

Law, Felicia Ong and Kelvin Seet for their help too. Brendan, Gopal and Kelvin took the heaviest loads. In particular, Gopal was helpful in leading us back to the right path when we got lost in the legal forest on a few occasions.

My appreciation also goes to Miss Noelle Mok, my personal assistant, and Miss Molly Siew, Siew Cheang's secretary, for their tireless efforts in helping to organise the many drafts of this book.

Finally and importantly, it is very dear to me that Lord Hoffmann has most kindly written the foreword to this book.

William MF Wong
Des Vouex Chambers
Hong Kong

William MF Wong
Des Vouex Chambers
Hong Kong

Debts originating from human kindness can hardly be repaid. Its value cannot be measured and the givers do not expect repayment. But I never take them for granted.

Within Chambers, I am most grateful to John Griffiths SC, CMG, QC for his leadership and unparalleled generosity. His caring for juniors in Chambers is exemplary. He is the leader who taught me to reflect on how one can conduct or present a case better after each hearing or trial in court. My thanks also go to John Scott SC who steered me into this fascinating area of practice. I also benefited and continue to benefit from a good tradition in Chambers - vigorous discussions on points of law. In particular, I am grateful to my pupil master, Chun Hoek SC, Daniel Fung SC, Clifford Smith SC, Charles Sussler SC, Albert Liang, Lisa Jane Cruden, Jonathan Harris, Lawrence Ng, David Tsang, Patrick Chong, Anson Wong, Jose Mandler and Johnny Ma for their many spontaneous and intellectual dialogues.

Outside Chambers, I am thankful for Warren Chan SC's fatherly encouragement and advice (career and health). I also wish to thank Albert Tsang, a first class lawyer and my good friend, Alexander Leung and Melissa Pang. They have greatly assisted me in many corporate litigation in the last two years. I benefited from their legal knowledge and professional attitude in handling cases. I must also mention Ronald Fong and Colin Cohen. They are good hearted people and lawyers with abundance of commercial sense.

Siew Cheung joins me in thanking a team of lawyers from the Malaysian Bar for helping us proof read the manuscript. They are Abdullah Rahman, Abdul Farid Haniffa, Hamid, Brendan Siew, Brian Fong, Carolyn Chow, Gopal Sreenivasan, Isaac Foh, Joey Koh, Rajashree Sushila, Shabana Omar and Yen Soo Ching. We also thank Eddie

Part IV

Transparency: concepts and rules

14. Interest in shares and short position ..... 701

15. Disclosure of interest in shares, etc. .... 738

16. Disclosure of directors' interests ..... 759

17. Information for decision-making: the general meeting ..... 769

Summary of contents

Part V

Foreword ..... vii

Preface ..... ix

Acknowledgements ..... ix

Table of contents ..... xvii

Table of cases ..... lvii

Table of legislation ..... cxi

Part I

Nature, structure and powers

1. The corporate person ..... 1

2. The constitutional structure ..... 42

3. The administrative structure ..... 97

4. Power of the corporate person ..... 139

5. Organisation of powers ..... 157

6. Powers and third parties ..... 193

Part II

Accountability: exercise of powers

7. Exercise of directors' powers: rights and limitations ..... 237

8. Exercise of powers by the majority: rights and limitations ... 320

9. Statutory limitation: unfair prejudice ..... 359

10. Equitable restraints on powers ..... 517

Part III

Accountability: personal conduct

11. Quality control: care, skill and diligence ..... 574

12. Integrity control: profiteering & self-dealings ..... 622

13. Connected party transactions ..... 667

3.1.1	Functions of objects clause	46
3.1.2	Constructions of objects clause	46
3.2	Independent object clause	46
3.3	Subjective object clause	49
3.4	Objects and powers distinguished	49
3.5	Objects clause, ultra vires and abuse of powers	50
3.6	Alteration of the memorandum of association	52
4.	The articles of association	52
4.1	No terms offending Ordinance	53
4.2	Effect of exceptio personalis on articles	54
4.2.1	'Own interests'	55
4.2.2	Nature of statutory provisions	56
4.2.2.1	Absolute statutory provisions	56
4.2.2.2	Permissive statutory provisions	60
4.3	Attributes of an exceptio personalis	64
4.4	Legal status of articles	65
4.5	Extent of contractual status	65
4.6	Articles generally exhaustive of rights	66
4.7	No rectification of articles	67
4.8	Articles may be altered	68
4.9	Articles bind members only	68
4.10	Implying terms	68
4.11	Superimposition of equity over articles	69
5.	Basic clauses in articles	70
5.1	Powers vesting clauses	70
5.2	Delegating powers clauses	71
5.3	No conflict clauses	72
5.4	Voting right clauses	72
5.5	Share transfer clauses	74
5.6	Pre-emptive right clause	76
5.7	Dividend clause	76
5.8	Surplus distribution clause	77
5.9	Modification of rights clause	79
5.10	Share issue clauses	79
5.10.1	Nature of shares	80
5.10.2	Purposes for which shares may be issued	81
5.10.3	Consideration for shares	82
5.10.3.1	Consideration payable in full	82
5.10.3.2	Consideration in money's worth	83
5.10.3.3	Adequacy of consideration	84
5.10.4	Issue of shares at a premium	86
6.	Alteration of articles	87
6.1	Whether alterations have retrospective effect	88

