

Index

Page references followed by fig indicate an illustrated figure; followed by t indicate a table; followed by e indicate an exhibit.

A

- Borland, B., 515
Guzzo, R. A., 523
Nalbantian, H. R., 523
ABB, 134
ABN Amro Bank, 134, 434–435
Accenture, 123, 265, 333
Accelerating leadership development: concentration principle of, 546; customization principle of, 546; integration principle of, 546
Action learning: BDAL (business-driven action learning) approach to, 413–421; community-based nonprofits approach to, 423–431; International Consortium Program (ICP) collaboration for, 435–440; leadership development for, 373
Adaptability dimension: description of, 9*e*; evaluating your development experience by, 13*e*
Adeuja, K., 501
Aditya Birla Group, 134
Advani, N., 49
After-Event Reviews: How to Structure Reflection Conversations, 149
After-event reviews (AERs): developmental job assignments followed by, 489; as structured reflection conversations, 221–227*e*; University of Michigan's development of, 149–150; U.S. Army development of, 149–150, 489. See also Feedback
Agilent Global Learning and Leadership Development Team, 166–168
Agilent Technologies, 165
Agilent's 3x3 Tool, 167*fig*–168
Alcan, 134
Allen, N., 129, 279
Allen, T. D., 121
Allied-Demecq, 134
Allison, S. A., 113
Apprenticeships: building depth through, 456–457*fig*; definition of, 456
APQC, 483
Argyris, C., 547
Arrow Leadership Strategies, 99
ASCENT—Leading Multicultural Women to the Top, 473
Asea Brown Boveri (ABB), 435
Ashford, S. J., 145, 195, 197, 198, 547
Assignments. See Job assignments
AT&T, 542
Australian Business Volunteers, 111
Authority vs. influence, 22*e*, 23*t*
- ## B
- Baird, L., 221
Bandura, A., 183
Bauer, S., 133
Beich, E., 372
Bell, E. E., 473, 474, 475
Bellin, J., 333
Benfield Group, 134
Berg, E., 389
Bersin & Associate's IMPACT conference (2011), 123
Better Together: Building Learning Communities Across Organizations, 134
Bevier, L., 93
Bhasin, A., 81, 169

- BHP Billiton, 134
- Biech, E., 375
- Blatt, R., 198
- Blue Opportunities (IBM), 55
- Bly, P. R., 37
- Board of learning advisors: creating the, 262e–263; designing a developmental network for, 259, 261; developmental network roles of the, 260f; Developmental Network Worksheet, 261fig; lessons learned about, 263–264
- Boeing: Global Leadership Program (GLP) of, 433–434; “Green Room” succession plan used at, 488; International Consortium Program (ICP) initiated by, 134; International Consortium Program (ICP) membership of, 435–440; senior leadership and development roles at, 433; Waypoint Project for development assignments, 488
- Boone, L., 147
- Borland, B., 317
- Boshyk, Y., 133, 413, 435, 441
- Bossen, M., 259
- Bossert, R., 441
- Boyatzis, R., 196
- Boyd, T., 45, 207, 321, 459
- BRIC countries (Brazil, Russia, India, and China), 102
- Bridges, W., 237
- Bridgespan Group, 423
- Brinkerhoff, R., 165
- Broken Hill Proprietary (BHP), 435
- Bruch, H., 221
- Building breadth: illustration of process of, 453fig; strategies for, 454–456
- Building capabilities, 398
- Building depth: illustration of process of, 453fig; strategies for, 456–458
- Bunker, K. A., 177, 183, 235
- Burgess, T., 279
- Business-driven action learning (BDAL): caution about using the, 419; description of, 413; examples of business challenges to craft using, 415–416; how to identify personal challenges, 416–417–, 419; illustrated diagram of, 414fig; origins, development, and purpose of, 413–414; preparing and implementing “outside-in” conversations, 417, 418fig; “The Seven Dimensions of Learning” write-up using, 417, 418fig; seven key components of, 414–415fig; success factors and lessons learned about using, 419–421
- Button, S. B., 314
- Buyens, D., 197
- C
- Candidate Development Programs (CDPs), 536–537
- Career development: assessing impact of learning on, 523–528; “Expression of Interest” program for increasing lateral, 45–48; model of key experiences in, 38fig–39; taking responsibility for your own, 547–548. See also Leadership development; Succession planning
- Career GPS: Strategies for Women Navigating the New Corporate Landscape* (Bill and Villarosa), 474
- Career Innovation, 347
- The Career Innovation Group, 287, 347
- Carr, A., 276
- Catalyst’s Overview of Women in the Workplace report (2011), 474
- Catalyzing epiphanies, 398
- CDC Development Solutions, 99, 100
- Center for Creative Leadership (CCL): Cynthia McCauley on creating project marketplaces, 55–56; Cynthia McCauley on developing talent through assignments, 341–345; Cynthia McCauley on organizational climate for development, 483–486; Cynthia McCauley on the speed of development, 545–547; Fick-Cooper and Clark on action learning with NGOs, 423–431; McCauley and Taylor on teaching the dynamics of derailment, 529–533; microfinance leadership development role by, 381–387; partnership with RWJF on fellowship leadership program, 423–431; Ruderman and Ohlott on learning from personal life experiences, 77–80; Sylvester Taylor on effective feedback, 203–206e; Tata Group’s collaboration on extending lessons-of-experience framework with, 334
- Center for Integrity in Business (CIB) [Seattle Pacific University]: cultivating leaders of integrity through CoPs at, 274–277e; work for promoting integrity at, 273–274
- Center for Positive Organizational Scholarship (University of Michigan), 273
- CEO credibility survey (2012), 273
- The “CEO disease,” 196
- Charan, R., 124
- Chisholm, J., 397
- Chunking, 401–402
- Civil Service Reform Act (1978), 535
- Clark, R., 230
- Clark, S., 423
- Classroom training: bringing the real world into the, 375–380; creating a learning orientation in, 169–175; experiential activity design of activities for, 376–377; learning challenges in, 171–172; Microfinance leadership development through, 381–387; mid-level leadership development in the, 378–379; new leader orientation using, 377–378; questions to ask in order to create roadmap for, 170; WIAL’s method of action learning applied to, 172–174. See also Training
- Coaching: by action learning teams in the RWJF-CCL Fellowship leadership program, 430–431; building depth through, 457–458; GROW coaching model for effective conversation for, 349fig–352; how leader-coaches can reflect in action, 338e; leadership development by leader coaching of leaders, 333–339; National Grid’s experience with leader-led, 333, 336–339; Tata Group’s experience with leader-led, 333, 334–336, 339. See also Mentoring
- CoCoon, 381, 382
- Colgate Palmolive, 134
- Communities of Practice (CoPs): CompanyCommand learning forum, 279–285; cultivating leaders of integrity through, 274–277; ethical challenges for promoting change through a, 277e; Global Forum, 441–444; mentoring within, 373–374. See also Learning communities
- CompanyCommand* (U.S. Army): blending virtual and face-to-face interaction, 284–285; company commanders of the, 280e; description and function of, 279–281; development and Red

