

CONTENTS

Preface

Part 1: Introducing human resource management, organisations and management

1 Human Resource Management and its External Contexts

Introduction

Learning outcomes

Defining and understanding contemporary HRM

Some key issues in HRM

The external contexts of HRM

Developments in international HRM

Conclusion: HRM, HR strategy and HR solutions

Key points raised in the chapter

Review questions

Case study: Discrimination on grounds of age

Explore further

2 Contemporary Organisations and their Internal Contexts

Introduction

Learning outcomes

Theories of organisations

Contemporary studies of organisations

Types, objectives and internal contexts of organisations

Some contemporary issues in organisations

Stakeholders in organisations

Corporate governance, accountability and corporate social responsibility

Conclusion: organisations, HR strategy and HR solutions

Key points raised in the chapter

Review questions

Case study: Zenotech – a network-based organisation

Explore further

3 The Managerial and Business Contexts of Organisations

Introduction

Learning outcomes

Management within organisations

Managerial functions

Modern managerial functions

Managerial power, authority and influence

Managerial politics and the change agenda

Models of HR and relationships with employees

Conclusion: management, HR strategy and HR solutions

Key points raised in the chapter

Review questions

Case study: Northern City Council and community involvement

Explore further

Part 2: Strategy formulation and implementation

4 Developing Corporate Strategies

Introduction

Learning outcomes

Debates about strategy

The rational approach to strategy

Emergent and other approaches to strategy

Tools and techniques of environmental analysis

Formulating strategy

Implementing strategy

Internal constraints on strategy

External constraints on strategy and shaping the external context

Conclusion: strategy, HR strategy and HR solutions

Key points raised in the chapter

Review questions

Case study: Developing strategy in a leisure industry organisation

Explore further

5 Developing Human Resource Strategies

Introduction

Learning outcomes

The emergence of HR strategy

Current approaches and the development HR strategy

Best practice models

Best fit models

The resource-based view of the firm

Debates about effective strategic leadership

Conclusion: HR strategy and HR solutions

Key points raised in the chapter

Review questions

Case study: Hartley Electronics Ltd – HR strategies for the future

Explore further

Part 3: The external contexts of human resource management

6 Markets and the Competitive Context

Introduction

Learning outcomes

Market economies

The UK macro-economy: policy and economic structure

The micro-economy: determinants of supply and demand in the marketplace

Capital markets

Labour markets

Marketisation, competition and change management in public services

Sources of competitive advantage and responses by firms to competition and hyper-competition

Conclusion: markets, HR strategy and HR solutions

Key points raised in the chapter

Review questions

Case study: The economics of sustainable development – working time and prosperity without growth

Explore further

7 Globalisation and International Factors

Introduction

Learning outcomes

The nature and origins of globalisation

Factors influencing globalisation

Globalisation: some consequences and responses

Critiques of globalisation

Multi-national corporations

Major international organisations

The European Union

The main institutions of the EU

Conclusion: globalisation, HR strategy and HR solutions

Key points raised in the chapter

Review questions

Case study: Outward foreign direct investment in small and medium enterprises in India

Explore further

8 Demographic and Social Trends

Introduction

Learning outcomes

Population trends

Determinants of population change

The working population

Immigration, employment of migrant workers and work permits

Family structures

Gender, ethnicity and diversity in organisations and society

Social stratification

Public services and changing social values

Individualism, consumerism and secularism

Conclusion: demography, social trends, HR strategy and HR solutions

Key points raised in the chapter

Review questions

Case study: Managing diversity, equality and social inclusion in Metro-City Council

Explore further

9 The Technological Context

Introduction

Learning outcomes

Developments in technology

Impact of technology on people at work

Impact of technology on organisations

Impact of technology on markets

Resistance to technology

Knowledge and learning in organisational and economic life

Conclusion: technology, HR strategy and HR solutions

Key points raised in the chapter

Review questions

Case study: Vanderwall et Cie: high-tech innovation, global reach and organisational change

Explore further

10 Government Policy and Legal Regulation

Introduction

Learning outcomes

Political institutions, democratic incrementalism and comparative party policies

Economic policy

Social, education and training policy

EU economic and social policy

How organisations influence public and inter-governmental policy

Legal regulation and the regulatory state

The regulation of employment

Conclusion: politics, regulation, HR strategy and HR solutions

Key points raised in the chapter

Review questions

Case study: UK fiscal policy

Explore further

<http://www.pbookshop.com>