 84; recent events casting doubt on Credo of, 84–87; speculating on the role of HR in fall from grace of, 86–87; Tylenol poisoning case outcome for, 52, 83–84, 85–86
- Johnson, H. Fisk, 51
- Johnson, Robert Wood, 83
- ## K
- Keller, Fred, 104
- Kentucky Center for the Performing Arts, 153
- Kotter, John, 292, 302
- Kotter's eight-step system of change: how a program like GE's LIG can apply, 307; how to successfully apply to organization change, 295–297; IBM's Jam process applying elements of, 309–311; made integral part of any comprehensive change program, 294; PepsiCo's sustainability effort using elements of, 296; “See–Feel–Change” rubric of, 302; summary of, 292–293;
 variables for tailoring to your organization, 294
- Kramer, Mark R., 50
- Krantz, Vicki, 142
- ## L
- L1A8 (GRI performance indicator), 178
- Labor pool analysis: of early career sustainability education, 153–155; of extended careers and encore careers, 155–158; HR traditional vs. sustainability process of, 78; importance and benefits of conducting, 149–151; of midcareer programs in sustainability, 155; of recent graduates and young workers, 151–153
- Lawler, Edward E., III, 63, 278, 283
- Leadership, Innovation, and Growth (LIG) training program [GE], 216–217, 306–307
- Learning capacity: description of, 234–235;
 PepsiCo's Performance with Purpose concept of, 236–237; sustainability relationship to, 235–240
- Learning organizations: becoming a, 235;
 liberating themselves from “not invented here” (NIH) syndrome, 239–240
- LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design), 11
- Lehman Brothers scandal, 262
- LinkedIn, 97
- Lonergan, Ed, 88
- Long-term orientation: organizational advantages of, 218–220; overcoming barriers to, 222–224; PepsiCo's strategy for,
 221–222; of sustainability, 218–224

Low-profit limited liability companies, 54
 Lowe's, 319
 Lufkin, Melissa, 195
 Lynch, John, 12, 17, 18, 24

M

Maastricht School of Management, 155
 Madison, Kristin M., 191
 Mahindra & Mahindra, 112–114, 117
 Mahoney, Frank, 150
 Management Research Centre (London Metropolitan Business School), 228
 Marchand, Paul, 93
 Marks & Spencer (M&S), 342–344
 Mars Incorporated, 311
 Martens, John, 208
 MAS Holdings, 192–193
 Massachusetts Business Roundtable, 149–150
 Matrix management, 215
 McDonald, Bob, 206
 McKenna, Matthew, 222
 McNeil Consumer Healthcare, 84, 86
 Megacities, 33
 Michaels, Julia, 143
 Middle managers: as keeper of profitability, 253; resistance to cultural change by, 252, 253
 Millennials (Generation Y), 40, 150, 252
 MIT Sloan School of Management, 153
 Mobile apps for health awareness program (GE), 340–341
 Monster Worldwide job website poll, 150–151
 Morris, Mike, 124, 263, 270, 271, 302–305
 Morrow, Lara, 101–102, 118
 Motivating sustainable change, 301–303
 My Sustainability Plan (MSP) [Walmart], 211, 341

N

Nader, Ralph, 280
 “Nader's Raiders,” 280
 National Audubon Society, 100
 National economic accounting, 31
 National Safety Council, 267
 Nature Conservancy, 222
 Net Impact: Climate Corps internship program of, 154; origins and educational programs of, 150, 153–154
 Net Impact survey (2010), 150
New York Times, 5
New Yorker, 221
 NIH (not invented here) syndrome, 239–240
 Nike: child labor scandal (mid-1990s) of, 109, 235, 241; customer accountability by, 56
 Nooyi, Indra, 52, 221–222, 298
 Northeast Utilities, 263

