

Contents

Preface	v
Foreword to the first edition	vii
Preface to the first edition	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Table of statutes	xxv
Table of statutory instruments	xxix
Table of Civil Procedure Rules	xxxii
Table of non-statutory provisions	xxxvii
Table of cases	xxxix

PART I SOLICITOR AND CLIENT

Chapter 1 The retainer	3
Introduction	3
The contract	4
Quotations and estimates	7
Client care	14
Complaints	21
Ending the agreement	21
Contingency agreement issues	23
Writing off/waiving costs	23
Chapter 2 Billing the client	25
Introduction	25
Terminology	25
Who can you bill?	25
Interim bills	27
Final bills	30
Value Added Tax	33
Chapter 3 Recovery of costs from clients	39
Introduction	39
Before issuing	39
Court procedure	41
Applications by the client	44
Third parties	47
Recovery without proceedings	49
Statutory demand	49
Bankruptcy petition	50

Solicitor's lien	51
Bankruptcy petition	50
PART II FUNDING
Chapter 4 Creating Conditional Fee Agreements	59
The Golden Rule	59
Requirements	60
Drafting considerations	63
Differential rates	65
Assessing the risk	67
Risk and the cost of funding	70
Cost of setting up a funding arrangement	71
Chapter 5 Running cases with conditional fee agreements	73
During the case	73
No notice of funding	74
Notice of funding	74
Estimates of costs	74
Counsel	75
Interim applications	78
Changing arrangements	79
Security for costs	80
Ending the retainer before the case concludes	82
After the case ends	84
Calculation of the cap	85
QOCS	86
Notification to insurers	87
Interest on costs	87
Where unsuccessful	89
Chapter 6 'Old' conditional fee agreements and ATE insurance	91
Introduction	91
Compliance with the primary legislation	92
Compliance with the secondary legislation	95
CFA Regulations 2000	95
CFA (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations 2003	100
Collective conditional fee agreements	102
Membership organisations	103
Court approach to legislative compliance	104
Professional conduct compliance	110
ATE insurance	121
Notification of additional liabilities	124

Transitional provisions	129
Chapter 7 Damages-based agreements	131
Introduction	131
The Ontario Model	131
Statutory framework	132
Maximum level of the recoverable percentage	137
Reduction in damages or costs	139
Recoverability	139
Termination	140
Operation of the indemnity principle	141
Conflict of interest	142
Challenges by the client	142
Chapter 8 Contentious and non-contentious business agreements	145
Introduction	145
Defining contentious and non-contentious business	145
Business agreements	146
Restricting challenges to fees	150
Procedure	152
Non-contentious work prior to 2009	153
Solicitor mortgagee's costs	153
Chapter 9 Insurance arrangements	155
Introduction	155
Before the event insurance	156
BTE usage	156
BTE coverage	157
After the event insurance	160
Risks covered	160
Premiums still recoverable	163
Can the client challenge the premium level?	166
Contents of an ATE policy	166
Paying adverse costs	168
ATE and prospective costs control	169
Solicitor self insurance	170
Chapter 10 State and commercial funding	173
Introduction	173
State funding	173
Commercial funding	176
The funding agreement	179
Profile of funded cases	180
The Association of Litigation Funders	180

Fee sharing in personal injury cases	181
PART III BETWEEN THE PARTIES
Chapter 11 An overview of the key costs amendments to the Civil Procedure Rules	185
Introduction	185
The overriding objective	185
Relief from sanction	186
Part 44	186
Part 45	188
Part 46	189
Part 47	189
Part 48	189
Other transitional provisions	190
The Costs Practice Direction	190
Chapter 12 The indemnity principle	191
No profit	191
Possible pitfalls and some exceptions	192
The future of the indemnity principle	200
Chapter 13 Prospective costs control – introduction	201
Chapter 14 Prospective costs control – Proportionality	203
Introduction	203
The case for reform	203
The reform	204
Proportionality and justice	208
Chapter 15 Prospective costs control – Costs and cases management	211
Introduction	211
What is costs management?	211
Costs management pilot schemes	212
The scope of the costs management regime under CPR 3.12–CPR 3.18 and CPR PD 3E	213
The procedural code	215
Form H	222
Completing the Form H	223
The interaction between case and costs management	227
Setting the budget	231
The case law so far	234
Conclusion	237

