

INDEX

The 100 Best Companies to Work for in America (Levering and Moskowitz), 3

A

- Accenture: challenges of globalization, 122–123;
“Future Leave” policy, 26;
generational differences, 166;
moving from private partnership to public company, 146–147;
overcoming resource shortages, 117; prioritizing, 89; reversing assumptions in challenges, 193; saying no, 71–72; turning challenge to advantage, 190; work/life
balance, 108–109
- Adams, Jane, 87–91
- adoption of technology, 132–133
- AEI. See Affective Events
Theory
- Affective Events
Theory, 136–137
- Alcoa: initiative-taking and focus on safety, 114–115
- Alston & Bird: egalitarian approach, 110–111; work/life
balance, 109–110
- American Cast Iron Pipe
Co., 160–161
- anchoring, 37–40
- annualized returns of best companies, 13–14
- Arab Spring, 133–134
- Ariely, Dan, 38
- attitude, 14–15, 137; of leaders, 25–30

authority, 97–100; using,
178–179

B

Balfour Beatty Construction:
acquisition of Centex Construction, 139; contract workers, 162–164; culture, 58;
importance of culture,
174–175; opportunity in challenges, 189; ringing of the cowbell, 27–28; treating every interaction as opportunity to build trust, 182

Baptist Health South
Florida, 177

B-Corporations, 171

Beck, Aaron, 29

behavioral obstacles, 65–66;
habit, 78–82; overcoming, 82–83; persistence, 72–75;
personal characteristics,
75–78; time, 66–72

best practices, 21–22; sharing, 172–173

bonus checks: SC Johnson, 83

Booz & Company, 131
Brains, Bones and Nerves
(Peshawaria), 48

Brown, Laura, 73

Bruch, Heike, 42, 62

burnout, 136

Burns, David, 29

C

camaraderie, 7, 110–111

CarMax: goal chart, 90–91

challenges, 16–19;

acknowledging, 191;

channeling power of the challenges to your advantage,

187–193; clarifying, 191–192;

reframing as opportunity,

192; reversing assumptions in,
193

Christensen, Clayton, 130

Cisco Systems: smoothing transitions in mergers and acquisitions, 145

Coca-Cola Company, 38;

acquisition of Coca-Cola

Enterprises, 139; best practice

sharing, 172; face-to-face meetings, 124–125; HR's role,

97; management structure,

56–57; mission, 48–49;

strategy, 88, 89; turning challenge to advantage, 190;

values, 51

cognitive obstacles, 30; “Great workplaces always have [insert practice here]”, 34–37;

“Great workplaces are born that way”, 30–33; “Resolved:

- we will be a great workplace by tomorrow”, 40–42; “We’re not as good as some, but we’re better than others”, 37–40
- Colgate Palmolive, 113
- collaboration: across multiple locations, 124; encouraging, 68
- Collins, Jim, 37
- commitment, 62–64
- communication, 89–90; during disruptive events, 141–142
- community: creating a sense of during disruptive events, 146–148
- Conscious Capitalism (Mackey and Sisodia), 175
- contract workers, 162–164
- Covey, Stephen, 179
- Cramer, Jim, 71
- creativity, 28
- credibility, 5–6
- cues, 74, 79–80
- culture, 57–59; as a fiscal priority, 71; importance of, 1
- D
- delaying. See layoffs
- Devon Energy: challenge of growth, 32; Coffee Talks, 113; importance of culture, 174; overcoming negative press, 121–122; supervisors, 179; workforce reduction, 146–147
- disruptive events, 127–129; in best companies, 137–148; common characteristics, 129–130; creating an open dialogue, 141–142; facing the change together, 146–148; finding your footing, 138–141; internal changes and spikes, 132–133; layoffs, 132; leadership changes, 131–132; managing resistance by providing a sense of what’s next, 145; mergers and acquisitions, 130–131; overcoming, 148; terrorism and societal unrest, 133–134; thinking creatively about how to respond, 142–144; what makes events disruptive, 134–137
- diversity, 164–166
- Diversity, Inc., 171
- Donlin, Linda, 54
- downsizing. See layoffs
- Duhigg, Charles, 79
- dysfunctional beliefs, 29–30. See also cognitive obstacles
- E
- Eberhardt, David, 121
- Eberly, Cerec, 31, 38, 97, 172

Edmans, Alex, 13
 Edwards, Mary, 27, 71–72, 82
 Ellis, Albert, 29 emotions, 137
 Enron, 134
 entitlement mentality, 150
 equity, 110–111
 Eubanks, Aimee, 69
 excuses: one rule for, 187–193.
 See also behavioral obstacles;
 cognitive obstacles; disruptive events; industry excuses;
 leadership obstacles;
 operating environment;
 people challenges