Northeastern University, 191
 Northwestern University, 154

O

O'Donnell, K. Beth, 153
 Omidyar, Pierre, 300
 Onboarding: corporate social responsibility (CSR) introduced during, 108; description of, 107; HR traditional vs. sustainability process of, 74*t*; signaling commitment to sustainability during the, 107–108; training for sustainability, 108–111. See also Career development; Training
 Organizational capabilities: adaptability, 240–241; collaboration, 212–218; description of, 204–205; innovation, 206–211; interdependent thinking, 231–234; learning, 234–240; as levers for sustainable success, 204–211; long-term orientation, 218–224; outward focus, 224–231. See also Corporations
 Organizational change: ad hoc form of, 286–288; four proven approaches to initiating, 305–313; how danger, failure, and opportunity drive, 279–283; how you do it dimension of sustainable, 285–286; Kotter's eight-step system for, 292–297; making the emotional case for, 302–303; motivating sustainable, 301–303; using positive instead of negative messages about, 305–306; promoting change strategy by talking about, 303–305; “sustainability jujitsu” driving, 282; systematic approach to, 288–292; top-down change versus bottom-up change, 297–301; what you do dimension of sustainable, 284–285; who you are dimension of sustainable, 283–284. See also Change agents; Culture change
 Organizational change approaches: GE's Leadership, Innovation, and Growth (LIG) program, 216–217, 306–307; GE's treasure hunts for brainstorming, 311–313; IBM's Jam process, 309–311; Starbucks' 2008 national retraining day, 307–309
 Organizational culture: AEP's strong safety culture, 124–125, 246–247; artifacts level of, 209–210, 245–246*fig*; corporate heroes who try to improve, 253; Deepwater Horizon disaster (2010) and BP's, 259–262; definition of, 244–245; espoused values level of, 246*fig*; evaluating your, 273–274; how sustainability is sabotaged by BP's, 254–262; resistance to sustainability change by traditional, 248–254; underlying assumptions level of, 246*fig*. See also Corporations; Culture change

- Organizational development (OD), 213
- Ortho Evra birth control lawsuits, 84–85
- Our Common Future* report (Brundtland Commission, 1987), 30
- Outward focus capability: BT Troubleshooting Program's, 230–231; description of, 224; strategies for developing, 224–231; Toyota's loss of, 225–227; Toyota's reestablishment of, 228
- Oxfam America: interdependent thinking of, 232; Poverty Footprint Methodology of, 44
- P
- Palmisano, Sam, 310, 342
- Patagonia, 54
- PCBs: General Electric (GE) opposition to cleanup of, 4–5; legislation (1979) banning production of, 5
- Pension plans: General Motor's (GM's) poor communication regarding, 165; socially responsible investing (SRI) and, 165–167; unfunded obligations of, 161–162
- People, Planet and Profits* report, 280
- Pepperidge Farm (Campbell's), 108
- PepsiCo: benefits of Triple Bottom Line actions for, 121; collaborative sustainability efforts at, 214; connecting talent strategies and our sustainability goals at, 147–148; creating shared value of healthy snacks and profits for, 50; diversity goal of, 178; elements of Kotter's eight-step system observed in change at, 296; Global Human Sustainability Task Force of, 148; healthful nutrition focus of Sweet Spot of, 49, 282; how employer brand of sustainability helps, 91–92; how their sustainability program serves as recruiting tool, 93; incremental approach to changing "what they do," 284; international workforce of, 90–91; long-term orientation strategy by, 221–222; mandates removal of trans fats from snack products by, 52; Performance with Purpose concept of, 236–237; talent required for nutrition focus change at, 289; Tropicana and Quaker Oats products of, 49
- Performance appraisals: for evaluating/rewarding sustainability performance, 132–142; HR traditional vs. sustainability process of, 78f; SC Johnson's Greenlist system rating used in, 136–137
- Performance with Purpose (PepsiCo), 236–237
- Pfizer, 86, 182
- Philanthropy: distinction between sustainability development and, 42–43; PwC's charity contribution practice at job fairs as, 97
- Pollution Prevention Pays program (3M), 38, 209
- Porter, Michael E., 50
- Postretirement: AEP's flexible work opportunities during, 167–168; HR traditional vs. sustainability process of, 79f; IBM's On Demand Community Program for, 168. See also Retirement
- Poverty Footprint Methodology (Oxfam America), 44
- Power Generation, 216
- Presidio, 155
- Pret A Manger sandwich shop, 188–189
- PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC), 189–190, 197, 346
- Prigge, Todd, 213
- Procter & Gamble (P&G): collaboration strategy for Tide Coldwater of, 212; DJSI World membership of, 182; evaluating social impacts of capital investments by, 222; human rights concerns of, 179; innovation capacity at, 206
- Profitability, growing the Sweet Spot for, 50–54; how "Acme Corporation" leveraged sustainability for, 322–327; hybrid corporations with dual purpose of social and, 53–54; indirect outcomes of sustainability and, 138, 142; J&J's Tylenol's poisoning case example of sustainability and, 52; link between sustainability, engagement, and, 320–322; middle manager as keeper of, 253; PepsiCo's sustainability decisions resulting in, 52; SC Johnson's sustainability and, 51–52; SHRM survey on ROI for sustainability, 55; sustainability benefit of improved financial performance and, 55–56; Sweet Spot driven by motive of, 53–54. See also Corporations
- Prokesch, Steven, 307
- Promotion process, 76f
- Puma, 143–144
- PwC, 97
- Q
- Quaker Oats, 147
- R
- Recruitment: how PepsiCo's sustainability program serves as tool for, 93; HR traditional vs. sustainability process of, 73f; organizational change by HR focus on talent, 289–290; supporting sustainability by attracting diverse workforce during, 99–100; sustainable job descriptions used during, 97–99; tools for hiring the