- Cross model team of the, 281–282; fostering professional identity to inspire participation, 284; Leader 2 Leader (L2L) facilitated by, 285; practitioner effectiveness purpose of the, 282–283; Professional Forum web page of the, 281*fig*; rhythm established with forum of, 285; targeting the learning curve, 283*fig*; 284; technical, social, and learning architectures of the, 284; three Cs of forum facilitation practiced by the, 283
- Condit, P., 436
- Context dimension: description of, 9*e*; evaluating your development experience by, 13*e*
- Conversations: “conservation gaps” resulting in ineffective, 347, 348, 350*e*; GROW coaching Model for exploring career interests through, 349*fig*–352; hints and tips for engaging, 352*e*; preparing and implementing “outside-in,” 417, 418*fig*; separating the performance and development, 363–364; sustainable performance as requiring effective, 348
- Corporate Citizenship and Corporate Affairs (CC&CA), 107
- Corporate Executive Board, 3, 165
- Corporate Service Corps (IBM): description of, 100; leadership development through service projects, 107–112; partnership with NGOs, 108, 111
- Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR): corporate volunteerism typically aligned with, 99; finding internal partners within groups of, 102
- Corporate volunteerism: description and benefits of, 99–100; emergence as substitute for professional skill development, 105; identifying and selecting partners for, 100–105
- Corporate Volunteerism as an Avenue for Leader Development*, 111
- Cottrill, K., 65
- Craig, N., 247
- Cross-company consortiums: description of, 133; examples of, 134; the future potential of, 138–139; objectives and benefits of, 134–135; what to consider when starting a, 135–138
- Cross-cultural leadership challenge, 22*e*, 23*t*
- Cross-functional experiences: the Development Profile as starting place for, 51; Genentech’s Director Development Pathways (DDP) for, 49–53; lessons learned from the DDP program for, 53–54
- Cross, R., 280
- D
- Dalton, M., 181, 183
- Darling, M., 221
- Daryani, R., 119, 327
- Davis, N. M., 55
- De Schepper, H., 441
- De Stobbeleir, K. M., 197
- Degenhardt, K.-G., 133
- Deloitte, 347
- Derailment phenomenon: characteristics of derailers, 530*e*–531; description of, 529–530; getting senior leaders to understand seriousness of the, 531–533
- DeRue, D. S., 145, 169, 221, 541, 547–548
- “Development and Validation of a Work Domain Goal Orientation Instrument” (Vandewalle), 314
- Development experience plans: on development activities, 364, 365*e*; Developmental Activities Form pointing people toward development, 367*e*; example of experiences generated to support a competency included in, 319*e*; framework of a, 319*e*; partnering to craft a, 318, 320; performance-management audit, 365, 367*e*, 368; self-assessment of your, 366*e*; 70/20/10 type of, 364–370, 549–550
- Development experiences: building organization-specific, 37–43; building professional DNA through, 451–458; built into training programs, 371–374; connecting personal life experiences to, 79–80*e*; corporate volunteerism, 99–105; establishing the learning mindset for, 177–180; evaluated by specific dimension, 12*e*–13*e*; facilitating learning from, 239–241*t*; First Time Supervisor (FTS) program offering, 114–118; Genentech’s Director Development Pathways (DDP) for cross-functional, 49–54; General Electric’s personalized rotation program for, 93–98; GE’s Executive Leadership Team (ELT) talent management and, 299–307; HoTSpots (Hubs Of Training) on-the-job, 389–396; improving on-the-job, 317–320; Intensity dimension of, 8*e*–9; leadership maps identifying, 25–36; mindful engagement for learning to learn from, 145–150; model of key, 38*fig*–39; performance management catalysts for, 363–370; project marketplaces providing opportunities for, 55–56; relationship of performance management to, 355–361; separating conversations of performance and, 363–364; simulations used as, 397–403*t*; strategic corporate assignments providing emerging market, 81–8*e*, 374; Stretch dimension of, 9*e*; succession planning through, 445–449*e*, 515–518; tactics for learning from, 181–185*e*; taking responsibility for your own, 547–548; three basic ways to provide, 3; Wesfarmers’ integration approach for accelerating, 58–63. See also Experience models; Leadership development; Leadership experience; Work
- Development-in-place: description of, 21; examples of three strategies for, 23*t*
- Development-in-place process: step 1: identify kinds of experiences needed for your leadership portfolio, 21–22; step 2: generate ideas about where you can find these experiences, 22–23; step 3: create a plan, 23
- Developmental network: creating a board of advisors as part of the, 262*e*–263; designing a, 259, 261; Developmental Network Worksheet, 261*fig*; introducing the concept of, 259; lessons learned about using a, 263–264; team roles in the, 260*t*
- Dewey, J., 229
- Di Donato, J., 232
- Dialogic facilitation, 240–241*t*
- Digital Opportunity Trust, 111
- Director Development Pathways (DDP) [Genentech]: Action Plan Script used as part of, 52*e*–53*e*; the Development Profile as starting place for, 51; Investigative Summary used as part of the, 51*e*; lessons learned from the, 53–54; process step summary page, 50*fig*; providing cross-functional experiences, 49–54; steps for process of, 51–53
- Diversity: Corporate Service Corps (IBM) outcome of increased sensitivity to, 109–110; as leadership challenge, 22*e*, 23*t*; supporting multicultural women in the talent pipeline, 473–477
- Dixon, N., 279
- DOA-CALL, 221
- Doherty, J., 523
- Dr. Reddy’s, 134
- Dragoni, L., 17, 169

Driscoll, J., 229
 Dubbs, N. L., 213
 Duke University: First Time Supervisor program offered by PDI and, 113; FTS program stretch assignments, 114–118
 Dynamic Organization model: description of the, 243, 245*fig*; Leadership Journey Line Exercise of, 244*e*; LTPOV (leadership teachable point of view), 243, 245–246, 248; Values Exercise of, 247*e*
 Dynamics of derailment: characteristics of derailers, 530*e*–531; description of, 529–530; getting senior leaders to understand seriousness of, 531–533

