

CONTENTS

Figures and Tables		xi
Preface		xiii
Acknowledgments		xvii
The Authors		xix
PART ONE	How Did We Get Here?	1
ONE	What Are Social Media, and Why Should Government Pay Attention to Them?	3
TWO	Social Media Versus Traditional Media	7
THREE	Transformative Properties	13
FOUR	The Social Media Ecosystem in the Public Sector	17
FIVE	Social Media in Action	23
SIX	What's Driving Social Media Adoption—and Why Is All This Happening Now?	31
PART TWO	The Tools: Where Do I Start?	35
SEVEN	Social Networking Services	37
EIGHT	Blogs	49

NINE	Microblogging	59
TEN	Wikis	71
ELEVEN	Choosing the Tool That's Right for You	83
PART THREE Policy and Implementation		93
TWELVE	Social Media Strategy	95
THIRTEEN	Social Media Tactics	103
FOURTEEN	Key Elements of a Social Media Policy	109
FIFTEEN	Employee Social Media Use: Personal Versus Professional	129
SIXTEEN	Implementation	141
PART FOUR Where Do We Go from Here?		147
SEVENTEEN	The Future of Social Media in the Public Sector	149
	Conclusion	165
	Glossary	169
	Additional Resources	175
	Notes	179
	Index	191

FIGURES AND TABLES

FIGURES

Figure 2.1	Static Websites (Web 1.0)	9
Figure 2.2	Twitter Earthquake Detector (TED)	10
Figure 2.3	Interactive Website Integrating Web 2.0 Features	11
Figure 4.1	Library of Congress Announces Acquisition of Twitter Archive	19
Figure 4.2	Open311	21
Figure 4.3	CrimeReports Map	22
Figure 5.1	Apps for Democracy	26
Figure 7.1	WhiteHouse.gov and Facebook Host Online Town Hall Meetings Live on Facebook	41
Figure 7.2	Charlotte, NC, Fire Department Provides General and Proactive Information and Follows Up on Specific Inquiries in a Friendly, Effective Manner	43
Figure 7.3	GovLoop Is an Open Social Networking Platform Designed Exclusively by and for Government Employees	44
Figure 8.1	The Water Blog of the Portland Water Bureau	50
Figure 8.2	The CDC's Blog Preparedness 101: Zombie Apocalypse	51
Figure 8.3	The Ventura City Manager Blog	54
Figure 8.4	The Kent City Manager's Blog	55
Figure 8.5	A Science Wednesday Post on Greenversations	57
Figure 9.1	LAFD Twitter Updates and Alerts	61
Figure 9.2	Roanoke County Public Library Updates on Twitter	62

Figure 9.3	Twitter Conversation About the Use of USGS Data to Provide Facts Used in a Movie	65
Figure 9.4	An EPA Tweet Including @mentions and Hashtag	66
Figure 9.5	A CDC_eHealth Tweet	66
Figure 9.6	A White House Tweet Including a #Follow Friday Example	67
Figure 9.7	The EPA Region 9 Twitter List	68
Figure 10.1	Edit Mode in Wikipedia	72
Figure 10.2	WikiCrimes: Mapping Crimes Collaboratively	75
Figure 10.3	The CrisisCommons Wiki for Organizing Disaster Relief	77
Figure 10.4	The White House Used the ExpertNet Wiki	78
Figure 10.5	An Introductory Page on GCPedia	79
Figure 10.6	Wikipanning™	80
Figure 10.7	The GSA's BetterBuy Wiki Project	81
Figure 11.1	HowTo.gov	86
Figure 11.2	The Government & Social Media Wiki	87
Figure 12.1	The EPA's Mission Statement	97
Figure 13.1	A Purely Informational EPA Twitter Update	104
Figure 13.2	Facebook and Twitter Town Hall Meeting	105
Figure 13.3	GovLoop: The BetterBuy Project and Acquisition 2.0	107
Figure 13.4	San Francisco's Service Request System on Facebook	108
Figure 14.1	Sample Pages from the Navy Command Social Media Handbook	111
Figure 14.2	Nebraska's Standard for Branding Social Media Pages	114
Figure 14.3	FCC Connect's Social Media Branding	115
Figure 14.4	Twitter Account for Macon Phillips, White House Director of New Media	121
Figure 14.5	The USGS's Comment Policy	123
Figure 15.1	A Twitter Personal Account Disclaimer—Kristy Fifelski	135
Figure 15.2	A Twitter Personal Account Disclaimer—Janet Claggett	135
Figure 15.3	A Blog Account Disclaimer—Bill Schrier	136
Figure 17.1	Challenge.gov	151
Figure 17.2	Challenge.gov Participation Process	152
Figure 17.3	NYC Simplicity	153

Figure 17.4	Harford County’s Innovation Portal	154
Figure 17.5	USGS Asked Citizens: “Did You Feel It?”	157
Figure 17.6	Foursquare Badges: NASA Explorer Badge and I Voted 2010 Badge	158
Figure 17.7	NARA’s Landing Page on Foursquare	159
Figure 17.8	NARA: Walk with the Presidents on Foursquare	160
Figure 17.9	BART Foursquare Badges	161

TABLES

Table 2.1	Traditional Media Versus Social Media: A Comparison of Characteristics	12
Table 7.1	Government Use of the Best-Known Social Networking Services	39
Table 11.1	Matching Social Media Tools to Common Government Needs	85
Table 12.1	The EPA’s Strategic Communication and Interaction Objectives	99
Table 17.1	Local, State, and Federal Crowdsourcing Examples	155

<http://www.pbookshop.com>