6.2	Statutory limitations on power of alteration	90
6.2.1	Alteration affecting class rights	90
6.2.2	Meaning of 'class' and 'class rights'	91
6.2.3	What constitutes 'variation'	92
6.2.4	No unfairly prejudicial alteration	95
6.3	Common law limitations on power of alteration	95
Chapter 3
The administrative structure
1.	Introduction	97
2.	Directors and the board generally	98
2.1	Legal characterisation of directors	99
2.2	Position of alternate directors	99
2.3	Position of nominee directors	100
2.4	No indemnification for negligence, etc.	102
2.5	Director as secretary	103
3.	Directors' powers generally	103
3.1	Powers exercisable collectively	104
3.2	Sub-delegation of powers	105
3.3	No fetter of discretion	106
3.4	Acts of directors	108
3.4.1	Defective appointment, valid acts	109
3.4.2	Excess of powers, invalid acts	109
4.	Individual rights of directors	109
4.1	Inspection of financial records: common law or statutory right	110
4.1.1	Nature of the right	113
4.1.2	Loss of right	114
4.2	Participation in management	114
4.3	Dismissal: right to be heard, etc.	115
5.	Appointment of director	115
5.1	Requirements: the Ordinance	116
5.2	Requirements: Listing Rules	116
5.3	Restriction on number of directorships	116
6.	Tenure of office of director	117
6.1	Resignation	118
6.2	Retirement by rotation	120
6.3	Automatic vacation of office	120
6.4	Removal under the articles	121
6.4.1	Removal prior to expiration of term	121
6.4.2	Matter of internal management	122
6.5	Statutory power of removal	123
6.5.1	Removal does not affect contractual rights	123

6.6	'Suspension' of office	125
7	Remuneration, quantum meruit and equitable allowance	126
8	The members: the legislative scheme	127
8.1	General legal position of members	128
8.2	Separation of ownership from management	129
8.3	Relationship with directors: special facts doctrine	130
8.4	Relationship: majority and minority members	134
8.5	Right to inspect documents	136
8.6	Ratification of directors' wrongdoings	138

Chapter 4

The powers of the corporate person

1	Introduction	139
2	Classification of powers	140
2.1	Constitutional powers	140
2.1.1	Power to pursue objects	141
2.1.2	Power to govern domestic affairs	141
2.2	Statutory powers	142
2.2.1	General enabling statutory powers	142
2.2.2	Specific enabling statutory powers	142
2.2.3	Statutory administrative powers	144
2.3	Incidental or implied powers	145
2.3.1	When powers will not be implied	145
3	Delegation of corporate powers	146
3.1	The delegation process	147
3.2	Primary delegation of powers	148
3.3	Secondary delegation of powers	148
4	Corporate powers and the attribution theory	150
4.1	Primary rules of attribution	150
4.2	General rules of attribution	151
5	Nature and extent of powers	152
5.1	The ultra vires doctrine	152
5.2	No powers beyond Ordinance and constitution	152
5.3	No powers inconsistent with Ordinance	155

Chapter 5

Organisation of powers of management

1	Introduction	157
2	The board and general meeting	158
2.1	Within the board and between members	158
3	Consequence of division of power	159
3.1	No usurpation of powers	160
3.2	No interference with how powers to be exercised	161

4	Sources of powers and dividing instruments	162
4.1	Articles of association	163
4.1.1	Powers vested in board	164
4.1.2	General power of management	165
4.1.3	Powers vested in general meeting	165
4.2	Companies Ordinance (Cap. 32)	166
4.2.1	Powers vested in board	166
4.2.2	Powers vested in general meeting	166
4.3	The Listing Agreement and Listing Rules	168
4.3.1	Acquisitions and realisations	168
4.3.2	Dilution of equity interests	169
4.3.3	Dilution of equity interest in major subsidiary	169
4.3.4	Directors' service contract	169
4.3.5	Rights issue and open offers	170
4.3.6	Acquisitions and qualified accountants' report	170
4.3.7	Connected transactions	170
4.3.8	Diversification of net assets	170
4.3.9	Repurchase of shares on the exchange	170
4.3.10	New warrants to existing warrant holders	171
4.4	Codes on Takeovers and Mergers and Share Repurchases	171
5	Issues arising from division of powers under articles	172
5.1	Question of construction	172
5.2	Clear language to exclude shareholders' inherent powers	173
6	Construction of article 82, Table A	174
6.1	Meaning of 'business of the company'	174
6.2	General power is subject to the articles	176
6.3	Directors can exercise company's general power	179
6.4	Meaning of 'subject to regulations... prescribed in general meeting'	180
7	Autonomous nature of divided powers	181
8	Management breakdown: residual power of shareholders	186
8.1	Directors unwilling to act	186
8.2	Directors unable to act	187
8.3	No directors	187
9	Concurrent powers	188
10	Control over corporate litigation	189

Chapter 6
Corporate powers and third parties
1. Introduction	193
2. The content of the problem	194
2.1 Development of principles	195
2.2 Indoor management rule and ostensible authority	197
2.3 Statutory reforms	198
3. The 'indoor management' rule	199
3.1 Extent of 'indoor management' rule	200
3.2 Application of the 'indoor management' rule	202
3.2.1 Absence of formal authorisation	202
3.2.2 Irregular authorisation	203
3.2.3 Irregular or defective appointments	204
4. When 'indoor management' rule inapplicable	205
4.1 Known irregularities	205
4.2 Change in mandate, no inquiry	206
4.3 Affixation of seal, apparent irregularities	207
4.4 Extraordinary or unusual transactions	209
4.5 Forged documents	210
5. The authority of agents	211
5.1 Actual authority	212
5.2 Ostensible authority	214
5.2.1 Ostensible specific authority	215
5.2.2 Ostensible authority to communicate	216
5.2.3 Approval	216
5.3 Usual authority	218
5.3.1 Usual authority of secretaries	220
5.3.2 Usual authority of managing director	221
5.3.3 Usual authority of managers	221
6. Establishing ostensible authority	221
6.1 The conditions	222
6.2 Representation by persons with actual authority	223
6.3 The forms of representation	225
6.4 No self-representations	227
7. When doctrine of ostensible authority not available	227
7.1 No inquiry when authority is doubted	228
7.2 No inquiry when facts suggest abuse of powers	229
8. Extent of inquiry and degree of diligence	230
8.1 Futile inquiry is no defence	231
8.2 Doubtful existence of authority	232
8.3 Abuse of powers	232
9. Ostensible authority and excess of powers	234