E

EBB Associates Inc., 375
 Edelman Trust Barometer, 273
 Edmondson, A. C., 221
 Eichinger, R. W., 3, 364
 Eli Lilly, 134
 Eliot, T. S., 221
 Emerging markets: developing the talent to excel in, 81; SHIP (Sales, Marketing, and Services Horizon Immersion Program) to develop leadership for, 81–86
 Emerging World, 100
 Emotion regulation: effective leadership as requiring, 148–149; mindful engagement model for developing, 148
 Emotions: landscape of, 188*t*; management of, 187–188; self-narration of, 188–193
 Employees: full-time strategic projects for high potentials, 87–92; GF's Executive Leadership Team (ELT) talent management of, 299–307; leadership challenge of problems with, 22*e*, 23*t*; "profiles of success" framework for internal transitions, 459–462*fig*; supporting multicultural female, 473–477. See also job assignments; Onboarding programs
 Event planning: focus of planning team meetings for, 67*e*; learning transferable skills to students through, 65–66, 67; SWOT analysis to assess between-meeting, 66
 Executive Leadership Team (ELT) program. See Queen Foundation USA (GF) talent management use of, 299–307; lessons learned from the, 303–306; people development strategy-building capability, 303*t*; talent development model used in the, 300*fig*, 301–303
 Executive shadowing programs: examining Expedia, Inc. approach to, 119–122; sample questions for participants to ask executives during, 122*e*
 Expectations dimension: description of, 8*e*; evaluating your development experience by, 13*e*
 Expedia, Inc., 255; executive shadowing program of, 119–121; lessons learned from executive shadowing experience of, 121–122; sample questions for participants to ask executives, 122*e*; virtual on-boarding used at, 327–332
 Experience-Based Development Associates, LLC, 37
 Experience models: client work on the development of, 7; Dynamic Organization model, 243–248; FrameBreaking Model, 8*e*–14; GPS•R Profile and Interview for assessing learning, 157–163; internal labor market (ILM), 523–528; Leadership Experience Framework, 16–20; Lessons of Experience, 169, 174, 334; mindful engagement model, 145–150; Parallel Learning and

Coaching Model (PARR), 126, 152*fig*–155; profiles of success framework, 459–462*e*. See also Development experiences

Experienced-based development (EBD). See Development experiences
 ExperiencePoint, 397
 Experiential activity design: design check for, 378*e*; four steps for, 376–377
 Expertise/knowledge dimension: description of, 9*e*; evaluating your development experience by, 13*e*
 Expression of Interest program: approach used by, 45–47; Associate Profile used as part of, 46*fig*; benefits and challenges of the, 47–48; designed to increase lateral developmental moves, 45

F

Facilitating: "learner-centered," 239; Life Journey activity, 235–238; New Leader Assimilation, 324*e*–325*e*
 Facilitating strategies: dialogic facilitation, 240–241*t*; Socratic facilitation, 240, 241*t*; transactional facilitation, 240, 241*t*
 Feedback: developmental network role of providing, 260*t*; evaluating given, 206*e*; Feedback Seeking Checklist, 200*e*–201*e*; how to ask for, 204–205; micro-feedback tool used for, 207–211; mindful engagement model on role of, 148; problem of typical organization, 195–196; promoting leadership practice of seeking, 197–198; reasons why leaders don't often seek, 197; Ross Leadership Initiative Project X (RLIX) learning community, 270; SBI (situation, behavior, and impact) focus of, 204–205; on Teach for America's Leadership Journey program, 214*t*; tools used to promote the seeking of, 198–199; value of seeking, 196–197; when to ask for, 204; who to ask for, 203–204. See also After-event reviews (AERs)
 Fiat, 442
 Fick-Cooper, L., 423
 Field Learning System: approach microfinance leadership development using, 382–385; design grid of the, 384*fig*; illustrated diagram of the, 383*fig*; lessons learned from the, 386–387; Life Journey Mapping and the Learn-Apply-Teach Workbooks used with, 385*e*–386
 Financial Times Global 500, 136
 Finkelstein, L. M., 121
 First National Bank (South Africa), 134
 First Time Supervisor (FTS) program: origins and description of the, 113–114; stretch assignments offered by the, 114–118
 Fisher, C. D., 196
 Flanagan, R., 165
 Fleuret, C., 133
 Fortune Global 500, 136
 FrameBreaking Model: additional applications of the, 14; descriptive lens of, 10; developmental lens of, 10; dynamic lens of, 10; four quadrants of the, 9, 10*fig*; Intensity dimension of, 8*e*–9; process of, 11–13; Stretch dimension of, 9*e*–10; subjective lens of, 9
 FrameBreaking Model process: step 1: gain insight from prior experiences and understand development needs, 11–12; step 2: draft a career story and understand a personal development arc, 12; step 3: identify potential development experiences, 12;

- step 4: create an experience-based development plan, 13; step 5: use ongoing reflection to gain the most out of experience, 13
- Freedman, J., 196

G

- Gardner, N., 535
- Garvin, D. A., 221
- Genentech, 49
- General Electric (GE): Capability Matrix used at, 95, 96*fig*; Corporate Audit Staff (CAS) development program of, 94; Corporate Leadership Staff (CLS) for personalized rotation program, 94–98; Global Forum role of, 441, 442; job-rotation programs traditional used by, 93–94; succession planning with emphasis on development at, 488
- Genpact, 134
- George, B., 247
- Gewurz, I., 187
- Ghoshal, S., 221
- Gino, F., 221
- GlaxoSmithKline, 347
- Global Executive Learning Network, 133, 413, 441
- Global Forum: content and format of the, 443–444; on Executive Development and Business Driven Action Learning, 441, 442; “galleria walk” format used by the, 443–444; origins of the, 441–442; post-Global Forum community collaboration and cooperation opportunities, 444; retrospectives exercises recommended by, 443*e*; structure and operating guidelines of the, 442–443
- Global Learning Alliance, 134
- “Goal Orientation in Organizational Research: A Conceptual and Empirical Foundation” (Button, Mathieu, and Zajac), 314
- Goal setting: engaged learning model on SMART, 147; Kelly Services’ fitness challenge activities SMART, 124; leadership development implementation intention approach to, 249–253
- Goals: GPS•R Interview on achieved, 161; GPS•R Profile on achieved, 159; tailoring mentoring programs to organizational, 406–407
- Goff, M., 15
- Gohring, J., 108
- Goldsmith, M., 199
- Goleman, D., 196
- Gollwitzer, P. M., 250, 252
- Google, 542
- Gordon, A., 110, 111
- GPS•R Profile and Interview: conducting the GPS•R Interview, 160–162; description of, 157; the GPS•R Profile questionnaire, 158*e*–159*e*; implementing the GPS•R Profile, 159–160; lessons learned on, 162–163
- Grameen Bank, 381
- Grameen Foundation USA (GF): Executive Leadership Team (ELT) program of, 299; Learning in NGOs (LINGOS) partnership with, 302; model for talent development used by, 300*fig*
- Green, M., 113
- Grove, A., 196
- GROW coaching model, 349*fig*–352