- workforce of tomorrow, 92–94. See also Job candidates
- Redeployment, HR traditional vs. sustainability process of, 76*t*
- Reibstein, David, 216
- Responsible Care, 280
- Retention: HR traditional vs. sustainability process of, 77*t*; sustainability role in, 125–126; sustainable HR processes and policies to improve, 126; values alignment impact on increased rates of, 126
- Retirees: clear and transparent communication with, 164; 401(k) plans for, 162, 163; General Motor's (GM's) poor communication with, 165; keeping faith with employees and, 164–165; pensions and socially responsible investing (SRI) by, 165–167
- Retirement: creating a sustainable, 161–168; creating work options to delay, 167–168; developing clear communication for informing employees about, 162; encourage company to adopt sustainable programs for, 163–164; encourage employees to make responsible financial choices for, 163; 401(k) plans for, 162, 163; HR traditional vs. sustainability process of, 79*t*; pensions and socially responsible investing (SRI) by corporations, 165–167; stay informed about current legal and regulatory developments of, 162. See also Postretirement
- Rewards: HR traditional vs. sustainability process of, 77*t*; performance appraisal for sustainability performance, 132–142. See also Compensation
- Ritacca-Herena, Monique, 90–92
- Rockefeller Foundation, 148
- Rosneft, 256
- S
- Saatchi and Saatchi, 328
- SAB Miller, 232
- Sabre Holdings, 195
- Safety culture: AEP's negative reinforcement tools for, 124–125, 246–247; BP's Deepwater Horizon disaster in spite of financial incentives for, 122; comparing BP and AEP leadership of, 268, 272; how AEP embraced sustainability and creating a zero-harm, 262–271, 302–303; how BP's organizational culture sabotages, 254–262; HR role in improving Shell's, 261; Unsafe at Any Speed (Nader) and advocacy of car, 280
- Sanders, Tim, 237
- SC Johnson: connecting sustainability and compensation at, 140*t*; Greenlist system rating Sustainability performance, 136–137; proenvironmental behavior of, 51–52
- Schein, Edgar H., 209, 244, 245, 253, 258, 279
- Schlosser, Eric, 235
- Schultz, Howard, 185–186, 308
- Scott, Lee, 297, 298
- Seabrook, John, 221–222
- “Self-health” movement, 15
- Shell Oil Company: change following confrontation with Greenpeace, 279–280; HR department's role in improving safety at, 261; OSHA penalties against, 262
- “Shrinking the change” strategy, 304–305
- Shue, Abby, 153
- Siemens: connecting sustainability and compensation at, 141*t*; employee incentive system to control corruption by, 137–138
- “Sin stocks,” 166
- Skype, 198
- Slater, Rodney, 225–226
- Social sustainability: focus of, 42, 44–45, 46*t*; Oxfam America Poverty Footprint Methodology measure of, 44; “sustainability jujitsu” driven by concerns over, 282; Sweet Spot generating revenue and, 320–321*fig*
- Socially responsible investing (SRI), 165–167
- Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM): on HR role in defining sustainability in their organization, 237; on including sustainability as part of job description, 99; sustainability as defined by, 40, 41; sustainability resources found on website of, 62
- South African apartheid protests, 166
- Spiegelman, Paul, 101, 118, 346
- Stakeholders: future and current retirees as powerful corporate, 164; Gap's stakeholder engagement program for involving, 145; sustainability benefits to improved relationships with, 58–59
- Stanford University Medical Center, 213
- Stangis, Dave, 124, 134
- Starbucks: bystander employees of, 333; customer accountability by, 56; customer donations program by, 37–38; one-day national retraining program (2008) at, 307–309; Sweet Spot of, 186*fig*; value alignment and employee engagement at, 331–334; wages and benefits policies of, 185–187
- Starbucks Gossip blog, 309
- StartingBloc's Institute for Social Innovation, 154
- Stockholm Convention on Persistent Organic Pollutants (2001), 5

