

Table of contents

PART 1: Principles

What is infrastructure?

Financial structures

Options for government:
which structure for project implementation?

Risk

Sources of finance for infrastructure

Quantitative analysis

The contractual framework:
key issues & clauses

The project process

PART 2: Case histories: practice and experience

Transport: Roads & highways

Transport: Bridges and tunnels

Transport: rail

Transport: metros and light rail/trams

Transport: ports

Transport: airports

Power generation: coal, oil, gas

Power: Hydro-power

Power: Nuclear

Power: Renewables

Oil and gas and power:
transmission and distribution

Water and waste

Miscellaneous government services

UK Infrastructure:
issues & challenges

Concluding comments