- Guber, P., 245
- Gulf of Mexico oil spill, 536

H

- Harvard Business Review*, 276, 279
- Hayashi, K., 65
- Hazucha, J., 15
- HDFC Bank, 134
- Heineken International, 501
- Heineken Personal Development Assessment (HeiPDA): designing to continually measure learning, 503–504; employee ownership of their own data under the, 502–503; individual implications of the, 506; leadership and functional competencies measured by, 504; lessons learned from the, 506–507; linked to the personal development plan (PDP), 502; origins and development of the, 501–502; quick reference metrics of the, 504; strategies used as part of the, 505–506
- Henderson, J. C., 221
- Hereford, J., 25
- Hewitt Associates, 483
- High Potential Fellowship Program (SAP): benefits and return on investment of, 90–91; continued experimentation and keys to success of, 91–92; fellows’ post-fellowship careers, 91*e*; fellowship cycles and process of the, 87–90; origins and purpose of, 87; recruiting process used by the, 90
- High potential leadership development project, 379
- Hill, C., 229, 239
- Holistic responsibility dimension: description of, 8*e*; evaluating your development experience by, 12*e*
- Homer, L., 81, 169
- Honeycomb Development, 81
- Honeywell, 134
- Horney, K., 183
- Hot Jobs-Hot People: examples of people list for, 468*t*; origins and function of, 463–464; process of how it works, 464–470; tips on achieving the most value from, 470–471
- HoTspots (Hubs Of Training) development program: design and implementation of the, 390–396; four major objectives of, 391; origins of the, 389–390; sample social networking learning site used in, 392, 393*fig*; tips for Pre-Work, 395*e*
- How-to skills dimension: description of, 9*e*; evaluating your development experience by, 13*e*
- Human resources: Expression of Interest program to facilitate lateral development by, 45–48; SAP’s High Potential Fellowship Program and role of, 87–92; SHIP leadership development cooperation with, 82–86; succession planning role of, 446, 447, 449
- Hurricane Sandy, 536
- IBM: Blue Opportunities, 55; Corporate Service Corps of the, 100, 107–112; Global Forum role by, 441, 442; Outdoor Leadership School of, 108; PARR (Parallel Learning and Coaching Model) used by, 126
- IMPACT conference (2011), 123

Impact dimension: description of, 8e; evaluating your development experience by, 12e

Implementation intentions: caution in using, 251–252; description of, 250; examples of department goals with, 250; examples of general goals, behaviors, and If-Then, 250–251e; research findings on the effectiveness of, 252

Inc. magazine, 196

Integration teams (Wesfarmers Ltd.): accelerating leader development through, 58–63; formed to deliver value from conglomerate structures, 58; how to apply their integration approach to any organization, 63

Intel, 196

Intensity: FrameBreaking Model combination of Intensity and, 9, 10fig; THRIVE definition of, 8e

Intensity–THRIVE dimensions: expectations, 8e; holistic responsibility, 8e; impact, 8e; risk, 8e; time pressure, 8e; visibility, 8e

Internal labor market (ILM) framework: case example of learning in, 525–527; description and features of, 523–525; understanding the value of using the, 527–528

International Consortium Program (ICP): action learning through the, 436–437; design considerations for the, 435–436; origins of the, 434–435; what the developers learned from experience of, 438–440; what the participants learned through the, 437–438e

Internet: CompanyCommand learning forum on the, 279–285; virtual on-boarding using the, 327–332; Virtual Roundtables for mentoring through the, 287–291

J

Jackson, C., 347

Jaramillo, J., 265

Jawahar, I. M., 357

Jefferson, A., 165

Job assignments: after-event reviews (AERs) following developmental, 489; Boeing's Waypoint Project for development, 488; Duke University's FTS program for stretch, 114–118; leadership development through strategic, 81–86, 374; pinpointing approach to matching employees to, 69–75; talent development through, 341–345. See also Employees; Stretch; Work

Johnson & Johnson, 441, 442, 542

Jules, C., 333

K

Kanengieter, J., 108, 110

Kegan, R., 217

Kelly Services, Inc.: building support for EBD-driven succession planning at, 515–518; efforts to increase awareness of experience-based development by, 123–124; improving on-the-job development at, 317–320; Leadership Fitness Challenge (LFC) program of, 124e–128; My Career training process used by, 151, 154; PARR learning model used by, 152fig–155; Talent Alliance membership of, 542

Kendall, D., 405

Kennedy, C., 535

Kieffer, D., 523

Kilner, P., 279

Kirce, R., 355

Kizilos, M. A., 3, 7, 37

Knowledge: building organization-specific developmental experience, 37–43; expertise/knowledge dimension of leadership, 9e, 13e. See also Learning

Knowledge, skills, and attitude (KSAs): building organization-specific, 548; experiential activity design for identifying, 376. See also Skills

Knowles, M., 380

Koch, E., 196, 198, 199

Kolb, D., 183

Kopelman, S., 187

Korn/Ferry International, 15, 239

Krishnan, A., 133

L

Laczo, R. M., 3, 16

Lahey, L., 217

Larson, J. R., 196

Leader Challenge initiative: CompanyCommand: A Peer-to-Peer Learning Forum used for, 131; description and elements of typical, 130; screenshot of online, 132fig; U.S. Army's leadership development use of, 129–132

Leader-coaches: how they can reflect in action, 338e; leadership development by, 333–339; National Grid's experience with, 333, 336–339; Tata Group's experience with, 333, 334–336, 339

Leaders: communities of practice to cultivate integrity in, 273–277e; emotion regulation of, 148–149; identifying and assessing learning ability of, 309–316; New Leader Assimilation process for, 321–326. See also Managers; Senior executives

