

Contents

Preface	v
Notes on Contributors	ix
Abbreviations	xi

Part I Introduction

1. Introduction.....	3
Ann Numhauser-Henning and Mia Rönmmar

Part II Law as Normative Patterns and Other Theoretical Perspectives

2. Understanding Law as Normative Patterns in a Normative Field	27
Ann Numhauser-Henning
3. Law Beyond Law	53
Kaarlo Tuori
4. The 'Autonomy' of Private Governments: Building on Italian Labour Law Scholarship in a Transnational Perspective	65
Silvana Sciarra

Part III Protection of Established Position and Normative Development

5. Protection of Established Position, Normative Incoherence and the Changing Normative Field of Labour Law.....	79
Niklas Bruun
6. Protection of Established Position, Social Protection and the Legal Situation of the Elderly in the European Union.....	95
Mia Rönmmar
7. Participation and Flexibility for All? A Study of Modern Family Structures and Children's Rights	117
Titti Mattsson

Part IV Market-Functionalism and Normative Development

8. Concepts of the Market in Labour Law.....	141
Simon Deakin

9. The Use of Market Forces in Social Security: How Insurance-like Should Social Insurance Be?.....	161
Per Norberg
10. Parenthood Meets Market-Functionalism: Parental Rights in the Labour Market and the Importance of the Gender Dimension.....	185
Jenny Julén Votinius

Part V Just Distribution and Normative Development

11. Flexicurity and Labour Law: Labour Market Segmentation, Precarious Work and Just Distribution	211
Judy Fudge
12. Changing Normative Patterns in Statutory Old-Age Pensions: Reflections on Developments Due to Pension Reform and EU Citizenship	237
Thomas Erhag
13. Normative Patterns in the Context of Divorce in Sweden	253
Eva Ryrstedt
Index	267

<http://www.pbookshop.com>