

CONTENTS

Foreword	v
Preface	vii
Table of Cases	xlvi
Table of Legislation	lxxiii
Table of International Laws, Conventions, Treaties and General Comments	lxxxii

PREAMBLE

P.1	Structure of the Preamble	1
P.2	Judicial consideration of the Preamble	2
P.3	Perspectives on the constitutional principle of “One Country, Two Systems”	3

CHAPTER I GENERAL PRINCIPLES

Article 1	Inalienability of HKSAR
	1.1 Inalienable part of the People’s Republic of China	5
	1.2 Judicial application of Article 1	6
	1.3 Drafting history	7
Article 2	Authorisation of Powers of HKSAR
	2.1 Meaning of “high degree of autonomy”	7
	2.2 Meaning of “independent judicial power”	8
	2.3 Qualifications on “autonomy”	8
	2.4 Drafting history	9
Article 3	Composition of Executive Authorities and Legislature
	3.1 Vesting executive and legislative power in permanent residents of the Region gives effect to a “high degree of autonomy”	10
	3.2 Meaning of “permanent residents”	10
	3.3 Drafting history	10
Article 4	Duties of HKSAR to Residents
	4.1 Reinforcement of “fundamental rights” as critical to Basic Law	11

4.2	Distinction drawn between “residents” and “other persons” is material	11
4.3	Meaning of “residents”	12
4.4	Meaning of “... in the Region”	12
4.5	Scope of fundamental rights for those persons not formally “in the Region”	13
4.6	Drafting history	14
Article 5	Guarantee of Protection of Capitalist System and Existing Way of Life
5.1	Drafting history	14
Article 6	Protection of Private Property
6.1	Property protections critical to “two-systems” formulation	15
6.2	Comparison with the PRC Constitution	16
6.3	Whether Article 6 adds to Article 105	16
6.4	Drafting history	17
Article 7	State Ownership of Land and Natural Resources
7.1	Comparison with the PRC Constitution	17
7.2	The land in Hong Kong became property of the Chinese State on and after 1 July 1997	18
7.3	Continuation of same land ownership rights after 1 July 1997	19
7.4	Government exercising its power in relation to leases of land in Hong Kong	20
7.5	Government leases land in private capacity	20
7.6	Drafting history	22
Article 8	Continuity of Laws
8.1	Continuity integral to Basic Law	23
8.2	Article 8 overlaps with Articles 18 and 160	23
8.3	Pre-Handover decisions by Privy Council on appeal from Hong Kong remain binding on lower courts	24
8.3.1	Where Privy Council decisions overruled	25
8.4	Meaning of “common law,” “rules of equity”	25
8.4.1	“Common law” and the doctrine of incorporation	26
8.4.2	Custom and Chung Chi Cheung consistency	26
8.4.3	Application of the incorporation doctrine	26
8.4.4	Meaning of “equity”	28

8.5	Post-Handover courts under duty to develop common law and equity to meet changing needs of society	28
8.6	Scope of reference to common law and equity by Article 8	29
8.7	Continuity of Ordinances post-Handover	30
8.8	Meaning of “Chinese customary law”	33
8.8.1	Chinese custom in Ordinances	34
8.8.2	Well-established practice of receiving expert evidence on Chinese custom	34
8.9	Whether Basic Law retroactive	34
8.10	Drafting history	37
Article 9	Official Languages
9.1	Article 9 only has vertical application	37
9.2	English “may also be used”	38
9.3	Resolving discrepancies between Chinese and English versions of legal instruments	38
9.4	“Chinese language” might refer to Cantonese	39
9.4.1	There is no right to be directly understood in Cantonese by the courts	39
9.5	Non-official languages	40
9.6	Drafting history	41
Article 10	Official Flag and Emblem
10.1	PRC Constitution	41
10.2	Statutory protection of national and regional flags	42
10.3	Drafting history	42
Article 11	Consistency of Other Laws with Basic Law
11.1	Hong Kong courts have the power of constitutional review and the ability to declare unconstitutional legislation invalid	43
11.2	Drafting history	44
CHAPTER II RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE CENTRAL AUTHORITIES AND THE HKSAR
Article 12	HKSAR as Local Administrative Region with High Degree of Autonomy
12.1	The HKSAR is an “administrative region” established under the authority of the CPG	47

12.2	The HKSAR shall enjoy a high degree of autonomy and come directly under the CPG	48
12.3	Drafting history	49
Article 13	Responsibilities Regarding Foreign and External Affairs
13.1	Distinction between "foreign affairs" and "external affairs"	50
13.2	Hong Kong cannot adhere to a doctrine of state immunity distinct from that of the CPG	50
13.3	Drafting history	51
Article 14	Responsibilities Regarding Defence and Public Order
14.1	The People's Liberation Army maintains a Garrison in Hong Kong	52
14.2	Public order is to ordinarily be maintained by a Hong Kong-controlled civilian police force	52
14.3	Drafting history	53
Article 15	Appointment of Chief Executive and Principal Officials
15.1	Extent of CPG power under Article 15	54
15.2	Drafting history	54
Article 16	Executive Power of HKSAR
16.1	Drafting history	55
Article 17	Legislative Power of HKSAR
17.1	No invalidation yet under Article 17(3)	56
17.2	Drafting history	56
Article 18	Application of National Laws to HKSAR
18.1	Article 18 gives effect to the Sino-British Joint Declaration regarding Hong Kong's separate legal system	57
18.2	The Region has some leeway in how it applies national laws	58
18.3	National laws that apply only to a portion of Hong Kong do not necessarily come within the ambit of Article 18 and thus need not be added to Annex III	58
18.4	Modification of laws listed in Annex III	59
18.5	Drafting history	60
Article 19	Independent Judicial Power of HKSAR
19.1	The Courts of Hong Kong have independent judicial power, including that of final adjudication	61
19.2	The right of independent adjudication does not detract from the overarching authority of the NPCSC under Article 158	62

