

Table of contents

Introduction

Christoph H Vaagt
Law Firm Change Consultants

General aspects of law firm strategies

Strategy in law firms – what it is and why we should care

Bente R Løwendahl
BI Norwegian Business School

The role of professional ethics in shaping law firms' strategy

Tomasz Wardyński
Wardyński & Partners

Drivers of change – driving strategy in law firms

Mats Anderson
clear blue water

How to drive change in a partnership setting

Wolf-Peter Gross
Law Firm Change Consultants

Changes to the business model of firms

Resource side strategies

Resource based approach to strategy

Dina Gracheva
Hilti Group

Culture of collaboration as a neglected driver of profitability

Heidi K Gardner
Harvard Law School

Career path in law firms

Business models and evolving digital technologies

Rob Millard
Cambridge Strategy Group

Improving efficiency in law firms, the increasing role of business services in running a firm's business and legal tech

Legal project management: efficiency of legal services

Outsourcing of business services

Market side strategies

The global law firm, the national champion and the small practice: successful market niche strategies

The new normal

Professionalising the pricing and procurement processes

Silvia Hodges Silverstein
Buying Legal Council

How to screw up your international expansion

How (not) to merge

Lisa R Smith
Fairfax Associates

Winning and keeping clients

E Leigh Dance
ELD International LLC

Corporate reputation: definitions and dimensions

The threat of substitution: how to cope with increasing in-housing of legal services

New entrants in the legal services market: TechFirms, Hybrid firms et al and the future of the legal market

About the authors