

expert media lawyer. My special thanks go to all three for their valuable contributions and insights.

We continue to receive positive and intelligent feedback from a variety of people working in the media—lawyers, media law students, media studies students and those working in the media industries generally. We are pleased that the book continues to receive a wide audience. We hope that those involved with the media—whether journalists, editors, producers, writers, artists, photographers or lawyers—continue to find much of use and interest in this new edition.

We welcome your feedback, which we will utilise for subsequent editions.