19.3	Article 19 does not apply to administrative tribunals	62
19.4	The jurisdiction of the courts of Hong Kong is limited by traditional common law principles	63
19.5	The Courts of Hong Kong have no jurisdiction over acts of state such as defence or foreign affairs	64
19.5.1	Meaning of "acts of state"	64
19.5.2	The doctrine of state immunity is an "act of state"	64
19.5.3	Powers of local courts re: acts of state	65
19.6	Certificate from the Chief Executive is required only where there is doubt or controversy over facts	65
19.7	Drafting history	66
Article 20	Other Powers May be Granted
20.1	Usage	67
20.2	Drafting history	67
Article 21	Right of HKSAR Residents to Participate in State Affairs
21.1	People's Deputies of Hong Kong to National People's Congress	68
21.2	Drafting history	68
Article 22	Operation of CPG Departments within HKSAR
22.1	Article 22 and its connection to the "right of abode"	69
22.2	Drafting history	70
Article 23	Obligation to Create Anti-Sedition/National Security Laws
23.1	No laws yet enacted in Hong Kong to give effect to Article 23	71
23.2	Drafting history	71
CHAPTER III FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF THE RESIDENTS
Article 24	Rights of Residency
24.1	Meaning of "Chinese nationality"	74
24.2	Meaning of "right of abode"	75
24.3	The "right of abode" should be construed generously	76
24.4	Meaning of "Chinese citizens born in Hong Kong"	76
24.5	Meaning of "Persons of Chinese nationality born outside Hong Kong of those residents listed in categories (1) and (2)"	77

24.6	“Right of abode” controversies and the relationship between the CFA and the NPCSC	78
24.7	Article 24(2)(3) applies to natural, not adopted, children	78
24.8	Application by non-Chinese citizens for permanent residence status	78
24.8.1	Meaning of “ordinarily resident”	79
24.8.1.1	“Ordinarily resident” and immigration status	79
24.8.1.2	The above does not apply to those who reside in Hong Kong on the strength of a “foreign domestic helper” visa	80
24.8.1.3	“Ordinary residence” and other visa types	80
24.8.2	The seven-year period	81
24.8.2.1	Operation of the seven-year requirement	81
24.8.2.2	Calculating the seven-year period	82
24.8.3	The requirement to demonstrate “permanence”	83
24.8.3.1	Satisfaction of requirements of permanent residency	84
24.8.3.2	Permanence requirement can be satisfied when applicant still subject to limit of stay	85
24.8.3.3	Acquisition of permanent status and limits of stay	85
24.8.4	Eligibility of a child to permanent residency in the absence of parent applicant(s)	85
24.8.4.1	Constitutionality of treatment of children under Immigration Ordinance in context of applying for abode	86
24.8.4.2	Special considerations for children of foreign domestic helpers	87
24.9	Drafting history	88
Article 25	Equality Before the Law
25.1	Relationship of Article 25 with Hong Kong Bill of Rights	89
25.2	Article 25 to be given generous interpretation	89
25.3	The nature of the right to equality	90
25.4	Three categories of discrimination	91
25.5	Nature of the “justification test” for restrictions on the Right to Equality	93

25.5.1	The Government’s burden of justification	93
25.5.2	Where differential treatment is justified	94
25.5.3	Meaning of “differential treatment”	95
25.5.4	Test for “differential treatment”	95
25.5.5	Relevance of Comparators	96
25.6	Unconstitutional infringements of Article 25 rights	99
25.7	Constitutionally justified restrictions on Article 25 rights	101
25.8	Common law rationality review	105
25.9	Drafting history	105
25.10	Legislation	106
Article 26	Electoral Rights
26.1	Article 26 is to be interpreted purposively	106
26.2	Article 26 should be read in conjunction with the Hong Kong Bill of Rights Ordinance	107
26.3	Comparative jurisprudence is relevant to interpretation of Article 26	107
26.4	Right to vote “in accordance with law”	108
26.5	Legislation	108
26.6	Scope of the right to vote	108
26.6.1	Right to vote is subject to restrictions	109
26.7	Constitutionality of functional constituencies	110
26.7.1	Alternative view of the functional constituencies	110
26.8	Unconstitutional infringements of Article 26 rights	111
26.9	Duty of Courts	111
26.10	The right to stand for election is not absolute	112
26.10.1	Right of convicted persons to stand for election	113
26.10.2	Justified restrictions on the right to stand for election	114
26.11	Drafting history	114
Article 27	Expression, Press, Association, Assembly, Procession, Demonstration, Union Rights
27.1	Interpreting Article 27	115
27.1.1	Article 27 to be given generous interpretation and any restrictions should be understood narrowly	115
27.2	Freedom of speech	117
27.2.1	Freedom of speech and defamation	118

27.2.2	Freedom of speech and confidential information	119
27.2.3	Restricting freedom of speech	121
27.2.4	The degree to which freedom of speech will be protected depends on the importance of the interest that the speech represents	122
27.2.5	Freedom of speech and the right to hold demonstration must be exercised peacefully	122
27.2.6	Compelled speech and freedom of expression	123
27.2.7	Unconstitutional infringements of free speech rights	123
27.2.8	Constitutionally justified restrictions on free speech rights	123
27.3	Freedom of association	126
27.3.1	Relation to freedom of expression	126
27.3.2	Freedom of association and the proportionality test	126
27.3.3	Constitutionally justified restrictions on freedom of association rights	127
27.4	Freedom of assembly	127
27.4.1	Freedom of assembly and the proportionality test	128
27.4.2	The "rights and freedoms of others" exception to Article 17 of the Hong Kong Bill of Rights and the right to assembly	131
27.4.3	Freedom of assembly is also subject to limitations for the protection of private property of others	132
27.4.4	Constitutionally justified restrictions on freedom of assembly rights	133
27.4.5	Unconstitutional restrictions on freedom of assembly rights	134
27.4.5.1	Freedom of assembly and the offence of obstruction	134
27.4.6	Freedom of assembly and trade unions	135
27.5	Drafting history	135
Article 28	Personal Rights Regarding Search and Seizure, Arrest, Detention, Imprisonment Torture
28.1	Overlap with Hong Kong Bill of Rights Article 5(1)	136
28.2	Meaning of "arbitrary"	136
28.3	Meaning of "unlawful arrest"	137