Leadership: as learned through experience, 143–144; ten challenges to, 22e

Leadership dashboard: leadership map example used for, 28e; on-the-job leadership toolkit by creating, 34

Leadership development: action learning through, 373; Agilent's 3x3 Tool, 167fig–168; BDAL (business-driven action learning) for, 413–421; bringing real world into the classroom, 375–380; building capabilities type of, 398; catalyzing epiphanies type of, 398; classroom approach to mid-level, 378–379; conversation used for, 347–352; Corporate Volunteerism as an Avenue for Leader Development, 111; cross-company consortiums for, 133–139; Dynamic Organization model for leading by teaching others, 243–248; Expedia's executive shadowing program for, 119–122e; Field Learning System for microfinance section, 382–386; functions of classroom, 371; Heineken Personal Development Assessment (HeiPDA), 501–507; high potential project for, 379; implementation intention approach to goal setting for, 249–253; increased for multicultural women, 473–477; increasing organizational climate for, 483–486; as key organizational strategic issue, 487–491; leaders coaching leaders for cascading, 333–339; McCauley on accelerating, 545–547; potential of performance management for, 355–361; power of stories in, 519–522; strategic job assignments for, 81–86, 374; taking responsibility for your own, 547–548; U.S. Army's Leader Challenge approach to, 130–132fig. See also Career

- development; Development experiences; On-the-job development (OJD)
- Leadership development acceleration: concentration principle of, 546; customization principle of, 546; integration principle of, 546
- Leadership Development Resources Global, 249
- The Leadership Engine* (Tichy), 243
- Leadership experience: differentiating business-unit leadership roles from mid-level roles, 18–19; differentiating mid-level leadership from first-level role, 18; differentiating senior executive roles from business-unit leadership roles, 19; general management category of, 16e; Kelly Services' Leadership Fitness Challenge (LFC) for, 123–128; as only way to learn leadership, 143–144; overcoming challenge and adversity category of, 17e; personal and career experience category of, 17e; reasons to assess, 15; risky or critical experiences category of, 17e; Wesfarmers' integration approach for accelerating, 58–63. See also Development experiences
- Leadership Experience Framework: applied to experiences across organizational levels, 17–19; benefits of the, 20; description of, 16; General Management Experiences category of the, 16e; Overcoming Challenge and Adversity category of the, 17e; Personal and Career Experience category of the, 17e; Risky or Critical Experiences category of the, 17e
- Leadership Experience Inventory (LEI), 16, 18
- Leadership experience matrix: key experiences and the lessons they develop, 33fig; mapping the leadership map linkage into a, 26, 32–33
- Leadership Fitness Challenge (LFC) [Kelly Services]: description and function of, 123–124; lessons learned from the, 127–128; sample fitness challenge activities, 124e; steps for implementing, 125–127
- Leadership Inspirations, 65
- Leadership maps: building the toolkit for, 26, 34e–35; conducting leadership workshops step for building, 26, 30–32; description of, 25; example of a, 28e; example of coding leadership experiences, 32e; examples of definitions used in, 28e–29e; interviewing senior executive step for building, 25, 26e–30; lessons learned about, 35–36; mapping the linkage in a matrix, 26, 32–33fig; What Is Your Job Stretch? for, 35e; What Is Your Learning Potential? in, 34e
- Leadership workshops: building leadership maps by conducting, 26, 30–31; example of coding leadership experiences, 32e; Leadership Workshop Outline for conducting, 31e
- Leading Through Transitions: Facilitator's Guidebook* (Wakefield), 235
- Learn-Apply-Teach Workbooks, 385, 386
- Learning: action, 373, 413–421, 423–431, 435–440; assessing career development impact of, 523–528; Board of learning advisors to promote, 259–264; chunking, 401–402; facilitating learning from experience, 239–241t; GPS•R Profile and Interview for assessing, 157–163; mindful engagement in, 145–150; narrating emotions to enhance, 187–193; personal life experiences used for, 77–80e; Strategies 12 Questions for strategic, 255–257t; tactics for development experience, 181–185e. See also Knowledge
- Learning ability: assessment of leaders, 310–316; description of, 309–310
- Learning ability assessments: behavioral interviews used for, 311–312; formal, 312, 314–315; learning ability questions used for, 310–311; lessons learned about, 315–316; sample of different types of, 313t–314t
- Learning communities: need for a, 265–266; Ross Leadership Initiative Project X (RLIX) to build a, 266–272; Virtual Roundtables, 287–291. See also Communities of Practice (CoPs)
- Learning in NGOs (LINGOS): Grameen Foundation USA (GF) partnership with, 302; HoTspots (Hubs Of Training) on-the-job development program by, 389–396
- Learning mindset: avoiding a learning experience, 179fig; establishing the, 178–180; examining the anatomy of a learning experience, 177–178fig
- Learning potential: measuring your, 34e; measuring your job stretch, 34e, 35e
- Learning tactics framework: description of the, 181–183e; identifying your own preferred tactics, 182e–183; illustration of overused tactics, 184t; strategies for expanding your learning tactics, 184e–185e; theoretical basis of, 183
- Learning Tactics Inventory, 183
- Lee, F., 196
- Lessons of Experience* (McCall, Lombardo, and Morrison), 446
- Lessons of Experience research, 169, 174, 334
- Life Journey Activity exercise: description and function of the, 235–236; participant instructions for the, 237e; phase one: getting started, 236; phase two: sharing, 238
- Life Journey Mapping, 385e
- LINGOs (Learning in NGOs): Grameen Foundation USA (GF) partnership with, 302; HoTspots (Hubs Of Training) on-the-job development program by, 389–396
- Lombardo, M. M., 3, 169, 183, 364, 446, 529, 530
- London, M., 357
- L'Oreal, 134
- ## M
- Mahindra & Mahindra, 134
- Making Experience Matter, 177, 235
- Managers: developing talent through assignments, 341–345; HoTspots (Hubs Of Training) on-the-job development program for, 389–396; performance and development through conversation, 347–352; potential for leadership development through performance management, 355–361; Project Management in Development-Professional (PMD Pro) certification of, 389–390, 392, 394; skills and perspectives developed from various job challenges, 342t; succession planning through experience development of, 445–449e. See also Leaders
- Mandel, A. K., 213
- Marchi, J., 451
- Marriott, 347
- Marsick, V. J., 431
- Mathieu, J. E., 314
- McCall, M. W., Jr., 169, 446, 529
- McCauley, C. D., 3, 55, 341, 364, 483, 529, 545–547
- McDermott, R., 275
- McDonnell Douglas, 433
- McGhee, S., 243
- McGill, K., 255
- McHenry, J. J., 69, 99, 463
- McKee, A., 196