Part II	Accountability: exercise of powers
Chapter 7	The exercise of powers by directors: rights and limitations
1. Introduction		237
2. Formulation of rights and limitations		238
2.1 The basis of directors' accountability		238
2.1.1 Accountability to express internal rules		238
2.1.2 Accountability to implied rules		239
2.2 Directors' rights		240
2.3 Directors' limitations: express and implied		240
2.4 Breach of implied limitations: question of fact		241
2.5 Fiduciary principles		242
3. The express limitations		243
3.1 Formal requirements prescribed by articles		243
3.1.1 Duly convened and constituted meeting		244
3.1.2 Circular resolutions		244
3.2 Manner prescribed by articles		244
3.3 Grounds prescribed by articles		245
4. The implied limitations generally		246
4.1 Bona fide in the company's interests		247
4.1.1 Bona fides not the sole test		247
4.1.2 The judiciary and directors' bona fide views		248
4.2 No collateral purpose		249
4.3 Effect of articles on implied limitations		250
4.3.1 Purpose of power not objectively ascertainable		251
4.3.2 Purpose of power objectively ascertainable		255
5. Meaning of ' bona fide '		257
5.1 Grave personal indiscretion		257
5.2 Independent judgment or discretion required		258
5.2.1 Reliance on others and independent judgment		261
5.3 Disqualifying factor: conflict of interests		261
6. Meaning of 'interests of the company as a whole'		263
6.1 Interests of the company as an entity		265
6.2 Interests of current shareholders		265
6.3 Interests of future shareholders		266
6.4 Interests of employees		266
6.5 Interests of creditors		267
6.6 Company's interests vs. group interests		269

8.1	Allotment of shares for collateral purpose	350
8.2	No conflict rule and misappropriation of assets	354
8.3	Misapplication of assets of insolvent companies	355
8.4	Negligence	355
8.5	Discontinuance of actions injuring others	356
Chapter 9
Statutory limitations on exercise of powers: unfair prejudice
1.0	Introduction	359
2.0	Background	360
2.1	Restatement of 'oppressive' conduct	361
2.1.1	'Oppressive' too strong a description	361
2.1.2	An isolated act is sufficient for remedy	362
2.2	'Fairness' as the criterion	363
2.3	Statutory reforms	363
2.4	Comparative legislation	364
3.0	An overview of s168A	367
3.1	Liberal and purposive construction	367
3.2	Effect on majority rule principle	369
3.3	Fairness and internal management	370
3.4	No narrow legalistic approach	374
3.5	Application of equitable principles	376
3.5.1	Hong Kong authorities	377
3.5.2	English authorities	378
3.5.3	Authorities from other jurisdiction	379
3.6	Focus on effect of conduct	380
3.6.1	Accomplished acts, continuing adverse effects	380
3.6.2	Motives, etc., generally irrelevant	381
3.7	Unfair prejudice and majority shareholders	382
3.7.1	Construction	383
3.7.2	Commercial reality	383
3.7.3	Unfairly prejudiced majority and self help	384
3.7.4	An Australian view	385
3.8	Isolated acts and series of acts	385
3.9	Threatened acts	387
4.0	'Affairs', 'interests' and 'prejudice'	389
4.1	Meanings of 'affairs'	389
4.2	Meaning of 'interests'	392
4.2.1	Value of shares	392
4.2.2	Best price in takeover	393
4.2.3	Categories of interests not closed	394
4.3	Meaning of 'prejudice'	394

5.0	The concept of 'fairness'	395
5.1	The judicial content of fairness	395
5.2	'Fairness' in context	396
5.2.1	The first context: keeping bargains	399
5.2.2	The second context: fiduciary duties	400
5.2.3	The third context: equitable bargains	403
5.2.4	The fourth context	407
6.0	Assessing 'unfairness'	409
6.1	Character of company	409
6.1.1	Ebrahim type of companies	410
6.1.2	Family companies	411
6.2	The basis: commercial unfairness	412
6.2.1	Commercial 'fairness' in family companies	412
6.3	The standard to judge unfairness	416
6.3.1	The 'reasonable bystander'	417
6.4	Voluntary governance rules	418
6.5	Relevance of culpability, etc.	418
6.6	Equal treatment, unfair conduct	420
6.7	Unequal treatment, fair conduct	423
7.0	Complaints within s168A	423
7.1	Autocratic conduct	424
7.2	Destroying business of subsidiary	425
7.3	Appropriation or diversion of corporate assets	425
7.4	Failure to pay dividends or fair dividends	428
7.4.1	Squeezing the minority	429
7.4.2	Perpetrating improper purpose	431
7.5	Expropriating minority shareholders' property	432
7.6	Serious mismanagement	433
7.7	Failure to hold general meeting	435
7.8	Breaches of expectations in equity	437
7.8.1	Exclusion from management	437
7.8.2	Means of exclusion	488
7.8.3	Justifiable exclusion	439
7.9	Impairment or denial of voting rights	440
7.9.1	Alteration of voting rights	440
7.9.2	Tactics to secure uninformed votes	440
7.9.3	Temporary restraint by judicial means	441
7.10	Issue of shares for improper purpose	444
7.11	Conduct justifying winding up	445
7.12	Denial of access to information	445
7.13	Excessive directors' remuneration	446
7.14	Lack of transparency and self interests	448
7.15	Using company's funds to defend petition	450

