
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Series Editors' Preface	v
Preface	vii
List of Figures	xvii
List of Tables	xix
1 The Research Project and Book Structure	1
I Introduction	1
II Methodology	2
A Methodology for the Quantitative Research	2
B Methodology for the Qualitative Research	4
C Actual Files and Prevention Files	8
III Respect for Privacy	9
IV Limitations of the Research	10
A Archival Data	10
B Lack of Court Files	11
C No Analysis of Criminal Proceedings Files	12
D Incomplete Representativity	12
E Only Two Years: Longitudinal Data Missing	12
F No Control Group	13
G Focus on One Country	13
V Structure of this Book	14
2 Terminology	16
I The Child	16
II Custody and Access	18
III Care and Contact	19
IV Residence	20
A Habitual Residence	20
B Principle, Secondary and Alternate Residence	21
V Parental Authority	22
VI Parental Responsibility	23
VII International Child Abduction	24
VIII Abducting Parent	25
IX Left-behind Parent	26

3	The Child	27
I	Introduction	27
II	Age of the Child	27
	A Mean Age of the Abducted Child	27
	B Sixteen and Seventeen-Year-Olds	29
III	Correlation between Country to where Child is Abducted and His or Her Age	30
IV	Gender of the Child	30
V	Nationality of the Child	30
	A Dual Nationality	30
	B Nationality of the Child in Cases of Abduction to Belgium	31
	C Nationality of the Child in Cases of Abduction from Belgium	31
VI	Country of Birth of the Child	32
	A Country of Birth in Cases of Abduction to Belgium	32
	B Country of Birth in Cases of Abduction from Belgium	32
VII	Other Characteristics of the Child	32
VIII	The Child and Family Conflict	33
IX	The Child's Place in the Legal Proceedings	33
	A The 'Best Interests of the Child'	34
	B Hearing the Child	35
X	Conclusion	39
4	The Family	41
I	Introduction	41
II	Relationship between Parents	41
III	Age of the Parents	43
IV	Nationality of the Parents	44
	A Dual Nationality	44
	B Nationality/ies of the Abducting Parent in Cases of Abduction to Belgium	45
	C Nationality/ies of the Abducting Parent in Cases of Abduction from Belgium	45
	D Nationality of the Left-behind Parent in Cases of Abduction to Belgium	45
	E Nationality/ies of the Left-behind Parent in Cases of Abduction from Belgium	46
V	Country of Birth of the Parents	46
	A Country of Birth of the Abducting Parent in Cases of Abduction to Belgium	46
	B Country of Birth of the Abducting Parent in Cases of Abduction from Belgium	46

C	Country of Birth of the Left-behind Parent in Cases of Abduction to Belgium	47
D	Country of Birth of the Left-behind Parent in Cases of Abduction from Belgium	47
VI	Differences in the Nationalities and Countries of Origin of the Parents	48
VII	Size of the Family	49
VIII	Parental Authority and Perceptions of it	50
A	The Difficulties in Law and Practice of the Exercise of Parental Authority	51
B	Application to International Child Abduction Instruments	52
C	Knowledge of Third Parties, Including Local Authorities, of the Parental Authority over a Child	53
IX	Residence of the Child	56
A	Alternate Residence as Preferred System in Belgium	56
X	Respecting the Contact Arrangement	58
A	Risk Factor for International Child Abduction	58
B	Bad Advice Due to a Bad Track Record	61
C	Well-respected Contact Rights Before Abduction	61
XI	Conflict and Sources of Stress in the Family	61
A	Knowing the Other Parent; Stability of the Relationship	61
B	Having Children	62
C	Difficulty in the Parents' Relationship and Roles in the Family	63
D	Individual Mental or Psychiatric Difficulties	64
E	Living in a Foreign Country	66
F	Disagreement between Parents about Some Aspect of the Child's Life, Especially Illnesses and Disorders	67
G	New Partners	69
H	Role of Grandparents	69
I	Debts in Belgium	70
XII	Family Conflict and Parental Alienation	70
XIII	Conclusion	71
5	The Abduction	73
I	Number of Abductions	73
II	Relationship of the Abductor to the Child	75
A	General	75
B	Abductions from Belgium	77
C	Abductions to Belgium	79

D	Abductions where Belgium was neither the Country of Origin nor Destination	80
E	Response to the Fact that there are More Mother Abductors	80
F	Disrespect of Contact Rights: Mothers/Fathers	81
III	Mother/Father Abductors Compared to the Status of the Parents' Relationship	82
IV	Abduction and Parental Authority	83
V	Abducting Parent and Residence of the Child	84
VI	Preparation for the Abduction	87
A	The Well-planned Abduction	87
B	The Unplanned Abduction	90
C	Abduction Linked to Holidays	91
D	Preparation and Children	93
E	Beating the Law	94
VII	Number of Children Abducted Together	94
VIII	Destination of Abduction	95
A	Countries to which Children were Abducted from Belgium	95
B	Countries from where Children were Abducted to Belgium	98
C	Destination of the Abduction Compared to Nationality and Country of Birth of the Abducting Parent	102
D	Other Possible Links between Abducting Parent and Country of Destination	103
IX	Conclusion	104
6	The Quest for Return	105
I	Introduction	105
II	First Reactions	106
A	Contacting Authorities or Institutions	106
B	Amicable Solution	107
C	Police	108
III	Legal Proceedings: General Overview	108
IV	The 1980 Hague Convention	111
A	Entry into Force and States Party	112
B	Scope of Application	112
C	Mechanism	113
D	Use in Practice	115
V	Legal Proceedings: Brussels II bis Regulation	115
A	Entry into Force and States Bound	116
B	Scope of Application	116

