

Contents

Acknowledgements .....	v
Table of Cases .....	xv

Part I: Introduction

1. Uniform Customs Administration in the European Union .....	3
---	---

Part II: The EU Customs Union and the WTO

2. The EU Customs Union in the European Union's Legal System .....	11
I. EU Customs Law as a Pioneer for the Europeanisation of Administrative Law .....	11
II. History of the EU Customs Union .....	13
III. Current Legal Framework of the EU Customs Union .....	19
A. The Common Customs Tariff .....	20
1. The Harmonised System .....	21
2. The Combined Nomenclature .....	22
3. The TARIC .....	23
4. The National Working Tariffs .....	25
B. The Community Customs Code: Main Regulatory Aspects of the Community Customs Code and its Implementing Provisions .....	26
IV. The Need for a Reform of EU Customs Law to Enhance Uniform Customs Administration .....	28
A. The Requirement for Uniform Application of EU Customs Law .....	28
B. Customs Specific Problems Regarding Uniform Implementation in EU Member States .....	32
C. Special Reports by the European Court of Auditors Regarding Uniform EU Customs Administration .....	35
D. Negative Consequences Resulting from Non-Uniform Customs Administration and the Need for a Reform of EU Customs .....	37
V. Conclusion .....	39

3. Standards of WTO Law: Uniformity of the Administration of Law According to Article X:3(a) GATT 1994 and its Implications for EU Customs Law .....	41
I. Exigencies of Uniformity in Article X:3(a) GATT 1994 .....	41
A. The Term ‘Administration’ .....	42
1. Ordinary Meaning .....	42
2. Context .....	44
3. Conclusion .....	46
B. The Term ‘Uniform’ .....	46
1. Ordinary Meaning .....	47
2. Context .....	48
3. Conclusion .....	49
II. Relevance for the Administration of EU Customs Law .....	50
A. Uniform Administration as Own Obligation of the European Union in the Area of Customs Administration .....	50
B. Specific Content of the Obligation to Uniform Administration with Regard to the EU System of Customs Administration .....	51
1. Provisions of a Discretionary Nature .....	52
(a) Penalty Provisions and Customs Offences .....	53
(b) Audit Procedures .....	54
2. Undefined Legal Terms in EU Customs Law .....	55
(a) Tariff Classification .....	56
1. Classification of Network Cards for Personal Computers .....	57
2. Classification of LCD Flat Monitors with a Digital Video Interface .....	58
3. Classification of Blackout Drapery Lining .....	60
(b) Customs Valuation .....	61
(c) Customs Procedures .....	63
(d) Summary .....	65
3. Administrative Process and Administration Structure and Design .....	65
4. Violation of EU Customs Law .....	67
III. Conclusion .....	69

Part III: The Great Reform of EU Customs

4. Modernised Customs Code, Electronic Customs Initiative and the Future Customs Initiative .....	73
I. The Security Amendment—A Minor Reform .....	73
II. The Need for a Great Reform: The Changing Environment and New Role for EU Customs .....	77
III. Simplifying Legislation: The ‘Better Regulation’ Initiative .....	80
A. The Modernised Customs Code (MCC) .....	83
B. The Modernised Implementing Provisions (MCCIP) .....	86

C.	Dependency on Supporting IT Systems .....	89
D.	Progress on the ‘Better Regulation’ Initiative .....	90
IV.	The Electronic Customs Initiative .....	92
A.	Background of the Electronic Customs Initiative .....	93
B.	The E-Customs Decision .....	95
C.	Multi-Annual Strategic Plan (MASP) .....	97
D.	Progress on the Electronic Customs Initiative .....	100
V.	The Future Customs Initiative .....	103
A.	Background of the Future Customs Initiative .....	104
B.	Progress on the Future Customs Initiative .....	106
1.	Strategic Discussions .....	106
2.	Summary .....	108
C.	Future Actions .....	109
VI.	Conclusion .....	110
5.	Recast of the Great Reform: The Union Customs Code and European IT Strategy .....	112
I.	Legal Aspects .....	115
A.	The Impact of the Lisbon Treaty .....	115
1.	Differentiation Between Articles 290 and 291 TFEU .....	116
2.	Need for an Alignment of the Modernised Customs Code .....	119
3.	Impact of the Lisbon Treaty on the Modernised Customs Code Implementing Provisions .....	121
B.	Other Changes in the Union Customs Code .....	121
C.	New Timing for the Legal Reform .....	124
D.	Conclusion .....	126
II.	IT Aspects .....	127
A.	Centralised IT Approach .....	129
B.	IT Strategy for Trans-European Networks .....	130
C.	Conclusion .....	132
III.	Operational Aspects .....	132
IV.	Conclusion .....	135
	Part IV: Implementation of the European Union’s Customs Law and Strategies for Enhancing Uniform Administration
6.	The System of Decentralised Implementation in EU Customs Administration .....	139
I.	Status Quo and Development Regarding an EU Customs Procedure Union .....	142
A.	Regulation of EU Customs Procedures in the Community Customs Code .....	143
1.	Supplementary Effectiveness of National Administrative Procedural Law .....	145