28.4	Meaning of "reasonable suspicion"	138
28.5	Meaning of "imprisonment"	138
28.6	Constitutionality of mandatory life sentence for murder	139
28.7	Restrictions on standing for election	140
28.8	Article 28 and immigration detentions	140
28.9	Meaning of "unlawful deprivation of life"	141
28.10	Article 28 entails both substantive and procedural obligations	141
28.11	Torture	142
28.12	Non-refoulement obligation and "high standard of fairness"	142
28.13	Drafting history	142
Article 29	Property Rights Regarding Search and Seizure
29.1	Nature of right	143
29.2	Intrusion	145
29.3	Land resumption	146
29.4	Meaning of "homes"	147
29.5	Eviction from public housing	148
29.6	Drafting history	150
Article 30	Freedom and Privacy of Communication
30.1	Scope of Article 30	150
30.2	Admissibility of evidence	151
30.3	Unconstitutional infringements of Article 30 rights	153
30.4	Constitutionally justified restrictions on Article 30 rights	153
30.5	Drafting history	153
Article 31	Freedom of Movement
31.1	Interpreting Article 31	154
31.2	Freedom of movement not absolute	154
31.2.1	Restricting Article 31	154
31.2.2	Unconstitutional limitations on Article 31	155
31.2.3	Constitutionally justified restrictions of Article 31	157
31.3	Drafting history	158
Article 32	Freedom of Conscience and Religious Belief
32.1	Interpreting Article 32	159
32.2	Meaning of "religion"	159
32.2.1	Indicia of a "religion"	159

32.2.2	In-group belief as to status as religion not determinative	160
32.3	Scope of religious freedom	160
32.4	Constitutional restrictions on Article 32 rights	161
32.5	Drafting history	161
Article 33	Freedom of Choice of Occupation
33.1	Interpretation	162
33.2	Scope of Article 33	163
33.3	Amenability to judicial review	165
33.4	Constitutionally justified restrictions on Article 33 rights	165
33.5	Drafting history	165
Article 34	Freedom to Engage in Academic Research and Artistic Creation
34.1	The values represented by Article 34 have wide application	166
34.2	Drafting history	167
Article 35	Legal Process Rights
35.1	General scope of Article 35	167
35.2	Access to courts and the rule against maintenance and champerty	168
35.3	Meaning of "courts"	169
35.4	Meaning of "access to the courts"	170
35.5	Meaning of "choice of lawyers"	172
35.6	Right to fair hearing under Hong Kong Bill of Rights Article 10	173
35.7	Meaning of "judicial remedies"	173
35.7.1	Remedial interpretations	173
35.7.2	Suspension	174
35.8	Judicial review of Executive acts and decisions	175
35.9	Legal professional privilege under Article 35	175
35.9.1	Scope of privilege	175
35.9.2	Privilege entrenched for all persons in Hong Kong	177
35.9.3	Legal privilege at common law	177
35.9.4	Privilege belongs to the client	177
35.9.5	To attract legal professional privilege, client must consult with legal professional	178
35.9.6	Privilege absolute but subject to exceptions	179

35.10	Distinction between legal advice privilege and litigation privilege	181
35.10.1	Litigation privilege: must be a real prospect of litigation	181
35.11	Normative value of protection of legal privilege	182
35.12	Immunity to participants in court proceedings	183
35.13	Access to legally aided representation	184
35.14	Drafting history	187
Article 36	Social Welfare Rights
36.1	Relationship between Article 36 and Article 145	187
36.2	Hong Kong's International Obligations as an Article 36 Interpretive Consideration	187
36.3	Right to social welfare	188
36.4	Meaning of "social welfare"	189
36.5	Right to social welfare is right "in accordance with law"	190
36.6	Modification of social welfare in accordance with Article 145	191
36.7	Encroachment on right to social welfare subject to proportionality test	192
36.8	Applicability of the right to social welfare to non-residents	193
36.9	Welfare benefits and retirement security of labour force	194
36.10	Drafting history	194
Article 37	Family and Marriage Rights
37.1	Relationship with other legal instruments	195
37.2	Family life and immigration	196
37.3	The right to marry	198
37.3.1	Relevance of procreation	198
37.3.2	Physical characteristics at birth are not conclusive of a person's gender	199
37.3.3	Same-sex marriage	200
37.4	The right to raise a family	201
37.5	Socio-Economic Benefits and Article 37	203
37.6	Drafting history	204
Article 38	Other Rights
38.1	Drafting history	204
Article 39	Incorporation of ICCPR and ICESCR
39.1	Interpretation	205