Chapter 16 Prospective control of costs – The relevance of costs budgets in cases not costs managed	239
Chapter 17 Prospective costs control – Costs capping	243
A brief history – and possibly an even briefer future	243
Jurisdiction	244
Some of the case law	244
The procedural code	246
Conclusion	247
Chapter 18 Prospective control of costs – protective costs orders	249
Introduction	249
Case law	249
The future	252
Aarhus Convention cases	253
Beddoe orders	254
Chapter 19 Prospective costs orders – Security for costs	255
Introduction	255
Under the Civil Procedure Rules, rules 25.12–25.14	255
The Conditions under CPR 25.13(2)	258
Security for costs of an appeal	261
Is it just to make an order for security of costs having regard to all the circumstances of the case?	263
Security for costs under CPR Part 3	266
The amount of security	268
Variation of an order for security	268
Security for costs under the Arbitration Act 1996	269
Chapter 20 Costs inducements to settle – Part 36 offers and other admissible offers	271
Introduction	271
The content of a valid Part 36 offer	271
Who may make a Part 36 offer?	273
When may a Part 36 offer be made?	273
Time periods for acceptance and withdrawal	274
Clarification of a Part 36 offer	278
Part 36 and interest	278
Disclosure of Part 36 offers	278
Part 36 offers and counter offers	280
The consequences of acceptance of a Part 36 offer within time	281
Acceptance after the expiry of the relevant time period	283
The consequences of acceptance of a Part 36 offer made by only one of two or more defendants	285
The consequences of not accepting a Part 36 offer	285

Defendants' Part 36 offers and qualified one way costs shifting	287
Part 36 and success in part	287
Part 36 and future pecuniary loss claims	288
Part 36 and provisional damages claims	289
Part 36 and recoupment of state benefit	289
Part 36 and fixed success fees	291
Part 36 and the 'tactical offer'	291
Part 36 and the Pre-Action Protocol for Low Value Personal Injury Claims in Road Traffic Accidents and the Pre-Action Protocol for Low Value Personal Injury (Employers' Liability and Public Liability) Claims	292
Part 36 and the small claims track	294
Part 36 and VAT Tribunal	294
Pre-6 April 2007 Part 36 payments and offers	295
Other admissible offers	295
Conclusion	299
Chapter 21 Costs inducements to settle – ADR	301
Introduction	301
Failure to engage in ADR leading to a costs sanction	301
Failure to engage in ADR – no costs sanction	302
The Halsey test	303
The voluntary nature of ADR	304
Conclusion	306
Chapter 22 Costs awards between the parties	309
Introduction	309
No order as to costs	309
The menu of costs orders available to the court	310
Solicitor's duty to notify the client	311
The time for compliance with a costs order	312
Deemed costs orders	312
Costs orders by consent	314
Contested awards between the parties	316
The menu of costs orders available to the court to give effect to its conclusions under CPR 44.2–CPR 44.5	324
Costs issues for the trial judge in the award of costs or for the costs judge on assessment	327
Costs of pre-action disclosure applications	330
Small claim track costs	332
Costs following allocation and re-allocation	333
Costs only proceedings	334
Agreement in issued proceedings in respect of everything except costs	336

Claim and counterclaim and set off generally	337
No winner or loser	340
Bullock and Sanderson orders	342
State funded parties	343
Chapter 23 Wasted costs orders	345
The law	345
The procedure	345
Satellite litigation	347
The appropriate three stage test	348
Two stage discretion	351
Problems with privilege	351
Threatening an application or putting the other side on notice?	352
Wasted costs and public funding	352
Wasted costs and advocacy	353
Wasted costs where the solicitor places reliance on counsel	353
Wasted costs against a barrister for his advice	356
Some successful applications	356
Some unsuccessful applications	357
Tribunals	363
Conclusion	364
Chapter 24 The bases of costs	365
Introduction	365
The indemnity basis – when is it appropriate?	367
Conclusion	377
The future	377
Chapter 25 Payment on account of costs	379
PART IV QUANTIFICATION OF COSTS
Chapter 26 Fixed costs	385
Introduction	385
Structure of this chapter	386
Part 45 Section I (CPR 45.1–CPR 45.8)	386
Part 45 Section II (CPR 45.9–CPR 45.15)	388
Part 45 Section III (CPR 45.16–CPR 45.29)	392
Part 45 Section IIIA (CPR 45.29A–CPR 45.29L)	398
Part 45 Section IV (CPR 45.30–CPR 45.32)	401
Part 45 Section V (CPR 45.33–CPR 45.36)	405
Part 45 Section VI (CPR 45.37–CPR 45.40)	405
Part 45 Section VII (CPR 45.41–CPR 45.44)	407

