

Table of Contents

About the Editors and Contributors	xv
Preface	xix
Acknowledgements	xxi
Table of Figures	xxiii
Chapter 1
Introduction	1
Rebecca Parry
I. The Need for Tailored, Well Functioning, Corporate Rescue Laws	2
II. Comparative Law Studies by International Organizations	5
Additional Comparative Law Developments	8
III. Reforms to Domestic Insolvency Procedures	10
Developments Within Mature Systems of Corporate Rescue	11
IV. Conflicts of Laws Agreements	16
V. Conclusion	18
Chapter 2
Insolvency Provisions Concerning Corporate Rescue in China	19
Xin Ge
I. Introduction	19
II. The Development and the Nature of the Current Insolvency Legislation	20
III. Current Provisions on Insolvency Proceedings Related to Corporate Rescue	22
Insolvency Petition and Acceptance	23

Insolvency Ability	24
Insolvency Grounds	24
Insolvency Petitioner	25
Jurisdiction	25
Creditors' Meeting	26
Reconciliation and Reorganization	27
Reconciliation System	27
Reorganization System	28
Defects in the Existing Reconciliation and Reorganization Systems	29
IV. Draft Enterprise Bankruptcy Law	30
Basic Framework	31
Main Improved Aspects	31
Applicable Scope	31
Insolvency Grounds	31
Extraterritorial Effects of Insolvency Proceedings	32
Receiver in Insolvency	32
Debtor's Assets	33
New Rules on Enterprise Reorganization	33
Reconciliation	36
V. Comments on the Draft and its Prospects	37
On the Financial Institution Insolvency	37
On the Insolvency Under the Guidance of Policies	38
Drawbacks Regarding Reorganization	38
Drawbacks of the Reconciliation	40
Chapter 3
Cyprus: Present Problems and Prospects for the Future	41
Demetra Arsalidou
I. Introduction	41
II. Overview of the Present Situation	42
III. An Overview of Cyprus Company Law	43
Cyprus Law in General	43
Cyprus Economy	44
Cyprus Company Law	45
IV. The Idea of 'Corporate Rescue' in Cyprus	46
The Current Position	46
Reasons for the Lack of Legislative Rescue Procedures	47
V. Case study: Cyprus Airways	52
VI. The Future following Accession to the European Union	54

Chapter 4
England and Wales: Administration Orders	57
Rebecca Parry
I. Overview of the Administration Process and the 2002 Reforms	58
II. Administration following the Enterprise Act 2002	60
Appointment by the Courts	61
Appointment Out of Court	62
Purpose of the Administration	63
Scrutinizing the Purpose of the Application	65
Administrator	66
Statement of Proposals	67
Limitations on What May be Proposed	67
Notification of the Administrator's Proposals	68
Creditors' Meeting	68
Creditors' Committee	69
Control of the Administrator	69
Treatment of Employees	73
Jurisdiction	75
The EU Regulation on Insolvency Proceedings	75
UNCITRAL Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency	81
Ending Administration	82
Conversion to Winding-up or Dissolution	83
III. Impact on Liquidation	84
IV. The Decline of the Fixed Charge Over Book Debts	87
V. Prospects for Future Reforms	90
VI. Conclusion	90
Chapter 5
England and Wales: The Impact of the Revised Company Voluntary Arrangement Procedure	93
Katarzyna Gromek Broc
I. Introduction	93
II. Company Voluntary Arrangements, an Overview	95
Raison d'être of the CVAs	96
Implementation Procedure	97
Approval of the CVA Proposal by Creditors' Vote	98
The CVAs and the Court	98
III. The Insolvency Act 2000 and the CVA	99
Improved Binding Force	100
Moratorium	100
Exemptions from Eligibility for a Moratorium	101
Moratorium Application Procedure	102

	Administrative Receivership	102
	Protection against Fraud by Directors	103
	Advertisement	104
	Comments Regarding the Introduction of the Moratorium	104
IV.	The Impact of the CVA Regime	105
V.	Complexity of the 'Rescue Culture'	106
	The Banks' Attitude to the 'Rescue Culture'	106
VI.	Future Perspectives	107
VII.	Conclusion	108