F

face-to-face meetings, 124–125
 fairness, 5–6, 110–111
 Family and Work Institute, 66 flexibility: lack of, 114–115 focus, 62–64
 focusing on how rather than what, 181–183
Fortune's 100 Best Companies to Work For list, 2, 9–10
 Four Seasons Hotels: Direct
 Line Committee, 162
 Frankenleaders, 76
 “Future Leave” policy, 26

G

General Adaption Syndrome, 135–136. See also disruptive events
 George, Bill, 50
 Ghoshal, Sumantra, 42, 62
 Glaxo Wellcome: merger with Smith-Kline Beecham, 144 goal chart, 90–91 goals, 33–34; competing with priorities, 87–91; sense of contribution to the goals, 112–113
 Godin, Seth, 191
 Goethe, Wolfgang von, 169
 Goldman Sachs: culture, 58
 Google: culture, 58
 Gore, Bill, 112
 Graniterock Construction:
 performance-based pay,
 161
 Great Place to Work
 Institute, 2, 9–10
A Great Place to Work
 (Levering), 3
 Great Place to Work model, 4, 5–7, 95
 great workplace, 1–2; bringing about better societies, 19;
 meaning of the term, 8; why having a great workplace matters, 12–14
 grit, 74–75

- H
- habits, 78–82; time to form, 72.
 - See also* routines
 - Hays, Richard, 26–27
 - hiring: bringing team members
 - into hiring process, 70
 - Hodgson, Geoffrey, 80
 - honeymoon effect, 188
 - Hospitality Index, 71
 - how vs. what, 67–69
 - HR departments, 95–97
 - Hsieh, Tony, 118, 146
 - human resources, 95–97
 - “hunker down”
 - excuse, 118–122
 - hyperbolic discounting, 40–42
- I
- identity, 15–16, 46–47; basic
 - elements of, 47–49; focus, commitment and resources, 62–64; maintaining in a large company, 122–125; Monsanto Pledge, 120; overcoming negative press, 118–122; understanding and alignment, 59–62. See also mission; values; vision
 - ignorant leader
 - excuse, 171–173
 - immediate gratification, 40–42
 - industry excuses, 105–106; the
 - “hunker down” excuse, 118–122; industry norms, 106–118; overcoming, 125–126; the “too big” excuse, 122–125
 - industry norms, 106–118
 - Institute for Mergers, Acquisitions, and Alliances, 130
 - internal changes and spikes, 132–133
 - interviews: bringing team members into hiring process, 70
- J
- job satisfaction, 137
 - job titles, 69
 - Johnson, Chris, 98–99
- K
- keystone habits, 81. See also habits
 - Klassen, David, 113
 - Kouzes, James, 60–61
- L
- language, 69
 - layoffs, 132; thinking
 - creatively about alternatives to, 143–144
 - leaders: attitudes of, 25–30
 - The Leadership Challenge* (Kouzes and Posner), 60–61
 - leadership changes, 131–132

- leadership obstacles, 169–171;
 focusing on how rather than what, 181–183; the ignorant leader excuse, 171–173; the neglectful leader excuse,
 173–176; overcoming, 185– 186; using resources and authority, 178–179; the weight of the world excuse, 176–177; working with decisions from the top, 179–181
- Leland, Karen, 66
- Levering, Robert, 2–3, 54, 119, 120, 175
- Littleman, Aaron, 182–183
- locus of control, 30–31, 150
- luck, 31
- M
- M&As. See mergers and
 acquisitions
- Mackey, John, 175–176
- management structure, 55–57
- managers, 10–11; as frustrated employees, 183–185; role of, 91–95
- manufacturing, 111–115
- Marriott: behind-the-scenes employees, 69; core values, 123
- Mayo Clinic: avoiding
 overgeneralization, 36;
 communication, 89–90;
 respect, 94–95; reward
 systems, 83; safety, 115;
 signaling that employees matter, 113–114; strategy, 54;
 symbols, 72–73
- McDonald, Gwen, 129, 176
- Men’s Wearhouse, 117
- mergers and acquisitions, 130–
 131. See also disruptive events
- Meyer, Marissa, 131
- millennial workers, 164–166
- mission, 47, 49–50, 52–53. See also identity
- Monsanto, 113; overcoming negative press, 120
- Moskowitz, Milton, 2–3
- N
- negative press:
 overcoming, 118–122
- neglectful leader
 excuse, 173–176
- NetApp, 40–41; culture and change, 129; importance of culture, 176; making people
 the first priority, 93;
 opportunity in challenges, 189–190; TOAST, 45–46; treating every interaction as
 opportunity to build trust, 182
- Nielsen, Chris, 33, 139–140
- Nike: mission, 49–50