- Sub-Saharan Africa, 89
- Superfund law, 5
- SurePayroll, 211
- Sustainability: built into core HR processes, 72–80; diverse recruitment and hiring policies to support, 99–100; evolving concept of, 29–30; GE's HR role in supporting, 6–8, 12–14; Golden Triangle on employee engagement, business results, and, 327–334; growing the Sweet Spot for, 50–54; HR role in creating shared vocabulary around, 236–237; human resources (HR) role in driving, 61–64; integrating HR, business strategy, and, 291*fig*; introduction to economic, environmental, and social elements of, 40–46*fig*; lessons learned from General Electric's experience with, 20–26; traditional corporate culture resistance to, 248–254; trends and realities of, 33–40; widespread umbrella concept of, 171. See also The Sweet Spots; Triple Bottom Line
- Sustainability benchmarks: Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI), 31–33, 40–41, 52, 135, 176, 182–183; Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), 176–181; United Nations Global Compact, 176, 183–185
- Sustainability business benefits: examining the, 54–55; a higher-quality workforce, 59–60; improved financial performance, 55–56; improved individual and organizational capacities, 60–61; improved stakeholder relationships, 58–59; new business opportunities and growth, 57–58; new customers and business partners, 56–57
- Sustainability development: Brundtland Commission's definition of, 30–31, 41; creating social prosperity through, 42; distinction between philanthropic work and, 42–43; Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI) definition of, 31–33, 40–41, 52; introduction to economic, environmental, and social elements of, 40–46*fig*; SHRM survey on ROI for, 55; SHRM's definition of, 40, 41
- Sustainability education: early career programs for, 153–155; extended careers and encore career, 155–158; growth of educational institutions engaged in, 151–153; midcareer programs of, 155
- Sustainability-engagement programs: GE's mobile apps for health awareness, 340–341; getting started with, 337, 339–340; getting started with sustainability and, 337, 339–340; IBM's Values Jam, 310, 311, 342; illustrated diagram of components of, 340*fig*; issues for focusing your efforts, 339–340; M&S's success at turning bystanders into participants using, 342–344; matrix with examples, 345*fig*; strategic volunteerism as starting point for, 344–349; Walmart's My Sustainability Plan (MSP), 211, 341. See also Employee engagement
- “Sustainability jujitsu,” 282
- Sustainability milestone: Brundtland Commission, 30–31; establishment of Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI), 31–33
- “Sustainability mind-set,” 69. See also Workforce life cycle
- Sustainability performance: compensation and incentives for, 120–122; DJSI's benchmarks for, 135; evolving employee assistance as corporate, 117–120; nonfinancial incentives for, 122–125; onboarding training to encourage, 107–108; performance appraisals on, 132–142; providing training for, 108–111; SC Johnson Greenlist system rating, 136–137; talent management facilitating, 111–117
- Sustainable Asset Management Group, 182
- The Sweet Spots: description of, 9, 46, 49–50; General Electric's, 9–10, 16, 19, 47*fig*, 48*fig*, 49*fig*; generating revenue through creation of new products or services, 320–321*fig*; how to develop sustainable business strategies for, 46–50; how to grow your sustainability and profitability through, 50–54; Johnson & Johnson (J&J) Tylenol poisoning case outcome example of, 52; PepsiCo's healthful nutrition focus of, 49, 50; PwC's charity contribution practice at job fairs as example of, 97; SC Johnson's example of, 51–52; socially responsible investing (SRI) as opportunities for, 166–167; Starbucks,' 186*fig*. See also Sustainability; Triple Bottom Line
- Switch* (Heath and Heath), 303–304

