

Contents

Table of Cases	xi
Table of Legislation and Related Documents	xvii

Part I: The Transnationalisation of Commercial and Financial Law.

The Law Concerning Professional Dealings1

1.1 Introduction1

1.1.1 The Place and Evolution of Modern Commercial and Financial Law in Civil and Common Law. The Concept of Transnationalisation	1
1.1.2 The Transnationalisation of Commercial and Financial Law. Common or Civil Law Approach? Methodology.....	13
1.1.3 The Coverage of Domestic and Transnational Commercial and Financial Law	17
1.1.4 Legal Dynamism as a Key Notion in Transnational Commercial and Financial Law. Law as a Dynamic Concept in Modern Contract and Movable Property	20
1.1.5 Legal Pragmatism at the Transnational Level. Notions of Certainty, Finality and Predictability. The Need to Find Structure, Not System.....	32
1.1.6 Social, Economic, Intellectual or Democratic Legitimacy.....	36
1.1.7 The Traditional Civil and Common Law Notions of Commercial Law. The Notion of Commerciality.....	37
1.1.8 Old and New Commercial and Financial Law. Transnational Notion of Professionalism, a Separate Legal Order for Professional Dealings	43
1.1.9 The Role and Status of International Commercial Arbitration.....	48
1.1.10 International Arbitration and International Commercial Courts	52
1.1.11 Structure of this Volume.....	57

1.2 The Origin of Civil Law. Its Traditional Approach to Law Formation and to the Operation of Private Law especially Commercial and Financial Law58

1.2.1 The Evolution of Modern Private Law and its Sources	58
1.2.2 The Early Developments on the European Continent. Roman Law	60
1.2.3 Classical Roman Law and the Corpus Iuris Civilis	63
1.2.4 The Revival of Roman Law in Western Europe: The Ius Commune	67
1.2.5 The Ius Commune and its Relationship to Local Law, Including Newer Commercial Law	70
1.2.6 The Early Evolution of the Notion of Natural Law in Europe.....	74
1.2.7 The Emergence of the Secular Natural Law School: Grotius's De Iure Belli ac Pacis , its Approach and Impact	77

1.2.8	The Status of State Law in the Philosophies of Grotius, Hobbes, Locke, Kant and Hegel. The Impact of the Age of Enlightenment and the Road to Codification of Private Law in France	81
1.2.9	The German Historical and Romantic Schools. German Idealism and the Road to Private Law Codification in Germany	86
1.2.10	The Civil Law National Codifications and their Coverage.....	94
1.2.11	Nationalism and System Thinking. The Question of the Continued Relevance of the Civil Law Codification Idea	97
1.2.12	Modern Policy Arguments in Favour of a Statist and Static Attitude towards the Formation of Private Law. Deficiency in System Thinking. Misunderstandings concerning Democratic Legitimacy and Certainty	101
1.2.13	Interpretation and System Thinking in Civil Law: Begriffs- and Interessenjurisprudenz . Modern Hermeneutics	104
1.3	The Origin and Evolution of the Common Law. Its Approach to Law Formation and to the Operation of Private Law	108
1.3.1	Common Law and Equity	108
1.3.2	The Common Law Approach to Scholarship.....	114
1.3.3	The Common Law Approach to Precedent, Legislation or Codification, and Statutory Interpretation	116
1.3.4	Intellectualisation and Conceptualisation in Common Law. Modern American Academic Attitudes towards the Law and its Development: Legal Formalism and Realism.....	122
1.3.5	Post-realism or Legal Functionalism in the US: The ‘Law and ...’ Movements	128
1.3.6	The Progress So Far	133
1.3.7	The Quest for Modernity, the Problems in the Post Modern Era and the Effects on Law Formation and Operation	138
1.4	The Sources of Law in the Civil and Common Law Tradition. The Approach in Transnational Private Law and the Hierarchy of Sources of Law and their Norms in the Modern Lex Mercatoria	142
1.4.1	Statutory and Other Sources of Law. Nationalism and System Thinking in Civil and Common Law.....	142
1.4.2	Fact- and Law-finding in Civil and Common Law.....	146
1.4.3	The Revival of the Traditional Sources of Law through Liberal Interpretation Techniques	149
1.4.4	Survival of Transnational Legal Sources in Commercial Law. EU and Public International Law Attitudes	153
1.4.5	Autonomous Legal Sources: Fundamental Principle.....	156
1.4.6	Autonomous Legal Sources: General Principle.....	160
1.4.7	Autonomous Legal Sources: Custom and Practices.....	162
1.4.8	The Competition between Custom and Statutory or Treaty Law.....	168
1.4.9	Autonomous Legal Sources: Party Autonomy.....	170
1.4.10	Autonomous Legal Sources: Treaty Law.....	171