39.2 Relationship to other constitutional rights	205
39.3 Interpreting restrictions on the three categories of rights	206
39.4 A "generous" interpretation should be given to the rights in Article 39	206
39.4.1 Nature of generous approach	206
39.4.2 Basic Law as a "living instrument" and irrelevance of "societal consensus"	208
39.5 Uses of comparative jurisprudence	210
39.6 Application of International Instruments	212
39.6.1 Constitutional entrenchment of the ICCPR "as applied to Hong Kong"	212
39.6.2 Extent of application of ICESCR	213
39.6.3 Hong Kong Bill of Rights Ordinance and reservation to the ICCPR in context of immigration	214
39.7 Constitutional significance of the ICESCR	216
39.7.1 ICESCR's legal character: from aspirational to substantive	216
39.7.2 Reservations to ICESCR	217
39.7.3 Incorporation requirement of ICESCR	218
39.7.4 Sector-specific legislation.	219
39.7.5 Uses of the ICESCR	221
39.7.6 Judicial consideration of ICESCR provisions	222
39.8 Constitutional significance of International Labour Conventions	223
39.9 CESCR findings on Hong Kong	225
39.10 Justifying restrictions on Article 39 rights (and other Basic Law rights)	225
39.10.1 "No more than necessary"	227
39.10.2 "Fair balance"	228
39.10.2.1 Applications of Hysan "fair balance"	230
39.10.2.2 Leading comparative authorities on the "fair balance" test	231
39.10.3 Meaning of "prescribed by law"	231
39.10.4 Application of the legal certainty principle in Hong Kong courts	234
39.10.5 Breaches of the principle of legal certainty in Hong Kong courts	237

39.11 Due Deference/Margin of Appreciation	238
39.11.1 Deference not abdication	238
39.11.2 Variable standard of review	239
39.11.3 Wider Margins of Appreciation	241
39.12 Rights: right to a fair hearing	242
39.12.1 Application of test for fair hearing	246
39.12.2 Importance of interpretation facilities	247
39.13 Rights: right to privacy	247
39.13.1 Limiting the right to privacy	251
39.14 Rights: participation in public affairs	256
39.15 Rights: freedom from torture and inhuman and degrading treatment	258
39.15.1 Minimum level of severity	258
39.15.2 Non-refoulement	259
39.16 Rights: No slavery or servitude	261
39.17 Drafting history	261
Article 40 Traditional Rights and Interests of Indigenous Inhabitants of New Territories
40.1 Meaning of "indigenous inhabitants"	262
40.2 Legislation that specifically considers "indigenous inhabitants"	263
40.3 Lawful traditional rights and interests	263
40.4 Government rents and rates	264
40.5 Small House Policy	265
40.6 Political rights	266
40.7 Disposal of land subject to tso , t'ong , etc.	267
40.8 Drafting history	267
Article 41 Application of Rights to non-Residents
41.1 Requirement to be "in" the HKSAR	268
41.2 Object of Article 41 is to extend constitutional guarantees to non-residents	268
41.3 Range of rights to non-residents depends on the context	269
41.4 Meaning of "in accordance with law"	270
41.5 Article 41 must be read subject to Hong Kong Bill of Rights Ordinance Section 11 and Article 39	270

41.5.1	Article 41 cannot be used to challenge a detention for breach of condition of stay of non-residents	271
41.6	Drafting history	272
Article 42	Obligation to Abide by Laws
42.1	General	272
42.2	Meaning of "laws in force in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region"	274
42.3	Drafting history	274
CHAPTER IV POLITICAL STRUCTURE
SECTION 1: THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE
Article 43	Role of Chief Executive
43.1	Drafting history	275
Article 44	Eligibility of Chief Executive
44.1	Drafting history	276
Article 45	Selection of Chief Executive
45.1	The Election of Chief Executive has not yet occurred under conditions of universal suffrage: history and context	277
45.1.1	Judicial review of public consultation element	279
45.2	Procedure of Election Committee	280
45.3	Drafting history	280
Article 46	Term of Chief Executive
46.1	Consequences of inability of Chief Executive to complete five-year term	281
46.2	Drafting history	281
Article 47	Obligations of Chief Executive
47.1	Must the Chief Executive "love the country"?	281
47.2	Drafting history	282
Article 48	Powers and Functions of Chief Executive
48.1	The Chief Executive is under a duty to implement a duly enacted Ordinance	283
48.2	The CE's duty to implement the Basic Law includes bringing actions in courts to ensure both it and subsidiary legislation are complied with	284

48.3	Certain powers within Article 48 are not delegable	284
48.4	Article 48(1)(3) obligation to promulgate laws is not relevant where the Chief Executive is granted discretion by Ordinance to bring it into effect	284
48.5	Executive orders are not legislation, but they may still provide for legal rights and obligations	285
48.6	An Executive order may have retrospective effect	285
48.7	Limitations on reach of Executive orders	285
48.8	"In accordance with legal procedures" is not synonymous with "prescribed by law"	286
48.9	Hong Kong's Government is dominated by the executive branch	286
48.10	Function of Article 48(11)	287
48.11	Power of clemency	287
48.11.1	Judicial review of clemency decisions	287
48.11.2	Power of clemency not exercisable by judicial branch	288
48.12	The Chief Executive has a duty to handle petitions and complaints, but that duty may be delegated	288
48.12.1	When handling a petition or complaint, Chief Executive acting in an administrative or executive capacity, not a judicial capacity	288
48.12.2	Overlap between Article 48(1)(13) and other review	289
48.13	Drafting history	289
Article 49	Refusal of Chief Executive to Sign Bill
49.2	Drafting history	292
Article 50	Refusal of Chief Executive to Sign Bill after Procedure of Article 49
50.1	Drafting history	292
Article 51	Refusal of LegCo to Pass Budget
51.1	Drafting history	294
Article 52	Forced Resignation of Chief Executive
52.1	Drafting history	294
Article 53	Inability of CE to Discharge Duties
53.1	Where the CE is unable to complete a full five-year term.	295
53.2	Drafting history	296