- Noseworthy, John, 72–73, 113–114, 115
 not-for-profits, 115–118
- O
- Oliver, Connie, 139
- O’Neil, Paul, 114–115
- operating environment:
 authority, 97–100; goals and priorities competing, 87–91; manager’s role, 91–95; as an obstacle, 85–87; organizational politics, 101–103; overcoming challenges of, 104; responsibilities and boundaries, 95–97
- opportunity in
 challenges, 189–190
- organizational objectives, 54.
See also strategy
- organizational politics, 101–103
- organizations: as complex living systems, 20–21
- overgeneralization, 35–37
- P
- part-time workers, 162–164
- Pascale, Richard, 172–173
- patterns of behavior, 151–155
- Pazzani, John, 39
- people challenges, 149–150; diversity, 164–166; entitlement mentality, 150, 155–158; overcoming, 167; part-time, contract, or temporary workers, 162–164; patterns of behavior, 151–155; unions, 150, 158–162
- performance-based pay, 161
- persistence: as a behavioral obstacle, 72–75
- personal characteristics, 75–78
- personal connections, 113
- Peshawaria, Rajeev, 48
- politics, 101–103
- Polman, Paul, 41
- Posner, Barry, 60–61
- power, 101–103
- The Power of Habit* (Duhigg), 79
- The Power of Positive Deviance* (Pascale), 172–173
- Price, Liz, 109–111
- pride, 6–7
- priorities: goals and priorities competing, 87–91; shifting, 88
- prioritizing, 70–72
- Proctor and Gamble:
 culture, 58
- product recalls, 134
- professional services, 107–111
- psychological contracts, 156–158; and unions, 160

R

Ragsdale, Jill, 36
 reflection, 42–44
 REI, 177 relationships, 3 resources, 62–64; using, 178–179 respect, 5–6, 94–95 responsibilities and boundaries, 95–97 rewards, 80; Mayo Clinic, 83
 Richels, John, 106–107, 138, 174, 179
 rightsizing. See layoffs rituals, 73–74
 Robb, Walter, 14–15, 71
 Rotter, Julian, 30–31
 routines, 80, 81–82. See also habits
 Rudolph, Frank, 146–147, 174

S

safety, 114–115, 145
 saying no, 71–72, 81
 SC Johnson: bonus checks, 83
 Schein, Ed, 27
 Selye, Hans, 135
 September 11th terrorist attack, 133
The Seven Habits of Highly Effective People (Covey), 179
 Sher, Robert, 130
 Sisodia, Raj, 175

Smart, Jill, 89, 108, 117, 122–123, 146–147, 166, 190, 193 societal unrest, 133–134 spike in demand, 132–133 sponge layer, 60
 strategy, 53–55
 succession planning, 132–133
 symbols, 72–73

T

Tanner, Chuck, 32
 Teach for America, 69; collaboration across multiple locations, 124, overcoming resource shortages, 116–117;
 transparency, 181
 temporary workers, 162–164 terrorism, 133–134
 Timberland, 39
 time: as a behavioral obstacle, 66–72; as a critical investment, 69–70; prioritizing, 70–72 “too big” excuse, 122–125
 Toyota: product recall, 134
 transparency, 180–181
 trust, 5–6; always choosing the path that builds trust, 28–29; as the foundation, 22–23; high-trust workplaces outperforming low-trust workplaces, 13; treating every

- interaction as opportunity to build trust, 182
- turnover, 74; of CEOs, 131–132
- U
- unions, 150, 158–162
- V
- Valero Energy: merger with Ultramar Diamond Shamrock, 140, 142
- values, 47, 51–52; in large companies, 123. See also identity
- Van Cleave, Robert, 162–164
- Vanderbilt University: “Elevate” program, 29
- Vickberg, Jim, 119
- vision, 47, 50. See also identity
- W
- Warmenhoven, Dan, 57
- weight of the world excuse, 176–177
- Weiner, Bernard, 31
- white board, 90
- Whole Foods Market: bringing team members into hiring process, 70; management structure, 56; mission, 50; sense of community, 157; taking time to celebrate, 68; working with decisions from the top, 180–181
- W.L. Gore & Associates: one objective, 47–48; sense of community, 123; sense of contribution to the goals, 112–113; “water carrier”, 113
- work councils, 159. See also unions
- workforce reduction. See layoffs
- working with decisions from the top, 179–181
- work/life balance, 107–110
- workplace culture, 1, 57–59; as a fiscal priority, 71
- World’s Best Multinationals list, 123
- Z
- Zappos: acquisition by Amazon, 139–140; creating a sense of community during a move, 146; culture, 71; customer service staff, 177; Face Game, 124; job titles, 69; learning nuggets, 81; maintaining culture, 33; management structure, 56; mission, 50; workforce reduction, 118
- Ziglar, Zig, 23

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>