1.4.11	Uniform Law and Private International Law	173
1.4.12	Domestic Laws as Autonomous Source of Transnational Law	175
1.4.13	The Hierarchy of the Sources of Law in Modern International Commercial and Financial Law.....	175
1.4.14	The Concept of Natural Law and the Legal Status and Force of Fundamental and General Principle in the Modern Lex Mercatoria	180
1.4.15	An End to the Confining Views of Legal Positivism, Formalism, and Nationalism in the Professional Sphere	184
1.4.16	Dispute Prevention or Dispute Resolution? Law in Action or Law in Litigation	189
1.4.17	The Role of National Courts and of International Commercial Arbitration	190
1.4.18	Agents of International Convergence and Harmonisation: The Role of UNIDROIT, UNCITRAL, the ICC, The Hague Conference, the EU, and the American Law Institute and Commissioners on Uniform State Laws in the USA.	193
1.4.19	EU Attempts at Harmonising Private Law	196
1.5	Cultural, Sociological and Economic Undercurrents in the Formation of Transnational Commercial and Financial Law (Modern Lex Mercatoria). Different Legal Orders, their Manifestation, and the Competition between Them	206
1.5.1	The Concept of Legal Orders	206
1.5.2	Law as Cultural Phenomenon.....	209
1.5.3	Law as a Political Organizational Tool. The Importance of Diversity, Group Autonomy, Democracy, Rule of Law, and Human Rights	213
1.5.4	The Revival of Legal Universalism in Professional Private Law.....	216
1.5.5	Sociological and Economic Considerations in the Law	220
1.5.6	The Formation of Non-Statist Law in Modern Social and Economic Theory	224
1.5.7	The Competition between Transnational Law and Mandatory State Laws or National Public Policies and Public Order Requirements	227
1.5.8	The Twentieth-Century Dominance of Statist Legal Orders and the Effect of Globalisation.....	231
1.5.9	The Operation of Different Legal Orders in Private Law: Evolution of a US Federal Commercial Law, of Transnational Private Law Concepts in the EU, and of International Human Rights Law in the Council of Europe (European Court of Human Rights)	237
1.5.10	The International Commercial and Financial Legal Order and its Relevance: The Role of Legal Theory, Legal History and Comparative Law.....	241

Part II: The Nature, Status and Function of Private International Law	249
2.1 Modern Private International Law.....	249
2.1.1 The Underlying Concept of Modern Private International Law.....	249
2.1.2 Earlier Approaches	254
2.1.3 Drawbacks of the Modern Conflicts Rules.....	256
2.2 The Modern European and US Approaches to Conflicts of Law.....	261
2.2.1 Refinement of the European Model	261
2.2.2 Developments in the USA	262
2.2.3 The Various Modern US Conflict Theories.....	265
2.2.4 The European Approach of Exception Clauses: Reasonable and Fair Solutions in the Dutch Proposals.....	268
2.2.5 The Role of Practitioners. Emphasis on the Facts rather than on the Rules: The Nature of the Relationship of the Parties and the Nature of the Transaction Distinguished. The Effects of Transnationalisation.....	271
2.2.6 The Issue of Public Policy or Governmental Interests and its Impact. The Notion of Comity and its Application. Competition between Transnational and State Laws Revisited.....	274
2.2.7 States as Counterparties de Iure Imperii	279
2.2.8 Practical Issues Concerning Conflicting Public Policies: Effect on the Lex Mercatoria and the Importance of the Notion of Forum non Conveniens	282
2.2.9 Party Autonomy and Contractual Choice of Law.....	286
2.3 Interaction of Private International Law and Uniform Law	290
2.3.1 Private International Law and the Application of Uniform Law	290
2.3.2 The Situation with Regard to EU Directives of a Private Law Nature.....	291
 Part III: The Operation and Substance of Transnational Commercial and Financial Law or the Modern Lex Mercatoria	 295
3.1 The Lex Mercatoria , Interrelation with Private International Law, Legitimation.....	295
3.1.1 The Background to the Revival of the Lex Mercatoria	295
3.1.2 The Concept of the Modern Lex Mercatoria as a Hierarchy of Norms.....	298
3.1.3 The Major Protagonists of the Lex Mercatoria and their Views: Legitimation	305
3.2 The Hierarchy of Norms: Elaboration.....	307
3.2.1 Fundamental Legal Principle. Transnational Rules of Contract Formation and the Normative Interpretation Technique	307
3.2.2 Fundamental Principle. The Notion of Transnational Ownership. A Dynamic System of Modern Movable Proprietary Rights.....	311

3.2.3 Eurobonds and Analogous Transnational Proprietary Structures. Fundamental Principle and Custom Support	316
3.2.4 Fundamental Principle in Procedural Matters.....	319
3.2.5 Mandatory Custom and Practices.....	319
3.2.6 Mandatory Uniform Treaty Law, Contractual Provisions (Party Autonomy), Directory Trade Practices, Directory Uniform Treaty Law and Common or General Legal Principles	322
3.2.7 Domestic Laws, Private International Law: Mandatory Provisions and Public Policy or Regulatory Issues.....	326
3.3 Operation of the Lex Mercatoria . Objections.....	328
3.3.1 Operation of the Lex Mercatoria and Direct References to it.....	328
3.3.2 Objections to the Lex Mercatoria Approach.....	332
3.3.3 Application and Enforcement of the Lex Mercatoria	334
Index	337

<http://www.pbookshop.com>