

Index

A

Abuse. See Fraud, waste, abuse, and systemic weaknesses

Administrative responsibilities, 215–216

Adobe software, 154

Analysis and audits, 170

Audio recordings, 164–167

Availability heuristics, 7

B

Believable, reliable, or credible source of information, 24–25

Body language, 188–189

C

Case initiation, 15–47

believable, reliable, or credible source of information, 24–25

caseload, 27–28

dollar loss, 25–26

funding/finances, 30–32

investigative priorities, 32–35

investigators' desire, 32 jurisdiction, venue, and purview, 17–24

media or public interest, 38–43

political interests, 44–47

projected remedy, 35–36

prosecutor's prerogative, 36–38

resources, 28–29

seriousness/harm, 26–27

Case planning, 205–225

administrative responsibilities, 215–216

case files, 216

changes in, 211–213

electronic case folder, 216–217

investigative plan, 218–220

juggling caseload and time management, 221–225

Murphy's Law, 213–214

official file, 217–218

private investigations, 214–215

working file, 217

Case presentation visual aids, samples of, 298 acquisition steps and kickback, 301

circumvented contract award decision, 298 contracts awarded—bribery, 299

healthcare billings, no supportive documents for, 300

Case presentation visual aids (continued)
 international movement of funds, 302 suspects' association and previous arrests, 303