- McKenna, R., 355, 501
- McKinsey & Company, 535, 536
- McLean, A., 247
- McLellan, J., 157, 309, 519
- Meichenbaum, D., 183
- Mentoring: for building breadth, 455; building depth through, 457–458; communities of Practice (CoPs) and, 373–374; description and benefits of, 405; developmental network role of, 260*r*; how to encourage, 405–406; as on-the-job development (OJD) tool, 497*e*; sample plan for, 411*e*; Virtual Roundtables for social media, 287–291. See also Coaching
- Mentoring programs: matching mentors and protégés, 407*e*, 408; monitoring and evaluating, 409; recruiting participants for, 407–408; resource issue of, 410; sample plan for, 411*e*; tailored to your organizational goals, 406–407; training approach taken by, 408–409
- Mercer, 523
- Mercer, S. R., 133, 441, 487
- Messina, C., 133
- Micro-feedback tool: benefits and challenges of, 208*r*; description and applications of, 205–210; sample questions used, 208*e*
- Microfinance section: Field Learning System leadership development in the, 382–386; India and explosive growth of, 381–382; lessons learned about leadership development in, 386–387
- Microsoft: culture that prizes intelligence and rewards expertise, 169–170; Front Lines program of, 100, 102
- Mindful Engagement: Learning to Learn from Experience*, 143
- Mindful engagement model: actions taken under the, 147–149; description of, 145; illustrated diagram of, 146*fig*; reflection component of the, 149–150; on setting learning goals, 147; on stimulating a learning orientation, 146–147
- Mirvis, P., 108
- “Mission-Driven Mobility: Strengthening our Government Through a Mobile Leadership Corps” (McKinsey report), 536
- Mobility: barriers to U.S. government, 537; benefits and current use by the U.S. government, 536–537; McKinsey report recommending increased, 536; options for increasing U.S. government mobility, 537–538
- Moore, J., 221
- “More Than an Answer: Information Relationships for Actionable Knowledge” (Cross and Sproull), 280
- Morrison, A. M., 446
- Morrison, G., 169
- Multicultural women: causes for the pipeline void of, 474–476; creating a pipeline more inclusive of, 476–477; as hidden jewels in corporate workforce, 476; lack of leadership development of, 473–474; “Storm Warning” on talent pipeline dearth of, 474
- My Career (Kelly Services, Inc.), 151, 154
- N
- Nalbantian, H. R., 523
- National Grid (UK): added value by coaches to experience-based leader development at, 339; examining leaders coaching leaders development approach at, 333; extended leadership team (ELT) leader-coaches at, 336–339
- NEEM (negotiator expertise in emotion management), 187
- New Leader Assimilation: basic steps of typical, 322*fig*–323; description of, 321; sample letter sent to participants in, 323*e*–324*e*; tips for facilitators working with, 324*e*–325*e*
- Nkomo, S. M., 475
- Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs): action learning with community-based, 423–431; corporate volunteerism partnership with, 98–105; Global Forum participation by, 441–444; IBM’s Corporate Service Corps partnership with, 108, 111; partnering with customer, 103
- Northcraft, G. B., 197
- Novelli, L., Jr., 249
- Nowak, S. B., 165
- O
- O’Connor, P.M.G., 57
- Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI), 536
- Oh, I.-S., 17, 169
- Ohlott, P. J., 77
- Ohnstad, K., 213
- On-the-job development (OJD): initiatives: building toolkit for, 26, 34–35; building viral, 495*r*; example of mentoring tools for, 497*e*; five design elements and tools essential to success of, 494–498; leading your organization’s, 493–494; learning to leverage your, 493. See also Leadership development
- On-the-job development (OJD) interventions: characteristics of sustainable, 512; human resources initiative critical success factors for sustainable, 510*e*–511*e*; importance of building sustainable, 509–510; organizational characteristics of sustainable, 511–512; suggestions for successful, 512–513
- On-the-job development (OJD) toolkit: as leadership map step, 26; process of building the, 34–35
- Onboarding programs: classroom new leader orientation, 377–378; New Leader Assimilation, 321–326; virtual, 327–332. See also Employees
- O’Neil, J., 431
- Organization-specific knowledge: converting information into podcasts, 41–42; creating a model for applying, 39–40; lessons learned about, 42–43; making a list of key developmental experiences, 38*fig*–39
- Organization-specific knowledge, skills, abilities, and other characteristics (KSAOs), 548
- Organizational climate for development: evaluating your, 485*e*; organizational processes to reinforce, 483–484; starting a discussion for improving your, 484, 486
- Organizational culture: BDAL (business-driven action learning) requirements for, 419; creating a both/and culture for development and performance, 360*e*–361; increasing the development climate in, 483–486; Microsoft’s value of intelligence and rewards expertise, 169–170
- Organizational experience-gaining interventions: better leverage existing experiences for learning, 3; create new types of developmental experiences, 3; equip employees to pursue developmental experiences, 3
- Organizations: assessing the leadership development strategy of your, 489–491*e*; building “and” and “or,” 487; leadership experiences across every level of, 17–19; three vital components of leadership development strategy in, 488–489
- Orleman, P., 87

Osicki, M., 107
Our Separate Ways (Bell and Nkomo), 475
 Outdoor Leadership School (IBM), 108

