

Contents

Preface to the third edition	v
Acknowledgments	xv

Chapter 1

Cross-examination: preliminary 1

I	What is cross-examination?	1
II	The rules of evidence	2
III	Professional ethics	2
IV	Examination-in-chief	4
V	Re-examination	4
VI	Final speeches	5
VII	The reality underlying the trial	6
VIII	Presenting a story	8
IX	The role of cross-examination	8

Chapter 2

The anatomy of a criminal trial 11

I	Alternative defences	11
II	Commission of crime as the issue	14
	A	Result-crimes	14
	B	Conduct-crimes	16
	C	Object-crimes	16
III	Identity as the issue	17
	A	Accused not at locus	18
	B	Alibi	19
	C	Accused at locus, but was not the offender	20

Chapter 3

The reliability of evidence21

I	The problem of reliability	21
II	Errors generally	23
	A Errors of observation	23
	1 The event	23
	2 Conditions of observation	31
	3 State of witness	33
	B Errors of memory	36
	1 Forgetting	37
	2 Suggestion	38
III	Errors in evidence of identity	41
	A Visual identification	43
	1 Recognition	43
	2 Resemblance	44
	3 Distinctive characteristics	45
	4 Descriptions	45
	5 Facial likeness systems	46
	6 Photographs	47
	7 Identification out of court	48
	8 Identification parades	49
	9 Dock identification	50
	B Circumstantial evidence	51
IV	Exposing errors or unreliable evidence	53
	A Rapport with witness	53
	B Professional detachment	55
	C Control of witness	55
	D Questions	55
	E Defined aims	57
	F When to stop	59

Chapter 4

The credibility of evidence61

I	Introduction	61
II	Analysis of lying	66
	A Witnesses who lie	66
	1 Prosecution witnesses	67
	2 Defence witnesses	69

	3 Independent witnesses	70
	4 Specially-motivated witnesses	71
B	Subjects of lying	71
C	Forms of lying	72
	1 Affirmative and negative lies	72
	2 Reluctance and evasiveness	73
	3 Omissions	74
	4 False qualifications	76
III	Detection and exposure of lying	77
	A Challenging the witness	79
	1 Personality	79
	2 Character	81
	3 Motives	83
	4 Demeanour	86
	B Challenging the evidence	92
	1 Inconsistency	93
	2 Impossibility	95
	3 Improbability	95
	4 Lack of realism	97

Chapter 5

Examination-in-chief99

I	Introduction	100
	A Relationship to cross-examination	100
	B Aims of examination-in-chief	100
	C Theory of case	101
	D Comprehension	103
	1 Speech	103
	2 Language	104
	3 Place	104
	4 People	104
	5 Sequence	104
	6 Visual aids	105
	7 Repetition	105
	8 Variation	105
	9 Expansion	105
E	Persuasion	106
	1 The story	106
	2 Realism	106

	3	Visualisation	107
	4	Theme	107
	5	Weaknesses	107
II		Witnesses	108
	A	Selection of witnesses	108
	B	Sequence of witnesses	109
	C	Anxious witnesses	110
	D	Unfavourable witnesses	111
III		Questions	112
	A	Leading questions	112
	B	Controlled questioning	114
	C	Free narrative	116
	D	Purpose of question	117
	E	Answer known	117
	F	Rate of questioning	118
	G	One point	118
	H	Brevity	118
	I	Clarity	119
	J	Simplicity	119
	K	Detail	119
	L	Comment on answers	119
IV		Anticipating cross-examination	120
	A	Disclosure of weaknesses	120
		1 Advantages of disclosure	121
		2 Disadvantages of disclosure	122
		3 Conclusions	122
	B	Reinforcing evidence	123
		1 Trust in witnesses	124
		2 Reasonable evidence	126
		3 Volume of evidence	129
		4 Contradiction	129

Chapter 6

Cross-examination: foundations 131

I		Preparation	131
	A	Time required	131
	B	Theory of case	132
	C	Outline of strategy	133
II		Strategy	135

	A	Deciding to cross-examine: objectives	135
	B	Witnesses liable to cross-examination	138
	C	Subjects of cross-examination	139
	D	Sequence of cross-examination	139
	E	Brevity	143
	F	The story	144
	G	Tactics: the alternatives	145
III		Questions	151
	A	Purpose	151
	B	Form	151
	C	Control	152
	D	Leading questions	152
	E	Clarity	153
	F	Repeating answers	153
	G	Misleading questions	154
	H	Series of questions	155
	I	Rate of questioning	156

Chapter 7

Cross-examination: constructive techniques 157

I		Introduction	157
II		Emphasis	159
III		New meanings	161
IV		New facts	164
V		Alternative case	165

Chapter 8

Cross-examination: destructive techniques 167

I		Foundations	167
	A	Destruction of evidence	168
	B	Belief and disbelief in evidence	170
	C	Trust in witnesses	171
	D	Reasonable evidence	173
	E	Contradiction	175
	F	Weight of the evidence	176
II		Challenging the witness	177
	A	Personality	177
	B	Character	178

C	Demeanour	179
D	Motivation	180
III	Challenging the evidence	183
A	Inconsistency	183
B	Improbability	186
C	Lack of realism	187
D	The context	188
IV	Tactics	190
A	General	190
B	Challenge	191
C	Contradiction	192
D	Direct tactics	192
E	Indirect tactics	193

Chapter 9

Cross-examination: common problems 195

I	The issues	195
A	Crime as the issue	195
1	Result-crimes	196
2	Conduct-crimes	200
3	Object-crimes	201
B	Identification as the issue	202
1	Visual identification	202
2	Circumstantial evidence	204
3	Confessions and admissions	205
4	Alibi evidence	215
II	The witnesses	217
A	Prosecution witnesses	217
1	Police	217
2	Complainants	220
3	Accomplices	225
4	Children	225
5	Expert witnesses	229
B	Defence witnesses	233

Chapter 10

Re-examination 245

I	Introduction	245
---	--------------	-----

II	Permitted topics	246
III	Leading questions	247
IV	When to re-examine	249
V	How to re-examine	251
A	General	251
B	Countering constructive cross-examination	251
C	Countering destructive cross-examination	252

Chapter 11

Cross-examination: closing speeches 257

I	Aims of closing speeches	257
II	content of closing speeches	259
A	Introduction	260
B	The issues of fact	260
C	The issues of law	262
D	Peroration	262

Chapter 12

Applications 265

I	Using this book	265
II	Planning cross-examination	266
A	Whether to cross-examine	266
B	Facts to cover	267
C	Constructive or destructive cross-examination	268
D	Cross-examining constructively	269
1	Emphasis	270
2	New meaning	270
3	New facts	271
4	Alternative case	272
E	Cross-examining destructively	272
1	Choosing the form of challenge	273
2	Challenging credibility	274
3	Challenging reliability	276
4	Challenging identification evidence	278
	Postscript	280

Index	281
-------	-----