Article 54	Role of Executive Council
	54.1 Drafting history	296
Article 55	Composition of Executive Council
	55.1 Drafting history	297
Article 56	Operation of Executive Council
	56.1 Drafting history	299
Article 57	Establishment of Commission Against Corruption
	57.1 Legislation	300
	57.2 Independence of the Commissioner	300
	57.3 Drafting history	300
Article 58	Establishment of Commission of Audit
	58.1 Limits of Commission of Audit's Independence	301
	58.2 Drafting history	301
SECTION 2: THE EXECUTIVE AUTHORITIES
Article 59	Government of HKSAR shall be the Executive Authorities
	59.1 Role of Executive authorities	302
	59.2 Judicial review	303
	59.3 Drafting history	303
Article 60	Head of Government is the Chief Executive; Establishment of Departments
	60.1 Role and power of Chief Executive	304
	60.2 Finance and Justice	304
	60.3 Drafting history	304
Article 61	Principal Officials
	61.1 Meaning of "principal officials"	305
	61.2 Eligibility to be a "principal official"	305
	61.3 Accountability of principal officials	305
	61.4 Drafting history	306
Article 62	Powers and Functions of the Government
	62.1 Power of the HKSAR Government to conduct external affairs	307
	62.2 Power to draw up and introduce budgets and final accounts	307

	62.3 Power to draft and introduce bills, motions and subordinate legislation	307
	62.4 Power to designate officials to sit in on meetings of the Legislative Council	308
	62.5 Due deference accorded by courts to the Executive	308
	62.5.1 "Fundamental concepts" review	309
	62.5.2 Examples	309
	62.6 Drafting history	309
Article 63	Independence of Department of Justice to Prosecute
	63.1 Importance of prosecutorial independence	310
	63.2 Scope of independence	311
	63.3 Scope of judicial review	312
	63.4 Abuse of process	313
	63.5 Private prosecutions	314
	63.6 Appointment of overseas counsel	314
	63.7 Trial venue	315
	63.8 Drafting history	315
Article 64	Obligations of Government
	64.1 Role of Executive authorities	316
	64.2 Accountability to LegCo	316
	64.3 Requirement to obtain approval from LegCo for taxation and public expenditure	316
	64.4 Meaning of "taxation"	317
	64.5 Drafting history	317
Article 65	Previous Advisory Bodies Maintained
	65.1 System of establishing advisory bodies	318
	65.2 Right to participate in public affairs	318
	65.3 Drafting history	319
SECTION 3: THE LEGISLATURE
Article 66	LegCo is the Legislature
	66.1 Drafting history	319
Article 67	Eligibility of LegCo Members
	67.1 Requirements	320
	67.2 Drafting history	320

Article 68	Selection of LegCo Members
68.1	Method for forming LegCo	321
68.2	Provisional LegCo	321
68.3	Drafting history	321
Article 69	Term of Office of LegCo Members
69.1	Drafting history	323
Article 70	Upon Dissolution of LegCo by Chief Executive
70.1	Drafting history	323
Article 71	President of LegCo
71.1	Drafting history	324
Article 72	Powers and Functions of the President of LegCo
72.1	LegCo President has the power to limit and terminate debates	325
72.2	Drafting history	326
Article 73	Powers and Functions of the LegCo
73.1	Amenability of LegCo internal workings to judicial review	327
73.1.1	Possible grounds for review of LegCo processes	328
73.2	Compliance with the Rules is not essential to the validity of an enactment	329
73.3	Lawmaking	329
73.3.1	Article 73(1) pertains to LegCo powers and not rights of legislative councilors	329
73.3.2	Article 73(1) does not confer a right to filibuster	330
73.4	Parliamentary privilege	330
73.5	Article 73(10) may be exercised by select committee	330
73.6	Conduct of inquiries by LegCo	331
73.7	LegCo can exercise powers freely and without fear that something might be said that may prejudice reputations	331
73.8	Drafting history	332
Article 74	Introduction of Members' Bills into LegCo
74.1	Article 74 concerns the introduction of bills rather than their enactment	333
74.2	Drafting history	333

Article 75	Procedural Rules of LegCo
75.1	LegCo can make its own rules of procedure	334
75.2	Drafting history	334
Article 76	Requirement of Signature and Promulgation by Chief Executive
76.1	Drafting history	335
Article 77	Legal Immunity of Members in Relation to Statements
77.1	Immunities	335
77.2	Drafting history	335
Article 78	Legal Immunity of Members Attending or Travelling to Meeting
78.1	Drafting history	336
Article 79	Disqualification of Members of LegCo
79.1	Decisions by President might be amenable to judicial review	337
79.2	Meaning of "convicted and sentenced to imprisonment"	337
79.3	Article 79(6) does not include a suspended sentence	338
79.4	Drafting history	338
SECTION 4: THE JUDICIARY
Article 80	The Courts are the Judiciary
80.1	Judicial power exclusively vested in judiciary	339
80.2	Meaning of "judicial power"	340
80.2.1	Judicial power carries with it all powers that are necessary to effectively exercise it	340
80.2.2	Judicial power includes power to make remedial interpretations	340
80.3	Changing indeterminate sentences is a judicial rather than executive power	341
80.3.1	Mandatory minimum sentences	342
80.4	Drafting history	342
Article 81	Establishment of the Courts
81.1	Systemic continuity pre- and post-1 July 1997	343
81.2	Common law remains the foundation of the Hong Kong legal system	344
81.3	Drafting history	344