7.16	Legitimate queries, dismissive conduct	450
7.17	Charging private expense to company's account	451
8	Complaints outside s168A	452
8.1	'Interests' foreign to membership	453
8.2	Conduct in private capacity	454
8.3	Disagreeable business judgments or policies	455
8.3.1	Impossibility in achieving business intention	456
8.3.2	Questionable business strategy	456
8.3.3	Wrong or questionable business judgments	457
8.3.4	Insufficient consideration to details	459
8.3.5	Doubtful expenditure	460
8.3.6	Conservative policies or management	460
8.4	Mere resentment against majority rule	460
8.5	Managerial shortcomings	462
8.6	Refusal to buy out locked-in minority's shares	463
9	Interlocutory injunctions	464
9.1	'Serious question' to be tried	465
9.2	'Adequacy of damages' rule	468
9.3	'Status quo' rule	469
10	Remedies	470
10.1	Alteration of articles	472
10.2	Winding up	473
10.3	Restricting directors' powers and altering board composition	474
10.4	Appointment of receivers and managers	474
10.4.1	Delay in making application	475
10.4.2	Assets in jeopardy and quality of evidence	476
10.5	Purchase of shares and valuation	480
10.5.1	Method of valuation	482
10.5.2	Adverse effects of conduct complained of	483
10.5.3	No unfair gains to petitioner	484
10.5.4	Date for valuation	486
10.5.5	Relevance of state of economy	488
10.5.6	Discount for minority holding	489
10.5.7	Compensation and interest equivalent	491
10.6	Restriction of excessive remuneration	493
10.7	Restitution, compensation or damages	493
11	Practice	493
11.1	Who can petition	494
11.1.1	Trustee member	494
11.1.2	Judicial activism	495
11.2	Company as respondent	498

11.3	Who should be made respondents	499
11.4	Parties answerable in damages	500
11.5	Contents of petition	500
11.6	Combined winding up petition	502
11.7	Costs	502
11.8	Delay	503
11.9	Petitioner's misconduct	503
11.10	Alternative remedy and striking out	504
11.10.1	Remedy under the articles	505
11.10.2	Open offers	506
11.10.3	Basic contents of 'reasonable offer'	508
11.10.4	Unreasonable refusal	509
11.10.5	Reasonable refusal	510
11.10.6	Competing offers	512
12	The 'who should leave' principle	513
12.1	Distinguished from 'exit at will'	514
Chapter 10
Equitable restraints on powers
1	Introduction	517
2	Completeness of the corporate structure	518
2.1	The influence of equity	518
2.2	Room for equitable bargains	520
2.3	Common understandings	521
3	Partnership companies	523
3.1	General characteristics	525
3.2	The judicial content	526
3.2.1	Substance of the judicial content	527
3.2.2	Promises not required	529
3.3	The factual content	529
3.3.1	Structural considerations	532
3.3.2	Shares as a gift	536
3.3.3	Details of facts	538
3.3.4	Hong Kong, Singapore and Malaysia	540
3.3.5	England and South Africa	542
3.3.6	Australia, New Zealand and Canada	543
3.4	What expectations in equity	544
3.4.1	Claimed equity must be specifically proved	546
3.5	Partnership status may change or evolve	547
4	Rise and fall of 'legitimate expectation'	547
4.1	Before O'Neill v Phillips	548
4.2	After O'Neill v Phillips	551

4.3	Beyond O' Neill v Phillips .....	552
5	Limits to equitable intervention.....	552
5.1	Loss of 'partnership' status.....	552
5.1.1	Change in structure.....	552
5.1.2	Cessation of understandings or agreements.....	554
5.2	Public companies.....	556
5.3	No partnership with the State.....	558
5.4	Loss of equitable expectations.....	558
5.4.1	Expectations not set in stone.....	558
5.4.2	Just exclusion from management.....	559
5.4.3	Abandoning management.....	561
6	Practice.....	561
6.1	Supporting evidence.....	563
6.1.1	Judicial inference from facts.....	564
6.1.2	Shareholders' agreement.....	567
6.2	Allegations of equitable expectations.....	568
6.3	Striking out.....	569
6.3.1	Realistic approach.....	570
6.3.2	Scrutinising documentary evidence.....	571
6.3.3	Scrutinising evidence supporting expectations.....	573
Part III Accountability: personal conduct
Chapter 11
Quality control: care, skill and diligence
1.	Introduction.....	574
2.	An overview.....	575
2.1	Basis of accountability.....	578
2.2	Just negligence, not gross negligence.....	582
2.3	Re City Equitable Fire Insurance Company Limited .....	583
2.3.1	Reasonable care.....	584
2.3.2	Skill.....	585
2.3.3	Diligence.....	585
2.3.4	Delegation and reliance.....	586
2.4	After Re City Equitable Fire Insurance .....	587
2.5	Assessment of negligence.....	590
2.5.1	Executive and non-executive directors.....	590
2.5.2	The chairman.....	592
3.	Application of principles.....	593
3.1	Signing of cheques.....	595

3.2	Read the financial reports.....	597
3.3	Annual accounts and report.....	599
3.4	Acquisitions.....	601
3.5	Signing guarantees.....	602
3.6	CEO and information flow.....	603
4	Delegation.....	603
4.1	Overall responsibility not delegable.....	605
4.2	Delegation and trust.....	606
4.3	Supervision.....	607
5.	Code of Best Practice.....	610
5.1	Full board meetings.....	612
5.2	Agenda and board papers.....	614
5.3	Minutes of board meetings.....	614
5.4	Independent non-executive directors.....	615
5.5	Audit committee.....	617
6	Proposed voluntary governance reforms.....	618
6.1	Governance committees.....	618
6.2	Segregation of roles: Chairman and CEO.....	618
6.3	Role of non-executive directors.....	620
Chapter 12
Integrity control: Profiteering and self-dealings
1.	Introduction.....	622
2.	Self-dealings and profiteering.....	623
2.1	Self-dealing vs. profiteering.....	625
2.2	Disability or duty.....	627
2.2.1	Relevance of the distinction.....	629
2.3	Disclosure: Effects and consequences.....	632
2.3.1	Disclosable interest and test.....	633
2.3.2	Realistic assessment.....	633
2.3.3	Degree of disclosure.....	635
2.3.4	Effect of disclosure.....	635
3.	Usurping corporate opportunities.....	635
3.1	Nexus between opportunity and position.....	636
3.2	What constitutes corporate property.....	639
3.2.1	Maturing business opportunity.....	640
3.3	Company's inability.....	642
3.4	Director resigning.....	644
3.5	Company rejects opportunity.....	648
3.6	Revisiting a controversy.....	649
4.	Commissions and bribes.....	651
5.	Remedies.....	651
5.1	Accounting for secret profits.....	652

