

About the Authors

Michael Wilkinson has taught in the law Faculty of the University of Hong Kong since 1983. He was head of the Department of Professional Legal Education at the University of Hong Kong for 13 years and serves as Chairman of the Board of the Faculty of Law. He has written extensively on Conveyancing, Civil Procedure, Professional Conduct and Advocacy for both students and practitioners.

Vandana Rajwani is a practising barrister called to the Bar of England and Wales in 1996 (Lincoln's Inn) and Hong Kong in 1996. She is also a Teaching Consultant in the Department of Professional Legal Education at the University of Hong Kong where she is responsible for the development and teaching of the criminal and trial advocacy programmes. Her interests include human rights, women and the law, matrimonial law and criminal law.

Raymond Pierce MCIM is a practicing barrister called to the Bar of England and Wales in 1995 (Grays Inn) and Hong Kong in 1997. He is also a Teaching Consultant in the Department of Professional Legal Education at the University of Hong Kong where he is responsible for the development and teaching of the criminal advocacy and trial advocacy programmes.

Table of Contents

Foreword	v
Preface to the First Edition	vii
Preface to the Second Edition	ix
Preface to the Third Edition	xi
About the Author	xii
Table of Cases	xxix
Table of Statutes	lix
Table of Codes	lxv
Table of Practice directions	lxvii
Chapter 1 Introduction	1
1. Conventional Litigation, Arbitration and Mediation.....	2
(a) The reason for the shift away from the conventional litigation process in the civil arena	2
(b) Arbitration	2
(c) Mediation.....	3
2. The Advocates — Barristers and Solicitors.....	6
3. Rights of Audience	7
(a) Barristers	7
(b) Solicitors.....	8
(c) Extension of solicitors' rights of audience?.....	8
4. The Language of the Courts	9
5. The Qualities of the Advocate	10
(a) The ability to collect, organise and analyse material	10
(b) The ability to persuade in writing.....	10
(c) The ability to persuade orally out of court	11
(d) The ability to present a case persuasively in court.....	11
(e) The ability to think on one's feet.....	11
(f) Wisdom as to human nature and the ways of the world.....	12
(g) The ability to get on well with people and instil in others trust in oneself	12

	(h) Mental and physical stamina.....	13
6.	Attraction to the Profession of Advocacy	13
7.	How Does One Learn to be an Advocate?	13
8.	The Scope of an Advocate's Work	14
Chapter 2	The Professional Advocate	15
1.	Introduction	15
2.	The Sources of Lawyers' Ethical Responsibilities	15
	(a) Solicitors' ethical responsibilities	15
	(b) Barristers' ethical responsibilities	19
	(c) What to do if in doubt	20
3.	Enforcement of Professional Standards by the Profession and by the Courts.....	21
	(a) Enforcement of professional standards by the profession	21
	(b) Enforcement of professional standards by the court.....	21
4.	Self-Interest in the Maintenance of Professional Standards of Conduct by Advocates	23
Chapter 3	Preparation of the Case	24
1.	The Roles of Solicitor and Counsel in the Advocacy Process	24
	(a) Clients may not approach counsel directly	24
	(b) The circumstances in which counsel should be briefed.....	25
	(c) The point of time at which a solicitor should brief counsel	27
	(d) The division of work between instructing solicitor and counsel.....	27
	(e) Counsel interviewing the client and witnesses	29
2.	The Solicitor's Retainer.....	30
	(a) Effect of the retainer.....	30
	(b) Duration of the retainer	31
	(c) Form of the retainer.....	32
	(d) Cases in which a solicitor is obliged to decline a retainer	33
3.	Preparations for the Interview	34
	(a) The office environment	34
	(b) Preparations for each individual client.....	34
4.	The Interview with the Client	35
	(a) Access to a client who is in custody	35
	(b) The purpose of the interview	37
	(c) The technique of conducting the interview	38
	(d) Confidentiality and legal professional privilege.....	40