P

PanAsia Paper, 134
 Parallel Learning and Coaching Model (PARR): IBM's use of the, 126; Kelly Services, Inc. implementation of, 152*fig*–155
 Parry, C., 221
 Partnership for Public Service, 536
 Payless Holdings, Inc.: annual performance reviews given at, 207; associate profiles approach used at, 45–48; micro-feedback tool used at, 207–211; New Leader Assimilation process at, 321–326; “profiles of success” framework for internal transitions at, 459–462*e*
 PCI, 381
 PDI Ninth House, 17, 18
 Pelosi, E., 493, 509
 Performance management: as catalysts for development experience, 363–370; creating a both/and culture for development and, 360*e*–361; managing polarities between learning and, 359; natural tension between employee development and, 356*fig*–357; performance-management audit, 365, 367*e*, 368; potential for leadership development, 355–361; separating conversations of development and, 363–364; should succession management focus on development or, 359*t*
 Personal life experiences: appreciating learning importance of, 77; matching work skills and development to, 79–80*e*; providing opportunities to learn, 79; providing personal relationships for support, 78–79; psychological strength provided by, 78
 Philips, 442
 Pinpointing: employee assessment using, 73*e*; employee–job assignment matching through, 69–70; example of sticky notes for Pinpointing exercise, 74*fig*; follow up to increase effectiveness of, 74–75; making it a valuable experience for senior leaders, 72–74; steps for implementing, 10–72
 Plans. See Development experience plans
 Plunkett, M. M., 445, 501
 Pollock, R., 165
 Poteet, M. L., 121
 Powell, J., 133
 “Power to the People: Where Has Personal Agency Gone in Leadership Development” (DeRue and Ashford), 547
 Preston-Dayne, L. A., 123, 151
Proactive Feedback Seeking: the Power of Seeing Yourself as Others See You, 148
 Problems: leadership challenge of employee-related, 22*e*, 23*t*; leadership challenge of inherited, 22*e*, 23*t*
 Procter & Gamble, 542
 Professional Development Institute (PDI): description of, 113; First Time Supervisor program offered by Duke University and, 113–118
 Professional DNA: anatomy of a star, 452*fig*; building breadth and depth, 452–458; characteristics of an employee with, 451–452; monitoring strategy for building, 451

Profiles of success framework: description and functions of, 459, 462; examples of a success profile, 460*e*; self/management evaluation tool used in, 461*e*–462*e*; steps for determining experiences, 461*fig*
 Project Management in Development-Professional (PMD Pro) certification, 389–390, 392, 394
 Project marketplaces: providing opportunities for development experiences, 55; tips on establishing in your organization, 56

R

Raelin, J. A., 221
 Rainer Leadership Solutions, 69, 99, 463
 Rait, E., 81
 Rajagopal-Durbin, A., 108, 110
 Reflection: AERs (After-Event Reviews) approach to, 149–150, 221–227*e*, 489; GPS•R Interview on, 162; GPS•R Profile on, 160; by leader-coaches in action, 338*e*; mindful engagement model and role of, 149–150; Ross Leadership Initiative Project X (RLIX) and use of, 266–267*t*; scaffolding, 229–231
 Rego, L., 381
 Reilly, R. R., 357
 Reinholdsson, A., 133
 Relationships dimension: description of, 9*e*; evaluating your development experience by, 13*e*
 Research and development (R&D) groups, 103
 Revins, R., 183, 413
 Rimnaczy, I., 431
 Rio Tinto, 134
 Risk dimension: description of, 8*e*; evaluating your development experience by, 12*e*
 Robert Wood Johnson Foundation (RWJF) Fellowship leadership program: CCL partnership role in the, 423–431; coaching action learning teams, 430–431; design and delivery of the initiative, 429–430; design of ladder to the, 424*fig*; key success factors of the, 427–428; traps to avoid in, 428–429
 Roche, H., 157
 Ross Leadership Initiative Project X (RLIX): background and origins of the, 265–266; building a foundation for reflection, 266–267*t*; building your own, 271–272; identifying the participants and groups of, 268–269; implementing the, 269–270; lessons learned from experience of, 270–271; program activities of, 268*fig*; the program structure, 269*fig*
 Ross, P., 381
 Royal Bank of Canada, 433
 Ruderman, M. N., 77
 Russell, J. E., 169
 Russell, T., 133

S

Sage Ways, Inc., 81
 Sales, Marketing, and Services Horizon Immersion Program (SHIP): for accelerating leadership development for emerging markets, 81; development experience approach taken by, 81–84; impact and benefits of the, 84–85*e*; lessons learned from the, 85–86

- SAP's High Potential Fellowship Program: continued experimentation and keys to success of, 91–92; description and benefits of the, 87–91; fellows' post-fellowship careers, 91*t*
- Scaffolding reflection model: action learning case story on, 231–232; individual coaching case story on, 232–233; phases of the, 229–230
- Schaal, B., 250
- Schneider Electric, 134
- Schultz, K., 265
- Schweitzer, S., 279
- Seattle Pacific University: Center for Integrity in Business (CIB) work at, 273–277*e*; using communities of practice to cultivate leaders of integrity at, 273–277*e*
- Self-awareness development, 413–421
- Self-narration of emotions: description of, 188–190; emotional landscape as part of the, 188*t*; example of the process of, 190–193; process of, 189*fig*; template for, 189*e*
- Senior Executive Service (SES): barriers to mobility at, 537; McKinsey report suggested increased mobility used in, 536–537; options for increasing mobility in, 537–538; origins and function of the, 535
- Senior executives: BDAL (business-driven action learning) support by, 419–420; increasing organizational climate for developing, 483–486; increasing the number of multicultural women in pipeline to become, 473–477; leadership map interviews of, 25, 26–30; making Pinpointing a valuable experience for, 72–74; Senior Executive Interview Guide for interviewing, 26*e*–27*e*; teaching the dynamics of derailment to, 529–533. See also Leaders
- 70/20/10 development experience plans: description and application of, 364–370; moving beyond the, 549–550
- Simulations: build in risk and competition principle of, 401; characteristics of, 397; chunk the learning principles of, 401–402; design checklist for, 399*e*; elevate engagement principle of, 398–400; focus on what matters principle of, 402; leadership development application of, 398–403*t*; make it realistic but not real principle of, 400–401; typical program designs for using, 403*t*
- The Six Disciplines of Breakthrough Learning* (Wick, Pollock, Jefferson, and Flanagan), 165
- Skills: event planning to learn transferable, 65–68; experiential activity design to increase, 376; job challenges that develop various perspectives and, 342*t*; matching personal life experiences with work-related, 79–80*e*; primarily learned through experience, 541; talent ecosystems for building, 541–543. See also Knowledge, skills, and attitude (KSAs)
- Slalom Consulting, 509
- Slywotzky, A., 170, 172
- SMART goals: engaged learning model on setting, 147; for Kelly Services' fitness challenge activities, 124
- Smee, C., 107
- Smither, J. W., 357
- Snyder, S., 509
- Snyder, W. M., 275
- Social media: CompanyCommand learning forum, 279–285; virtual on-boarding using, 327–332; Virtual Roundtables for mentoring through, 287–291
- Socratic facilitation, 240, 241*t*
- Sommers, S. M., 198
- Sonos, Inc., 451
- Sproull, L., 280
- SRM Consulting, Ltd., 487
- Standard Bank (South Africa), 134
- Stories and quotes: how to best use, 521–522; illustration of the power of, 519–520; leadership development work inclusion of, 520–521
- Strategic corporate assignments: leadership development for emerging markets using, 81–85; lessons learned about leadership development from, 85–86
- Strategies 12 Questions: list of the 12 questions, 256*t*–257*t*; origins and description of, 255, 257
- Stretch: First Time Supervisor (FTS) program stretch assignments, 114–118; FrameBreaking Model combination of Intensity and, 9, 10*fig*; GPS•R Interview on, 161–162; GPS•R Profile on, 161–162; REACH definition of, 9*e*; What Is Your Job Stretch? measure of, 35*e*; What Is Your Learning Potential? measure of, 34*e*. See also Job assignments
- Stretch–REACH dimensions: adaptability, 9*e*; context, 9*e*; expertise or knowledge, 9*e*; how-to skills, 9*e*; relationships, 9*e*
- Success Case Method, 165
- Succession planning: Boeing “Green Room,” 488; creating a taxonomy of critical experiences to include in, 446; developing general managers through experience for, 445–449*e*; focus on development vs. performance debate, 359*t*; GE's emphasis on development in their, 488; HR professionals' role in, 446, 447, 449; identifying key positions for, 448*e*; Kelly Services' building support for EBD-driven, 515–518; lessons learned about, 447, 449; organizational leadership development emphasis of, 488–489; Talent Review Template for, 447, 448*e*–449*e*. See also Career development
- Sully de Luque, M. D., 197, 198
- SWOT analysis of event planning, 66
- ## T
- Tailleur, F., 233
- Talent Alliance, 542
- Talent ecosystems: four key issues to design and manage an effective, 542–543; as new form of talent management, 543; strategic alliances used to create, 541–542
- Talent management: GF's Executive Leadership Team (ELT), 299–307; Grameen Foundation (GF) model for, 299*fig*, 301–303; Hot Jobs–Hot People for sharing across organizations, 463–471; people development strategy–building capability, 303*t*; supporting multicultural women, 473–477; talent ecosystems form of, 541–543
- Talent Review Template, 447, 448*e*–449*e*
- Tata Group (India): added value by coaches to experience-based leader development at, 339; C2C workshop framework, 335*fig*–336; examining leaders coaching leaders development approach at, 333, 334–336; International Consortium Program (ICP) membership of, 134
- Tata Management Training Centre (TMTC), 334, 335
- Taylor, S., 203, 213, 529, 549–550
- Teach for America: applying the Leadership Journey principles to any organization, 219; description and mission of, 213–214; feedback on Leadership Journeys of, 214*t*; future possibilities of Leadership Journey program, 220; key factors for success of Leadership Journeys, 215–218