(a)	References to Domestic Law .....	146
(b)	Margins of Discretion .....	147
(c)	Undefined Legal Terms.....	148
(d)	Summary.....	149
2.	Minimum Standard of General Principles in EU Customs Procedures.....	150
3.	Conclusion .....	151
B.	Development Towards a Stronger EU Customs Procedure Union and Strategies for Enhancing Uniform Application Under the Union Customs Code .....	151
1.	Establishment of Electronic Customs.....	151
2.	Reduction of Customs Procedures and More Coherent Structure of the Code.....	152
3.	Simplified Legal Terminology .....	154
4.	Union-Wide Validity of Customs Decisions .....	155
5.	Reduction of References to Domestic Law .....	156
6.	First Steps Towards Harmonisation of Administrative Penalties and Further Harmonisation in Customs Appeal Procedures .....	158
C.	Conclusion .....	161
II.	Status Quo and Development Regarding an EU Customs Administration Union.....	161
A.	The Legal Possibility for Direct Implementation in EU Customs Administration.....	162
1.	The Principle of Subsidiarity .....	163
2.	Criteria for the Need of Uniform Implementing Conditions Pursuant to Article 291 Paragraph 2 TFEU .....	166
3.	Conclusion .....	167
B.	Special Provisions in EU Customs Law Regarding Administrative Organisation.....	168
1.	Community Customs Code .....	169
2.	Union Customs Code .....	170
C.	Conclusion .....	172
7.	Administrative Cooperation as a Strategy for Enhancing Uniform Customs Administration .....	173
I.	Legal Basis for Customs Cooperation .....	176
II.	Rules for Mutual Assistance of Administrative Bodies in EU Customs Law .....	179
A.	Mutual Assistance Regulation .....	181
B.	Naples II Convention.....	185
C.	Conclusion .....	186

III.	Ad Hoc Cooperation in EU Customs
	Administration Practice .....	187
IV.	Customs Action Programme.....	189
	A. History of the Customs Action Programme.....	191
	B. The Customs 2013 Programme .....	193
	1. IT Action .....	194
	2. Joint Action and Training.....	194
	3. Effectiveness of the Customs 2013 Programme .....	195
	C. The Customs 2020 Programme .....	197
	D. Summary .....	197
V.	Conclusion.....	198
8.	Role, Competences and Strategies of the European Commission .....	199
	I. Legislative Functions and ‘Quasi-Legislative’ Functions .....	199
	A. Right of Initiative.....	199
	B. Competences Regarding Tertiary Law-Making Pursuant to Article 290 TFEU.....	201
	1. Requirements for Delegated Acts Pursuant to Article 290 TFEU .....	204
	2. Delegated Powers of the European Commission in EU Customs Law .....	205
	3. Conclusion .....	208
	II. Administrative Functions.....	208
	A. Coordination, Management, Monitoring and Assistance as the Main Administrative Functions.....	209
	B. Exceptional Competence for Administrative Decisions and New Implementing Powers Pursuant to Article 291 TFEU .....	211
	1. Control Under the Comitology Regulation.....	213
	2. Legal Nature of Implementing Acts.....	216
	3. Conferral of Implementing Powers in the Union Customs Code.....	218
	(a) Atypical Acts .....	219
	(b) Generally Applicable Acts and the Examination Procedure.....	219
	(c) Individual Acts and the Advisory Procedure.....	220
	4. Conclusion .....	221
	C. Instruments for Supervision of National Implementation.....	222
	1. Inspections and Reporting Obligations.....	222
	2. Practice of Revenue Allocation .....	224
	3. Soft Law Acts as Guidance for Administrative Practice .....	226

(a)	Legal Character of Soft Law Acts .....	229
(b)	Indirect Legal Effects of Soft Law Especially in Terms of Self-Binding Commitment .....	233
(c)	Indirect Legal Effects of Soft Law in EU Customs Law .....	236
(d)	Practical Effects of Soft Law Acts .....	238
(e)	Practical Effects of Soft Law in EU Customs.....	239
(f)	No Authoritative Interpretation of EU Law by the European Commission.....	240
(g)	Summary.....	241
III.	Assistance by the Customs Code Committee.....	242
IV.	Conclusion.....	246
9.	Summarising the Implementation System of EU Customs Law .....	247
	Part V: Specific Areas of EU Customs
10.	Special Tools and Mechanisms for ‘Uniformisation’ of EU Customs Law Implementation in Specific Areas of EU Customs.....	253
I.	Classification .....	253
A.	General Rules and Legal Notes of the Harmonised System by the WCO .....	255
B.	HS Explanatory Notes and HS Classification Opinions of the WCO .....	256
C.	Classification Regulations and CN Legal Notes of the European Commission .....	259
1.	The Relation of Classification Regulations and CN Legal Notes to WTO Law, WCO Law and the Harmonised System.....	262
2.	Timely Applicability of Classification Regulations .....	264
3.	Summary .....	265
D.	CN Explanatory Notes of the European Commission.....	265
1.	Soft Law Character of CN Explanatory Notes.....	266
2.	The Problematic De Facto Binding Force of CN Explanatory Notes.....	269
3.	The Problematic Combination of De Facto Binding Force and Retroactive Effect of CN Explanatory Notes.....	272
4.	Summary .....	273
E.	Binding Tariff Information (BTI) .....	274
1.	The EBTI Database .....	275
2.	The Problematic Potential of BTI-Shopping.....	276
3.	BTI as an Interpretative Aid .....	278

- 4. Inconsistencies in Decisions Relating to BTI.....280
- 5. Summary.....283
- F. Conclusion .....284
- II. Valuation .....285
  - A. Customs Valuation Compendium .....288
  - B. Binding Valuation Information (BVI) as Part of the Reform .....289
  - C. Conclusion .....291
- III. Origin .....291
- IV. Conclusion .....293

Part VI: Final Conclusion

- 11. Potential for Improving Uniform Customs Administration.....299

- Bibliography*.....308

- Index* .....331

<http://www.pbookshop.com>