Article 82	Power of Final Adjudication Vested in Court of Final Appeal
82.1	Routes of appeal	345
82.2	Limits on right to appeal subject to proportionality test	346
82.3	Qualifications of judges from other common law jurisdictions	347
82.4	Appellate jurisdiction	347
82.5	Drafting history	347
Article 83	Structure, Powers, and Functions of Courts Prescribed by Law
83.1	The operation of the judiciary must be "prescribed by law"	348
83.2	Drafting history	348
Article 84	Adjudication of Cases
84.1	Doctrine of precedent	349
84.1.1	The CFA may on occasion depart from precedent	349
84.1.2	Relevance of overseas precedent	350
84.2	The CFA sits at the apex of judicial system	351
84.3	The common law in Hong Kong	351
84.4	Drafting history	352
Article 85	Independent Judicial Power
85.1	The courts of Hong Kong exercise independent judicial power	353
85.2	Characteristics of an independent judiciary	353
85.2.1	Judicial adoption of prosecution's opening statement	354
85.3	Drafting history	354
Article 86	Trial by Jury Maintained
86.1	Trial by jury	355
86.1.1	Person accused of indictable offence liable to be tried on indictment	355
86.2	Role of jury vs role of Judge	356
86.3	Drafting history	356
Article 87	Principles and Rights Previously Applied Maintained; Right to a Fair Trial
87.1	Article 87 assists in ensuring predictability in the courts following the resumption of Chinese sovereignty	357

87.2	Article 87 guarantees the right to a fair trial	357
87.2.1	Not all aspects of the right to a fair trial are absolute	358
87.2.2	Extent of prosecution's duty of disclosure in order to ensure fair trial	359
87.2.3	Prosecution under duty to disclose relevant material	359
87.2.4	Both admissible and non-admissible evidence must be disclosed	360
87.3	Presumption of innocence	360
87.4	Reverse onus provisions	362
87.4.1	Reverse onus must be reasonable and proportionate response to real need and consistent with presumption of innocence	362
87.4.2	Reverse onus provision: use of remedial interpretation to impose evidential onus only	363
87.4.3	Evidentiary onus	364
87.5	Prosecution must prove mens rea	364
87.6	Privilege against self-incrimination	365
87.6.1	Privilege against self-incrimination is not absolute	365
87.6.2	Examples where privilege cannot be relied upon	366
87.7	Criminal penalties	367
87.7.1	Mandatory life sentences	367
87.7.2	Effect of provision for lighter penalty coming into force subsequent to commission of offence	367
87.8	Power of Post-Release Supervision Board	368
87.9	Publication bans	368
87.10	Failure of counsel to perform duties adequately	368
87.11	Fair trial and juries	369
87.12	Drafting history	369
Article 88	Appointment of Judges
88.1	Judicial Officers Recommendation Commission	370
88.2	Drafting history	370
Article 89	Removal of Judges
89.1	Independence of the Judiciary	372
89.2	Drafting history	372

Article 90	The Chief Justice
90.1	Drafting history	373
Article 91	Appointment and Removal of Other Members of Judiciary
91.1	Judicial appointments	374
91.2	Drafting history	374
Article 92	Recruitment of Foreign Judges
92.1	Judges from other common law jurisdictions	375
92.2	Drafting history	375
Article 93	Employment Security of Judges
93.1	Meaning of “no less favourable than before”	376
93.2	Pension benefits governed by legislation	377
93.3	Drafting history	377
Article 94	Foreign Lawyers
94.1	Legislation	378
94.2	Drafting history	378
Article 95	Judicial Relationships with Other Parts of China
95.1	Agreements and legislation	378
95.2	Mainland sovereignty	379
95.3	No duty	379
95.4	Drafting history	379
Article 96	Juridical Assistance with Foreign States
96.1	Meaning of “appropriate arrangements”	380
96.2	Providing judicial assistance does not require reciprocity	380
96.3	Drafting history	381
SECTION 5: DISTRICT ORGANIZATIONS
Article 97	Establishment of District Organizations
97.1	The Government has the power but not obligation to create District Organisations	382
97.2	Legislation	382
97.3	Drafting history	382

Article 98	Powers and Functions of District Organizations Prescribed by Law
98.1	Meaning of “prescribed by law”	383
98.2	Drafting history	383
SECTION 6: PUBLIC SERVANTS
Article 99	Eligibility to be Public Servant and Obligations
99.1	Drafting history	384
Article 100	Employment Security of Public Servants
100.1	Meaning of “no less favourable than before”	385
100.2	Constitutionality of bilingualism requirement for civil servants	385
100.3	Drafting history	386
Article 101	Foreign Public Servants
101.1	Drafting history	387
Article 102	Retirement of Public Servants
102.1	Drafting history	389
Article 103	Meritocratic System for Public Servants
103.1	Meaning of “Hong Kong’s previous system of recruitment... shall be maintained”	390
103.2	Legislation	390
103.3	Drafting history	390
Article 104	Obligation to Uphold Basic Law and Swear Allegiance to HKSAR
104.1	Meaning of “in accordance with law”	392
104.2	“Oath-taking controversy” of 2016	392
104.3	Legislation	395
104.4	Drafting history	395

CHAPTER V ECONOMY

SECTION 1: PUBLIC FINANCE, MONETARY AFFAIRS, TRADE, INDUSTRY AND COMMERCE

Article 105	Private Property Rights and Compensation for Deprivation
105.1	Article 105 is to be construed generously	397

105.1.1 Private property is a fundamental right; proportionality test therefore implicated	398
105.2 Meaning of "property"	399
105.3 Article 105 could recognise legitimate expectations of property rights	399
105.4 Meaning of "acquisition, use, disposal and inheritance of property"	400
105.5 Meaning of "deprivation"	401
105.5.1 Whether deprivation must be accompanied by state acquisition	402
105.5.2 General situations which will not ordinarily constitute deprivation	403
105.5.3 Dismissal of claims of deprivation	404
105.5.4 "Real value" of the property concerned	404
105.5.5 Compensation for deprivation of property	405
105.6 Ownership of external enterprises and investments	405
105.7 Drafting history	406
Article 106 Financial Independence of HKSAR
106.1 The Government is its own sovereign in terms of financial matters	407
106.2 Drafting history	407
Article 107 Core Budgetary Principles
107.1 Drafting history	408
Article 108 Independent Taxation System
108.1 Drafting history	410
Article 109 Maintenance of HKSAR as International Financial Centre
109.1 Hong Kong as "an international financial centre"	411
109.2 Drafting history	411
Article 110 Monetary and Financial System Prescribed by Law
110.1 Legislation	412
110.2 Challenges	412
110.3 Drafting history	413
Article 111 Currency
111.1 Legislation	414
111.2 Drafting history	414