Chapter 6Reforms to the Framework of Insolvency Law and Practice in France: 1996-2006Paul J. Omar*

	I. Introduction	111
	II. Historical Background	112
	III. Financial Scandals and Responses: 1996-1997	114
	IV. Interim Measures: Commercial Courts and Insolvency Practice: 1998-1999	117
	V. The Preparatory Orientation Document: 1999	118
	VI. Consolidation of the Commercial Code: 2000-2001	123
	VII. Reorientation of the Overall Reform Strategy: 2000-2002	125
	VIII. Reforms to the Commercial Court: 2000-2002	126
	Mixed Benches	126
	The Powers of the President of the Commercial Court	128
	The Status of Lay Judges	128
	Responses to the Proposals	129
IX.	Reforms to the Status of Insolvency Practitioners: 2000-2003	131
	The Status of Insolvency Professionals	132
	The Conduct of Cases	134
	The Supervision of Practice Conditions	135
	Remuneration	136
	Responses to the Proposals	136
X.	Reforms to insolvency law: 2003-2005	137
	Definitions and Jurisdiction	138
	Pre-Insolvency Procedures	139
	Preservation	140
	Judicial Rescue	142
	Liquidation	143
	Sanctions	144
XI.	Summary	146

Chapter 7Statutory Corporate Rescue Proceedings in Germany: The Insolvenzplan Procedure – EC Regulation 1346/2000, Selected Issues and German Case LawEckart Ehlers*

	I. Introduction	151
	II. Evolution of German Insolvency Law	152
	III. German and US American Insolvency law	161
	The US Bankruptcy Code – A Model for the New German Insolvency Plan Procedure	161
	Marked Differences Between the Two Laws	162
IV.	Insolvenzplan	164
	Filing of the Plan	164
	Assessment of the Plan by the Insolvency Court	167
	Hearing for Evaluation and Voting	167
	Confirmation of the Plan by the Insolvency Court	168
	Execution of the Plan	169
V.	Problems Affecting the Acceptance and Effectiveness of the Insolvency Plan Procedure	170
	Taxation of Profits Resulting from Restructuring	171
	Interference with Rights of Shareholders	171
	Self-Administration and Imminent Insolvency	173
	Lack of Provisions for Group Insolvencies	177
VI.	EC Regulation 1346/2000: Selected Issues and German Case Law	178
VII.	Conclusion	184

Chapter 8Corporate Rescue in GreeceAlexandra Kastrinou*

	I. Introduction	187
	II. LD 3562/56 on 'Placing Companies Limited by Shares Under the Administration and Management of Creditors and Placing under Special Winding-up'	188
	III. The Compulsory Rejuvenation of L1386/83 on 'Organization for Economic Reconstruction of Enterprises' (OAE), which Concerns Public Limited Companies under the Supervision of the State	189
	Critical Evaluation	190
IV.	Law 1892/90 on 'Modernization and Development and Other Provisions' (Articles 44, 45, 46, 46a)	191
	The Criteria of Eligibility for the Regime	191
	Article 44 First Stage	191

Article 45 Appointment of the Trustee	192
Articles 46 and 46(a) Special Liquidation (Administration) of the company	194
Article 46	194
Article 46a	194
The Procedure	195
V. Summary and Evaluation	197

Chapter 9

Hong Kong Corporate Rescue: Developments and Debate From a PRC Mainland Judge's Viewpoint Bingkun Ye and Xiaoli Sa	199
---	-----

I. Introduction	199
II. Framework of Provisional Supervision	200
III. Debates: Groups Concerned with the Provisional Supervision	203
Provisional Supervision and Employees	204
Provisional Supervision and Creditors	207
Veto Power of the Major Secured Creditor (MSC)	208
Protection of Secured Creditors' Rights	210
Enhancing Unsecured Creditors' Confidence:
The Avoidance Power of the Provisional Supervisor	211
Provisional Supervision and Shareholders	212
IV. Conclusion	213

Chapter 10

Hungary: Pitfalls of the Current Legislation and Potential for Future Reforms Dr Andrea Csóke	215
--	-----