The small claims track	408
Chapter 27 Summary assessment	411
Introduction	411
Who conducts a summary assessment?	411
The benefits of a summary assessment	412
When is a summary assessment appropriate?	412
When is a summary assessment inappropriate?	414
The extent of the costs to be assessed	419
The statement of costs	419
The procedure	420
The summary assessment hearing	421
Hourly rates	422
Counsel's fees	423
Proportionality	423
Appeals from summary assessment	424
Conclusion	424
Chapter 28 Detailed assessment – procedure	425
Introduction	425
Method of assessment	425
Preliminary issues	426
Entitlement to start detailed assessment proceedings	426
Venue	428
Reaching agreement	429
The detailed assessment procedure	430
Commencing detailed assessment	430
Statements of case	434
Obtaining a default costs certificate	436
Setting aside a default costs certificate	437
Requesting a hearing date	440
Interim costs certificate	441
Provisional assessment	442
The detailed assessment hearing	442
Costs of the detailed assessment proceedings	450
Final costs certificate	451
Appeal from a detailed assessment hearing	452
Authorised court officers	453
Other detailed assessment proceedings	454
Chapter 29 Detailed assessment – statements of case	457
Introduction	457
The bill of costs: form and content	457

The title page	459
The narrative	459
Heads of costs	461
The detail	468
Points of dispute	477
Reply	479
Part 18 requests	480
Chapter 30 Detailed assessment – provisional assessment	483
Introduction	483
The pilot scheme	483
The provisional assessment procedure	484
Court of Protection	491
Legal aid	491
Trusts and other funds	491
Chapter 31 Time and value	493
Introduction	493
Time as a management tool	494
Time as a charging tool	495
Calculating the hourly charging rate	496
The Seven Pillars of Wisdom	501
Amount or value	502
Skill etc	503
Place/circumstances	503
What level of B factor to claim?	504
The A and B test	507
The SCCO Guide to Summary Assessment	508
Locality of fee earners	512
Assessing the time spent	515
Counsel's fees	521
Value billing in non-contentious business	522
Alternatives to time as a management tool	525
Alternatives to time as a charging tool	526
Chapter 32 Interest on costs	529
Introduction	529
The incipitur rule (as opposed to the allocatur rule)	529
Orders deemed to have been made	530
Enhanced interest	530
Backdating and post-dating of interest – the court's discretion	531
The rate of interest	533

Chapter 33 Appeals against assessments	535
Introduction	535
The importance of reasons	535
A simple formulation of reasoning when assessing items and overall proportionality	536
Permission to appeal	537
Grounds for appeal	537
The time for appealing	538
Route of appeals	539
Review not re-hearing	539
The role of assessors	540
Appeals from the decisions made on detailed assessment by authorised court officers	541
Conclusion	542
PART V SPECIAL CASES
Chapter 34 Children and protected parties	545
Introduction	545
Litigation friend	545
Expenses incurred by a litigation friend	545
Detailed assessment	546
Chapter 35 Litigants in person	547
Introduction	547
Who is a litigant in person?	547
Professional litigants in person	548
Financial loss	548
Quantification	552
Chapter 36 Costs payable under a contract	555
Introduction	555
Mortgages	555
Landlord and tenant	556
Contractual costs	556
Chapter 37 Group (multi-party) litigation orders	559
Introduction	559
Discontinuance	560
Individual costs	560
Generic costs	561
Costs capping	562
Funding	563

Chapter 38 Trustees and personal representatives	565
Entitlement to costs out of the trust or estate	565
Costs against trustees	565
Pre-emptive orders	566
Prospective costs orders	566
Detailed assessment of costs from the trust or estate	567
Chapter 39 Family proceedings	569
Family Procedure Rules 2010	569
Applications other than in financial remedy proceedings	574
Children Act 1989 applications	575
Appeal	578
Calderbank offers	578
Financial remedy proceedings where FPR 28.3 applies	579
The financial effect on the parties of any costs order	580
The overriding objective	586
Being creative with costs orders	589
Costs information	590
Funding family costs	591
Applications in matrimonial and civil partnership proceedings	591
Applications under Schedule 1 to the Children Act 1989	593
Solicitor and client	594
Curbing costs	594
Summary assessment	597
Enforcement	598
Chapter 40 Costs against non-parties	601
Introduction	601
The general approach	601
The application procedure	602
Requirements for notice of an application	603
The approach of the court to managing an application	604
Is it a prerequisite that the non-party has provided funding for the claim?	605
Is it a necessary pre-requisite of an order that the non-party has caused the other party to incur costs over and above those that would have been incurred anyway?	606
Specific categories of non-parties traditionally in the firing line	609
Funders	616
Solicitors	618
Family cases	622
Chapter 41 Arbitration	623
Introduction	623