5.2	Compensation	654
5.3	Recovery from third parties	654
5.3.1	Accessory liability	655
5.3.1.1	Test for 'dishonesty'	656
5.3.2	'Knowing receipt' liability	664
5.4	Rescission of contract	665
6.0	Self-dealings	666
Chapter 13
Connected transactions
1.1	Introduction	667
2.1	Connected transactions: the Ordinance	668
2.1	Section 162: Contracts or proposed contracts	668
2.1.1	Material interest	669
2.1.2	Significant contract	669
2.2	Proposed reformation of s162	669
2.2.1	'Arrangement' and 'transaction'	670
2.2.2	Connected persons	672
2.2.3	Interested director's disability	672
2.2.4	Shareholders' protection	673
2.2.5	Substantial property transactions	674
3.	Compensation payments	674
3.1	The statutory provisions and their differences	675
3.2	Meaning of 'compensation'	678
3.2.1	Payment in kind	678
3.2.2	Covenanted and uncovenanted payments	678
3.2.3	Pension, superannuation allowance, etc.	680
3.3	Tracing unlawful compensation payments	682
3.4	Controlling multiple payments	685
4.	Financial assistance to directors and connected persons	684
4.1	What 'financial assistance'	685
4.2	The prohibitions	686
4.2.1	Meaning of 'controlling interest'	686
4.3	Connected persons included	687
4.4	The statutory exceptions	687
4.4.1	Financial assistance within 'group companies'	688
4.4.2	Expenditure to perform duties	689
4.4.3	Purchase of residence and improvements	689
4.4.4	Ordinary business to give financial assistance	690
4.5	Breach of s157H(2), consequences	690
4.5.1	Civil consequences	691

4.5.1.1	Recoverability of loans	692
4.5.1.2	Enforceability of guarantee or security	692
4.5.1.3	Directors' liability	692
4.5.2	Criminal penalties	693
5.1	Connected transactions: Listing Rules	693
5.1	What are 'connected transactions'	693
5.1.1	Meaning of 'transaction'	694
5.2	Who are 'connected persons'	695
5.2.1	Family members and relatives	695
5.2.2	Substantial shareholder	695
5.2.3	Associates	696
5.2.4	Controlling shareholder	697
5.3	Basic rules governing connected transactions	697
5.4	Waiver of applicable rules	698
5.5	Recurring connected transactions	698
5.6	Contents of shareholders' circular when required	699
Part IV Transparency concepts and rules
Chapter 14
Interest in shares and short position
1.	Introduction	701
2.	The traditional policy and shortcomings	702
2.1	Supplementing the traditional policy	703
2.2	Obligations, not rights created	704
2.3	Private relationship unaffected	705
2.4	The statutory purpose	705
3.	The statutory framework	706
3.1	Corporate outsiders and insiders	706
3.2	The underlying statutory content	708
3.3	Statutory parameters	708
3.3.1	Relevant share capital	709
3.3.2	Equity derivatives	709
3.3.3	Underlying shares	710
3.3.4	Short position	710
3.3.5	Suspension of voting rights	712
3.3.6	Joint interest or short position	712
3.3.7	Identity of shares	712
4.	Excluded interests and short positions	713
4.1	Table of excluded interest and short position	713
4.2	Trust property	714
4.2.1	Bare trustee	715

3.4	Disclosure to general meeting	768
3.5	Effect of disclosure on duties	771
4.	Directors' interests: the articles	771
4.1	Abrogation and modification under articles	772
4.1.1	Common conditions imposed under articles	773
4.1.2	Articles of listed companies	774
4.2	Sufficiency of disclosure to board	774
5.	Directors' interest: the Ordinance	774
5.1	Disclosure of interests in contracts	775
5.1.1	Meaning of 'material'	776
5.1.2	Time to disclose material interest	777
5.1.3	How interests are to be declared	777
5.1.4	Standard of disclosure	781
5.1.5	Effect of general notice of disclosure	783
5.1.6	Insufficient to disclose to board alone	784
5.1.7	Consequences of non-disclosure of interests in contracts	785
5.2	Disclosure of interests in management contracts	786
5.3	Disclosure of other directorships	786
5.4	Disclosure of loans, etc.	787
5.5	Disclosure of emoluments, etc.	788
5.5.1	Emoluments	788
5.5.2	Pensions	788
5.5.3	Compensation payments	789
6.	Directors' interests: the regulatory model	789
6.1	Connected transactions involving directors' interests	789
6.1.1	Disclosure by press notice and reporting	790
6.1.2	Disclosure by circular	791
6.2	Dealings in securities: 'black out' period	791
6.2.1	Disclosure of dealings during 'black out' period	792
6.2.2	Proposals for reforms	792
6.3	Interests in securities, etc.: SFO	793
6.3.1	Interests, etc., broadly defined	793
6.3.2	Events giving rise to duty	794
6.3.3	Specific events attracting duty	794
6.4	Notification by and to whom	796
6.4.1	When disclosure must be made	796
6.4.2	Knowledge and unawareness	797
7.	Keeping of register	797
7.1	Particulars to be recorded	798