	(e) Facts to be ascertained at the interview	43
	(f) Damages: quantification, pleading and proof.....	45
	(g) Witnesses	47
	(h) The proof of evidence.....	52
	(i) Costs	54
	(j) Further interviews.....	59
	(k) Recording of interviews	59
	(l) Traditional or participatory relationship between client and lawyer	60
5.	The Post-Interview Stage: Ascertaining the Facts and Law	60
	(a) Ascertainment and checking of the facts.....	61
	(b) Research into the law and relevant procedural and evidential considerations	87
6.	Arriving at a Satisfactory Case Theory	98
7.	Communicating with One's Client and Others	98
	(a) Communication with one's client	99
	(b) Communicating with the opposing party and others	99
	(c) The modes of communication	100
8.	Negotiating a Settlement in a Civil Action	106
	(a) The desirability of settlement	106
	(b) Authority to settle	107
	(c) Preparing for settlement negotiations	108
	(d) Conducting settlement negotiations	109
	(e) The forms of the settlement	110
	(f) Other statutory aids to negotiation of a settlement	113
9.	Preparing For Court	114
	(a) Books to take into court	114
	(b) Chronologies, dramatis personae, skeleton arguments and lists of authorities	115
	(c) Personal relationships	117
	(d) Pre-trial consultations with counsel for the prosecution and the judge in criminal proceedings; ethical restrictions on 'plea bargaining'	119
	(e) Pre-trial hearings and reviews	121
10.	Preparing the Case as Duty Lawyer	123
	(a) The introduction and scope of the Duty Lawyer Scheme	123
	(b) The functions of the advocate instructed by the Scheme	124
	(c) Taking instructions and representing the client	125

Chapter 4	Briefing Counsel, Counsel's Opinion and Conferences	126
1.	Briefing Counsel.....	126
	(a) Choice of counsel	127
	(b) Instructing Senior Counsel	127
	(c) The necessity for a brief and backsheet	128
	(d) Negotiation of counsel's fee	129
	(e) Counsel has no contractual rights against either the lay client or instructing solicitor	129
	(f) The scope of counsel's authority	130
	(g) Acceptance, refusal and return of the brief by counsel	131
	(h) The contents of the brief and backsheet	136
	(i) The brief must be signed by instructing solicitor and delivered to counsel	139
	(j) Marking of brief on completion of the work	139
2.	Counsel's Opinion	139
	(a) The purpose and nature of counsel's opinion	139
	(b) The form and content of counsel's opinion	140
	(c) Drafting the opinion	141
3.	Conferences	143
	(a) The venue for the conference	143
	(b) The purpose of the conference	143
	(c) Conducting the conference	143
	(d) Pre-conference meeting between counsel and instructing solicitor	144
	(e) Conferences with expert witnesses	144
Chapter 5	Court Etiquette	145
1.	Dress	145
2.	Promptness	147
3.	Posture Whilst Addressing the Court	147
4.	Manner of Addressing the Court	148
	(a) Courtesy to the court	148
	(b) Courtesy to witnesses	149
	(c) Inflammatory remarks before a jury	150
	(d) Professional courtesy to opposing counsel	150
5.	Mode of Address of Judicial Officers	151
	(a) Mode of address in court	151
	(b) Mode of address outside court	151
	(c) Mode of address by letter	152
6.	Use of Appropriate Language when Addressing the Court	152

Chapter 6	Chambers Applications Before Masters.....	156
1.	The Jurisdiction of the Masters	156
2.	Chambers Proceedings Normally Open to the Public	157
3.	Administrative Division of Chamber Applications	158
	(a) Ex parte applications	159
	(b) Three-minute applications	160
	(c) Fixed-time applications ('special chambers hearings')	162
4.	Procedure and Advocacy Technique in Making Chamber Applications	163
	(a) Procedural rules governing the making of fixed time chamber applications	163
	(b) Drafting and filing affidavits and affirmations.....	165
	(c) Advocacy techniques in chambers applications	168
	(d) The making of an application for summary judgment	168
5.	Appeals from Masters' Interlocutory Judgments and Orders to A Judge in Chambers	177
Chapter 7	Bail Applications	179
1.	Jurisdiction to Admit to Bail.....	179
	(a) Police bail	179
	(b) Bail in a magistrate's court	181
	(c) Bail in the District Court	183
	(d) Bail in the Court of First Instance	183
	(e) Bail in the Court of Appeal	184
	(f) Bail pending appeal or sentence	184
	(g) Other jurisdiction to grant bail	185
2.	Multiple Applications For Bail in the Court of Appeal, Court of First Instance, District Court and Magistrates Courts	185
	(a) Multiple applications for bail in the Court of First Instance, District Court and magistrates courts	185
	(b) Multiple applications for bail in the Court of Appeal	186
3.	Revocation of Bail	187
4.	Application for Review by the Secretary for Justice	188
5.	The Bill of Rights: Presumption in Favour of Granting Bail	188