T

- Talent: emergence of global war for, 89–92; employer brand for sustainability impacting the, 90–92; five factors differentiating high performing, 112; innovative programs for developing, 111–117; organizational change by HR recruitment of specific, 289–290; tools for hiring, 92–94. See also Employees
- Technological revolution: environmental and social problems addressed by, 36; how industries are transformed by the, 60; “jobless recovery” and, 35–36
- Technology-enabled meetings, 196–198

- Termination: HR traditional vs. sustainability process of, 79*t*; sustainability approach to, 158–161
- Texas City oil refinery explosion (2007), 258–259, 260
- Three Mile Island accident, 235
- 3M: bottom-up innovation tradition of, 208–209; 15 percent time program of, 208; Pollution Prevention Pays program of, 38, 209
- TIAA-CREF, 166
- Timberland Hurricane Katrina relief efforts, 237–239
- Top-down sustainability change: CEO leadership during, 297–299; description of, 297; HR role in, 299; Interface, Inc. example of, 297–299
- Towns, Edolphus, 85
- Toyota: brainstorming program used at, 311; DJSI World membership of, 182; environmental benefits of Prius by, 282; loss of outward focus by, 225–227; reestablishing outward focus through SMART teams, 228; “the Toyota Way” of, 225
- Training: British Telecom’s (BT’s) Sustainability Matters online tool for, 108–109; GE’s Leadership, Innovation, and Growth (LIG) training program, 216–217, 306–307; HR traditional vs. sustainability process of, 75*t*; Starbucks’s one-day national retraining program (2008), 307–309; for sustainability, 108–111; Unilever’s “Four Acres Singapore” leadership, 115. See also Career development; Onboarding
- Transocean (BP), 122
- Transparency: importance to compliance, 127; People, Planet and Profits report to bring about, 280; retirement program, 164
- Treasure hunts (brainstorming program) [GE], 311–313
- Triple Bottom Line: defining and measuring sustainable growth using, 40–46*t*; description of, 29–30; DJSI linking stock performance to, 135; goals and related behaviors that can be incentivized, 120–121; introduction to economic, environmental, and social elements of sustainability making up the, 40–46*t*; new areas of concern revealed by, 128; People, Planet and Profits reporting on the, 380; performance appraisal linking to sustainability performance and, 132–142; potential as fundamental transformation of business, 277; written into job descriptions, 98. See also Sustainability; The Sweet Spots
- The Triple Bottom Line* (Savitz and Weber), 39, 158
- Tropicana, 147
- Turnover: relationship of employee engagement to, 325*fig*; retention strategies to prevent, 77*t*, 125–126
- Twitter: connecting with customers through, 217–218; examining job candidate’s postings on, 97
- Tylenol poisoning case (J&J), 52, 83–84, 85–86

