

Contents

Table of Cases	xi
Table of Legislation	xv
Chapter 1 An Introduction to the Meaning of Life	1
A. Human life: an evolutionary perspective	1
B. Human consciousness: the key to human life?	5
C. The end of life: defining death	9
D. The beginning of life: life before birth?	17
E. Conclusion	20
Chapter 2 The Right to Life: Religious, Philosophical, and Legal Origins	22
A. Religious origins of a right to life	22
(1) The Judaeo-Christian tradition	23
(2) Other religious traditions	26
(3) Beyond religion	28
B. Philosophical origins of a right to life	29
(1) Suicide in ancient times	29
(2) Kant and human life as an end in itself	30
(3) Dworkin and investment in life	31
(4) Locke and the natural law of the preservation of life	33
C. Legal origins of a right to life	35
(1) The American Declaration of Independence and Bill of Rights	35
(2) The Universal Declaration of Human Rights	38
(3) The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights	40
(4) The regional human rights systems	42
(5) International protection beyond treaties	46
D. Conclusion	46
Chapter 3 The Enforcement of the Right to Life	48
A. Means of implementation	48
(1) Domestic implementation	48
(2) International implementation	53
(a) State reports	54
(b) Inter-state complaints	55
(c) Individual petitions	56
(d) International relations	59

B.	The scope of the right to life	61
(1)	Killings by state agents	61
(2)	Effective investigations for killings and disappearances	64
(3)	Positive obligations to preserve life	67
(4)	The death penalty	70
(5)	Other issues of scope	73
C.	Conclusion	77
Chapter 4 The Right to Life in Times of War or Armed Conflict		79
A.	The application of the right to life in times of war	79
(1)	The substantive issue: is the right to life engaged by deaths in wartime?	81
(2)	The procedural issue: are deaths in wartime within the 'jurisdiction' of the state responsible?	82
B.	Deprivation of life in times of war: the law of international armed conflict	90
C.	The ethics of killing in wartime	93
D.	Conclusion	100
Chapter 5 The Right to Life and Prevention of Crime: Killing by the State as Punishment and/or Deterrence		102
A.	The death penalty	103
(1)	The death penalty in law and practice	103
(a)	Current state practice and international standards	103
(b)	Other human rights abuses inherent in the imposition of the death penalty	109
(2)	The death penalty as an exception to the right to life	119
(a)	Retributive arguments: death is what the prisoner deserves	119
(b)	Deterrent arguments: take one life to save others	122
B.	The use of lethal force to prevent crime	125
(1)	The use of lethal force to prevent crime	126
(2)	The justification for killing in self-defence	130
(3)	Mistakes as to a threat to life and necessary force	133
(4)	The use of lethal force by agents of the state	137
(5)	The circumstances that surround the use of lethal force: planning and control of the police operation	145
C.	Conclusion	149
Chapter 6 The Right to Life and Conflicting Rights of Others		151
A.	Of trolley buses and hijacked planes	151
B.	Conflicting rights of conjoined twins	159
C.	Conflicting rights of a pregnant woman and fetus	166

D. Conclusion	174
Chapter 7 The Right to Life and Autonomy	176
A. The value of life and autonomy	176
B. Autonomous choices to die	178
C. Positive obligations to prevent suicide	185
(1) Criminalization of suicide	185
(2) Obligations to prevent suicide in detention	189
D. Assisted suicide	194
E. Conclusion	197
Chapter 8 The Right to Life and the Quality of Life	199
A. Persons and humans: the application of the right to life	199
B. The duty to take reasonable steps to preserve life	204
C. What is reasonable to preserve life?	207
D. The provision of food and water: always reasonable?	212
E. The balancing exercise	214
F. Conclusion	216
Chapter 9 Protecting the Right to Life with Limited Public Resources	217
A. Positive obligations and their cost	217
B. Allocating resources to save lives	223
(1) The application of the Osman test to policing in England and Wales	223
(2) The allocation of resources in healthcare: NICE and QALY	225
C. Procedure matters: accountability for reasonableness	232
D. Conclusion	237
Chapter 10 Conclusion: The Right to Life and Conflicting Interests	239
Bibliography	247
Index	255