C	Mechanism Regarding International Child Abduction	116
D	Use in Practice	117
E	Free Access to Justice and the Role of the Public Prosecutor in Return Proceedings	118
VI	Combination of Brussels II bis and Hague Child Abduction Convention (1980)	121
A	Application of the Exceptions to Return	121
B	Six Week Turnover Time for Returns	122
C	Direct Communication between Judges	123
D	Mutual Trust between Judges of Different Legal Systems	123
E	Judgments on Substance after Return Proceedings	124
VII	Luxembourg Convention	125
A	Entry into Force and States Party	125
B	Scope of Application	125
C	Mechanism	126
D	Use in Practice	126
VIII	Bilateral Protocols with Morocco and Tunisia	126
IX	Hague Child Protection Convention (1996)	128
A	Entry into Force and States Party	129
B	Scope of Application	129
C	Mechanism	129
X	Enforcement of Return Orders	130
A	Enforcement, Force and Due Care	131
B	The Tales of Two Left-behind Mothers	131
C	A Particular Rule under the Brussels II bis Regulation	135
XI	The International Nature of the Phenomenon and Related Difficulties	136
A	The Confrontation of Legal Systems	136
B	Finding the Child	137
C	Cooperation between Belgian and Foreign Authorities	137
D	Parallel Proceedings	138
E	Conflicting Judgments	139
F	Lack of Sufficient Knowledge about the International Legal Instruments	140
XII	The Role of Professionals in Child Abduction Cases	141
A	Lawyers	141
B	Coordination between Authorities and Institutions in Belgium	144
C	Judges	147
D	The Police	149

XIII	The Inadequacies of the Available Legal Remedies	150
	A Costs	150
	B Strange Outcomes	150
	C Discrimination between Mothers and Fathers	151
XIV	Situations where No Legal Instruments are Available	152
	A In Practice	152
	B Media	153
	C Politicians	153
	D Counter-abduction	154
XV	Criminal Proceedings	155
XVI	Amicable Solution	156
	A Mediation and other Means of Out-of-Court Settlement	156
	B Neutrality of the Mediator	157
	C Willingness on Both Sides	158
	D Time and Money	159
	E The Risks of Mediation	159
	F Central Authorities' Role	160
	G Mediation in an International Context	161
XVII	Long Duration of the Proceedings	161
	A General	161
	B Duration of Abductions to Belgium	163
	C Duration of Abductions from Belgium	164
	D Timing of Each Step of Hague and Brussels II bis Proceedings	168
	E Time between Abduction and Request with the Central Authority	169
	F Time between Request with Central Authority and Institution of Court Proceedings	170
	G Time between Institution of Court Proceedings and Judgment	171
	H Time between Request with Central Authority and Finalisation of File	172
XVIII	Practical Difficulties Regarding the Return	172
XIX	Conclusion	174
7	Life While the Child is Away	176
	I Introduction	176
	II Knowledge of the Whereabouts of the Child and the Abducting Parent	176
	III Keeping Contact with the Child while He or She is Away	176
	IV Psychological, Emotional and Moral Support	180
	V Schools	182
	VI Conclusion	183

8	Aftermath	184
I	Introduction	184
II	Return	184
	A Return in Closed Cases	184
	B Return and Manner in which the File was Closed	185
	C Cases that had been Open for More than a Year	188
	D Returns for Abductions to Belgium: Breakdown According to Part of the World from where the Child had been Abducted	189
	E Returns for Abductions to Belgium: Breakdown According to Applicable Legal Instrument	189
	F Returns for Abductions from Belgium: Breakdown According to Part of the World to where the Child had been Abducted	191
	G Returns for Abductions from Belgium: Breakdown According to Applicable Legal Instrument	193
III	Outcomes	194
	A General	194
	B Abductions to Belgium: Outcome Compared to Applicable Legal Instrument	196
	C Abductions from Belgium: Method on how Solution was Reached Compared with Applicable Legal Instrument	197
	D Mediation	198
IV	Re-adaptation of the Child	200
	A Catching Up	200
	B Coming Out of a Period of Instability	200
	C Residues of the Family Conflict and Brainwashing	201
	D Children's Own Views	202
	E Therapy	203
V	Re-adaptation of other Members of the Family	204
VI	New Residence and Contact Arrangements after Return	205
	A New Residence Arrangement	206
	B New Contact Arrangement	206
VII	Real Contact between Parents and Children after Abduction	207
	A Contact with the Abducting Parent after Return	207
	B Contact with the Left-behind Parent in Cases of Non-return	208
	C Contact with the Left-behind Parent if the Child Lives with the Abducting Parent after Return	210
VIII	Psychological, Emotional and Moral Support	210
IX	Schools	211
X	Conclusion	211

9	Prevention of International Child Abduction	212
I	Introduction	212
II	Different Views on Prevention	213
III	The Left-behind Parent's Surprise	214
IV	Failed Attempts at Prevention	215
V	The Issuing of Travel Documents	216
	A Parental Authority and the Issuing of Travel Documents	216
	B Blacklisting	220
VI	Passports, Borders and the Schengen Zone	221
VII	The Role of the Police in Preventing International Child Abduction	222
VIII	Training of Professionals and Spreading of Information	223
IX	Warning Signs: When Are Preventive Measures Appropriate?	224
X	Grandparents	226
XI	Schools	226
XII	Conclusion	227
10	Conclusion	228
	Annexes	231
I	List of Variables Used for Quantitative Analysis	231
II	Consent Form for Interviews	235
III	Structure of Interviews with Parents	237
IV	Structure of Interviews with Professionals	241
V	Policy Recommendations that were made on the Basis of the Research Results	245
	Bibliography	251
	Index	261