6.	The Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Ordinance 1993: the Right to Bail	190
	(a) The right to bail	190
	(b) The circumstances in which a person may be refused bail	190
7.	Considerations the Court may Take into Account when Granting or Refusing Bail	192
	(a) Considerations in favour of granting bail	192
	(b) Considerations against granting bail	193
8.	The Terms Upon Which Bail May Be Granted	194
	(a) Cash bail	194
	(b) Cash deposit or recognisances by sureties	195
	(c) Other conditions	196
	(d) No jurisdiction to order person admitted to bail to enter into recognisances (no 'self-recognisances')	196
9.	Preparing to Make the Application for Bail	197
10.	Making the Application for Bail	197
	(a) Procedural considerations	197
	(b) Evidential considerations	199
	(c) The application	199
11.	Arrest of Bailed Person	202
12.	Default in Appearance by the Bailed Person	202
	(a) Offence for failing to surrender to custody and issue of warrant for arrest	202
	(b) Forfeiture of any cash deposit from the bailed person and the surety or sureties	203
	(c) Forfeiture of recognisances taken from surety or sureties	203
Chapter 8	The Opening Address for the Prosecution	207
	1. Introduction: Setting the Scene	207
	2. The Ethical Duties of the Prosecutor at the Trial	208
	3. The Contents and Style of the Opening Speech	209
	(a) Jury trials	210
	(b) Non-jury trials	213
Chapter 9	The Opening Speech for the Plaintiff	215
	1. The Function of Counsel in a Civil Trial	215
	2. The Contents of the Opening Speech For the Plaintiff	217
	(a) Who opens?	217
	(b) Use of skeleton arguments in opening	218
	(c) The contents of the opening speech	219

Chapter 10	General Points On The Examination Of Witnesses	223
	1. The Principle of Orality and the Day in Court	223
	2. The Purpose of Examination of Witnesses — Laying the Foundation for Your Submissions	224
	3. The Selection of Witnesses	224
	4. Tampering with Evidence and Preparation of Witnesses	227
	(a) Tampering with evidence	227
	(b) Coaching witnesses	227
	(c) Proper preparation of witnesses	228
	5. The Order of Calling Witnesses	229
	6. Presence of Witnesses in the Courtroom	230
	7. General Hints on Technique in Questioning a Witness	231
	(a) Use language intelligible to the witness, jury and interpreter	231
	(b) Questions should be specific and short	232
	(c) Only one question at a time — one fact per question	232
	(d) Only ask questions	232
	(e) Preparing in advance for expected answers	232
	(f) Questioning through an interpreter	233
	8. Never Ask a Question to Which You Do Not Know the Answer	235
	9. Do Not Display Emotion at a Response Given By a Witness	236
	10. Proceed at an Appropriate Pace for the Judge to Record the Testimony or Take Notes	236
	11. Making Objections to Questions Put by Your Opponent	237
	(a) When to make an objection	237
	(b) The appropriate manner in which to make an objection	239
	12. Questions to Witnesses From the Bench and Jury	240
	(a) Questions and comments from the Bench	240
	(b) Questions from the jury	242
	(c) Counsel have a further right to examine on fresh material revealed — 'Matters Arising'	243
	13. Taking Notes of the Examination of Witnesses During the Trial	243
	(a) The purpose of taking notes	243
	(b) The technique of note-taking	244
Chapter 11	Examination-in-Chief	246

