

Contents

| | |
|---|-------|
| Preface | vii |
| Abbreviations | xi |
| Table of Cases | xiii |
| Table of Legislation | xix |
| Table of Conventions, Treaties etc | xxiii |

| | |
|---|-----|
| Introduction | 1 |
| 1. Theoretical Background | 5 |
| I. Constitution as Metaphor? | 5 |
| II. The Premodern Hierarchical Social Formation | 8 |
| III. The Transition Period: Charters of Freedom or Political Settlements | 15 |
| IV. Multicentric Modern Society | 18 |
| V. From Structural Couplings to Transversal Rationality | 25 |
| 2. From Transversal Constitution . . . | 37 |
| I. The Constitution of Constitutionalism | 37 |
| II. The Transversal Constitution of the Constitutional State | 42 |
| III. Transversal Constitutions beyond the State? | 55 |
| A. Models of a Global Supranational Constitution and Constitutionalisation in the Plane of the International Order | 56 |
| B. Supranational Constitutionalism in the Regional Plane | 65 |
| C. Transnational 'Civil Constitutions' | 70 |
| 3. . . . to Transconstitutionalism between Legal Orders | 74 |
| I. Transconstitutionalism between Legal Orders as a Model for Treating Constitutional Problems | 74 |
| II. Transconstitutionalism between International Public Law and State Law | 84 |
| III. Transconstitutionalism between Supranational Law and State Law | 96 |
| IV. Transconstitutionalism between State Legal Orders | 106 |
| V. Transconstitutionalism between State and Transnational Legal Orders | 118 |
| VI. Transconstitutionalism between State Legal Orders and Extra-state Local Orders | 136 |
| VII. Transconstitutionalism between Supranational Law and International Law | 144 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| 4. Transconstitutionalism in a ‘Multilevel’ or Multicentric World Legal System | 148 |
| I. Multiangle Transconstitutionalism between Orders of the Same Kind and Orders of Different Kinds | 148 |
| II. Pluridimensional Transconstitutionalism of Human Rights | 157 |
| III. Outlines of a Methodology of Transconstitutionalism | 169 |
| 5. Excursus: Limits and Possibilities of Transconstitutionalism in Terms of Empirical Conditions, Functional Requirement and Normative Claim | 174 |
| I. Empirical Conditions: Transconstitutionalism versus Asymmetry of the Forms of Law | 174 |
| II. Functional Requirement: Beyond Constitutional Utopia and Fragmentation – Promoting a ‘Differentiated Communication Order’ (System Integration) | 178 |
| III. Normative Claim: Beyond Hegemony and Community – Promoting Inclusion (‘Social Integration’) | 180 |
| Final Comment: The Other Can See Your Blind Spot | 183 |
| Bibliography | 185 |
| Index | 215 |

<http://www.pbookshop.com>