

TABLE OF CONTENTS

List of Contributors	v
Table of Cases	xv
Table of Hong Kong Legislation	lxv
Table of PRC Legislation	lxxxiii
Table of Foreign Legislation	lxxxix
Table of Rules and Regulations	xciii

CHAPTER 1 DIRECTORS

I. Effect of Winding-up and Receiverships on Directors	1.001
II. Civil Liability of Directors	1.015
III. Criminal Liability of Directors	1.059
IV. Disqualification of Directors	1.065

CHAPTER 2 ROLE AND STATUS OF LIQUIDATORS

I. Introduction	2.001
II. Appointment of Liquidators	2.005
III. Duties of Liquidators	2.011
IV. Powers of Liquidators	2.019
V. Remuneration	2.024
VI. Control of Liquidators	2.030
VII. Cross Border Issues	2.033
VIII. Possible Reforms	2.034

CHAPTER 3 PROVISIONAL LIQUIDATION

I. Introduction	3.001
II. Criteria for the Appointment of Provisional Liquidators Generally	3.002
III. Persons who may be Appointed as a Provisional Liquidator	3.003
IV. Effect of the Appointment of a Provisional Liquidator	3.004
V. Provisional Liquidation as an Aid to Restructuring a Company's Debt	3.005
VI. Procedure	3.006
VII. Provisional Liquidators' Fees	3.007
VIII. Provisional Liquidation Post Winding-up Order	3.008
IX. Appointment of Provisional Liquidator Under Section 194(1A)	3.009
X. Removal of Provisional Liquidator	3.010

CHAPTER 4 WINDING-UP BY THE COURT

I. Jurisdiction	4.001
II. Grounds for Winding-up	4.006
III. The Winding-up Process – The Law and Procedure	4.011
IV. Group Liquidations	4.045
V. Effect of a Winding-up Order	4.050
VI. Proceedings by or against the Company	4.056
VII. Winding-up by the Court Conducted as a Creditors’ Winding-up	4.073
VIII. Regulation Orders	4.075
IX. Summary Procedure Liquidations	4.079

CHAPTER 5 MEMBERS’ VOLUNTARY WINDING-UP

I. Introduction	5.001
II. Prerequisite for Members Voluntary Winding-up Certificate of Solvency	5.002
III. Procedure	5.003
IV. If Company is Found to be Insolvent	5.005
V. Stay/Rescission of Members’ Voluntary Winding-up	5.006
VI. Consequences of a Members Voluntary Winding-up	5.009
VII. The Liquidators: Duties, Powers, Vacancy in Office, Removal by the Court, Removal of Liquidator by the Company and Creditors, Resignation and Vacation of Office	5.010
VIII. Section 237 Arrangements (Reconstructions)	5.017
IX. Creditors’ Voluntary Winding-up	5.018
X. Resolutions for, and Commencement of, Voluntary Winding-up	5.019
XI. Consequences of Voluntary Winding-up	5.024
XII. The Meeting of Creditors	5.025
XIII. Liquidators	5.027
XIV. Appointment of Committee of Inspection	5.029
XV. Fixing of Liquidators’ Remuneration and Cessation of Directors’ Powers	5.030
XVI. Powers and Duties of Liquidator in a Creditors’ Voluntary Winding-up	5.031
XVII. Distribution of Property of Company	5.032
XVIII. Vacancy in Office and Removal by the Court	5.033
XIX. Completion of Creditors’ Voluntary Winding-up	5.034
XX. Right to Apply for Compulsory Winding-up	5.035
XXI. Special Procedure for Voluntary Liquidation Under Section 228A	5.036

CHAPTER 6 INVESTIGATIONS, ASSETS, CLAIMS AND REALISATIONS

I. Introduction	6.001
II. Steps to be taken upon Appointment	6.016
III. Practical Investigation Procedures	6.060
IV. Unfair Preferences	6.072