1. The Purpose Of Examination-in-Chief and the Choice of Method of Presentation of Your Witnesses' Evidence	246	10. Witnesses in Criminal Trials Should not be Asked to Reveal their Addresses	260
2. Examination-in-Chief in Civil Cases by Way of Presentation of Witness Statements	246	11. Witnesses Refreshing Their Memory	260
(a) The order for exchange of witness statements	246	(a) Refreshing memory out of court	260
(b) Preparation of witness statements	247	(b) Refreshing memory in face of the court	263
(c) Examination-in-chief upon a witness statement	248	(c) Evidential value of document used to refresh witness' memory once put in evidence	264
(d) Examination-in-chief of a witness whose witness statement has been exchanged but not ordered to stand as evidence-in-chief	248	12. Hostile Witnesses	265
3. Preparation for Examination-in-Chief	249	(a) Unfavourable witnesses	265
(a) The need for attention to detail	249	(b) Meaning of 'hostile'	266
(b) Dealing with previous convictions and establishing good character	249	(c) Can counsel deliberately call a witness they know will prove hostile?	266
(c) Special circumstances affecting the presentation of the evidence	251	(d) The right to cross-examine hostile witnesses	266
4. The Technique of Conducting Examination-in-Chief	251	(e) Leave of the Court	268
5. Leading Questions	252	(f) A witness may be declared hostile either during examination-in-chief or re-examination	268
(a) What are leading questions?	252	(g) Discretion of the court	268
(b) When are leading questions permitted? When should they be used?	253	(h) Manner of seeking leave and weight to be accorded to witness' testimony after witness declared to be hostile	269
(c) Examples of leading questions and ways to avoid them	254	(i) Limits upon permitted cross-examination	270
(d) Answers to leading questions	255	(j) Recalling a hostile witness after the witness has been charged with perjury	270
(e) Leading questions to hostile witnesses and in cross-examination permitted	256	(k) Re-examination of a hostile witness	270
6. Questions Which Assume the Existence of a Fact in Issue	256	(l) Effect of adducing the previous inconsistent statement	271
7. Dock Identifications	257	13. Concluding Your Examination-in-Chief	272
(a) First-time dock identifications where witness does not know the accused	257	Chapter 12 Cross-Examination	273
(b) First-time identifications where the witness knows the accused	257	1. Preparation for Cross-Examination	273
(c) Dock identification where witness has previously identified the accused	258	(a) Is there any need to cross-examine at all?	273
8. Counsel Should Avoid Questions which are Likely to Have the Effect of Eliciting Testimony that is Inadmissible	258	(b) Define your objectives	275
9. Counsel Should Ensure that Witnesses Do Not Use Expressions that are Improper in Their Evidence-in-Chief	259	(c) Preparation for cross-examination before trial and during examination-in-chief	275
		2. Some Ethical Considerations	276
		3. Application of the Rules of Evidence to Cross-Examination	278
		4. Letting in Unwanted Evidence as a Result of Ill-Considered Cross-Examination	278
		5. The Functions of Cross-Examination	280
		(a) To strengthen your case by eliciting favourable material in support of your case	280
		(b) To destroy or weaken the evidence adduced in favour of your opponent or to discredit the creditworthiness of your opponent and your opponent's witnesses	281