I. History	215
Economic Transition	216
II. Framework Under the 1991 Act	217
III. Bankruptcy Proceedings	219
Basic Structure	219
Problems Hampering the Development of a Rescue Culture	221
The Problem of Phoenix Companies	223
IV. The Liquidation Proceeding	223
Examination of Insolvency	223
Test of Insolvency	225
The Need for a Moratorium	226
Jurisdiction	227
The Second Part of Liquidation	227

The Composition Negotiation	229
Reorganization by the Liquidator	231
Creditors' Committee	232
Financing	234
V. The Future	234
Outline of reform proposals	235
Progress of the reforms	237
VI. Conclusion	239

Chapter 11

Insolvency Procedures in Italy Prof. Alberto Jorio	241
---	-----

I. The Regulation of Legal Procedures Prior to the 2005 Reform - Bankruptcy	241
II. The Procedures of Composition with Creditors and Supervised Administration	244
III. Compulsory Administrative Liquidation and Special Administration of Large-Scale Enterprises	245
IV. Extrajudicial Settlements	247
V. Conclusions on the Regulation Prior to 2005	248
The Historic Origins of the Administrative Intervention on Business Crises	248
VI. The 2005 Reform - New Composition with Creditors	250
VII. New Bankruptcy	253
VIII. Conclusions	254
Adaptation of the Italian System to the Criteria Existing on the Principal Legislations; Remaining Individual Aspects	254

Chapter 12

Corporate Rescue Law in New Zealand David Brown	257
--	-----

I. Introduction	257
II. Background	257
Statutory Framework	259
III. Existing New Zealand Insolvency Procedures	259
Liquidation	259
Receivership	262
IV. Statutory Management	264
V. Existing Corporate Rescue Procedures	266
Part 14 Companies Act 1993	267
Part 15 Companies Act	268

VI.	Proposed Voluntary Administration Procedure	269
VII.	Directors' Duties	274
VIII.	Cross-Border Insolvency	276
IX.	Voidable Transactions	278
X.	Regulation of Insolvency Practitioners	278

Chapter 13

Bankruptcy and Recovery Law in Poland

Jan Zdzienicki and Marcin Ciemiński

I.	Introduction	281
II.	Prerequisites for Bankruptcy	282
III.	Proceedings on the Bankruptcy Declaration	284
IV.	Types of Bankruptcy and Recovery Law Proceedings	286
V.	Bankruptcy Proceedings Aimed at Composition	286
VI.	Recovery Proceedings	287
VII.	Supervisory Arrangements	289
VIII.	The Role of Creditors	290
IX.	Advantages and Disadvantages of Restructuring through Bankruptcy or Recovery Proceedings (as Opposed to Informal, Out-of-Court Solutions)	292
X.	Directors' Obligations	293
XI.	The Effect of Proceedings Aimed at Composition on Debt Collection and the Enforcement of Security	294
XII.	The Effect of Bankruptcy on the Management	295
XIII.	Avoidance of Antecedent Transactions	296
XIV.	Funding and the Priority Given to 'New Money'	297
XV.	Recognition of Foreign Insolvency Proceedings	298
XVI.	Summary	299

Chapter 14

South African Corporate Rescue

Anneli Loubser

I.	Introduction	301
II.	Judicial Management	302
	Circumstances in which a Judicial Management Order may be Granted	303
	Inability to Pay Debts or Meet Obligations	303
	'Has Not Become or is Prevented from Becoming a Successful Concern'	304

	Reasonable Probability that it will be Enabled to Pay its Debts and Become a Successful Concern If it Appears Just and Equitable	304
	Requirements where an Application for the Winding-up of the Company is Before the Court	305
	Procedure	306
	Provisional Judicial Management Order	306
	Moratorium	307
	Variation of the Order	307
	Meetings of Interested Parties	308
	Provisional Judicial Manager	308
	Qualifications of Insolvency Practitioners	308
	Duties	309
	Final Judicial Management Order	310
	Final Judicial Manager	311
	Effects on Employees	313
	Termination of a Judicial Management Order	314
III.	Criticism of judicial management	315
IV.	Future Developments in South Africa	316