Article 112 Foreign Exchange
112.1 Drafting history	415
Article 113 Exchange Fund
113.1 Legislation	416
113.2 Drafting history	416
Article 114 Free Port
114.1 Drafting history	416
Article 115 Free Trade
115.1 Drafting history	417
Article 116 Separate Customs Territory; Ability to Participate in International Organizations
116.1 Membership in World Trade Organization	417
116.2 Drafting history	418
Article 117 Certificates of Origin
117.1 Drafting history	418
Article 118 Encouragement of Investment and Technological Progress
118.1 Requirement for trademark regime	419
118.2 Drafting history	419
Article 119 Formulation of Policies and Promotion of Various Areas of Trade
119.1 Drafting history	419
SECTION 2: LAND LEASES
Article 120 Recognition of Previous Land Leases
120.1 Article 120 preserves inchoate rights of action relating to land	420
120.2 Limitation periods not reset in 1997	421
120.3 Article 120 recognises modifications of conditions specified in leases granted by colonial-era Government	421
120.4 Drafting history	422
Article 121 Rate Payable
121.1 Meaning of "rateable value"	423
121.2 Legislation	424
121.3 Drafting history	424

Article 122	Rules Applicable to Schedule Lots, Village Lots, Small Houses
122.1	Legislation	425
122.2	Meaning of "lawful successors"	425
122.3	Drafting history	425
Article 123	Where Leases Expire with no Right of Renewal
123.1	Drafting history	426

SECTION 3: SHIPPING

Article 124	Previous System of Shipping Management Maintained
124.1	Legislation	427
124.2	Drafting history	427
Article 125	Authorization to use "Hong Kong, China" on Shipping Register
125.1	Legislation	427
125.2	Drafting history	428
Article 126	Access to Ports
126.1	Legislation	428
126.2	Drafting history	428
Article 127	Operation of Private Shipping Businesses
127.1	Drafting history	429

SECTION 4: CIVIL AVIATION

Article 128	HKSAR to be Centre of International and Regional Aviation
128.1	Legislation	429
128.2	Drafting history	430
Article 129	Previous System of Aviation Management Maintained
129.1	Drafting history	431
Article 130	Responsibility of HKSAR for Routine Management of Civil Aviation
130.1	Cross-border co-operation in airspace management does not contravene Article 130	431
130.2	Drafting history	432

Article 131	Arrangements for Air Services Between HKSAR and Rest of China
131.1	Drafting history	432
Article 132	Role of CPG in Making Arrangements for Air Service Agreements
132.1	Drafting history	433
Article 133	Authorization of HKSAR by CPG re: Air Service Agreements
133.1	Air service agreements in force	434
133.2	Drafting history	435
Article 134	Further Authorization of HKSAR by CPG re: Air Services
134.1	Drafting history	435
Article 135	Continued Operation of Airlines Incorporated and Operating Primarily in HKSAR
135.1	Drafting history	436

CHAPTER VI EDUCATION, SCIENCE, CULTURE, SPORTS, RELIGION, LABOUR AND SOCIAL SERVICES

Article 136	Policies on Educational Institutions
136.1	Meaning of "abandoning the previous system"	437
136.2	Drafting history	439
Article 137	Autonomy of Educational Institutions
137.1	Meaning of "educational institutions of all kinds"	440
137.2	The autonomy of educational institutions is not absolute	440
137.2.1	Autonomy of religious organisations narrower under Article 137 than Article 141	441
137.3	Meaning of "academic freedom"	442
137.3.1	Academic freedom vested in institutions	442
137.3.2	Violations of academic freedom	443
137.3.3	Autonomy in the legal profession and universities	444
137.4	Drafting history	444
Article 138	Policies on Medical Institutions
138.1	Legislation	445
138.2	Drafting history	445

Article 139	Policies on Science, Technology, and Patents
139.1	Legislation	446
139.2	Basic Law does not require specific forms of protection	446
139.3	Treaties	447
139.4	Drafting history	447
Article 140	Policies on Other Intellectual Property
140.1	Legislation	448
140.2	Treaties	448
140.3	Drafting history	448
Article 141	Policies on Religious Organizations
141.1	Meaning of "according to previous practice"	449
141.2	What is a religion?	449
141.3	The nature of the protection afforded to religious organisations by Article 141(3)	450
141.4	The meaning of "according to previous practice"	450
141.5	Article 141 does not imply policies cannot be changed	451
141.6	Drafting history	451
Article 142	Regulating the Professions
142.1	Legislation	452
142.2	Drafting history	453
Article 143	Policies on Sports
143.1	Drafting history	453
Article 144	Policies on Subventions for Non-Governmental Organizations
144.1	Article 144 does not prevent the Government from continually improving policies aimed at improving social welfare through subventions to NGOs	454
144.2	Drafting history	455
Article 145	General Clause on Improving the Above Policies
145.1	Relationship with Article 144	455
145.2	The right to change the social welfare system lies solely with the Government	455
145.2.1	The Government is afforded a margin of discretion when allocating scarce welfare resources amongst the population	456