CHAPTER 7 CREDITORS IN A WINDING-UP

I. Introduction	7.001
II. Who is a Creditor for the Purpose of Commencing the Winding-up Process?	7.004
III. Position of Creditors after a Winding-up Order has been Made or a Resolution to Wind up has been Passed	7.008
IV. Claiming in the Liquidation: The Procedure	7.013
Claiming in the Liquidation: What Claims can be Proved or Claimed?	7.019
VI. Limitations on Eligibility to Claim in a Liquidation	7.032
VII. Order of Payment to Creditors	7.036
VIII. Other General Rights of Creditors During the Winding-up Process	7.047

CHAPTER 8 SCHEMES OF ARRANGEMENT

I. Introduction	8.001
II. Parties to the Scheme	8.003
III. Jurisdiction	8.007
IV. Explanatory Statement	8.011
V. The Scheme	8.014
VI. The Procedure	8.015
VII. The Court’s Role	8.017
VIII. Classification of Class	8.019
IX. Voting	8.022
X. Effect on other Proceedings – Winding-up	8.023
XI. Court Sanction	8.024
XII. Effect of the Sanction	8.029
XIII. Modification of Schemes	8.030
XIV. Special Uses of Schemes	8.031

CHAPTER 9 SETTING ASIDE OF PREFERENCES AND TRADING ISSUES

I. Introduction	9.001
II. Summary	9.005
III. Requirements	9.006
IV. Avoidance of Disposition of Property etc after Commencement of Winding-up	9.023
V. Disposition of the Property of the Company	9.026
VI. Transfer of Shares or Alteration in Status	9.044
VII. Application for Validation Order	9.045
VIII. Discretion of the Court	9.051

CHAPTER 10 LIQUIDATION COSTS

I. Introduction	10.001
II. Costs in a Compulsory Winding-up or Liquidation	10.002
III. Security for Costs	10.021
IV. When and how the Costs Relating to a Winding-up Order are Paid	10.031
V. Liquidations Converted Under Section 209A	10.032
VI. The Liquidator's Remuneration	10.035
VII. Solicitors' Bills	10.038
VIII. Taxation of Bills – Procedural Guidelines	10.073
IX. Section 221	10.074
X. Liquidation Costs – Interim Payments	10.075
XI. Members' Voluntary Winding-up	10.078
XII. Creditors' Voluntary Winding-up	10.079
XIII. Costs in a Receivership	10.080

CHAPTER 11 RECEIVERSHIP

I. General Nature of Receiver	11.001
II. Types of Receiver	11.002
III. Receivers Appointed by the Court	11.003
IV. Receivers Appointed out of Court	11.016

CHAPTER 12 CROSS-BORDER ISSUES

I. Overview	12.001
II. Cross-Border Reach of the Hong Kong Courts' Jurisdiction	12.002
III. Interaction between Hong Kong and other Jurisdictions	12.016
IV. Ancillary Applications	12.033
V. The Cross Border Effect of Orders	12.042
VI. The Effect of a Hong Kong Corporate Insolvency Order	12.043
VII. Reform	12.054

CHAPTER 13 CORPORATE RESCUE IN HONG KONG

I. Introduction	13.001
II. The Concept of Corporate Rescue	13.002
III. Why is Rescue Necessary?	13.003
IV. Methods for Corporate Rescue	13.004
V. Non-Statutory Methods of Corporate Rescue	13.005
VI. Statutory Methods of Rescue under the Soa-Based Reorganisation System	13.007
VII. Conclusion	13.016

CHAPTER 14 INSOLVENCY IN THE PRC

I. Legal Framework in the PRC	14.001
II. Development of PRC Insolvency Law	14.002
III. Insolvency Regimes in the PRC	14.003
IV. Bankruptcy	14.007
V. Asset Preservation and Asset Recovery	14.025
VI. Misfeasance and Officer Liability	14.026

Index	647
-------------	-----