7.2	Right to inspect register, etc.	798
7.3	Removal of entries	798
Chapter 17
Information for decision-making: the general meeting
17.1	Introduction	799
17.2	Sources of duty	800
17.2.1	Common law and equity	802
17.2.2	Articles of association	803
17.2.3	The Ordinance	803
17.2.4	The Listing Rules	804
17.3	Content of the duty	805
17.3.1	Underlying considerations	806
17.3.1.1	Contract analogy	806
17.3.1.2	Fair play	808
17.3.1.3	Unequal access	808
17.3.2	Sufficient notice and information	810
17.3.2.1	Ordinary and special business	811
17.3.3	Sufficient time to peruse	813
17.3.4	Sectional interests excluded	814
17.3.5	Continuing obligation	815
17.4	Disclosure standards	815
17.4.1	Compliance with Listing Rules insufficient	815
17.4.2	No tactical 'hiding'	816
17.4.2.1	Telling 'half truth'	816
17.4.2.2	The 'buried facts' doctrine	818
17.4.2.3	Explanation at meeting	821
17.4.2.4	Where information available for inspection does not absolve duty	822
17.4.3	Frank disclosure of personal interests	823
17.4.4	No information overload	825
17.4.5	Explain choices	827
17.4.6	Highlight 'gains' and 'losses'	829
17.4.7	Disclose professional advice	832
17.5	Beneficiaries of duty	833
17.5.1	Absent shareholder	833
17.5.2	Present shareholder	835
17.6	Test	836
17.6.1	Shareholder of ordinary prudence	837
17.6.2	Construction of information document	838
17.6.3	Good faith irrelevant	840
17.7	Injunction to restrain meeting	841
17.7.1	Lower threshold for substantial shareholder	841

Part 7.3	Expenses of inquiry, etc.	909
8.7.8	Non-insider dealing activities	910
8.1	Chinese walls	912
8.2	Not to make a profit or avoid a loss	915
8.3	The innocent broker or dealer	917
Chapter 20
Market misconduct
1.7.8	Introduction	918
2.	The regulatory framework	920
2.1	Extra-territoriality	920
2.2	Comprehensive approach	921
2.3	Presumptive provisions	922
3.8.8	False trading	923
3.1	Statutory elements of false trading	924
3.1.1	Meaning of 'intention'	925
3.1.2	Meaning of 'reckless'	928
3.1.3	Meaning of 'likely'	930
3.1.4	Artificial price	931
3.2	Wash sales	933
3.3	Matched orders	939
3.4	Available defence	940
4.	Price rigging	942
5.7.8	Disclosure of information about prohibited transactions	944
5.1	Available defence	945
6.7.8	False or misleading information inducing transactions, etc.	946
6.1	The statutory prohibition	949
6.2	The statutory contents	950
6.2.1	False and misleading statements by commission or omission	952
6.2.1.1	True but misleading	954
6.2.1.2	Just misleading	955
6.2.2	Opinions and 'soft information' as facts	957
6.2.3	Meaning of 'material fact'	960
6.2.3.1	Objective test	961
6.2.3.2	Focus of inquiry: 'likely' to induce, etc.	962
6.2.4	Meaning of 'induce'	962
6.2.5	Meaning of 'reckless or negligent'	963
6.3	Defences	966
7.7.8	Stock market manipulation	967

Chapter 21
Disciplining takeovers and mergers
1.00	Introduction	969
2.00	The regulatory framework	970
2.1	Gentlemen's agreement	971
2.2	The formal administrative system	972
2.2.1	The Executive	972
2.2.2	Takeovers and Mergers Panel	974
2.2.3	Takeovers Appeal Committee	975
2.3	Administrative powers	975
2.3.1	Consultations and rulings	975
2.3.2	Power to invoke sanctions	976
2.3.3	Power to review decision	981
2.3.4	Confidentiality rules	982
2.4	Judicial review	982
3.0	Key concepts	986
3.1	Meaning of 'control'	986
3.2	'Exercise control or direction'	987
3.3	The 2% creeper rule	988
3.3.1	The creeper and dispositions	989
3.3.2	The creeper and dilution	989
3.3.3	The creeper and placements, etc.	989
3.3.4	The creeper and whitewash	990
4.0	Acting in concert	990
4.1	Evidence of concert action	992
4.2	Standard of proof	994
4.3	Presumption of acting in concert	995
4.4	Evidence of break up of concert party	996
4.5	Irrevocable undertakings, etc.	996
4.6	Standstill agreements	997
4.7	Underwriting arrangements	997
4.8	Consortium offers	998
4.9	Joining of shareholders	998
5.0	Mandatory offers	999
5.1	When must be made	999
5.1.1	Less than 30% but de facto control	1000
5.1.2	The chain principle	1000
5.1.3	Share repurchases	1001
5.2	Principal governing rules	1001
5.2.1	Condition as to acceptance	1001
5.2.2	Consideration for offer	1002
5.2.3	Comparable offers	1002
5.2.4	Appropriate offers for convertibles, etc.	1003

5.3	Restrictions following failure of mandatory offer	1003
5.4	Waiver or dispensation of mandatory offers	1004
5.4.1	Whitewash	1004
5.4.2	Enforcement of security rights	1006
5.4.3	Rescue operations	1006
5.4.4	Inadvertent mistakes	1006
5.4.5	Confirmed 50% rejection of offer	1006
5.4.6	Placing and top-up transactions	1006
6.7	Voluntary offers	1007
6.1	Governing rules	1007
6.1.1	Conditions as to acceptances	1007
6.1.2	Consideration for offer	1009
7.8	Partial offers	1009
7.1	Executive's consent required	1010
7.1.1	When normally allowed	1010
7.1.2	When not normally allowed	1010
7.2	Governing rules	1012
7.2.1	Independent approval	1012
7.2.2	Control position warning	1012
7.2.3	Statement of precise number of shares	1012
7.2.4	Excess acceptance	1012
7.2.5	Prohibition of purchases by partial offeror	1013
8.9	The basic processes of takeover	1013
8.1	The timetable	1013
8.1.1	The first closing date	1015
8.1.2	Announcement of trading results, etc.	1015
8.1.3	No revision date	1016
8.2	Announcement rules	1016
8.2.1	The offeree board	1016
8.2.2	Offeror and potential offeror	1018
8.2.3	Potential vendor	1019
8.2.4	'Mere talk' announcement	1019
8.2.5	Announcement subject to fulfillment of pre-conditions	1020
8.3	Contents of announcement: firm intention	1020
8.3.1	Existence of irrevocable commitments	1020
8.3.2	Financial ability to implement offer	1021
8.3.3	Subjective conditions	1021
8.4	The offer document	1021
8.4.1	Contents of offer document	1022
8.4.2	Statement of intentions	1022
8.5	Offeree board circular	1023
8.5.1	Contents of offeree board circular	1023