	(c) Putting one's case	304
6.	Techniques of Conducting the Cross-Examination	306
7.	The First Question	308
8.	The Scope of Cross-Examination and Some Questions Not to Ask; a Witness' Privilege from Answering Questions	310
	(a) Cross-examination generally 'at large'	310
	(b) Questions which should not be asked	311
	(c) Privilege from answering a question	314
9.	The Order of Cross-Examination	316
Chapter 13	Re-Examination	317
1.	Introduction	317
2.	The Purposes of Re-Examination	317
	(a) Repairing the damage	318
	(b) Taking advantage of documentary evidence that has now become admissible	318
3.	Preparing for Re-Examination	319
4.	Whether to Re-Examine at All	319
5.	The Rules Governing Re-Examination	320
6.	The Technique of Re-Examination	321
7.	Further Examination by the Bench	322
8.	Concluding Your Re-Examination	322
Chapter 14	Further Evidence Adduced After Close of Case	323
1.	Further Evidence Called by Prosecution After Close of Their Case	323
2.	Further Evidence Called by Parties in Civil Action after the Close of their Cases	327
Chapter 15	Expert Evidence	328
1.	The Admissibility of Expert Evidence	328
	(a) Who is an expert?	329
	(b) The role of the expert	329
	(c) What evidence may the expert give?	330
	(d) The evidence given by the expert witness must fall within a recognised field of expertise	334
2.	Common Areas in Which Expert Evidence is Useful	334
	(a) Medical evidence	334
	(b) Fingerprint evidence	335
	(c) Government Chemist's evidence	336
	(d) Handwriting evidence	337

	(e) Ballistics evidence	339
	(f) Surveyors' and valuers' evidence	339
	(g) Engineers' evidence	339
	(h) Accountants' evidence	340
	(i) Actuarial and other expert evidence in personal injury and fatal accident actions	340
	(j) Evidence of identification from video recording	341
	(k) Proof of foreign law	342
	(l) Membership of a triad society	343
	(m) Gambling cases	344
	(n) Child custody and care cases	344
	(o) Evidence as to the standards applicable to members of a profession	344
	(p) Other situations in which expert evidence has been admitted	345
3.	Appointment of An Expert by the Court	346
4.	Selecting Your Expert and Establishing the Qualifications of the Expert in Court	346
	(a) Counsel's task in establishing the witness as an expert	346
	(b) Matters to look for when selecting your expert	347
5.	Counsel's Conference With the Expert	349
6.	The Form and Content of the Expert's Report	349
7.	Supplementary Report	351
8.	Disclosure of Expert Evidence	352
	(a) Civil litigation	352
	(b) Criminal litigation	353
9.	Opinion and Hearsay in Expert Evidence	354
	(a) Opinion on facts observed by the experts themselves	354
	(b) Opinion on facts admitted or not in dispute	354
	(c) Opinion on facts in dispute based on evidence of others	355
10.	The Role and Duty of the Expert Witness in Testifying Before the Court	355
11.	Examination-in-Chief of Expert Witnesses	357
12.	Are Expert Witnesses Permitted to Express Their Opinion on the Ultimate Issue?	359
13.	Cross-Examination of the Expert Witness	360
	(a) Cross-examination as to qualification and experience	361
	(b) Challenging the witness' knowledge of his subject	361

(c) Challenging the soundness of the expert's opinion	361
(d) Challenging the expert's method of research	362
(e) Putting your case	362
14. The Court is Free to Accept or Reject Expert Opinion Evidence.....	362
15. Legal and Scientific Proof	363
16. Immunity of Expert Witnesses	364
Chapter 16 Submission of No Case to Answer and the Opening Speech for the Defence in Criminal Trials.....	365
1. The Submission of No Case to Answer	365
(a) The test to be applied	366
(b) The test applied in Hong Kong	367
(c) The current situation	368
(d) Procedure for making the submission.....	368
2. The Opening Address for the Defence	368
(a) Entitlement to an opening address	368
(b) Content of the opening address	369
(c) The advantages and disadvantages of making an opening address	369
(d) The equality of arms argument	370
Chapter 17 Submission of No Case to Answer and the Opening Speech for the Defence in Civil Cases	372
1. Submission of No Case to Answer	372
2. The Opening Speech for the Defence	373
Chapter 18 Making Closing Submissions: Some General Principles	375
1. Evidence Comes from the Witnesses Not the Advocate	375
(a) Facts which counsel need not prove	377
2. Counsel Must Never Express Their Own Opinion of the Case Before the Court	380
3. The Manner of Making Submissions	381
(a) Clarity and speed of delivery	381
(b) Comprehensibility	382
(c) Brevity	382
4. Drawing the Court's Attention to Relevant Authorities, Citing Authorities and Quoting from Cases.....	383
(a) Advocate's duty to provide authority	383
(b) Duty to bring to court's attention all relevant authorities	383