Terrill, J. R., 273
 Tesluk, P. E., 17, 169
 Thomas, R. J., 333
 Thompson, K., 108
 Thomson Reuters, 37
 3x3 Tool (Agilent Global Learning and Leadership Development Team), 167*fig*–168
 Tichy, N., 243, 245
 Time pressure dimension: description of, 8*e*; evaluating your development experience by, 12*e*
 Tisoczki, B., 93
 Tonina, N., 299
 Training: action learning through, 373; for building breadth, 455; building experience-driven development into, 371–374; a continuum of on-the-job development and, 372*fig*; formal, 372; mentoring program approach to, 408–409; transfer of, 372–373. See also Classroom training
 Transactional facilitation, 240, 241*t*
 Tsui, A. S., 197
 Tuck School of Business, 473
 Turner, E., 431

U

UBS, 433
 Unisys, 542
 United Planet, 100
 University of Michigan: after-event reviews (AERs) developed by, 149–150; building a learning community at, 265–272; Center for Positive Organizational Scholarship of, 272
 UPS, 542
 U.S. Army: AERs (After-Event Reviews) technique developed by the, 149–150, 489; Company Command learning forum used by the, 279–285; critical incidents leadership need by the, 129–130; Leader Challenge video-case-based collaboration approach by the, 130–132*fig*
 U.S. Cellular: Dynamic Organization model of, 243; Leadership Journey Line Exercise used at, 244*e*; leadership teachable point of view (LTPOV) approach used by, 243, 245–246, 248; Values Exercise used at, 247*e*
 U.S. Department of Defense, 536
 U.S. federal government: McKinsey report recommending mobility within, 536–538; Senior Executive Services (SES) of the, 535–539

V

Van Katwyk, P., 3, 15, 16, 17
 VandeWalle, D., 198, 314
 Villarosa, L., 474
 Virtual on-boarding program: buddy education module, 331; decision to engage in, 327–328; diagnosis phase of developing program for, 328–330; Manager Checklist used for, 330*e*; manager's module on new hire engagement, 330; New Hire Checklist used in, 329*e*; outcomes of the, 331–332

Virtual Roundtables: description and appeal of, 287–288; diagram of, 290*fig*; key factors in success of, 290–291; lessons learned from experience of, 291; process of the, 288; three phases of the conversation in, 288–289*e*
 Visibility dimension: description of, 8*e*; evaluating your development experience by, 13*e*
 Viswanathan, V., 381

W

Wakefield, M., 235
 Wallis, S. M., 99
 Warman, G., 397
 Watts, S., 221
The Way of Transition (Bridges), 137
 Webb, A., 183
 Webster, A., 397
 Weiner, S. P., 111
 Welch, J., 196
 Wellman, N., 169, 197
 Wenger, E., 275
 Wesfarmers Ltd.: background information on, 57; forming integration team to deliver value from conglomerate structures, 58; how to apply their integration approach to any organization, 63; integration team as accelerating leader development, 58–63; sample after-action review pre-work, 62*e*; sample integration team assignment application, 60*e*; “the Westfarmers Way,” 58
 Wick, C., 165
 William, C. R., 357
 Wilmott, J., 133, 433
 Wilson, M. S., 3
 Winter, J., 287, 347
 Wipro, 134
 Wittrock, M., 230
 Wollan, M. L., 197, 198
 Work: leadership challenge of managing high-stakes, 22*e*, 23*e*; leveraging development power of organizational, 57–63. See also Development experiences; Job assignments
 World Bank, 442
 World Council of Churches, 442
 World Institute for Action Learning (WIAL), 172–173
 Wyman, O., 170, 172

Y

Yip, J., 3
 Yost & Associates, Inc., 25
 Yost, P., 25, 157, 259, 309, 363, 371, 493, 509, 519, 548–549
 Yunus, M., 381

Z

Zajac, D. M., 314

<http://www.pbookshop.com>