U

- Ulrich, David O., 63, 173, 277, 289
- UN Environment Program, 180
- U.N. World Commission on Environment and Development (Brundtland Commission), 30–31, 41
- Unilever: DJSI membership of, 182; “Four Acres Singapore” leadership training at, 115; innovative career development program at, 114–115, 117
- United Nations Global Compact, 176, 183–185
- United States: age discrimination laws of, 157; aging workforce of, 157–158; breakdown of political consensus in the, 36; Washington’s hyper-partisanship in the, 36–37
- Universities Superannuation Scheme (USS), 156
- University of Cambridge, 155
- University of Chicago, 154
- University of Michigan, 173
- University of Minnesota, 152
- Unlawful Trade Practices Act, 84
- UN’s Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights, 145
- Unsafe at Any Speed* (Nader), 280
- U.S. National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, 35
- U.S. Occupational Safety and Health Administration, 262

V

- Vachon, Mark, 26, 27
- Values alignment: BerylHealth’s advantages through, 100–103; COBRA highlighting themes of corporate ethics for, 310–311; description and practice of, 59; determining if job candidates value match company’s, 96–97; how retention rates are increased by, 126; process of creating, 94–97; Starbucks’ employer brand management, employee engagement, and, 331–334; sustainable job descriptions to encourage, 97–99; work-life blurring and, 95–96. See also Employee engagement

- Values Jam (IBM), 310–311, 342
 Values Manifesto (IBM), 311
 Victoria's Secret, 193
 Viridity Energy, 144
 Virtual play date, 197
 Volunteerism: BerylHealth's successful employee engagement through, 346; BT employees' successful, 346–347; HR professionals and strategic, 348–349; PricewaterhouseCoopers (PWC) use of, 346; sustainability-engagement programs and strategic, 344–349
- W
- Wages and benefits policies: Pret A Manger sandwich shop, 188–189; PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC), 189–190; Starbucks, 185–187; sustainability link to, 185–190; Wegmans grocery chain, 187–188
 Walmart: change into environmental leader, 282; customer accountability by, 56–57; how strategic hiring helped transform sustainability in, 100; Hurricane Katrina relief efforts by, 37, 122; My Sustainability Plan (MSP) of, 211, 341; redefining identity of, 283–284; top-down change toward sustainability at, 297
 Walton, Sam, 186
 Water shortages, 34
 Wegmans grocery chain: employee assistance provided by, 119; wage and benefits policies of, 187–188
 Welch, Dennis, 247, 265–267, 270
 Welch, Jack, 3–5, 13, 27
 Weldon, William C., 85, 87
 Wellness initiatives, 191–192
 Werbach, Adam, 327–328
 Wesleyan University, 142
 White, Christian, 235–237
 Whitman, Meg, 300
 WikiLeaks, 175, 235
 Women Go Beyond program (MAS Holdings), 192–193
 Work-life blurring, 95–96
 Workforce: labor pool analysis for understanding the, 78*t*, 149–158; need for more environmentally knowledgeable, 142–144; need for more socially and economically knowledgeable, 145–146; searching for sustainability leaders of the, 146–148. See also Employees
 Workforce life cycle: adopting “sustainability mind-set” into the, 69; barriers to embedding sustainability into, 69–70; building sustainability into core HR processes of, 72–80; description of, 72; HR role in linking company strategy and employee behavior in, 70–71
 Workforce management: labor pool analysis to improve, 78*t*, 149–158; performance appraisals on sustainability performance, 132–142; sustainability role in termination, 79*t*, 158–161; sustainable retirement and postretirement, 79*t*, 161–168
 Workforce planning: HR traditional vs. sustainability process of, 78*t*; for more environmentally knowledgeable workforce, 142–144; for more socially and economically knowledgeable workforce, 145–146; for searching for sustainability leaders, 146–148
 Working conditions: flexible work styles, 194–196; greening the work space, 198–199; HR role in shaping better, 193–199; technology-enabled meetings, 196–198
 World Bank, 300
 World Business Council for Sustainable Development, 135
 World consumption rates, 35
 World Health Organization, 148
 World of Good, 299–300
 World of Good.com, 300
 World population growth, 34, 35
 World Summit on Sustainable Development (Johannesburg, 2002), 180
- Y
- Yach, Derek, 148
 Yahoo, 179
 York University (Canada), 152
 YouTube, 218
- Z
- Zambian Breweries, 232–233
 Zibelman, Aubrey, 144

<http://www.pbookshop.com>