Chapter 15

The Spanish Insolvency Act: A Critical Evaluation

Rafael Sebastián

I.	Introduction	319
II.	The Insolvency Act	319
	Who May File for Insolvency?	321
	Key Players in Insolvency Proceedings	322
	Clawback and Ineffectiveness of Certain Transactions	323
	Ranking of Creditors	324
	Subordination of Credits	325
	Termination of the Insolvency Proceedings	328
	International Insolvencies	329
	Common Issues	329
	Out-of-Court Composition Agreements	329
	Cram-Downs	330
III.	Forum Shopping in International Insolvencies	330
	Insolvency Procedures Involving a Foreign Element	330
	Forum Shopping	331

Chapter 16
Corporate Rescue Law in the United States	333
Paul B. Lewis
I. Introduction	333
II. The Pre-1934 Period	334
III. Corporate Rescue from 1934 to 1978	336
IV. The Chapter 11 Era (Post-1978)	339
Chapter 11 – A Primer	339
V. Corporate Rescue Law Post Enactment of the 1978 Bankruptcy Code	343
The 1984 Amendments	343
The 1994 Amendments	344
The 2005 Amendments	345
Main Reforms	346
Small Business Debtors	347
Other Reforms	348
Conflict of Laws Issues	348
VI. Significant Supreme Court case law	349
VII. The Applications of Chapter 11: is its Core Function Changing?	353
VIII. Conclusion	355
Chapter 17
Cross-border Insolvency, The EC Regulation and the UNCITRAL Model Law	357
Kate Dawson
I. Introduction	357
II. Theoretical and Historical Perspectives	359
III. Exercise of Jurisdiction	363
Compatibility	363
Scope	363
Centre of Main Interests	366
Opening of Secondary Proceedings or Non-Main Proceedings	371
Insolvency Procedures	374
IV. Applicable Law 588	376
V. Recognition	380
VI. Coordination of Secondary Proceedings	383
VII. Creditors and Lodgement of Claims	385
VIII. Conclusion	386
Index	389

About the Editors and Contributors

Katarzyna Gromek Broc is a lecturer at the University of Hull and in 2003 was a visiting Professor at Golden Gate University, San Francisco and Stetson University, Florida. She is an expert in European Union law and has numerous publications in this area. She has an interest in UK insolvency law and she was the co-editor of Corporate Rescue in Europe: An Overview of Recent Developments from Selected Countries in Europe (London: Kluwer, 2004). She holds degrees from Universities in France and Italy.

Rebecca Parry is a senior lecturer at the University of Leicester. Her research specialization is corporate insolvency law. In 2004 Rebecca visited ZERP, a research unit at the University of Bremen, where she took part in a project investigating the position of sureties under the draft EU directive on consumer credit. This project was funded by the European Union under the Marie Curie Fellowships scheme. She is a contributing editor of Mithani, Directors' Disqualification (Butterworths, looseleaf) and is the author of Transaction Avoidance in Insolvencies (Oxford University Press, 2001). She also co-edited Corporate Rescue in Europe: An Overview of Recent Developments from Selected Countries in Europe (London: Kluwer, 2004).

Demetra Arsalidou is a Lecturer in Law at the University of Cardiff and an Associate Member of the Centre for Business Relationships Accountability, Sustainability and Society, Cardiff. She previously worked as a lecturer at Monash University, Australia and the University of Exeter. She has been teaching company law for a number of years and her research interests lie in the area of directors' duties on insolvency, disqualification and comparative corporate governance.

David Brown (MA Oxon) is a Senior Lecturer in Law at Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand. He teaches and researches in insolvency, corporate governance, and property law, and is the author of Corporate Rescue (Wiley, 1996) an insolvency consultant to Lovells (UK) and to the New Zealand government. He has co-authored Brooker's Insolvency Law (looseleaf) and is a Law Society member of the Joint Insolvency Committee of accountants and solicitors on insolvency law reform.

Marcin Ciemiński is a Polish qualified barrister (member of the Bar Association in Warsaw) in the litigation and arbitration department at Clifford Chance in Warsaw, Poland. He represents clients in different arbitrations and litigations including the insolvency proceedings. Marcin Ciemiński graduated from Warsaw University and the British Centre for English and European Legal Studies co-organized by Cambridge University. He also received a scholarship from the University of Regensburg in Germany. Marcin Ciemiński is currently preparing a PhD dissertation at Warsaw University. He is the author of legal publications on civil, commercial and civil procedure law.