145.3	Article 145 does not necessarily confer a right to social welfare, but does contemplate changes and improvements in response to social needs	456
145.4	Drafting history	457
Article 146	Policies on Voluntary Organizations
146.1	Drafting history	457
Article 147	Policies on Labour
147.1	Drafting history	458
Article 148	The Relationship Between NGOs and Religious Organizations
148.1	Drafting history	458
Article 149	Freedom of NGOs to Develop Foreign Relations
149.1	Drafting history	459
CHAPTER VII EXTERNAL AFFAIRS
Article 150	Ability of Representatives of HKSAR to Participate in Chinese Diplomatic Delegations
150.1	Representatives of the Government	461
150.2	"Negotiations at the diplomatic level" means engagement in foreign affairs	461
150.3	Drafting history	461
Article 151	When Representatives of HKSAR Can Participate in External Affairs Using the Name "Hong Kong, China"
151.1	"Hong Kong, China"	462
151.2	Powers within Article 151	463
151.3	Conclusion of treaties not requiring CPG's assistance or authorisation	463
151.3.1	Conclusion of "arrangements" with States/entities not recognised by China	463
151.3.2	Circumstances when CPG assistance or authorisation is mandatory	464
151.3.3	Whether included "appropriate fields" is an exhaustive list	464
151.4	Implementation of international agreements in the HKSAR	464

151.5	Legislation	465
151.6	Drafting history	465
Article 152	When Representatives of HKSAR Can Participate in International Organizations or Conferences Using the Name "Hong Kong, China"; Duty of CPG to Assist in Such
152.1	Purpose of Article 152	466
152.2	Where membership in international organisations is limited to States	466
152.3	Drafting history	466
Article 153	Application to HKSAR of International Agreements Signed by PRC
153.1	Purpose	468
153.2	Pre- and post-1997 treaties	468
153.3	Treaties concluded for HKSAR only	468
153.4	The relationship between Articles 153(1) and 151	468
153.5	Implementation in Hong Kong of international agreements to which the PRC is not a party	469
153.6	Drafting history	470
Article 154	Passports and Immigration Controls
154.1	Wide margin of discretion	471
154.2	Scope of Judicial Review	473
154.3	Principle of Equality as a Constraint on Discretion	474
154.4	Passports	475
154.4.1	Purpose	475
154.4.2	Legislation	476
154.4.3	"Right" to an HKSAR passport	476
154.4.4	Information recorded in passports	476
154.5	Drafting history	477
Article 155	Visa Abolition Agreements
155.1	Meaning of "assist or authorise"	478
155.2	Drafting history	479
Article 156	Ability of HKSAR to Establish Overseas Economic and Trade Missions
156.1	Drafting history	479
Article 157	Foreign Consular or Other Missions in HKSAR
157.1	Purpose	480

157.2	Legislation	480
157.3	Drafting history	480

CHAPTER VIII INTERPRETATION AND AMENDMENT OF THE BASIC LAW

Article 158	The Interpretative Powers of the NPCSC and the Court of Final Appeal
158.1	Division of the interpretive power under Article 158	484
158.2	The CFA's interpretive power	484
158.2.1	Interpretation by the local courts is done using common law principles	484
158.2.2	The Basic Law is a "living instrument"	485
158.2.3	The Basic Law is to be interpreted in a flexible manner with reference to its purpose	485
158.2.4	The interpretive wishes of the drafters of the Basic Law are not relevant	486
158.2.5	Extrinsic materials may have value in interpretation	487
158.2.5.1	Limits on use of extrinsic materials	487
158.2.5.2	References to extrinsic materials by the NPCSC in an Interpretation does not endow those materials with special status	488
158.2.5.3	Pre-enactment extrinsic materials are of significantly more interpretive value than post-enactment materials	488
158.3	When the local courts must seek an Interpretation from the NPCSC	489
158.3.1	Seeking an interpretation from the NPCSC is a precisely defined duty rather than a general power of the CFA	489
158.3.2	Reference to be made only when the CFA determines both the classification and necessity conditions are met	490
158.3.3	Determining the classification question is about the character of the provision in question, not its effects	491
158.3.4	The "predominant provision test"	491

158.3.5 CFA's authority in determining the classification of a provision	492
158.3.6 The future of the two-part test	492
158.4 Plenary authority of the NPCSC to Interpret the Basic Law	493
158.4.1 Interpretation upon referral from CFA	496
158.4.2 Interpretation upon request of HKSAR government	496
158.4.3 Effects of an NPCSC Interpretation	497
158.4.3.1 NPCSC Interpretations as legislative "supplements"	498
158.5 NPCSC Committee for the Basic Law	498
158.6 List of NPCSC Interpretations	499
158.7 Drafting history	500
Article 159 The Process of Amending the Basic Law
159.1 The various amending procedures	501
159.2 Interpretation vs amendment	502
159.3 Procedure	502
159.4 Defect: no public approval of amendment required	502
159.5 Amendments	503
159.6 Drafting history	503

CHAPTER IX SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

Article 160 Validity of Laws Previously in Force
160.1 Purpose	505
160.2 Procedure for changing laws that violate Basic Law	506
160.3 Meaning of "the procedure as prescribed by law"	506
160.4 Annexes	506
160.5 General principle of continuity	506
160.6 No requirement that laws previously in force in Hong Kong be formally adopted upon resumption of sovereignty	507
160.7 Meaning of "Amended or cease to have force"	507
160.8 Drafting history	507

Appendix 1	《中華人民共和國香港特別行政區基本法》	515
Appendix 2	Interpretations by the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress	561
Appendix 3	Cases Adopting a Remedial Interpretation	571
Appendix 4	Cases Declaring Legislation as Unconstitutional	577
Appendix 5	Cases Suspending the Declaration of Unconstitutionality	583
Appendix 6	Cases Citing International and/or Comparative Law
	International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights	585
	International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights	608
	European Convention on Human Rights	613
	Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms	637
	Constitution of the United States of America	641
	New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990	644
	Academic Bibliography	647
	Index	733