

Contents

Executive summary

About the authors

Chapter 1: Creating and implementing a law firm succession plan
By Sandra Boyer, Legus International

Chapter 2: When and how to have retirement and succession planning conversations
By Kathleen Brady, Preferred Transition Resources

Chapter 3: Identifying and developing successors
By Hermann Knott, KUNZ Law

Chapter 4: How to retain clients when senior partners retire
By Susan Saltonstall Duncan, Rainmaking Oasis

Chapter 5: Rainmaker succession
By Jaap Bosman, TGO Consulting

Chapter 6: The role of compensation in succession planning
By August J Aquila, Aquila Global Advisors LLC

Chapter 7: Diversity considerations in succession planning:
future-proofing law firms through diversity
By Pam Loch, Loch Associates

Chapter 8: Financial considerations in succession planning
By Veronica Mann, Talis Financial Advisers

Chapter 9: Succession in founder-led firms

By Robert Millard, Cambridge Strategy Group; David Shufflebotham, PEPUp.consulting; and Zulon Begum, CM Murray

Chapter 10: Sole practitioners selling their practice

By Shelley Dunstone, Legal Circles

Chapter 11: Why lawyers and law firms find it difficult to deal with retirement and succession; ways of approaching the problems

By Ronnie Fox, Fox & Partners