8.6	Statements during the offer period	1024
8.6.1	No extension statement	1024
8.6.2	No increase statement	1024
8.7	Announcement of results	1024
9.7	Quality of documents and disclosures	1025
9.1	Prospectus standard	1026
9.1.1	Adequate and fair presentation	1027
9.2	Plain and direct language	1028
9.3	Duty to update	1029
9.4	Sufficient information	1029
9.5	References to sources, etc.	1031
9.6	Who are responsible	1032
9.6.1	Directors' responsibility statement	1032
9.6.2	Financial adviser of offeror	1033
9.6.3	Independent financial adviser of offeror	1033
9.6.4	Accountants and profit forecasts	1033
9.6.5	Valuer and assets valuation	1033
9.7	Divergence of views, etc.	1034
9.8	Uncertainty about financial information	1034
10.1	The independent adviser	1034
10.1	Meaning of 'independent'	1035
10.2	Principal roles of independent advisers	1037
10.3	Duty owed by board to independent adviser	1038
11.1	Conduct during offer period: offeror and offeree	1039
11.1	Offeror: table of conduct	1039
11.1.1	Make firm not vague statements	1041
11.1.2	Gathering of irrevocable commitments	1042
11.1.3	No dealings contrary to advice	1042
11.1.4	Day 46 rule	1042
11.2	Offeree: table of conduct	1042
11.2.1	Honest advice precedes personal obligations	1044
11.2.2	No conflict of interests	1045
11.2.3	Full, honest and timeous information disclosure	1046
11.2.4	Disclose independent advice	1047
11.2.5	No unfair attacks	1047
11.2.6	Disclosure of favourable information	1048
11.2.7	Not to frustrate bona fide offer	1048

4.3	Finality in declarations of results	1128
5.30	Attendance and voting	1129
6.30	Minutes as evidence	1129
6.1	Amendment to minutes	1130
Chapter 25
General meetings under the Ordinance
1.00	Introduction	1131
2.00	The annual general meeting	1132
2.1	Time to hold	1132
2.2	Adjournment and statutory business	1133
3.00	Failure to hold annual general meeting	1135
3.1	Statutory penalty	1135
3.2	Statutory remedy for shareholders	1136
3.3	Effect on directorship	1137
3.4	Return of powers and ratification	1139
4.00	Extraordinary general meetings	1141
4.1	Directors' power to convene	1142
4.2	Fiduciary nature of power	1142
4.3	Obligatory circumstances	1143
4.3.1	Transactions requiring shareholders' approval	1143
4.3.2	Premature resignation of auditor	1144
5.00	Requisition by shareholders	1144
5.1	Time to hold requisitioned meeting	1145
5.1.1	Meaning of 'forthwith'	1145
5.1.2	Directors' clear intention not to convene	1147
5.2	Thwarting requisitioner's intentions	1147
5.3	Justifiable refusal to convene	1149
5.3.1	Failure to state objects	1149
5.3.2	Resolutions beyond shareholders' authority	1151
5.3.3	Power not exercised bona fide by requisitionists	1152
6.00	Shareholders' power to convene	1153
6.1	Directors' default when requisitioned	1153
6.2	Independent statutory power	1155
7.00	Judicial intervention: s114B	1158
7.1	Who may apply	1158
7.2	Applicable only to general meeting	1159
7.3	Meaning of 'impracticable'	1159
7.3.1	Uncontactable shareholder	1160
7.3.2	Breakdown in quorum provision	1161

7.3.3	Immobilised company	1163
7.3.4	Persistent disruption of meeting	1164
7.4	Content of judicial discretion	1165
7.4.1	No resolution of serious issues	1166
7.4.2	Respondent's collateral purpose	1169
7.4.3	Extant litigation not a bar	1172
7.4.4	Not to rewrite agreements or understandings	1175
7.4.5	No unfair prejudice	1177
7.4.6	Deadlock	1178
7.5	Consequential orders	1179
Chapter 26
The proxy system
1.00	Introduction	1181
2.00	Right to appoint proxy	1182
2.1	Statutory right	1182
2.2	Articles of association	1183
2.3	Relationship between articles and Ordinance	1183
3.00	Statutory controls	1185
3.1	Appointment of more than one	1185
3.2	Rule against selective invitation	1185
3.3	Two-way proxy	1186
3.4	Notice of right to appoint proxies	1186
3.5	Time to lodge proxy forms	1186
3.6	Right to demand poll	1187
4.00	Regulatory controls: Listing Rules	1188
4.1	Two-way proxy form	1188
4.2	Solicitation for proxies or votes	1188
4.3	Chairman and directors holding proxy votes	1189
4.4	Reform proposal: voting by poll	1189
5.00	Relationship between appointor and proxy	1189
5.1	Voting obligation of gratuitous proxy	1190
5.2	Voting obligation of proxy named by the company	1190
5.3	Proxy acts contrary to instructions	1190
5.4	Members' right to attend and vote	1191
5.5	Revocation of proxy	1192
6.00	Chairman's determination on proxy votes	1195
6.1	Proxy not in prescribed form	1195
6.1.1	Attestation by witness	1195
6.1.2	Directory or mandatory requirements	1196
6.2	Irregularly completed proxy forms	1197

