

Development and Planning Law in New South Wales

By John Whitehouse

Contents

FOREWORD

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

CCH ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

ABBREVIATIONS

PART A — INTRODUCTION

1. Background to planning law

PART B — ENVIRONMENTAL PLANNING INSTRUMENTS

2. Planning and related legislation

3. Scope of an Environmental Planning Instrument

4. Development

5. Other key definitions

6. Environmental Planning Instruments, types of development, zoning, prohibitions and commencement

7. Challenges to validity and privative clauses

8. Inconsistency between Environmental Planning Instruments

9. Covenants and Environmental Planning Instruments

PART C — THE PROCESS OF MAKING LOCAL ENVIRONMENTAL PLANS: PRE-2008 PROVISIONS

10. Plan making: initial provisions and former instruments

11. Initiation of a Local Environmental Plan

12. Preparation of the draft Local Environmental Plan and consultation

13. Public exhibition of the draft Local Environmental Plan

14. Council consideration of submissions on draft Local Environmental Plan

15. Departmental and Ministerial role in making a Local Environmental Plan

PART D — THE PROCESS OF MAKING LOCAL ENVIRONMENTAL PLANS: STANDARD INSTRUMENT, DIRECTIONS AND CURRENT PROVISIONS

16. Model Provisions, Standard Instrument, Local Environmental Plan format and Ministerial directions

17. Plan First and the planning reform agenda of 2003-2005

18. Local planning changes 2006-2008

19. Amendments to Environmental Planning Instruments and the making, scope and power of Development Control Plans

PART E — INTERPRETING A LOCAL ENVIRONMENTAL PLAN: FORMAT, ZONING AND CHARACTERISATION

20. Interpreting a Local Environmental Plan — format and zoning

21. Characterisation of development

22. Judicial review of permissibility

23. Objectives

24. Special provisions of a Local Environmental Plan
25. Definitions and dictionaries

PART F — STATE ENVIRONMENTAL PLANNING POLICIES, REGIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL PLANS, DEVELOPMENT STANDARDS AND THE STANDARD INSTRUMENT

26. Scope, power and making of State Environmental Planning Policies
27. Nature of State Environmental Planning Policies made
28. Regional Environmental Plans
29. Development standards and State Environmental Planning Policy No 1
30. Development standards, Standard Instrument and key principles

PART G — DEVELOPMENT APPLICATIONS

31. What is a development application and when is it required?
32. Overview of schemes for development applications — Local Government Act 1919 and the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979
33. Retrospectivity and development applications
34. Formal requirements for a development application
35. Owner's consent for a development application
36. Types of development applications
37. Standard development applications
38. Designated development
39. Advertised and specified development
40. Integrated development
41. Development applications requiring a Species Impact Statement
42. Development applications requiring concurrence or consultation
43. Crown development
44. Regional development
45. Staged development applications
46. Issues in types of development applications and key principles
47. Public exhibition and involvement
48. Consideration and determination of a development application
49. Specific heads of consideration under s 79C and key principles regarding the consideration and determination of a development application
50. Availability of mandamus in the determination of a development application
51. United Kingdom law relating to consideration of applications for planning instructions
52. General principles of administrative law regarding the making of decisions
53. Exercising discretion in development control

PART H — DEVELOPMENT CONSENTS

54. Nature of a consent
55. Incorporation of extrinsic materials in a consent
56. Invalidity of consents
57. Deferred commencement consents and staged development consents
58. Conditions of consent
59. Development contributions
60. Consequences of invalidity of a condition: severance
61. Savings and transitional provisions relating to development consents

- 62. Presumption of regularity, functus officio, alternative source of power and estoppel and development consents
- 63. Relationship between a development consent and other approvals
- 64. Operation of a development consent and appeal and review rights
- 65. Lapsing of a development consent
- 66. Modification of a development consent

PART I — STATE SIGNIFICANT DEVELOPMENT AND STATE SIGNIFICANT INFRASTRUCTURE

- 67. State significant development and State significant infrastructure

PART J — EXISTING USES

- 68. Existing uses: pre-Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979
- 69. Existing uses: the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979 provisions

PART K — INQUIRIES

- 70. Inquiries

PART L — ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT

- 71. Environmental Impact Assessment

PART M — CONCLUSION AND FINDING AIDS

- 72. Conclusion

CASE TABLE
INDEX

<http://www.pbookshop.com>