Caseload, 27–28

and time management, 221–225

Closing the case, 275–282

evidence, 277

old case files, 276

recommendations for improvement, 277–281

suspensions, debarment, and improvement plans, 281–282

Codes of conduct/ethics, 8–9

Combined DNA Index System
 (CODIS), 72

Comparisons, 71–73

Computers, as investigative tool, 149–152

Concurrent jurisdiction, 37

Confirmation bias, 7

Convictions, 256–261

Corroboration, 184

Counterfeit/stolen credit card investigation, 141–143

Critical Incident Response Group
 (CIRG), 73

D

Debarment, 281–282

DNA evidence, 72

Dollar loss, 25–26

Dollar recoveries, 256–261

Dumpster diving, 160–161

E

Electronic case folder, 216–217

Expanding investigative efforts, 69–86

comparisons, 71–73

currently, previously, or in the future, 77–79

Five Ws and Two Hs plus “else,” 76–77

INTERPOL, 74

investigative exploration approaches, 82–84

NCIC, 73

repeating the investigative process, 84–86

resources, 74–76

thinking like others, 79–82

F

Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), 18, 71–73, 159

Combined DNA Index System
 (CODIS), 72

Critical Incident Response Group
 (CIRG), 73

National Crime Information Center
 (NCIC), 73, 159

Files, official and working, 113–114, 217–218

Five Ws and Two Hs, 54, 56–67, 76–77

how?, 64–66

how much?, 66–67

plus “else,” 76–77

what?, 57–58

when?, 58–60

where?, 60–61

who?, 56–57

why?, 61–63

Fraud, waste, abuse, and systemic weaknesses, 87–109

abuse, 89

fraud, 88

suggestions for improvement, 104–109

systemic weaknesses, 89–90

waste, 88

Funding/finances, 30–32

Future, preparing for, 291

G

Grand jury subpoenas, 157–159

H

Healthcare fraud, 33–35

I

Improvement plans, 281–282

Indictments, 256–261

Informants, 169

Insurance and representation, 290–291

Interceptions and tracking devices, 159

INTERPOL, 74

Interview log, 233–238

fields, 235–238

Interviewing, 177–204

body language, 188–189

- corroboration, 184
 - empathy, 194
 - finishing, 193
 - interview notes, 200
 - interview room sketches and
 - photographs, 200–204
 - interviews and interrogation, 178–179
 - listening/talking, 181–182
 - note taking, 182–183
 - planning, 186–188
 - props, 189–193
 - rapport, 179–181
 - statement analysis, 194–199
 - can't recall, 198–199
 - minimizing, 198
 - partial truths, 197
 - pronouns, 196–197
 - specificity, 197–198
 - thinking plural, 199
 - word choice, 185–186
- Investigations, conducting, 49–67
- before, during, and after, 54–67
 - how?, 64–66
 - how much?, 66–67
 - what?, 57–58
 - when?, 58–60
 - where?, 60–61
 - who?, 56–57
 - why?, 61–63
 - questions to answer, 53–54
 - Five Ws and Two Hs, 54
- Investigative exploration
- approaches, 82–84
- Investigative notes and evidence, 243–244
- Investigative priorities, 32–35
- Investigative reports, 112–113
- Investigative resources, 131–145
- organizations, 132–135
 - other professionals, 135–143
 - public records, 144–145
- Investigative tools and techniques, 146
- Adobe software, 154
 - analysis and audits, 170
 - asking for evidence and other information, 173–176
 - audio recordings, 164–167
 - computers, 149–152
 - informants, 169
 - interceptions and tracking devices, 159
 - interviewing. See Interviewing
 - laboratory analysis, 167–169
 - mail covers, 160
 - Microsoft software, 154
 - National Crime Information Center (NCIC), 159
 - other case files and police reports, 170–173
 - photography and video, 154–155, 164–167
 - polygraphs and detection detectors, 170
 - search warrants, 156–157
 - subpoenas, 157–158
 - templates, 154
 - text messaging, 153
 - trash covers, 160–161
 - undercover assignments, 161–164
- Investigators, successful, 1–13
- basics, 3
 - investigation, 9–10
 - investigators, 3–4
 - passion, integrity, and grit (PIG), 4–9
 - availability heuristics, 7
 - confirmation bias, 7
 - success, 10–13
- J
- Jurisdiction, 17–24
- L
- Laboratory analysis, 167–169
- Large-scale investigations, 227–244
- communication, 231–232
 - final summary report, 241
 - attachments and exhibits to, 241–242
 - interview log, 233–238
 - fields, 235–238
 - investigative notes and evidence, 243–244
 - planning, 233
 - postdraft report, 243
 - report distributions, 243
 - strategy, 238–240

M

Mail covers, 160
 Media or public interest, 38–43
 Microsoft software, 154
 Military installations, crimes committed on, 18
 Morale, 288–290
 Murphy's Law, 213–214

N

National Center for Analysis of Violent Crime (NCAVC), 73
 National Crime Information Center
 (NCIC), 73, 159
 Networking, 285–287
 Neufeld, Peter, 72
 Note taking, 182–183

O

Official file, 113–114, 217–218

P

Passion, integrity, and grit (PIG), 4–9
 Personal and professional growth, 283–292
 future, preparing for, 291
 insurance and representation, 290–291
 morale, 288–290
 networking, 285–287
 physical fitness, 287–288
 Roosevelt, Teddy, 292
 training, 284–285
 Photography and video, 154–155, 164–167
 Physical fitness, 287–288
 Piper Method of conducting thorough and complete investigations, 294
 Political interests, 44–47
 Polygraphs and detection detectors, 170
 Postdraft report, 243
 Presentations, 245–261 copies for prosecutor, 251–253 graphics, charts, visual aids, photos, and videos, 249–250
 indictments, convictions, and dollar recoveries, 256–261
 investigator's appearance and voice, presentations to supervisors, 253–256
 Private investigations, 214–215

Projected remedy, 35–36
 Prosecutor's prerogative, 36–38
 Public records, 144–145
 Purview, 17–24

R

Report writing, common mistakes in, 123–129
 confusing pronouns, 124–125
 high vocabulary, 123
 overutilization of acronyms and abbreviations, 124
 tense switching, 125–126
 too generic, 123
 use of the word "that," 126
 Reports. See Summary reports Resources, 28–29. See also Investigative resources
 Roosevelt, Teddy, 292

S

Search warrants, 156–157
 Seriousness/harm, 26–27
 Sexual harassment/assault, and military officers, 40–43, 59–60
 Simpson, O. J., 35–36
 Simultaneous investigations, 90–104
 Statement analysis, 194–199
 can't recall, 198–199
 minimizing, 198
 partial truths, 197
 pronouns, 196–197
 specificity, 197–198
 Strategy, 238–240
 Subpoenas, 157–159
 Summary reports, 111–129, 241
 attachments and exhibits to, 119–120, 241–242
 common mistakes, 123–129
 confusing pronouns, 124–125
 high vocabulary, 123
 overutilization of acronyms and
 abbreviations, 124
 tense switching, 125–126
 too generic, 123
 use of the word "that," 126
 formats, 121–123

- investigative reports, 112–113
 - length of, 119
 - official files and working files, 113–114
 - miscellaneous reports, 114–115
 - preparing to write, 115–118
 - Suspensions, 281–282
 - Systemic weaknesses. See Fraud, waste, abuse, and systemic weaknesses
- T
- Templates, 154
 - Terrorist Identities Datamart Environment (TIDE), 73
 - Testimony, providing, 263–282
 - opposing counsel, 265–269
 - visual aids in court, 269–271
- Text messaging, 153
 - Thinking like others, 79–82
 - Tracking devices, 159
 - Training, 284–285
 - Trash covers, 160–161
- V
- Venue, 17–24
 - Visual aids. See also Case presentation visual aids, samples of
 - in court, 269–271
- W
- Waste. See Fraud, waste, abuse, and systemic weaknesses
 - Working file, 113–114, 217

<http://www.pbookshop.com>