5.1.2	Substantive leave requirements	1275
5.1.3	Effect of ratification	1277
Chapter 31
The derivative action
1.	Introduction	1278
2.	Nature of a derivative action	1279
2.1	Company named as nominal defendant	1280
3.	Practice	1280
3.1	Persons entitled to bring derivative action	1281
3.2	Equal shareholder and majority shareholder	1281
3.3	Derivative action and s168A	1282
3.4	Application for indemnity for costs	1282
3.5	Determination of locus standi generally	1284
4.	Locus standi as a preliminary issue	1287
4.1	Question of discretion	1290
4.2	The just and convenient principle	1291
4.3	The position in Hong Kong	1293
5.	Treatment of plaintiff's allegations	1294
6.	Restrictions against derivative actions	1296
6.1	Ratification	1296
6.1.1	When available	1297
6.1.2	Who may vote	1297
6.2	'Independent organ' not wanting to sue	1299
6.3	Inequitable conduct	1302
Chapter 32
The personal action
1.	Introduction	1304
2.	Nature of personal action	1305
3.	Personal rights under articles	1305
3.1	Shareholders' rights as members	1307
3.2	Articles having contractual status	1308
4.	Examples of articles having contractual status	1309
4.1	Right to receive notice, attend and vote at meetings	1310
4.2	Right to propose amendments to resolutions	1311
4.3	Right to sufficient information for decision-making	1311
4.4	Right to transfer shares	1312
4.5	Irregularity in forfeiture of shares	1313
4.6	Issue of shares for an improper purpose	1313
5.	Personal rights under common law	1313

5.1	Right to sue on abuse of power	1313
5.2	Right to restrain ultra vires transactions	1314
5.3	Other personal rights	1314
Part VIII Final accounting
Chapter 33
De facto and shadow directors
1.	Introduction	1315
2.	Statutory definition and reforms	1316
2.1	Comparative legislation	1318
2.2	Legislative purpose	1318
2.3	Application of extended meaning	1319
2.3.1	De facto director	1319
2.3.2	Shadow director	1321
3.	Distinctions between de facto and shadow directors	1321
3.1	Lurking in the shadows	1322
3.2	Ability to influence the majority	1324
4.	De facto directors	1326
4.1	Who is a de facto director	1327
4.2	Test employed	1328
4.2.1	Question of fact and degree	1329
4.2.2	No singular decisive test	1330
4.2.3	Acts need not cover whole of corporate activities	1331
4.3	Categories of de facto directors	1332
4.4	Circumstances giving rise to de facto directorship	1333
5.	Shadow directors	1334
5.1	The content of 'directions and instructions'	1335
5.2	Meaning of 'accustomed to act'	1335
5.3	Influence over all corporate activities not necessary	1337
6.	Professionals as shadow directors	1337
7.	Position of financiers	1337
Chapter 34
Disqualification of directors
1.	Introduction	1339
2.	Enlarged dimension of accountability	1340
2.1	Effect of disqualification order	1341
2.1.1	Meaning of 'be concerned or take part in'	1342

2.5	Co-relation with unfair prejudice	1432
3	Application of the jurisdiction	1434
3.1	Failure of substratum	1434
3.2	Insolvency	1436
3.3	Frustration of objects	1436
3.4	No hope of profits	1438
3.5	Breakdown of trust and confidence: quasi-partnership companies	1438
3.6	Justifiable lack of confidence: commercial companies	1439
3.7	Exclusion from management	1442
3.8	Management deadlock	1443
3.9	Autocratic management	1446
3.10	Unjustified failure to pay dividends	1446
3.11	Confusing and suspicious conduct	1448
4	Persons entitled to petition	1449
4.1	Meaning of 'contributory'	1450
4.1.1	Contributories not entitled to petition	1450
4.1.2	Contributory in arrears of call	1451
4.1.3	Registered as members and exceptions	1451
4.1.4	No fetter of contributory's statutory right	1453
5	Practice	1453
5.1	Dispute as to contributory's status	1453
5.2	Surplus for distribution	1455
5.3	Facts and grounds of petition	1457
5.4	Evidence supporting allegations	1458
5.5	Availability of alternative remedy	1460
Chapter 36
Winding up: Commencement to order
1	Introduction	1462
2	Consequences of commencement: an overview	1463
2.1	Proactive nature of statutory provisions	1464
2.2	Competing interests and judicial discretion	1464
3	Stay of proceedings after commencement	1465
3.1	General policy is to stay	1466
3.2	Meaning of 'proceeding'	1469
4	Disposition of property after commencement	1470
4.1	Meaning of 'disposition of property'	1471
4.1.1	Trust property	1476
4.2	Means of disposition generally irrelevant	1478
4.2.1	Contractual forfeiture or user clauses	1479

4.2.2	Contractual clauses conferring additional advantage	1480
4.2.3	Self-depriving contractual clauses	1481
4.2.4	Operation of bank account	1484
4.3	Application for validation	1486
4.4	Judicial content of discretion	1487
4.4.1	Knowledge of winding up or insolvency	1488
4.4.2	Beneficial dispositions of specific property	1490
4.4.3	Preservation of business in ordinary course	1492
4.4.4	Litigation expenses	1496
4.4.5	Nature of complaints in the petition	1498
5	Avoidance of attachment, etc., after commencement	1500
5.1	Meaning of 'put in force'	1501
6	Winding up order: action against company	1503
6.1	Action or proceeding with leave	1503
6.2	Leave application	1503
6.3	When leave given	1504
6.3.1	Claims of secured creditor	1505
6.3.2	Claims by landlord	1505
6.3.3	The convenience rule	1506
7	Winding up order: unfair preference transactions	1508
7.1	Putting a relevant person in a better position	1509
7.1.1	Does or suffers anything to be done	1510
7.1.2	Influenced by desire	1510
7.2	Relevant time	1513
7.2.1	Unfair preference date	1513
8	Winding up order: floating charges	1514
8.1	Statutory purpose	1514
8.2	Solvent immediately after creation	1516
8.3	Meaning of 'cash paid'	1517
8.4	Cash paid in advance of creation of charge	1519
9	Winding up order: directors' powers	1520