(c) List of authorities to be provided to court and opposing party in advance of hearing	384
(d) Selecting the best authorities	384
(e) Citing and quoting from case authorities	385
Chapter 19 Closing Speeches in Criminal Cases	387
1. Is There a Right to a Closing Speech?	387
2. The Contents of the Closing Speech	388
(a) Submissions permissible only where the proper foundations have been laid	388
(b) Submissions on law	389
(c) Submissions on fact and evidence by the prosecution	390
(d) Submissions on fact and evidence by defence counsel	392
3. Effective Technique in Making the Closing Speech	393
(a) Jury trials	393
(b) Trials before a judge alone	395
4. Matters Which Must not be Mentioned in the Closing Address	396
(a) No comment on failure of the accused or his spouse to testify	396
(b) No reference to inadmissible evidence	397
(c) No reference to irrelevant material that might improperly influence the jury	397
5. Interruptions by Opposing Counsel During the Closing Speech	398
Chapter 20 The Duties of Counsel During the Summing-up	399
1. The Function and Content of the Summing-Up and Consultation with Counsel	399
(a) The function and content of the summing-up.....	399
(b) Consultation with counsel as to the contents of the summing-up	400
2. Duty of Counsel to Note What Has Been Said for Appeal Purposes	400
3. The Duty of Counsel to Bring Any Misdirection to the Attention of the Judge	401
(a) The duties of counsel for the prosecution	401
(b) The duties of defence counsel	402
(c) Duty of judge to correct any misdirection	403
Chapter 21 Closing Speeches in Civil Cases	404
1. The Order of Speeches	404
2. The Content of Closing Speeches	405

	(a) The closing speech for the defendant	405
	(b) The closing speech for the plaintiff	406
	(c) The reply	407
Chapter 22	Appellate Advocacy	408
1.	Introduction	408
2.	Preparation and Preliminary Matters	408
	(a) Whether to appeal at all?	408
	(b) Procedural considerations	411
	(c) Pre-hearing appellate procedure and the grounds of appeal	412
	(d) Skeleton arguments	414
	(e) List of authorities	415
	(f) Chronology of events	416
	(g) List of dramatis personae	416
	(h) Legibility of documents	416
3.	Introducing Fresh Evidence on Appeal	417
	(a) Criminal trials	417
	(b) Civil trials	419
	(c) Conclusion	421
4.	Arguing the Appeal	422
	(a) The order of speeches	422
	(b) Issues raised in the Court of Appeal for the first time	422
	(c) Submissions of counsel for the appellant	424
	(d) Submissions of counsel for the respondent	427
	(e) The reply	428
	(f) Interacting with the Bench	429
Chapter 23	Advocacy in the Sentencing Process	431
1.	Establishing the Facts Upon which the Sentence will be Based	431
	(a) The facts established in the trial together with any additional evidence adduced	432
	(b) The facts established by the plea together with any additional evidence adduced	433
	(c) The summary of facts	435
	(d) The antecedent statement	435
	(e) Reports	436
	(f) Evidence in mitigation	437
2.	The Rules of Evidence During the Sentencing Process	437
3.	The Role of Prosecuting Counsel in the Sentencing Process	438
4.	The Role of English and Other Common Law Authorities	439
5.	The Plea in Mitigation	440

	(a) The purpose of the plea	440
	(b) Factors to be considered when making a plea	441
	(c) Preparing for the Plea	450
	(d) Making the Plea	451
	(e) Plea in mitigation following trial	452
6.	Duty of Counsel to Ensure that the Court has Power to Make the Proposed Order	453
7.	Appeals Against Sentence	453
	(a) Some preliminary considerations	453
	(b) Use of case authority in appeals against sentence	454
	(c) The role of the prosecution in appeals against sentence	454
	(d) Grounds for interfering with the sentence and powers of the Court of Appeal	455
Index		461