

Contents

Preface	vii
PART I PLANNING
1 Introduction	3
2 Acceptance procedures	9
3 The correspondence and permanent files	29
4 Accounting systems, processes and controls	49
5 Preliminary analytical procedures	77
6 Assessing materiality	81
7 Assessing risk	85
8 Audit team planning meeting	105
9 Determining the audit approach	109
10 Other planning issues	123
11 Bringing it all together	131
PART II IMPLEMENTATION
12 Introduction	137
13 Audit evidence	139
14 Sampling and error evaluation	143
15 Procedures affecting all audit sections	147
16 Substantive analytical procedures	155
17 Intangible fixed assets	161
18 Tangible fixed assets	167
19 Investments in group and associated undertakings and other investments	179
20 Stock	185
21 Long-term contracts	201
22 Debtors and prepayments	209
23 Bank and cash	221
24 Creditors and accruals	227
25 Long-term loans and deferred income	233
26 Provisions, contingent liabilities and financial commitments	237
27 Defined benefit pension schemes	243
28 Capital, reserves and statutory records	249
29 Taxation	253
30 Profit and loss account: income	259
31 Profit and loss account: expenditure	267
32 Profit and loss account: wages, salaries and other remuneration	271

Contents

33	Profit and loss account: other	277
34	Related party transactions	281
35	Subsequent events and going concern	285
36	Value added tax	291
37	Consolidation and groups	295
38	Cash flow statements	305
39	Auditing financial statements prepared under IFRS	307

PART III COMPLETION

40	Introduction	315
41	Preparing the file for review	317
42	Reports to management	337
43	Letters of representation	343
44	Drafting the audit report	347
45	Reviewing the file	357
46	Final completion and planning for next year	363
47	Conclusion	365

<http://www.pbookshop.com>